

The Star.

Subscription $1.00 per year in advance.
C. A. STEPHENSON, Editor and Pub.
WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 4, 1907.
Entered at the postoffice at Reynoldsville, Va., as second class mail matter.
COMMERCIAL TELEPHONE NO. 61

Have you accepted this remarkable offer.

$2.70

Worth of Santol for $1.00.

In order that you may become familiar by actual use with all the tooth and toilet preparations sold under the name of SANTOL, we are authorized by the Santol Chemical Laboratory Company to make you their great introductory offer of ten full sized packages of the following preparations for only $1.00. The total cost of these ten products, if purchased at regular prices, would be $2.70.

Santol Tooth Powder	25c
Santol Face Cream	25c
Santol Toilet Paste	25c
Santol Toilet Powder	25c
Santol Liquid Anti-Septic	25c
Santol Bath Powder	25c
Santol Shaving Cream	25c
Santol Violet-Elite Soap	25c
Santol Tooth Brush	35c
Santol Face Powder	35c

Total Retail Price $2.70

All these for a $1.00 Bill.

In order to secure this assortment call and see us for particulars.

A Little of Everything.

Concert institute week after next. Concert in the M. E. church to-morrow evening.

Johnsburg is having an epidemic of typhoid fever. "Miss Petticoats" will be presented at Park theatre Jan. 27.

The public school holiday vacation begins Friday of next week.

Wallace Mitchell sang two solos in the M. E. church Sunday evening.

Mrs. J. P. Eddy will sing in the Baptist church next Sunday evening.

Oliver H. Rose, of this place, has been granted a pension of $12.00 per month.

Rev. A. D. McKay is to preach in the Presbyterian church at Falls Creek every evening this week.

Jury Commissioners Trudgen and Weaver drew the list of jurors Monday for the January term of court.

Mrs. Fred K. Alexander entertained the members of the Fancy Work Club at her home Wednesday afternoon.

The monthly meeting of the M. E. Foreign Missionary Society will be held at home of Mrs. Julia A. Reynolds Friday afternoon. Luncheon served at six o'clock.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Baptist church bought new hymnals for the church, which were used in the union Thanksgiving service last week for the first time.

J. Hemming, who was engineer at the Petersburg Industrial Iron Works at this place, has accepted a position as engineer for the T. R. Mackey Baking Co. in Pittsburg.

James P. Roscoe, who has charge of the shooting gallery at this place, was called to Warren Saturday on account of the death of his mother-in-law, Mrs. John Risley.

A good picture of Joseph Geisler, son of M. Geisler, merchant tailor of Reynoldsville, who is treasurer of Norris Bros. shows, appeared in the New York Billboard last week.

Frederick Hurd, the magician who gave performances in the Park theatre Friday and Saturday nights of last week, was not greeted with a large audience either night.

The first game of basket ball of the season will be played in the Park Theatre between the Reynoldsville and Brookville high school teams on Friday evening of next week, Dec. 13.

C. Shimmel, of Winslow township, and Mrs. Anna Korman, of Wishaw, were married at the home of the bride yesterday afternoon, December 3rd, by Rev. J. W. Myers, of Reynoldsville.

Dr. J. A. Parsons went to Spring Creek, Pa., Monday to assist W. C. Mealing several nights in a series of meetings in the M. E. church at that place. Dr. Parsons expects to return home to-morrow.

T. Shannon, of this place, section foreman for the P. R. R., has been awarded the general superintendent's premium of $50.00 for the best section on the Low Grade Division.

R. H. Mr. Shannon got the last year.

Men are at work erecting a large porch in front of the National Hotel. Special permit was granted for the erection of the porch. Iron posts will be put under the corners.

All members of the Daughters of Rebekah are requested to meet in the Odd Fellows hall Tuesday evening, December 10. Ice cream, cake and refreshments will be served.

The annual banquet of B. P. O. Elks No. 519, of this place will be held in the Elk rooms this evening. Special program and specialties by Kettenger's orchestra, of Greensburg, Pa.

