Of Valuable Real Estate.

In the District Court of the United States for the Western District of Pennsylvania. In the matter of JAMES V. YOUNG, Bankrupt.

No. 3583 in Bankruptcy. Trustee's sale of valuable real estate.

By virtue of an order of the District Court of the United States for the Western District of Pennsylvania in the above stated case, to me directed, there will be exposed to public sale by auction or outcry on the premises first hereinafter described, on Main street, Reynoldsville, Jefferson county, Pa., being the residence of the said James V. Young, on Thursday, the 14th day of November, A. D. 1907, at 2:00 o'clock in the afternoon, all the following described several pieces or parcels of land, situate in the boroughs of Reynoldsville and West Reynoldsville, and the township of Winslow, county of Jefferson and state of Pennsylvania, bounded and described as follows, to-wit:

THE FIRST THEREOF: A certain lot or piece of land lying and being situate in the borough of Reynoldsville, county of Jefferson and state of Pennsylvania, bounded and described as follows: Beginning at a post, corner of Main and Caldwell (now Second) streets; thence south 67 degrees west 150 feet to a post on Gordon alley; thence along Gordon alley south 52 degrees east, 60 feet to a post, corner of lot No. 11; thence north 67 degrees east 150 feet to a post on Main street; thence along Main street north 52 degrees west 60 feet to a post, the place of beginning. Containing nine thousand square feet, and being lot No. 12 in Albert Reynolds' addition to the borough of Reynoldsville, as surveyed by James Caldwell.

The above described land has erected thereon three dwelling houses and other necessary outbuildings. The first of said dwelling houses is large, commodious, convenient and in first class condition of repair, having a bath and closet; and the second thereof is a good tenement house which rents readily at a fair rental; and the third thereof is a new one story two roomed tenement which will rent for a reasonable sum.

THE SECOND THEREOF: Being a certain lot of land lying and being situate in the township of Winslow, county and state aforesaid, bounded and described as follows, to-wit: Beginning at a post on the public road, the southeast corner of land of Henry Herpel; thence along said road south 20 degrees and 50 minutes east 50 feet to a post; thence along other lands of Jacob Booth north 76 degrees and 25 minutes west 150 feet, more or less to a post in another road; thence along said road northwest 50 feet to a post on line of lands of Henry Herpel; thence south 76 degrees and 25 minutes east 150 feet to a post, the place of beginning. Containing seven thousand five hundred (7,500) square feet, more or less, being the same lot of land conveyed to James V. Young by Jacob Booth et ux, by deed dated August 25, 1903. Excepting and reserving therefrom all the coal and other minerals and mines in, under or upon the same, with full and free leave of ingress, egress and regress to the said tract of land, as fully and completely as excepted and reserved in the deed of the Central Land and Mining Company to said Jacob Booth.

THE THIRD THEREOF: Being an equity interest in an Article of Agreement, dated November 2nd 1903, between David Reynolds and Jonathan Whitmore, for the sale by said Reynolds to said Whitmore of lots Nos. 147 and 148, in David Reynolds addition to the borough of Reynoldsville, county and state aforesaid, bounded and described as follows: On the west by Anna street, on the north by lot No. 149; on the east by Nell alley, and on the south by Jack Gibson. Each of said lots being 150 x 50 feet.

The consideration agreed to be paid by said Whitmore to said Reynolds was Four Hundred Dollars ($400), as follows: Fifty dollars in hand at the time said agreement was made, and Five dollars each month thereafter until the said Four Hundred dollars was paid, when said Reynolds agreed to convey said lots to said Whitmore by Warranty Deed.

On June 18th, A. D. 1906, for value received, the said Jonathan Whitmore sold, set over and transferred, by a written assignment on said agreement, all his right, title and interest in said Article of Agreement and Lots, to the said James V. Young. There has been paid by said Whitmore and said Young, on said agreement, the sum of One Hundred and Five Dollars, thus leaving a balance of Two Hundred and Ninety-Five dollars due said Reynolds, and by a writing duly signed by said David Reynolds and attached and made a part of the petition filed in this case, he, the said David Reynolds, agrees to extend the terms and conditions of the above mentioned Agreement to the purchaser thereof at this sale, and make a deed to such purchaser for said lots upon the payment of the balance of said purchase money.

The aforesaid described pieces of land and the equity interest in said Agreement will be sold free and discharged from all liens, except the two lots mentioned in the aforesaid Agreement, which will be sold subject to the payment of the balance of said purchase money, subject to the terms of payment mentioned in the original contract for the purchase thereof; and said real estate will be sold either as a whole or by the piece, at the discretion of the undersigned so as to bring the best possible price.

PROVED HIS ABILITY.

A Tenderfoot's Wonderful Feat in Herding Sheep.

In the west they tell this story about the east, perhaps by way of retaliation for some of the tall stories about the west that they tell down east.

A young man, just graduated from an eastern institution of learning, went to the west and applied at a large ranch for a job.

"What can you do?" asked the owner.

"Nothing much, but I'm willing to work and can learn," replied the eager applicant.

"Know how to ride a horse?"

"No, I never rode one in my life."

"Rather a slim chance for you to be useful here, I'm afraid."

"What have you to do for a man if he could ride?"

"Herding sheep."

"I think I could get along at that very well without a horse."

