The * Star.

Subscription $1.00 per year in advance. C.A. STEPHENSON Editor and Pub.

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 30, 1907. Entered at the postoffice at Keynoldsville a., as second class mail matter.

SUMMERVILLE TELEPHONENO, 61.

$2.70 worth of Sanitol for $1.00

SANITOL'S GREAT INTRODUCTORY OFFER

Ten standard toilet articles for $1.00, value $2.70. Call at our store and we will tell you the particulars of this great introductory .ffer of the Sanitol Chemical Laboratory Company.

A Little of Everything.

"The Toymakers" at Park Theatre Nov. 5

J. Van Reed and Francis W. Groves have had their pensions increased to $12.00 per month.

Mrs. J. C. McEntire, who has been critically ill the past week, was a little better yesterday.

Mrs. J. B. Nichols scalded her left arm very badly, from elbow to wrist. last Thursday afternoon.

Big time at Reynoldsville to-morrow night. If you want to have a good time come to Reynoldsville.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Lutheran church is preparing to hold a bazaar sometime in December.

The choir of the Methodist Episcopal church will give a concert in the church on Thanksgiving evening, Nov. 28.

Saturday a trolley car jumped the track on Fifth street and tore up considerable of the new brick paving.

A social will be held at the Rathmel school building Saturday evening of this week. Everybody invited to at-

Don't miss seeing "The Toymakers" at the Park Theatre on Tuesday night, Nov. 5. Tickets on sale at McEntire's drug store Ten new members were taken into the Presbyterian church Sunday morning, nine by letter and one or confession of faith. "Crime and Crimi s" will be the subject of Rev. A. D. McKay's sermon in the Presbyterian church next Sunday morning.

A number of Reynoldsville people went to DuBeis Monday night to see DeWolf Hopper in "Happyland" at the Avenue Theatre.

Next Tuesday evening, Nov. 5, "The Toymakers" will be presented at the Park theatre by an excellent company.

It will be a good show.

Five weeks sld daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Mouk, died Sunday night and was buried yesterday afternoon iz the Reynoldsville cemetery.

There will be a big time in Reynolds ville Thursday night. Greatest Hallowe'en carnival outside of Pittsburg or Philadelphia. Come and see.

Rev. J. G. Harshaw, at one time pastor of the Emerickville M. E. charge, was recently made presiding elder of the Lawton district. Oklahoma.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Latheran church will hold a market in the Reynoldsville Hardware store next Saturday afternoon and evening.

Arrangements are being made for observing the 28th anniversary of the institution of the Kaights of Pythias lodge in Reynoldsville. The anniversary will be held in November.

The fall session of the Clarion District Conference of the M. E. church was held at Sligo this week. Dr. J. A. Parsons was the only representative from the Beynoldsville M. E. church.

Contractor Thos. E. Evans has com pleted his contract of paving Jackson atreet from Seventh to Fifth, and Fifth from Jackson to Main st., and Willow lley from Gordon alley to Grant

Tuesday of next week, Nov. 5, is election day, at which time one state and two county officers are to be elected, state treasurer, coroner and county surveyor.

At the regular monthly meeting of the Reynoldsvide Building and Loan Association last week the sale of money amounted to $7,000. The largest sale the Association has made for some

J. B. Nichols, who has been manager of the Jefferson Supply Co. stores at Reynoldsville and Soldier some years, will likely move to Indiana to take charge of several company stores in that section.

Mrs. Ira S. Smith and Mrs. George Mellinger gave "fancy work" party to a number of their lady friends Thursday and Friday afternoons of last week at home of Mrs. Smith on Grant street.

Dr. John H. Murray and Dr. L. L. Means went to Big Run Saturday afternoon to play tennis. They defeated Prof. Jackson and Rev. Cowan and were themselves badly defeated by Dr. Newcome and Will H. Tyson.

Twin daughters were born to Mr. and Mrs. George Rhoads, of Manorville, formerly of Reynoldsville, Oct. 13, and both died the following day, October 14. Their names were Marian Cecilia and Mueriel Adelia.

