MRS. G. W. CAMPBELL, Executrix.

New Castle, Pa., Dec. 30, 1907.

A POPULAR CANDIDATE.

Ira J. Campbell is Seeking Nomination for Register and Recorder.

It has become apparent, from the large number of candidates for the various county offices at the coming primary election, that the Republicans of the county are to be called upon in every instance to decide between a number of men in every way worthy of the office which they seek. This being the case, it will be the natural thing for the voter to look carefully into the record of the candidate seeking his suffrage, to examine him as his Republicanism and above all as to his demonstrated ability to perform public duties. In this connection the candidacy of our popular county treasurer, Ira J. Campbell, who is now before the people as a candidate for the register and recorder nomination, will bear the closest scrutiny. Mr. Campbell has been a Republican all his life, he has fought the battles of the party, and been actively enlisted in its interest, and until called to be county treasurer three years ago, had experienced none of the rewards, save the consciousness of having done his duty. Since been elected county treasurer Mr. Campbell has added to his host of friends who rallied to his support in his former campaign, by his gentility, his courtesy and his ability as a public official. His administration of the treasurer's office has been such as to win him hearty commendation, and is but natural that under these circumstances he should look to a well-established precedent for his further continuance in office. For the past six years it has been the custom to give the retiring county treasurer a term as register and recorder, and the splendid administration of the Recorder's office by Messrs. Reitz and Means has demonstrated the wisdom of thus clinging fast to officials whose ability has been proven. Mr. Campbell's candidacy is in line with this popular precedent; his Republicanism is of the first water; his ability and courtesy as a public official are beyond question, and his private friendships are legion. It is natural, therefore, that his candidacy has assumed formidable proportions at the very outset of the contest, and that Mr. Campbell's friends are heartily enlisted in an active and energetic campaign in the presentation of his claims to the people. Those who have come into contact with this popular official in the conduct of his duties as a public servant need not be told that his campaign will be conducted upon the clean, wholesome but energetic lines which have marked his official performances and have made him one of the most popular officials who have ever occupied the treasurer's office, and that his candidacy will appeal to those who believe in adequately rewarding faithful and courteous service.—Brookville Republican.

REDUCTION SALE

Of Watches, Jewelry, Cut Glass Fine China and Umbrellas

The goods are not remarked; the same prices are on the cards as before. You can figure the discount yourself. If you select an article marked $1.00, pay 85c; if marked $5.00, pay $4.25, if marked $10.00, take 15 per cent off and pay $8.50, and so on all through the store. This means quite a saving to you and brings some articles down to actual cost price.