The trustees of the M. E. church have issued invitations to members of the church to attend a social gathering in the church on Friday evening of this week. Light refreshments will be served.

Lester Newberry, an employe at the Reynoldsville Brick & Tile Co. plant, had his right hand so badly injured several days ago on a railroad car door that he had to have the thumb amputated.

The union Thanksgiving service held in the Baptist church Thursday forenoon was fairly well attended. Rev. J. W. Myers, pastor of the Lutheran church, preached the sermon. The Baptist choir furnished special music.

Every merchant that intends advertising holiday goods should awaken to the fact that it is time to be at it. If you expect to sell holiday goods you should not fail to advertise, and a newspaper is the only successful way to advertise.

S. H. Harding, of Brookville, Democratic candidate for the nomination for county commissioner, was in town Monday looking after his political interests. Mr. Harding worked on O'Donnell's mill near this place a number of years and is not a stranger to many of our citizens.

S. S. Robinson and niece, Miss Lois Robinson, were at Kittanning last Wednesday attending the funeral of an aunt, Mrs. Mary M. Crum, who was almost ninety-one years old. Deceased was the mother of Will Crum, who was a photographer in Reynoldsville some years ago.

Mrs. Jacob Tresh, at one time a resident of Reynoldsville, died a few days ago in Pittsburg. The body was taken to St. Marys for interment. Deceased will be remembered by a large number of Reynoldsville people. Her husband was an engineer on the Low Grade Division.

Some of the public school teachers of this borough took vacation trips last week as follows: Prof. Stanley Bright, New Castle; Miss Edith Clark, Graceon, Indiana Co.; Miss Elizabeth Baughman, Wilcox; Misses Lulu Black and Byrd Morgret, Irwin, Pa.; Miss Maude Meek, Indiana.

The hunting season closed Saturday. Rabbits were plenty but other game was scarce. Only two deer and very few pheasants killed by Reynoldsville hunters. Lawyer G. M. McDonald, Jacob Deible and Charles Scott were the only hunters from this place that were out for big game that shot a deer apiece.

Hon. Robert H. Longwell, of Brockwayville, one of Jefferson county's representatives in the last state legislature, and who is a candidate for the Republican nomination for re-election, was in town Monday and called at THE STAR office. Mr. Longwell made a good representative and will no doubt be given another term.

The first regular meeting of the Business Men's Association in its new home in the Odd Fellows building will be held Thursday evening of this week. Every person invited to visit the rooms whether members or not. The Association is growing gradually and should receive encouragement from every person having the interest of Reynoldsville at heart.

Mrs. A. J. Postlethwait, of Pricedale, formerly of this place, a daughter of Mrs. Hannah Butler, of Grant street, is in the Mercy hospital at Pittsburg, where she had to undergo an operation on Monday of last week. Mrs. Postlethwait is improving nicely. Mrs. George Kline, sister of Mrs. Postlethwait, spent four or five days of past week in Pittsburg and visited her sister every day.

It is reported that a man of this town went home a few nights ago intoxicated and beat and abused his wife so terribly that she ran to a neighbor's house for protection. He loaded his shot gun and went after her, threatening to kill her if he found her, but he failed to find her. The woman had her husband arrested and he is now under $400.00 bail for his appearance at the January term of court.

Joseph Phillips is visiting his brother and sister, Matthew Phillips and Mrs. E. J. Jennings, on Jackson street. It is twenty years since Mr. Phillips visited in Reynoldsville. Since that time he has crossed the ocean seven times, on business for European countries, having spent the last fourteen years in Africa. He is also a veteran of the Boer War. He has been a mechanical engineer for European countries for the past thirty years. He will now make his home in DuBois.

WILL PAVE WITH BRICK TO EAST END OF RATHMEL

Commissioners, Road Supervisors and State Officials Hold Conference.