G. J. Simmons, who conducted a restaurant at Dairy, Westmoreland Co., over a year, has sold his restaurant to E. C. Sensor and Jacob Schwem, of Reynoldsville, and Mr. Simmons has returned to this place.

The Post-Dispatch of Sykesville, which was started two and a balf years ago by Otto J. Nupp, the paper being printed in a DuBois office, will soon be printed at Sykesville. Editor Nopp is installing a plant at Sykesville.

The Reynoldsville High School football team was defeated in a game at Clearfield last Saturday afternoon. Full particulars of the game will be found in the "High School Bulletin" in another column of this issue of THE STAR.

The lectures in the Presbyterian church last Thursday and Friday evenings, delivered by Rev. A. R. Longanecker, pastor of the Trinity Lutheran church of DuBois, on the Gospel of John, were very interesting and very instructive.

In nine days subscriptions amounting to $50,000 was raised in Punxsutawney for a Y. M. C. A. building. The financial campaign was closed at midnight Saturday night, and the success of the project was announced by blowing of whistles and ringing of bells.

The Brotherhood of the Presbyterian church have had little boxes put up in the P. R. R. passenger station and other public places in town in which are little booklets on the Gospel according to John, pamphlets, &c., which are free for any person who wants one.

Ex-Burgess Lloyd L. Gourley, who was foreman of the Reynoldsville Volunteer office a number of years, resigned that position to accept a position as reporter on the DuBois Evening Express. Mr. Gourley took up his work in DuBeis on Monday of this

About seventy-five members of the Protected Home Circle went to DuBois Friday evening on special trolley car and attended the special meeting and banquet given by the DuBois Circle. The Reynoldsville people had a very pleasant time and speak very highly of the hospitality of the DuBois Circle.

A crazy man wandered around through the streets of Falls Creek several days last week, to the alarm of the citizens of that borough. County Commissioner McGaw took him to the county bome at Brockville Friday. The man is a stranger in this section and he does got give his name ner from whence he comes.

Wednesday morning, October 23, at the home of the bride's father, W. C. Smith, in the Beechwood Miss Margaret Smith, of Beechweens, and Rob ert Hill, of McVeytown, Mifflin Co. were united in marriage. Rev. George H. Hill, paster of the Beechwoods Presbyterian church, performed the cere-

Miss Julia Kirk, of this place, who taught in the public schools at Punxsutawney last year and several weeks of the present term, resigned her position there to accept a position in the schools of a seburb of Pittsburg at an (ncreased salary of $25.90 more per month than she received at Punxsu-

Clarence M. Leird, brakeman on the Ridge Branch of B. R. & P. R'v. from Creekside to Iselin, had several boxes broken in the back of his left hand on Wednesday of last week. Clarence had a stick in the brake on a box east and was in the act of setting the brake when the engineer turned on the air and the stick hit Clarence on hand.

Miss Imogene Smith, daughter of Ex-Congressman W. O. Smith, of Punxeutawney, and granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. John S. Smith, of Reynoldsville, was operated on at Grube's nospital in Punxautawney Sunday for appendicitis. Miss Smith just re-turned Friday I om the Birmingham School, Birmingham, Pa.

About Ready for Drilling.

The fourth gas well to be put down by the Industrial Oil and Gas Co. of this place, has been located near the power house of the electric light company, as stated in THE STAR several weeks ago. The drillers expect to begin drilling the latter part of this veek.

Murder at DuBois.

About seven o'clock Monday evening a man named Mike Padden was shot on the B., R. & P. R'y passenger platform at DuBois by an Italian. Patton died at the DuBois hospital four or five hours after he was shot. The Italian was arrested at Sykesville Tuesday morning.

Educational Meeting.

An educational meeting, attended by teachers of Reynoldsville, West Reynoldsville, Sykesville and Winslow township, was held in Assembly hall at this place last Friday evening. There were forty teachers present. County Supt. Jones presided. It was a very interesting and profitable meeting.

Adjourned Meeting.

