Was a Bad Man.

A blood soaked and partially worn newspaper clipping from a Worcester, Ohio, paper, that was found in the pocket of Frank Leoni, who was killed at Florence on Sunday morning, Jan. 12, by Dominic Provincino, a fellow countryman, when Leoni was demanding Provincino and another Italian to give him a large part of their hard earned wages, is evidence that Leoni was a desperate character.

"In the arrest of Frank Leoni, 24 years old, for threatening, the police believe they have behind the bars a desperate member of a Pennsylvania 'Black Hand society' who came to Worcester three days ago determined to wreak vengeance upon Mr. and Mrs. Eduardo Mele, who fled from the mining districts of Ernest, Pa., to escape his murderous plots.

"Leoni was arrested last night by Patrolman Albert Hutchinson, of Station 1, and sentenced to six months in the house of correction by Judge Samuel Utely in the Central District Court this morning. Leoni appealed and was remanded to jail upon failure to furnish $300 bonds.

"The arrest of Leoni before the man committed any desperate deed is regarded as fortunate by Chief of Police Matthews. When he came to Worcester, the police say, he was armed with two revolvers and a dirk. Neither of these weapons was found upon him, but he had a razor that could slash a man's throat nicely."

SPENT LAST EIGHT YEARS IN MISERY

Boston Banker Says His Life Has Been Hopeless for that Length of Time.

Carlton H. Hutchinson, a leading banker and broker of Boston, with offices at 8 Congress Street, in that city, has recently come out with a very strong statement.

In the widespread discussion over Cooper's new theory and medicines which has spread over the country so rapidly, Mr. Hutchinson has taken the side of those who say that Cooper's theory is correct and his medicine all that he claims.

Mr. Hutchinson's emphatic statement is as follows: "Anyone afflicted with chronic ill health and a general run-down condition caused by stomach trouble, who does not try this man Cooper's medicine, is very foolish. I say this after a most remarkable experience with the medicine."

"I heard of Cooper's success first when he was in Chicago, as I have a private wire to that city in connection with my business. Later, when he came East, I learned more of him and his theory that stomach trouble causes most ill health. I have had no faith in anything not prescribed by a physician for each particular case after careful diagnosis, but after eight years of constant suffering, during which time I spent over $1,500 with absolutely no relief, I felt that it would at least do no harm to try the medicine which I was hearing so much about.

"During these eight years I had been forced to go without solid food for five and six weeks at a time. I always had a sour stomach, was troubled with formation of gas, and led the usual miserable life of the dyspeptic. I was dull, tired, nervous and gloomy all the time, and was always constipated.

"I have taken Cooper's medicine a comparatively short time. For the past month I have not had the slightest sign of stomach trouble. I can eat anything with no bad effect whatsoever. I have a fine appetite, am gaining flesh very rapidly, am cheerful, full of energy, and my nervousness has disappeared. My bowels are in perfect condition for the first time in eight years.

"I don't hesitate to say that I would not take $50,000 and be back where I was. My relief and thankfulness is beyond description."

We sell Cooper's famous preparation described in the above statement.