On Monday of this week Joseph W. Hunter, of Harrisburg, Commissioner of the Highway Department, Charles F. Hamilton, of Franklin, state engineer, County Commissioners J. N. Kelley, E. T. McGaw and John S. Barr, of Brookville and J. M. Norris, Thomas Woods and A. W. Mulholland, supervisors of Winslow township, met in Reynoldsville and went over the route of the proposed state road from Seventh street, this borough, to the Clearfield county line. After some discussion over the matter it was finally agreed that the road is to be paved with brick from Seventh street to the Rathmel school house and from there to the Clearfield county line to be macadamized. The road is to be sixteen feet wide from Seventh street to the junction above Prescottville and fourteen feet wide from there to the county line. The contract will soon be let and the work of paving will be started as early as possible in the spring. This will be a fine piece of road when completed.

PARTIAL LIST OF JURORS

Drawn for the January Term of the Courts of Jefferson County.

Grand Jurors—Reynoldsville, Frank Guns, W. T. Cox, George Douheiser, John Cottle; West Reynoldsville, Arthur O'Donnell; Winslow township, Frank Hill; Washington township, A. R. Cooper.

Petit Jurors—Reynoldsville, C. E. Jones, Wm. Wiley, David Hetrick, M. C. Coleman, R. De Vere King, E. M. Ohs, A. C. Best; Winslow township, Noah Syphrit, Charles Norris; Washington township, James Shaw, Charles Anderson, Harry G. Nichols; Pine-creek, E. G. Sprague.

Traverse Jurors—West Reynoldsville, J. W. Campbell, Martin McCartney, M. L. Williams; Winslow township, David Hill, J. L. Lindy; Washington township, D. D. McKoon; Pinecreek township, Robert Stewart.

Married in Indiana.

F. W. Groves and Mrs. Maggie Foster, both of this place, were married at Indiana, Pa., by Squire Fleming on Wednesday, Nov. 13. They visited in Iselin before returning to Reynoldsville.

Won Closing Game.

The Reynoldsville High School football team played the closing game of the season with the Johnsburg High School team at this place Thanksgiving afternoon, and defeated the visitors. Score 16 0. Full particulars of game in the "Bulletin" column on another page of THE STAR.

Will Remain in Reynoldsville.

Robt. Z. Parrish has decided not to accept the cashiership of the Atwater Savings Bank at Atwater, Ohio. His physician assures him that his present condition of health would not justify him in taking up the work and responsibility connected with a position of that character. He and his family will, therefore, remain in Reynoldsville, for the present at least.

Lodge of Sorrow.

The B. P. O. Elks Lodge of Scrow, or memorial for deceased members, was held in the Elk rooms on Main street Sunday afternoon. Dr. H. G. Furbay, of New York City, made the memorial address. The service was private. Had it been known in time that Dr. Furbay would make the address a hall would have been rented and the service made public.

Farewell Party.

Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Hetrick, of Washington township, who will move to Oklahoma this week, were given a farewell party last Saturday, which was attended by about seventy-five neighbors and friends. At noon six large tables were spread with an abundance of good things to which all did ample justice. After dinner Mrs. Hetrick was given some valuable and useful presents, consisting of silver table and teaspoons, etc. In the evening the young people held a party and played some lively games. The best wishes of a host of friends go with Mr. and Mrs. Hetrick to their new home.

Hotel Keepers' Convention.

One hundred and twenty-five hotel proprietors of Jefferson, Clearfield, Elk, Clarion, Armstrong and Indiana counties attended a convention in the P. O. S. of A. hall in Reynoldsville last Friday afternoon. J. B. Sykes, of Sykesville, president of the Jefferson County Hotel Keepers Association, presided. Speeches were made by Richard McCormick, of Allegheny, president of the State Federation of Liquor Dealers; J. F. Collins, of Bradford, president of the McKean County Liquor Dealers; B. A. Mason, of Pittsburg, State Organizer for Federation of Liquor Dealers.

Stamped linen and coronation braid at Bing-Stoke Co's.

LOVERS OF MELODY.

