

Boys Look Best in XTRAGOOD Clothes

At school—on Sunday—anywhere and at all times you want your boys to look as well as any. And better if possible.

It all depends on the clothes you buy. Most kinds lack fit, shape, style, neatness and good taste; poor materials and poorer tailoring are responsible.

XTRAGOOD are entirely different; made after a higher standard, under better conditions, of superior fabrics, by smarter workmen. In making clothes of better quality and more durability, the manufacturers produce garments that also look right. Clothing made as XTRAGOOD is, lacks nothing in appearance or wearing qualities.

Let us show our styles for boys and children. Ages 2½ to 17. Prices $5 to $12.

THE HIGH SCHOOL BULLETIN

Editor-in-Chief, Graydon Robinson.
Senior Reporter, Alex Gillespie
Junior Reporter, Fonda King
Sophomore Reporter, Sadie Ford
Freshman Reporter, George Smith

Last Saturday the R. H. S. did battle with the Clearfield High School team at Clearfield and met defeat 11-0. The home team played the worst game they ever played, fumbling like a pack of two year olds. Clearfield made both touchdowns on fumbles by the home team. Clearfield scored both times in the first half. In the latter part of the first half Robertson, Reynoldsville's quarter-back, was put out of the game with a broken ankle. This accident completely took the heart out of the team and we feel confident had it not been for the accident we would have tied the score. Clearfield could not gain through our line nor around our ends and outside of one end run made all their gains by kicking. Reynoldsville was especially weak in handling punts. In the second half both teams seemed to pick up and neither side made many noticeable gains. Time of halves twenty minutes. Umpire Law Sykes.

Next Saturday the High School team goes to Johnsonburg to play the H. S. team of that place. Johnsonburg has a fast team but with several new players we expect to make a good showing against them. They come here Thanksgiving day and will be spoken of later.

We regret very much that one of our team has been hurt and know that it will furnish much food for thought in our town. But let us look at the best side. The H. S. has had a team for four years and this is the fifth game this year. In all this time Mr. Robertson is the first one seriously hurt and that is a whole lot better than most towns. The whole High School, and especially those who are members of the team, express their regret and sympathy for Mr. Robertson and hope he will soon be able to be with us again.

Misses Florence and Marian Harris went to Clearfield Saturday with the team and stayed at the home of a friend until Sunday afternoon.

The H. S. basket ball team organized last week and elected the following officers: Captain, Eugene Murray; Manager, Alex Gillespie; Treasurer, Edgar Shields. The team will play in the Theater this year and the public may expect good, fast games.

Q stands for queer,
And Q stands for quaint,
But that makes the world
Just like what it aint.

The DuBois H. S. eleven was engaged to play in Reynoldsville Thursday but cancelled the game Tuesday. Another team will be secured however and the people may be sure of seeing a first-class game.

Last Monday morning Rev. J. A. Parsons attended our chapel exercises and conducted the devotional service. Afterwards Rev. Parsons gave a very agreeable account of his experiences on a recent trip to his old home in Canada. The talk greatly pleased the scholars and they are glad to welcome anyone to our chapel exercises.

"We wah! We wah! We wah weh!
We're the class of 1910."

Miss McClure spent a delightful Saturday with friends in Panoost.

In the chapel, O ye students,
Where the boys come daily slow,
And the footfalls of the Freshmen
Softly come and softly go;
When the sophomores are singing
In a deep and solemn flow,
Will you think to "stamp," O Freshmen,
As you did one year ago?

Q. What is that which has leaves but no stem? A. A book.

"Can you tell me what a smile is?"
"Yes, sir," answered Jane. "It's the whisper of a laugh."

Hope is brightest when it dawns from fear. How about it, Annabel?

We are pleased to welcome back to our classes Miss Gertrude Stoke. Miss Stoke spent several days of the past week at her home nursing an aching tooth.

Freshman (in arithmetic class) If this is this and that is that, wouldn't this be that?
Prof. Hepler.—Yes,—no!

Earl—"My, but I do like peach pie."

Any visitors to Clearfield should be aware of "peach pie." One of our players was nearly knocked out with some.

The lecture course is still prospering. Prof. Hepler, wishing to know more about our first number—Hruby Bros., Nov. 11—wrote to several acquaintances who had heard them regarding their performances. He received nothing but praise and we can guarantee this number to please everybody.

VIA BOLSHORA.

The morning breaks with somber innocence,
The golden sun ne'er more shall shine so bright;
And sinking in the westward at the even,
The darkness falls about me with the night.

And I'm lonely, oh, so lonely!
Thus revolve the wheels of fate;
But my memories ever wander
With that good old class of '08.

Oh, I miss you as a dear close friend,
A dream that's wasted on the desert plain;
And my thoughts are wont to wander
And be with you once again.

Does my class in its due progress,
Ever stop to think of me;
And though I myself am distant,
Old '08, my heart's with thee.

Will you ever forget contentions,
Class battles and our friendly frays?
Lay aside unpleasant rivalries,
Carol to our better lays.

And you'll go on without me,
Play your cards all for the best,
And one who fell by the wayside
Ruefully chiders along the rest.

But dear old class, how I shall miss you,
Think of you from dawn till late,
But I fear I'm but a memory
Of that once my class of '08.