"Young man, I'm afraid you don't know much about this business. I have a large ranch here and some thousands of sheep. A man without a horse would make a pretty poor show."

"Well, I'll tell you; when I was at college I was the champion sprinter of the institution. I believe I could do you some good service. I have a long distance record too. I wish you'd give me a chance and let us see what I can do."

With a good natured but pitying smile the ranchman said all right and bade his new man to get some supper, turn in and be ready to go to work early the next morning.

When the employer rose next morning he saw the new employee coming in from the direction of the sheep quarters. Somewhat surprised at the young fellow's enterprise in getting up so early, he accosted him:

"Well, you're up and ready to go to work, are you?"

"Oh, my, yes! I've been at work for two or three hours."

Then the ranchman noted that the tenderfoot was dressed in working clothes, a sweater, and already looked rather flushed. "What have you been doing?" he asked.

"Driving those lambs into the corral."

"What lambs? I have no lambs. This is not the lamb season."

"Well, I chased eighty-five of them in, and I tell you I had a time of it too."

The ranchman went with the young tenderfoot to see what the story he told was about.

And, sure enough, huddled up together, frightened and tired out, were eighty-five wild jackrabbits.

"All right, young man; I think you'll do," said the ranchman.—Chicago Record-Herald.

A Bismarck Duel.

A duel in which Bismarck was once engaged had a very amusing origin. It occurred when he was chief secretary of the Prussian legation at Frankfurt. He went much into society and one Christmas attended a big ball. During the height of the festivities Bismarck's attention was directed to an exceedingly pompous individual who strutted about the room. This was a M. de Clancy, a noted French duelist. Later on this important individual took part in the dance, but having omitted to leave his hat at the proper place had perforce to hold it out almost at arm's length while he danced. The spectacle tickled Bismarck immensely, and as the Frenchman came sailing majestically along, Bismarck stepped forward and dropped a coin into the hat. A duel was one of the next day's events. Though it was with pistols Bismarck escaped unharmed, while his adversary was wounded.

ENGLISH LOCAL SPEECH.

Peculiar Way the Names of Some Towns Are Pronounced.

We English are horribly phonetic and think nothing of spelling our name Featherstonehaugh and pronouncing it Beecham. If you motor you must twist your tongue to the local speech. There is a quiet village in Kent that is spelled Stallsfield and has achieved the distinction of keeping a railway station at nine miles distance. But if you ask your way to it you must call it Starchfield or you will never find it. Huntingdonshire claims the purest English, as Hanover the purest German. But by the peasants Papworth is called Parpor. And not far distant is another village of beauty. The motorist turned upon a rough road and asked the intelligent laborer where it would take him. "That road," said the honest countryman, wiping his brow, "will take you to 'Eil, sir." The courageous motorist went on and found Ellsworth, which is merely Ellser.

The trouble as to the pronunciation of place names makes one very diffident, a correspondent complains, as to venturing upon pronouncing any that one knows only by the eye and not by the ear. Being a Suffolk man, he knows that Waldringfield is Wimmerful and Chelmondiston is Chinston, while in the adjoining county of Norfolk Happisburgh is Hazebro and Hunstanton Hunston, and visits to the west country have revealed that Badgeworthy is Badgery and Cornwood Kerwood. The result is that he would not dare to make a shot at Uttoxeter or Bathampton, never having happened to hear either referred to by a native. After all, there are unfortunate differences of opinion among Londoners, even as to Southwark, Brompton and the two Bromleys.—London Chronicle.

Don't Be Too Thoughtful.

Some people are often accused of being thoughtful, but better that should happen sometimes than always being regarded as too thoughtful. The habit of thinking too deeply on every item has an immense amount of failure at the bottom.

Whether it was best to learn shorthand or a language perplexed one individual for seven months. He could not make up his mind as to which he would derive the most advantage from. He might have learned any one of those accomplishments in the time he took to think about it.

This is the case with many people, and Fortune has an awkward habit of crushing the too thoughtful just as much as the thoughtless.—London Answers.

What is Sound?

The natural question, "What is sound?" opens up a world of mystery and of delight to those that like that sort of thing. Anything that sets up vibrations in the air, where there is an ear to receive them, makes a noise. An alarm clock in a vacuum jar may whirl ever so busily, but it makes no noise. There must be air or there is no sound, and there must be an ear to carry the vibrations to the brain or there is no noise.—DeLinitator.

Pain Kills

Some People

Pain kills many people from the simple fact that it wears them out, robs them of peace of mind by day and rest by night. All the opiates in the world will not cure it. The condition calls for a nerve tonic that will give strength and resistive power to the nervous system and enable it to throw off the trouble. Mrs. Wm. Spencer of 105 Granger St., Syracuse, N. Y., tells you clearly just how she obtained a positive relief in her case. She says: "I was always nervous, but of late years I could not sleep, was intensely nervous, ringing sounds in the ears and sharp pains in my head at night. My strength was way down—had attacks of vertigo when I was so dizzy I had to catch hold of something until it passed off. This condition certainly needed attention as it was growing steadily worse. Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills were recommended to me and I used them. The results were splendid—the nerves became quiet—the noises, pain and ringing in the head together with the dizzy spells disappeared completely and I began to sleep well again. The general strength came back and as a result I feel well every way again." See a box at all dealers or Dr. A. W. Chase Medicine Co., Buffalo, N. Y.