May Enjoy a Fine Treat To-Morrow Evening in the M. E. Church

Thursday evening, December 5th, a concert will be given in the M. E. church which promises to be one of the most meritorious ever rendered in Reynoldsville. The affair is under the auspices of the M. E. choir but the talent has been selected from the best in the town and includes not only vocal and instrumental selections but a reading by Miss Florence Harris, one of the winners in the last Junior contest at the public school. The rehearsals have demonstrated the merits of the production and the low price of admission, 15 and 25 cents, should guarantee a large attendance. Tickets will be placed on sale to-day at the following stores: Gillespies, Blog-Stoke Co., Haskin's Music Store, Robinson & Mundorff, Spry's Grocery store, Stoke's Drug Store, Stauffer's grocery store, West Reynoldsville.

PROGRAMME.

PART I.
Organ..... Selected
Chorus..... "A Spring Song"..... Piusanti
Duet..... "The Fair and Holy"..... Selected
Ladies Quartette..... "A Summer Lullaby"..... Mrs. Gillespie, Mrs. Stoke, Miss Coleman and Miss Northey
Solo..... "From The Creation—Haydn"..... Miss Beck
Chorus..... "Song of the Vikings"..... Fanning
PART II.
Quartette..... "Good Night, Good Night Beloved"..... Mrs. Gillespie, Mrs. Stoke, Messrs. Dr. King and Alexander.
Reading..... "The Day is Ended"..... Bartlett
Solo..... "The Rose Maiden"..... Cowen
Chorus..... "The Bridal Chorus"..... Parker
Solo..... "Who Knows What the Bells Say"..... Cantor
Solo..... "The lark now leaves his watery nest"..... Parker
Chorus..... "From the Rose Maiden"..... Cowen
Organist..... Miss Erma Robinson
Musical Director..... Arthur H. Haskins

In Hands of Receivers.

On the 27th day of last month Bernard E. Sheibley, of York, Pa., and Charles W. Gould, of New York, N. Y., were appointed receivers of the American Silk Co., operators of the silk mills at Reynoldsville and other places. The complainants are Lotte Bros. Co. and Samuel Ruby.

The following note appears on bottom of notice to creditors and stockholders: "The receivers have authority to continue the business of the company. The assets appear to be far greater than the liabilities and it is believed that this embarrassment, caused by the present financial conditions and the inability of the company to make collections and raise the necessary cash, will be only temporary. With this end in view, the complainants are counting on the hearty co-operation of the creditors."

Oil and Gas Co. Organized.

The Polk Oil and Gas Co., in which several Reynoldsville gentlemen are interested, was organized last week with the following officers: President, W. W. Wiley, of Reynoldsville; general manager, L. C. Patterson, of Butler; Secretary, J. T. Armstrong, of Brookville; treasurer, John H. Kaucher, of Reynoldsville; solicitor, C. C. Benscoter, of Brookville. This company now has three oil wells and one gas well near Polk, Venango Co., where they have considerable territory. The other members of the company are: E. H. Seelye, of Polk, W. W. Hensbey, of Brookville, F. A. McConnell, of Reynoldsville, Calvin Bley, of Punxsutawney, S. W. Emery, of Big Run, and R. B. Wick, of Franklin.

Big Squash.

We have been informed that there was a squash raised on the farm of William Sprankle, in Winslow township, the past summer that measured three feet and seven inches in circumference and weighed fifty-four pounds. No small squash, was it?

Closing Out Entire Stock.

The Cash New York Racket store is closing out $4,500 worth of stock at 25 cents less than cost to quit business.

Holiday slippers for men, women and children at Bing-Stoke Co.

Trunk and suit case at Millirens. Closing out sale is going on at Long's Bargain store, opposite City Hotel.

Remember we give trading stamps with each purchase. Bing-Stoke Co.

Men's rain coats at Millirens.

For men's boys' and children's clothing at low prices go to A. Katzen's.

Ladies' fancy collars and boas at Bing-Stoke Co's.

