

KEEPS THE CHAPS AWAY

Our Face Lotion quickly relieves chapped conditions of the face and hands.

It has no equal as a remedy for rough cracked, burning, smarting or itching skin.

Soft, not greasy, delicately perfumed, our face lotion always pleases. Best for babies and grown ups.

A Little of Everything.

Fire drills are now practiced in the public school.

Yesterday was St. Patrick's Day. The shamrock was conspicuous.

Clover seed will be higher in price this year than it has been for forty years.

Rev. J. E. Kirkwood is in Venango County this week assisting in evangelistic meetings.

The local option executive committee of Jefferson county held a meeting in Reynoldsville Monday afternoon.

Mary Virginia, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. O'Hara, of near Paic, died March 10, 1908. Age five weeks.

A. J. Sprague, a McCalmont township farmer, injured his left arm so badly last Friday that he has to carry it in a sling.

Thomas J. Rodgers, editor of the Punxsutawney Republican, is a candidate for delegate to the Republican state convention.

The men's meeting in Baptist church Sunday afternoon was fairly well attended. Evangelist McClure's subject was "The Devil's Defeat."

Rocco Garpori and Lucio Domico, both of Sykesville, were united in marriage by Squire E. Neff at his office on Main street March 11.

The rains and melting snow forced the waters of Sandy Lick creek to raise high enough to inundate the lowlands during Sunday and Monday.

The eastbound P. R. R. passenger train due here at 6:35 a. m. was two hours late Saturday morning on account of a freight wreck at Summerville.

James M. Marsh, conductor of the N. W. Bethlehem and Driftwood passenger train on P. R. R., who has resided in Brookville, will move to New Bethlehem this week.

Robert Patterson, brother of Mrs. J. R. Hillis, of this place, and Miss Bertha Gaugh, of Lawsonham, were married at home of groom's mother, Mrs. Agnes Patterson, at Desire on 11th inst.

Rev. J. W. Crawford, of Sykesville, former pastor of the Baptist church at that place, has bought a grocery store at Bloomsburg, Pa., and will move to that place. Rev. Crawford will do mission work at Bloomsburg.

The auditors' reports of the finances of West Reynoldsville and Winslow township will be found in this issue of THE STAR. These reports will, no doubt, be of interest to the taxpayers in the borough and township.

Hon. S. Taylor North, candidate for state senator, George H. Small, for assembly, W. E. Lucas, for register and recorder, and A. F. Reitz, for county commissioner, were shaking hands with Reynoldsville voters yesterday.

Frank McClure, the only Republican candidate from Reynoldsville for the nomination for county commissioner, is doing some hustling and is receiving much encouragement from the voters of Jefferson county. Mr. McClure thinks he has a fair show of being one of the winners in the contest.

Meeting of the Local Option League was held in the Baptist church last Thursday evening to arrange for organizing leagues in Rathmel, Sykesville, Wishaw and Emerickville.

A DuBois-Punxsutawney aggregation of basket ball players won the contest in Park Theatre last night 33-29. In spots the game was a pretty good imitation of football but the crowd seemed to enjoy it.

Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Gallagher are offering all their household goods for sale, as they expect to leave here next month for Las Vegas, New Mexico, where they will locate for benefit of Mrs. Gallagher's health.

Dr. E. V. Kyle, of Beechtree, formerly of Richardsville, who has been coroner in Jefferson county a couple of terms, has sold his practice at Beechtree, will take a post graduate course in New York City and will locate in some city.

The DuBois & Butler Brick Co. has under consideration the buying of the Reynoldsville Clay Manufacturing Co. brick plant at this place, which was bought in by the First National bank of Reynoldsville at sheriff sale several days ago.

Miss Ruth Sykes has been given the position as cashier of the First National bank of Sykesville, the former cashier, O. L. Howard, having resigned to accept a similar position in Ohio. Miss Sykes has been bookkeeper in the bank over a year.

Miss Lois Robinson's class of the Presbyterian Sunday school will open an exchange library at the gas office on Saturday afternoon, March 21. A fee of five cents charged for each exchange. Proceeds for pipe organ fund. Your patronage is solicited.

J. S. Cooper, of Brookwayville, one of the Republican candidates in the front rank for the nomination for county commissioner, was in town Saturday making a careful examination of his political fences in this vicinity. He thinks his chances are good this time for the nomination.

Solomon Friedman, former merchant of this place, who went west a couple of weeks ago to look for a location, has rented a large store room in Pueblo, Col. His wife and children left here last week. Mr. Friedman thinks he has now struck one of the most beautiful places on the globe.