An adjourned meeting of the Clarion Presbytery was held at Corsica Monday evening to install Rev. F. A. Kerns as pastor of the Pisgah Presbyterian church and ordain Rev. Samuel Blacker, of the Concord and Callenburg churches. Rev. A. D. McKay attended the meeting and assisted in the installation and ordination services.

Ex-Commissioner Dead.

Ex-County Commissioner Daniel Brewer, father of two of West Revnoldsville's citizens, S. E. and T. D. Brewer, died at his home at Hamilton, this county, on Wednesday, October 23rd, and was buried at the White Church cemetery. Deceased was Second Lieut. in Company A, 105th Pa. Volunteers during the Civil War. He was 82 years of age. His sons and families from this place attended the

Engineers Change Runs.

Martin J. Gleason, passenger engineer on the Low Grade Division of P. R. R., who has resided with his mother in this place several years, has been assigned to one of the passenger runs between DuBois and Red Bank, with DuBois layover. Mr. Gleason will move his mother to DuBois as soon as he can get a house. Charles Montgomery, who was engineer on the DuBois run Mr. Gleason has taken, and moved from Sligo to DaBois this year, has been given one of the fast mail trains and he will likely move to Driftwood.

Teachers' County Institute.

The 52nd annual session of the teachers' institute of Jefferson county will be held in the Belvedere opera house in Brookville December 15 to 20. The day instructors are: Lee Francis Lybarger, Prof. Paul M. Pearson, Dr. W. W. Black, Dr. J. George Becht, Dr. George E. Vincent, E. O. Excell, musical director, S. B. Hare, soloist, Miss Jennie Jenks, pianist, Falls Creek orchestra.

The evening entertainments as follows:

Monday evening, lecture by Governo Hanley of Indiana; Tuesday evening, lecture by Rev. Robert Stuart MacArthur, of New York; Wednesday evening, recitals by Leland Powers: Thursday evening, The Dunbar Company, Male Quartette and Bell Ringers.

Burglars in West Reynoldsville,

The home of Mead Murphy, West Reynoldsville, was entered by burglars about two o'clock Monday morning and the burglars secured about $20.00 in cash. Entrance was gained through a back window. The lock of the writing desk was picked and the money taken out of the desk. The burglary, evidently, was committed by local talent who had knowledge of place where money was concealed, as nothing else was touched.

Burglaries have been committed in BuBois and Punxeutawney almost every night for the part two weeks, and the pelice of those towns have been unable te apprehend or get any trace of the rebbers. It is supposed that the burglary in those towns is being done by ersons who are well acquainted in the localities where they operate.

Fell Of Fast Freight.

Robert Ewing, of Roup, suburb of Pittsburg, fireman on the P. R. R., fell off a fast freight train between Fuller and Camp Run early Saturday morning and was seriously, if not fatally injured. The train was coming east and was running about thirty-five miles an hour when Fireman Ewing fell off. No one saw him fall off and it is not knows how the seeldent happened. Engineer John Denny did not miss him until the train had run past Camp Run. When the trainmen found Ewing he was unconscious. He was brought to Reynoldsville on the 6.35 a. m. passenger train and was taken to the office of Dr. J. C. King. The doctors found a bad contusion on right temple and fracture of the skull. Ewing was unconscious most of the forenoon. He was taken to the Mercy Hospital in Pittsburg on the 1.29 p. m. train Saturday. He is a young man, recently married.

The candy you buy at the Velvet Candy store is pure, fresh and clean.

FOOT BALL ACCIDENT.

Charles Robertson Had Left Ankle Broken at Clearfield While Playing Saturday.

Charles Robertson, quarterback on Reynoldsville High School foot ball team, met with an accident in the game at Clearfield Saturday afternoon which will make it necessary for him to use crutches for several months. In a rush in the first half of the game Charley's left ankle was broken in two places. A Clearfield doctor reduced the fractures and put a plaster paris cast on ankle and Charley was brought home with the other players Saturday night. Sunday the cast was removed by a home doctor, the ankle examined and a new cast put on it.

This is the fourth year the Reynolds ville High School foot ball team has been playing and this is the first serious accident that has happened to any of the players.