J. O. Johns, merchant tailor, next door to National hotel.

For a good cup of coffee at pan price we can furnish the material. We have no competition in price on coffee. Robinson & Mundorff, grocers.

Winter shirts at Millirens.

Let us show you our line of smoking jackets and bath robes. Bing-Stoke Co. Go to A. Katzen's for underwear for the whole family; best quality for low prices.

Look out for Christmas bargains in our basement next week. Bing-Stoke.

Men's housecoats for Xmas at Millirens.

First Reunion of Polish Citizens Well Attended

VISITOR FROM KLONDYKE.

Miss Sara Kline, of Nome, Alaska, Will Spend Winter Here.

Miss Sara E. Kline, who has been at Nome, Alaska, two years and eight months, came to Reynoldsville last week and will spend the winter with her mother in this place. She expects to return to Alaska next year. Miss Kline says the winters in Alaska are cold, but the four months of summer weather is delightful, although the nights are so cool that people sleep under blankets and robes. She says the first winter she spent in Alaska it was 42 degrees below zero for six weeks, but last winter the coldest weather was only 35 degrees below zero. On the main street of Nome the snow drifts were as high as the second story windows. In the winter fresh eggs sell for 25c a piece, or $3.00 a dozen, fresh meat 50 cents a pound, and boarding is $50.00 per month. Spring lamb sells for $1.00 a pound. For about 8 months Alaska is shut off from the outside world on account of being in grip of the ice king. Everybody makes good wages in Alaska but they have to pay high prices for everything they buy. Miss Kline was in the employ of the Alaska Bank and Safe Deposit Co. at Nome a number of months. She brought home some stickpins, batpins, and necklaces made out of the pure gold as it is mined.

High School Entertainment.

The present term of the Reynoldsville public schools will close for the holiday vacation with an entertainment by the Athenian Literary Society of the high school department on Friday evening, December 13th. The admission to this entertainment will be a book. The school feels that it should have a better and larger library than the one now afforded, and to this end every patron of the schools is most cordially invited to attend this entertainment and to take with him at least one book—more if he so wills. The exercises will be given by a number of the best talent of the high school, and will be worth hearing. Almost every family has in their home some books which could be spared to the schools. All good works of standard authors, reference works and books on general information will be thankfully accepted. The donor will kindly place in the book or books he gives a card with his name thereon, so that a list of those contributing may be kept. Further announcement next week.

To the Kicker.

There is no doubt that you are right, there may be a few sneak thieves in the mercantile business, but would like to inform you there are a few honest merchants left, on the other hand the merchant can find a sneak thief, or a highway robber at any way he may turn, who is mean enough to rob the poor merchant out of an honest bill, who trusted him. Let the merchant take his sneak thief, highway robber or dead beat, place a placard on him in company with the meanest thief in the bunch, (as you have it), he would find about 70 per cent in the 48 hours you mentioned, with the balance thirty per cent to set back and take notice. "Kicker" be honest with your merchant and you will make him honest.

AN HONEST MERCHANT.

"The Survival of the Unfittest."

Dr. Harvey Graeme Furbay, superintendent of the Industrial Christian Alliance, of New York City, and also general secretary of the Bible Teacher's Training School, where he lectures twice a week, who was the guest of Dr. W. B. Alexander from Wednesday noon and Monday noon, delivered an address in the Presbyterian church Sunday night before a large audience. His subject was "The Survival of the Unfittest." Dr. Furbay, who is an eloquent and fluent speaker, gave his audience an interesting account of the work done by the Industrial Christian Alliance and the class of men the Alliance has to deal with.

The Reynoldsville Iron Mills

May stop for want of material but it is having no effect on the quality or quantity of Christmas goods and useful household furnishings that is coming in constantly. In fact we never had such beautiful dishes, handsome pictures, easy rockers, soft rugs, comfortable couches, polished side boards, handy kitchen cabinets. I cannot enumerate; come in and see for yourself.