Meeting of the Men's Club of the Methodist Episcopal church will be held in that church Friday evening, at which time new officers will be elected. All the male members of the church and congregation are requested, and urged, to attend the meeting Friday evening.

Miss Elizabeth Evans, field secretary of the Young Peoples Home Missionary Society of the Methodist Episcopal church, was here Saturday for the purpose of trying to organize a branch society in the church at this place. Miss Evans gave a very interesting and instructive address on the work of the society.

County Commissioner McGaw, Democratic candidate for the nomination for a second term, was in Reynoldsville the first of this week looking after his political interests. Mr. McGaw has received sufficient encouragement from the voters from all sections of the county to make him think he will be a winner at the primary election.

As stated in the institute announcement, examinations for common school diplomas will be held at Brookville March 28 and at Brookville April 4th. By request of the teachers of Snyder and Washington townships, the date for the examination at Brookwayville has been changed to April 11th. These examinations will begin at nine o'clock.

Read the figures opposite your name on THE STAR and if you are more than one year in arrears call and settle before the first of April, as the new postoffice rule goes into effect on that date. The first figure is the month, second figures date of month and last figures the year when subscription expires. For instance if figures are 2 25 06 means your subscription expired Feb. 25, 1906.

Lawyer Clement W. Flynn and Postmaster E. C. Burns were in Pittsburgh Thursday attending meeting of creditors of the Pittsburgh Industrial Iron Works. The appointment of a trustee was about the only business of importance transacted at the meeting. A schedule submitted puts the assets of the corporation at $276,000 and liabilities $220,000. The common debt now entered up against the corporation is $65,000.

John S. Barr, one of the present members of the board of county commissioners, who is a candidate for the Republican nomination for re-election, was in town a short time Monday. Mr. Barr, who is perhaps the best known candidate of the entire list among the old voters of the county, especially, has been too busy to do very much campaign work up until this time, but he expects to be active from now on until primary election. Mr. Barr has a host of friends in the county.

STOLEN GOODS FOUND.

Over One Hundred Pairs of Shoes and a Number Suits of Clothes.

In the early part of last November a Slav rented a house on Railroad street from the Building and Loan Association. New window blinds were put up on all the first floor windows, but no household goods moved into building. The Slav paid rent each month up to Feb. 12 and was then informed that the house had been sold and he would have to see the new owner, Harry Copping, about the rent. He did not see Copping and last Friday Mr. and Mrs. Copping and L. J. McEntire, secretary B. & L. A., went to the house to investigate and found the rear door unlocked. No furniture in house, but in one clothes press was found burlap sacks in which were over one hundred pairs new shoes and a dozen new suits of clothes. There were no price marks on the tags on suits nor on the shoes, which would indicate the goods had been stolen out of cars while on transit. The Slav has not come to claim the goods, and his whereabouts is unknown at present.

BRICK INDUSTRY TO RESUME.

Gets Part of Contract to Supply State Road with Brick.

The Reynoldsville Brick and Tile Co., that has been idle for several months, is getting ready to resume work next week. This company has been given the contract to furnish all the brick for paving Main street, from Seventh street to borough line, and six thousand square yards of the state road from borough line to Clearfield county line. This gives the Brick and Tile Co. the contract for a little over half the brick that will be used in the entire construction of the road from Seventh street to the county line. Indications are favorable for this being the busiest year the Brick and Tile Company has ever had. About forty men will be employed by this company.

All Day Meeting.

An all day meeting will be held in the Baptist church to-morrow. A number of pastors from other churches will be present to assist Dr. Meek and Evangelist McClure.

Afternoon Party.

Mrs. Jarvis D. Williams and sister, Miss Jessie Barclay, entertained about fifty ladies at a card and fancy work party at home of Mrs. Williams last Thursday afternoon. There were eighteen ladies present from Brookville. It was one of the most enjoyable parties held in Reynoldsville this season. The luncheon was excellent.

Special Meetings Begin To night.

Special meetings will begin in the Presbyterian church this evening and continue through next week, closing with communion March 29th. Rev. W. S. Waldrop, of Falls Creek, will preach this week and Rev. J. W. McIver, of Pittsburgh, will preach next week. A cordial invitation is extended to the public.

No Encouragement.