HALLOW'EEN CARNIVAL.

Last Cars Leave Reynoldsville for Punxs'y and Sykesville at 11.30

The Hallow'een carnival and masquerade at Reynoldsville Thursday night will surpass anything of the kind ever attempted in this section of the state. Big parade, red fire and fun galore. A professional costumer will be here and furnish any kind of costumes desired. The parade will be worth coming miles to see. The last trolley cars on the Punxs'y and Sykesville lines will leave Reynoldsville at 11.30 Hallowe'een night. This will give people along the trolley lines an opportunity to enjoy the fun until a ate hour and get home that night.

RIGHT THIGH BROKEN.

Mrs. Peter Baum Met With Accident by Twist of Foot

Mrs. Peter Baum, of Emerickville, mother of our townsman, John H. Baum, broke her right thigh in her home Monday afternoon by twist of leg. Mrs. Baum was turning around when her foot caught in a piece of carpet, twisting her leg and the thigh bone broke. After the fracture Mrs. Baum sank to the floor. Dr. J. C. King was summoned and he reduced the fracture. Mrs. Baum is 78 years old and it is likely the broken bone will be slow in knitting.

Some Papers Increasing Subscriptions. On account of the increased cost within the last year or two of paper, ink, labor, material, etc., that enters into the production of a newspaper, a number of county papers have increased their subscription price from $1.00 to $1.50 per year. None of the Jefferson county weeklies have increased the price yet, but every paper in the county should be increased to $1.50 a year. The Kittanning Times, the first paper in Armstrong county to reduce the subscription price to $1 00 per year, announced last week that after Dec. 1, 1907, the subscription price of the Times would be raised to $1.50 a year.

Attended Jacob Shick's Funeral.

P. W. Yeany and wife, Mrs. S. V. Shick and Miss Bertha Thomas were at Hawthorn Thursday attending the funeral of Jacob Shick, who died at his home at Ohl on Tuesday, October 22nd, and was buried at Hawthorn on Thurs day. Deceased was one of the highly respected old citizens of Beaver township. He was the father of Mrs. Yeany, father-in-law of Mrs Shick and uncle of Miss Thomas

Spirella Corset.

The attention of the ladies of Revnoldsville is respectfully called to the wonderful new Spirella corset, unbreak able, form-fitting and superior to all others. It can be secured from Elberta Douthit at the residence of Goe. Hartman, on Hill street.

Health Notice.

Persons violating the health laws by dumping garbage on lands adjacent the dams of the Reynoldsville Water Co. will hereafter be subject to the severe penalties of the health laws of this M. S. STERLEY, Supt. of Reynoldsville Water Co.

Closing Out Entire Stock.

The Cash New York Racket store is closing out $4,500 worth of stock at 25 cents less than cost to quit bus-

Don't forget the public school entertainment on Monday evening, Nov. 11. The Hruby Bros. Quintet will please you, Reserved seats at Stoke's drug store, Saturday, Nov. 9th.

The monthly meeting of the Foreign Missionary Society will be held at the M. E. parsonage Friday afternoon of this week. Business meeting at 3.00, luncheon at 6.00. Husbands especially invited.

Services in the Trinity Lutheran church next Sunday as follows: Sunday school 9.45 a. m., Reformation service at 11.00 a. m., Luther League 6.30 p. m., Children's Reformation service

Hartman, the drayman, gets all his coal at George Henry's mine.

For dessert with your Sunday dinner try a brick of our ice cream. All flavors. Velvet Ice Cream and Candy Co. Monday.

THE PEOPLE WHO ARE PASSING TO AND FRO.

M. J. Gleason is in Pittsburg this

Miss Fay Neale, of Kane, is visiting Mrs. C. R. Hall visited in Brookville

yesterday. Miss Jessie Shannon spent Sunday in DuBois. Mrs. Rufus Kirk is visiting in Mc-

Keesport. Glen A. Milliren, of Kane, is in town this week.

James Shaner was in Pitssburg the past week.

