It Does the Business.
Mr. E. E. Chamberlin, of Clinton, Maine, says of Bucklen's Arnica Salve, "It does the business; I have used it for piles and it cured them. Applied it to an old sore and it healed it without leaving a scar behind." 25c at Stoke & Feicht Drug Co. drug store.

I am not easy to entertain. Gillilan entertained me thoroughly. His is not a city entertainment or a country entertainment—it is a human entertainment and he is sure of success wherever there are human hearts and a sense of humor.—Emerson Hough, author of "Heart's Desire," "The Mississippi Bubble," "The Law of the Land," etc. At Reynoldsville, in public school auditorium, Friday evening, January 10, 1908.

Warning to the Public.
My son, Guy Heemer, a minor, has left my home and I hereby caution all persons not to harbor him, and I will not be responsible for debts he may contract.
C. HEEMER,
Reynoldsville, Pa.

Dr. Fikes, pastor of the First Baptist church at Franklin, in a recent sermon, declared that he is going to have a congregation of men that do not go into a hotel, saloon or drug store for the purpose of securing liquor. He stated there were men in his congregation that were guilty of such things. Dr. Fikes said he had more respect for the man who went to the bar rooms than he did for those who patronized drug stores. He had supreme contempt for the man who sneaked into a drug store to get his liquor behind the prescription desk.

C. H. Blood Popular Candidate

Prothonotary Cyrus H. Blood will be a candidate for re-nomination for that office at the April primary, and it doesn't require much of a prophet to predict the result. Mr. Blood has become so familiar with the work of that office, is so well acquainted with the archives, and has been so uniformly obliging, that about 99 per cent of the voters of both parties have made up their minds that he is doing the public a greater favor by continuing to serve in that capacity than the voters are doing by keeping him there. Hence when Cyrus Blood indicates his willingness to continue to serve as Prothonotary and Clerk of the Courts of Jefferson county, the campaign for that particular office is over. It is a mere formality after that. It isn't even necessary to count the vote. And this is creditable both to the intelligence and good citizenship of our people. When exercising the sovereign power of selecting public servants it is our plain duty to pick the best and as there is no question in this case we are all glad to fall in and do the right thing.—Punxsutawney Spirit.

So genuinely good was Mr. Gillilan that his recital proved only an appetizer to the throng that heard him, and Mr. and Mrs. Audience as well as the little Audience children wanted more.—Ottumwa (La.) Courier. Public school auditorium Friday evening, Jan. 10, 1908.

MAKING AN EVENING AT HOME DELIGHTFUL

The Edison Phonograph makes any evening short. It fills in hours that might otherwise lag, be wasted, or even be ill spent. It is a harmless, wholesome amusement maker and one that brings out the qualities of sociability and enjoyment.

The Edison Phonograph with Edison Gold Mounded Records, puts in every home the means of enjoying nearly every kind of wholesome entertainment—music ranging from rag-time to grand opera, dialogues and speeches, dancing and the general sociability that follows a real entertainment. Whether it is for a circle of friends who have dropped in, or for your own family circle, you will not find any amuser so great, so reliable or so entertaining as the Edison Phonograph. Call and hear them at the