About three weeks ago D. M. Shearer took his wife to the Jefferson Hospital in Philadelphia for an operation for stomach trouble. The doctors put her under treatment for a number of days and then could give no encouragement for an operation, and Mrs. Shearer thought she would rather die at home and the operation was not performed. Mr. and Mrs. Shearer returned to this place Friday.

Exit Doors Swing Either Way.

Last week two carpenters changed the outside doors on the public school building so that the doors will now swing in or out. The directors expect to put additional fire escapes on the building. It is the intention of the board to make all provisions possible for escape from the building in case of fire. Hereafter a watchman will be engaged to stay in the lower part of the building on evenings when there is an entertainment in Assembly hall.

Listen to the Whistle.

Following the publication of this notice, the whistle of the Reynoldsville Woolen Mills will sound at 8:40 and 8:55 a. m. and at 1:10 and 1:25 p. m. in an effort to help the pupils of the public schools to overcome their tardiness. Parents and pupils will note that the doors of the school open for the morning session at 8:40 and for the afternoon session at 1:10. The signals at 8:55 and 1:25 are given five minutes before class work begins, and they are an admonition to loiterers to hasten their footsteps. The school authorities are very grateful to Mr. Evans, of the Reynoldsville Woolen Mills, for his co-operation.

Miss Sarah Hartman has removed her dress making establishment from Hoffman building on Fourth st. to Widow Gourley's house on Grant st. and is now prepared to sew for her customers as before.

White eoru netting for waists at Bing-Stoke Co.

Advanced styles without advanced prices. Adam's shoes.

FOR SALE—Cheap, incubator and two brooders. Mrs. J. W. Chatham, Hopkins.

ENTITLED TO SECOND TERM

An Old Soldier Thinks Major Beale Is Not Given Square Deal

Benjamin Haugh, an old soldier of Winslow township, requested us to publish the following statement for him concerning the congressional contest: "I think, in all fairness, Major J. S. G. Beale, present congressman from this district, is entitled to the nomination for a second term. I understand that some of the candidates who are now his opponents for the nomination, agreed on a second term for him, and made promises that they are not keeping. I think a man who aspires to a seat in the congressional halls of this great government, should be honorable enough, even though a new law does change the way of selecting a congressional nominee, to stand fair on an agreement entered into. So far as I can learn Major Beale is representing this district as faithfully and ably as it has been represented for some years, and that being the case, why not give him the nomination for a second term, as has been the custom in this district for a number of years? Again I say, that if given a square deal Major Beale should have the nomination for congress this time without opposition."

Looks at it Right Way.

Occasionally we find a subscriber disposed to get miffed because we are compelled, under the new postoffice rule that goes into effect April 1, to insist that a settlement of all subscription arrears over one year be made before April 1st, but the following cheerful letter from a subscriber in the eastern part of the state shows that this subscriber looks at the matter in the right spirit:

DEAR SIR:—Enclosed find P. O. money order for three dollars in payment of my subscription for THE STAR. I guess I owe you an apology in connection with the three dollars. It was an inexcusable piece of negligence—or rather several pieces—that made me keep you waiting so long. I knew that you were good natured and would not stop my paper, but when I found "U. S. Postal Laws and Regulations" had taken a hand and were likely to shut off our supply of news from "up home," I thought I had better get busy; for we must have THE STAR. If "Uncle Sam" will not allow us to pay for it with smiles when we meet ye editor, then I suppose we must pay cash. Thanking you for your kind indulgence I am yours, etc.

Scheafnocker Encouraged.

The candidacy of Sheriff Grant Scheafnocker, of Brookville, for the Republican nomination for county treasurer, is meeting with general approval throughout the county and Sheriff Scheafnocker feels very much encouraged as the result of a preliminary canvass. Mr. Scheafnocker has served the people of the county in a very satisfactory manner during his term as sheriff and he has proven entirely worthy of the trust imposed in him by the people of the county. He has always been a staunch Republican, an energetic party worker and was always at the front in all movements for general good of the county generally. He is capable and obliging and in every way qualified to fill the office of county treasurer to the entire satisfaction of the people. Scheafnocker is a man who is deserving of consideration because of his general fitness for the office and the fact that he has proven himself to be a capable official in the sheriff's office should commend him to the good graces of every Republican in the county.—Brookwayville Record.

Missionary Coming.

The Rev. John Legum, missionary of Christ's Mission to the Jews, Pittsburgh, Pa., will preach in Trinity Lutheran church on next Sunday morning at eleven o'clock and in Chestnut Grove Lutheran church at 2:30 p. m. At 7:30 p. m. Rev. Legum will deliver a lecture on "The Jews" in Trinity Lutheran church. The reverend will appear in costume at this lecture. A special silver offering for the benefit of the mission will be taken at the evening service.