Mrs. Mabe Harriger is visiting in Summerville. Mrs. D. P. Conrad is visiting in Pittsburg this week. Miss Adda Myers spent Saturday and Sunday in Pittsburg. Misses Etta and Della Brennan spent Sunday in Falls Creek.

John F. Strauss was in Indiana a couple of days last week.

Mrs. Wray Hunter visited her mother in Falls Creek this week.

Mrs. Dr. J. B. Neale, of Kane, is visiting in town this week.

Miss Bernice Mowery visited in Brookville the past week. Mrs. Susan Cochran visited her son in Brookville the past week.

Miss Edna McEntire, of Eleanora, was a visitor in town Sunday. J. W. Dempsey is visiting his son, Earl Dempsey, at Dent's Run. Mrs. C. W. Hoffman, of Rimersburg, was a visitor in town last week.

H. N. Lyons and wife, of Pitteburg, visited their parents last week. Miss Jessie Shannon visited her brother in Brookville last week. William Norris and son, G. D. Norris, were in Pittsburg last week.

Mrs. C. G. Rhoads and son, Clyde, visited at Tyler the past few days. Mrs. Anthony Beatty, of Clarion, is visiting Mrs. Joseph T. Guthrie.

Mrs. Dora Steel, of DuBois, visited her sister, Mrs. A. T. Bing, yesterday. W. W. Fetter and wife visited at Craig. Maysville and Ringgold the past week. Mrs. M. Mohney, of Bellevue, suburb of Pittsburg, was a visitor in town last

Captain Boyles, druggist of Falls Creek, visited his father in this place Sunday.

Mrs. William Northey, of DuBois, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Joseph T.

Mrs. Dr. W. B. Alexander and daughter, Miss Fannie, are in Pittsburg this week. Mrs. Maria Shank, of Lock Haven, visited her niece, Mrs. J. W. Sykes, last week. Arnold P. McKee has moved back to

Pittsburg. Mrs. McKee went to Pitts-Mrs. Martin Phalen left here Saturday morning to visit in Pittsburg and West Virginia. J. A. Henry, of Hamilton, visited his sons, W. C. and S. C. Henry, in this place this week. H. C. Fleming, of Driftwood, visited his sister, Mrs. Robert Z. Parrish, Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Erma Pifer, of Reynoldsville, is visiting her sister, Mrs. J. R. Oswald, in Brookville.

Mrs. R. E. Curry, of DuBois, visited her daughter, Mrs. Cyrus Wells, in this place last week.

Charles Covil and Miss Julia Taylor, of DuBois, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. O. D. O'Dell Sunday.

Lawyer Benjamin R. Kilne, of New

Kensington, spent Sunday with his mother near this place. Garfield Harries, of Johnsonburg, spent Sunday at home of his sister,

Mrs. T. D. Hoon, on Hill st. J. M. Deemer returned a few days ago from a trip to Washington, D. C., and Jamestown Exposition.

dale, are visiting the former's brother, G. W. Swartz, in this place. Miss Nelle E. Sutter, of New Bethlehem, spent Sunday at home of her parents on Pleasant Avenue. Rev. J. P. Hetrick, of Royer's Fords, Pa., visited at homes of Dr. J. C. King and M. C. Coleman the past week,

John Swartz and wife, of Shannon-

W. J. Henry, of Rathmel, moved his family to Pensocala, Florida, last week, where Mr. Henry has employment, Mrs. Charles Hetrick has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Boyer, at Langville the past week. Miss Louisa Herpel, of Allegheny

City, is visiting her brothers, H. W. Herpel and C. C. Herpel, in this place. Mrs. John Cook, of Pittaburg, who was a visitor at home of S. S. Robinson ten days, returned to her home Mon-

Thomas McDonald, of Pittsburg, who was visiting his parents in this place a couple of weeks, returned to Pittsburg

Grant Rhoads was at Sagamore Saturday night in the interest of the Improved Order of Red Men at that

J. J. Sutter and wife and Daniel Sutter spent Monday in Brookville with the former's daughter, Mrs. Dr. H. P.

A. J. Postlethwait and wife, of Pricedale, Pa., are visiting the latter's mother, Mrs. Hannah Butler, in town

Mrs. C. E. Sliffer, of Lock Haven, who was visiting her daughter, Mrs. J. W. Sykes, returned home the first of this week.