C. R. HALL.

Prof. J. F. Conrad, of Punxsutawney, candidate for superintendent of the public schools of Jefferson county, was in Reynoldsville Saturday and called at THE STAR office.

Outing night shirts and pajamas at Bing-Stoke Co's.

Closing out sale is going on at Long's Bargain store, opposite City Hotel.

Come in and see our Christmas neckwear. Bing-Stoke Co.

Men's boys' and children's overcoats at low prices at A. Katzen's.

Several Thousand Strangers in Reynoldsville to Participate in Celebration.

PARADE WAS THE GREAT FEATURE OF THE DAY.

Two Polish Plays were Given in Park Theatre in the Evening.

A large crowd of Poles came to Reynoldsville Thanksgiving Day to participate in the celebration of the Polish Union of America. The early morning trains and trolley cars were crowded and by 9.00 a. m. there was a large crowd of Poles and their friends in town. The members of the various Unions formed in line at the Park Theatre and marched to the Catholic church and attended Mass. After the church service they marched back to Park Theatre and formed for the parade, which was headed by officers of the Unions in carriages and on horseback. There were about a thousand men in the parade. Three bands furnished music for the parades, the Keystone band of Reynoldsville, Sykesville and Falls Creek brass bands. After the parade a meeting was held in Park Theatre. Speeches were made in both Polish and English. There was a dance during the afternoon and in the evening two plays were given by Polish people. The first play was "A Sporty Farmer" and the second play presented was "A Mean Lady." After the plays the chairs were removed again and the dance was started, which was kept up until late in the night.

This celebration, the first ever held by the Unions in this section of the state, was under the management of the St. John Baptist Branch No. 105 of Reynoldsville.

HON. W. M. CHANDLER'S LECTURE

Has a Fine Voice for Oratory and a Splendid Vocabulary.

Last Wednesday evening Hon. Walter M. Chandler, a New York City lawyer, lectured in Assembly hall, the second number on the high school lecture course. The audience was given choice of one of two subjects. "The Trial of Jesus from a Lawyer's Standpoint" or "The Republic," and the latter subject was chosen by majority vote. It was an excellent lecture and the large audience was delighted with it. Mr. Chandler, who is forty years old, is a man of prepossessing appearance and much personal magnetism. He has a remarkably fine voice for oratory, splendid vocabulary, perfect enunciation and a pleasing tone. He is certainly an able lecturer. This was his second appearance before a Reynoldsville audience. His first lecture here was "The Trial of Jesus from a Lawyer's Standpoint."

BUSINESS CHANGE.

J. W. Cunningham Now Proprietor of the Hoffman Jewelry Store.

Yesterday C. F. Hoffman sold his jewelry store to J. W. Cunningham, who comes from Bradenville, Westmoreland county, where he was in the jewelry business thirteen years and is an experienced workman. The new proprietor took charge of the store yesterday. Mr. Cunningham and family have been in Reynoldsville several weeks. He is a pleasant gentleman and no doubt will soon make many friends in this town and community. Mr. Hoffman expects to move to Alabama in about ten days.

Horace Miller for Assembly.

Horace G. Miller, editor of the Punxsutawney News, has decided to enter the race for the Republican nomination for Assembly. Mr. Miller is well qualified, intellectually, morally and physically, for the office to which he aspires. As a newspaper editor he is familiar with the needs and wishes of the people, and as a man of high ideals and sound principles, he would be entirely capable and trustworthy as a representative. If the Pennsylvania Legislature were always composed of representatives of the type of Mr. Miller, we would have little vicious legislation.—Punxsutawney Spirit.

Gold trading stamps with each purchase at Bing-Stoke Co's.

If you want pure maple sap syrup for your cakes Thanksgiving go to Robinson & Mundorff's. Also sell the blended maple and cane.

Remnants of silk for fancy work at Bing-Stoke Co's.

Xmas neckwear at Millirens.

The best store to buy ladies' and misses coats is at Horwitz's in the old opera house building. You get the same goods at one-third less than the price you pay elsewhere.

New winter hats and caps at Millirens.