Lenten service in Trinity church on Wednesday at 7:30 p. m. All are cordially invited to these services.

Sheriff's Sale.

There will be sold at public sale at Centennial hall, corner of Main and Fourth streets, on Saturday afternoon, March 21st, 1908, at two o'clock, lot of household goods, one surrey and one set harness.

The Lucky Quarter

Is the one you pay out for a box of Dr. King's New Life Pills. They bring you the health that's more precious than jewels. Try them for headache, biliousness, constipation and malaria. If they disappoint you the price will be cheerfully refunded at Stoke & Feicht Drug Co. drug store.

See the "Widow Jones" suits for boys at Bing-Stoke Co's.

A trial proves the worth. Adam's shoes.

Ladies' silk skirts from $5.00 to $7.00 at Bing-Stoke Co's.

Be sure that you have a look at Adam's shoe window.

ANOTHER CITIZEN GONE HENCE.

Michael Nugent Died Thursday Evening—Buried Sunday.

Michael Nugent, one of the old and respected citizens of Reynoldsville, departed this life at 5:30 p. m., March 12, 1908, after an illness of thirteen months. Was confined to the house six months. His illness began with a hard attack of grip, which resulted in a general breaking down of his constitution, finally causing death.

Michael Nugent was born in County Cork, Ireland, August 26, 1826, and was in his 82nd year at time of death. He came to America in 1852, fifty-six years ago, and located in New York City, where he remained twelve years. It was during his residence in the metropolis that he was united in marriage to Mary Murphy. From New York Mr. and Mrs. Nugent moved to Hubbard, Ohio. Mrs. Nugent died in 1872. After spending eighteen years in Ohio Mr. Nugent moved to Reynoldsville in 1882. He was a kind father and a good citizen. He is survived by two sons Michael and William Nugent, and two daughters, Mrs. E. Gorder and Miss Mary Nugent.

Funeral service was held in the Catholic church at 8:30 a. m. Sunday. Father Brady said Requiem High Mass. Interment was made in Catholic cemetery.

JUDGE BROWN'S LECTURE.

Gave Audience Pointers on Proper Method of Managing Boys.

Last Friday evening Judge Willis Brown, of Utah juvenile court, lectured in Assembly hall on "The Boy Problem." While Judge Brown would not be classed as an eloquent or oratorical lecturer, yet he is an able, forceful, rapid and pleasing speaker, and he gave his audience practical pointers on the proper method of managing boys. He related some of his experiences as judge of juvenile court, with boys who were classed as criminals. The Utah method of treating delinquent children is to punish the adults who by neglect, or otherwise are responsible for the wrong-doing of the child, and to give the child a home and proper environment in which to develop into a man. As a whole the lecture was the best number on the high school course this season.

A. & I. O. K. of M. Officers.

At the regular convocation of Mystic Commandery No. 313, A. & I. O. Knights of Malta, held on last Wednesday evening, the following officers were installed for the ensuing term: Sir Knight Commander, Henry A. Swab; Generalissimo, Amos S. Strouse; Prelate, Wm. H. Ford; Recorder, Orrie H. Shesley; Ass't. Recorder, Henry Chapman; Treasurer, Wm. H. Ford; Sr. Warden, Charles Stott; Jr. Warden, Wm. J. Clawson; Standard Bearer, Samuel E. Wisor; Sword Bearer, James G. Musser; Warder, Elmer E. Schuocker; Sentinel, Wm. E. Reed; First Guard, Harvey E. Gray; Second Guard, George Hartman; Trustees, Charles B. Clark and Gustav Mottern; Representative to the Grand Commandery, Charles B. Clark. After the installation of officers an oyster supper was served, which was enjoyed by a large number of companions.

Meetings Still in Progress.

The evangelistic meetings in the Baptist church are still in progress and will be continued all of this week. Good interest is being manifested. A large congregation was present Monday night. "The Life of Christ" in picture and song, was given by Evangelist J. B. McClure, who is assisting Dr. Meek in the series of meetings.

It was Different Then.

When Major Beale had served one term in the army in 1861, and was a candidate for a second term, he had no difficulty in landing the job. He got the second term and served until a rebel bullet put him out of business. The old soldiers will vote for Major Beale.

Card of Thanks.