Stephen Bone, of Rossiter, spent Saturday and Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bone, Sr., on Worth street.

Mrs. Maggie Foster returned last week from Manorville, where she had been ten days with her daughter, Mrs. George Rhoads.

James Cochran went to Leechburg yesterday to work at his trade-painting. Mr. Cochran expects to work there until spring.

Misses Ella Murphy and Beulah Strouse went to Norfolk, Va., Saturday to visit relatives and take in the Jamestown Exposition. Mrs. Robert E., DeHaven, Misses

Florence DeHaven and Agnes Cromwell, of Bradford, are visiting at home of J. M. Norris in Paradise. George H. Rea, Isaac F. Miller and week attending the meetings of the Bee-Keepers' Association. Amos Strouse, tax collector of Winslow township, and two sons, Willis and Glen, are visiting the former's daugh-

J. E. McPherson are in Harrisburg this ter, Mrs. Wm. W. Huff, in Renovo. Prof. D. W. Morrison, of Tionesta, superintendent of the Forest county schools, spent Sunday with his brotherin-law O. H. Johnston, in this place.

Miss Blanche Thornton, of Pittsburg, former teacher in our public schools, spent Saturday and Sunday in Reynoldsville the guest of Miss Grace

Daniel Sutter, of Lovington, Ill., who was called to Punxeutawney to attend the funeral of his brother, J. M. Sutter, visited his brother, J. J. Sutter, in this place several days, returning home yesterday. George Mellinger and son, Louis O. Mellinger, were called to Miles City, ness of Mr. Mellinger's daughter, Mrs. Fred W. Kriedler, nee Etta Mellinger. Mrs. Kriedler has typhoid fever. Miss Nina Johnston, of Coudersport, Pa., who visited her sister, Mrs. W. W. Higgins, in this place last week, left here Monday for Philadelphia where she will take a course in the

Montana, Saturday by the serious ill-

Samaritan Hospital for trained nurse. Mrs. George G. Williams went to Lewisburg yesterday and from there she and her daughter. Miss Ida Willlams, student in Bucknell University, will go to New York City, N. Y., and Boston, Mass. Miss Ida will attend a fraternity meeting in Boston. Mrs. Michael A. Bussard, of Chicago Innction, Ohio. visited her depnew. J. A. Truitt, in this place the past week. Mrs. Bussard, who will soon be 84 years old, made the trip from Ohio alone and expects to return home alone. She visited in Punxeutawney before coming here and went from here to New Bethlehem Monday to visit a few days before returning to her home.

New Lodge Organized.

The Wage Earners Protective Union. Local No. 2, was organized in the I. O. O. F. hall last evening with following officers: Past President, George Harris: President, Irvin Res: Vice-President, Mrs. Corbett; Secretary, Mrs. Irvin Rea: Treasurer, James W. Hunter; Chaplain; Dr. A. J. Meck; Conductor, Orrie Sheesley; Guard, Mrs. J. E. Smith; Sentinel, Bert S. Burns; Trustees, John Consor, Wm. Rodwell, Joseph Sheesley.

A meeting of the Local will be held at 8.00 p. m. in I. O. O. F. hall next Monday evening, Nov. 4, to decide on future meetings.

A Criminal Attack

On an inoffensive citizen is frequently made in that apparently useless little tube called the "appendix." It's generally the result of protracted constipation, following liver torpor. Dr. King's New Life Pills regulate the liver, pre vent appendicitis, and establish regular habits of the bowels. 25c at Stoke & Feicht Drug Co. store. Reynoldsville and Sykesville.

By buying a ticket over P. R. R. to Falls Creek, 14 cents, and paying a nickel from Falls Creek to DuBois over trolley line a person can go from Reyn-oldsville to center of DuBois for 19

If you are chilly there is nothing that will do you more good than one of those hot sodas at the Velvet Candy store.