VOLUME 16.

REYNOLDSVILLE, PENN'A., WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 13, 1907.

NUMBER 27.

The Best Oil doesn't come from a tank wagon. Exposure and much handling spoils it.

Family Favorite Oil The Best for Illuminating.

Is a clear, colorless, odorless oil that is served by your dealer to you directly from the original barrel. Just like buying from the refinery. Safe and burns out dry to the last drop. Will not smoke chimneys or char wicks. Speak to your dealer about it.

Need Not Make Change.

It will probably be an item of news to most readers that a postmaster is not compelled to make change for you when you make purchases at Uncle Sam's office. This is a queer rule that not one in a thousand knows. Buyers of stamps or any purchaser at a post-office must furnish his own change. The postmaster could insist on the buyer furnishing their own change if he saw fit to do it, but usually he is glad enough to get rid of his "chicken feed," and is always ready to accommodate the public by making the change it asks for.

Public Sale.

Take notice that there will be sold at auction to the highest bidder at the corner of Main and Fourth streets, in the borough of Reynolds, county of Jefferson and State of Pennsylvania, on Friday, the 29th day of November, 1907, commencing at 3 o'clock p. m., the following stocks:

Two shares of stock in the American Silk Company.
