MAKING AN EVENING
AT HOME DELIGHTFUL

The Edison Phonograph makes any evening short. It fills in hours that might otherwise lag, be wasted, or even be ill spent. It is a harmless, wholesome amusement maker and one that brings out the qualities of sociability and enjoyment.

The Edison Phonograph with Edison Gold Moulded Records, puts in every home the means of enjoying nearly every kind of wholesome entertainment—music ranging from rag-time to grand opera, dialogues and speeches, dancing and the general sociability that follows a real entertainment. Whether it is for a circle of friends who have dropped in, or for your own family circle, you will not find any amuser so great, so reliable or so entertaining as the Edison Phonograph. Call and hear them at the

GRAND HOLIDAY OPENING AT BREAKEY'S RACKET STORE

Saturday, November 30, 1907.

A Proclamation of Santa Claus

"Being desirous to distribute my Christmas gifts to all the good people of Reynoldsville and vicinity in the most efficient and satisfactory manner, and that my purpose might be carried out to the letter, I have made Breakey's Racket Store my headquarters and made Breakey's store my agency for the season 1907. And I hereby command, as I have heretofore, every man, woman and child to go to Breakey's store where one and all will find those presents which they most desire. There are shown my choicest dolls, prettiest books, daintiest china, and a host of other things from my factory in Toyland. I have charged Breakey's store to make the fees for these beautiful gifts reasonable and I have been assured it shall be so. My gifts will be on display from November 30, until Christmas eve. Don't forget the place—BREAKEY'S RACKET STORE.
