their home. George is recovering from an attack of typhoid fever, and is consequently somewhat wabby in the knees.

The dam was in a skating condition last week, and the young folks seem to have had a very enjoyable time.

A Real Wonderland.

South Dakota, with its rich silver mines, bonanza farms, wide ranges and strange natural formations, is a veritable wonderland. At Mound City, in the home of Mrs. E. D. Clapp, a wonderful case of healing has lately occurred. Her son seemed near death with lung and throat trouble. "Exhausting coughing spells occurred every five minutes," writes Mrs. Clapp, "when I began giving Dr. King's New Discovery, the great medicine, that saved his life and completely cured him." Guaranteed for coughs and colds, throat and lung troubles, by Stoke & Felcht Drug Co., Reynoldsville and Sykesville 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

In Memoriam.

Resolutions adopted by Reynoldsville Circle No. 317, P. H. C.:

WHEREAS, Our circle chamber has again been visited by the swift winged messenger of death, thereby removing from our midst our brother, Fred J. Colwell, to the realms beyond the tomb.

Resolved, That we, as a circle of the Protected Home Circle, bow in submission to the Divine will of One who doeth all things well, and that we hereby express our sincere sympathy at this sad time for the bereaved family of our departed brother.

Resolved, That our charter be draped for a period of thirty days and that these resolutions be recorded in our minute book and a copy of the same be presented to the family of the departed brother.

JOHN A. WELSH,
MISS LIZZIE SHUGROU,
MRS. MARY STROUSE,