We take this means of expressing our heartfelt thanks to our neighbors and friends for their kindness during illness and after death of our father, Michael Nugent. DAUGHTERS.

Break the news to mother. Tell her that she takes no risks when she buys Adam's shoes.

Men's Ralston Health dress shoes, regular price $4.00. Our price only $3.50. Bing-Stoke Co.

Just received another lot of finest sugar-cured hams. They go this week yet at the special price of 11c.

Robinson & Mundorf.

$3.50 gum boots for men only $2.75 at Bing-Stoke Co's.

You are perfectly safe in buying a dollar Hyomel outfit for any catarrhal trouble, as Stoke & Feicht Drug Co. guarantee to refund your money if the treatment fails to cure.

Men's $3.50 "Fellowcraft" dress shoe only $2.98 at Bing-Stoke Co's.

A style to fit every fancy. Adam's shoes.

Our home rendered lard has no equal. Hunter & Milliron.

BOLD HIGHWAY ROBBERY.

Trio of Local Talent 'Held Up' a Peddler Near Rathmel Junction in Broad Day Light.

One of the boldest highway robberies committed in this section for many years, took place about half way between Rathmel Junction and Big Soldier between one and two o'clock on Wednesday afternoon of last week. John Enami, Assyrian peddler of DuBois, was walking along the trolley line when he was attacked by three men who knocked him down, gagged him and one of the men held a revolver in his face while the other two went through his pockets and took therefrom $32.00 in cash, opened his pack of goods and took some underwear, etc.

The case was taken up by Constable Waugerman, of Sykesville, assisted by Constable Perry B. Love, of Reynoldsville, and from the description given by the peddler they suspected Harry Kougher, of Dutchtown, and John and Frank Lowers, of Prescottville, of being the fellows who did the "hold-up" act. The officers arranged to get the peddler to see these fellows among other men at different times, and the Assyrian, without hesitancy, identified Kougher and the two Lowers, as quick as he saw them, as the men who had robbed him. The trio were arrested, and given a hearing before Squire Shaffer at Sykesville Saturday afternoon and were bound over to court. Being unable to give bail were taken to jail Saturday evening.

Two of these fellows served time in the penitentiary for stealing hides from the tannery at this place about a year ago.

Mrs. John B. Horning.

Brief mention was made last week of the death of Mrs. John B. Horning, of Brookwayville, foster mother of Mrs. V. C. Freas, of Reynoldsville, who died on 8th inst. and was buried in the Beechwoods cemetery on 11th inst. From the Brookwayville Record we clip the following sketch of her life:

"Dorcas McCurdy was born May 22, 1844, on the old McCurdy homestead in Beechwoods, and was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert McCurdy, pioneer residents of the district. The deceased was 64 years old at the time of her demise. In 1864 the subject of this sketch was united in marriage with John B. Horning. They lived for nine years at Sunbury, Northumberland county, Pa., and moved to Jefferson county in 1873 taking up their residence on what is known as the Millen farm in Washington township. They lived there for sixteen years and then bought the McCurdy place where they resided for nearly sixteen years more. Their long residence in Beechwoods made for them a host of friends and they were regarded as being among the best known and most highly respected residents of the district. Three years ago they sold their Beechwoods property and purchased a home in Brookwayville where they have since lived, and becoming active in church and other affairs of the community they became at once among the most useful and influential residents of town."

Buffington for Treasurer.

W. G. Buffington, of Brookwayville, was in town Saturday looking after his political interests. Mr. Buffington is a candidate for the Republican nomination for county treasurer and is considered one of the strongest men in the field. He has just completed a preliminary canvass of the county and the encouragement he received leads him to believe that his chances for being nominated are very good.

In his home town Mr. Buffington enjoys a reputation for all that goes to making a good Republican and a straightforward citizen, and everywhere he has been in the present campaign he has left a good impression. For many years he has been an active party worker at Brookwayville and has been a Republican all his life. He has had his eyes on the treasurership for some time and was one of the first to announce in the present contest. He comes from a good family and has the necessary qualifications to perform the duties of Treasurer in a manner satisfactory to all. He is conducting his campaign on honest and manly principles and will be satisfied with the verdict of the Republican voters April 11th.—Punxsutawney Republican.

Card of Thanks.

John Shober, who had most of his household goods and clothing burned, and what was not burned was so badly damaged that it is almost worthless, in the Bee Hive building fire Feb. 1st, is very thankful to the people for what was given to him, and also thankful that he has health to work and get some more.

See the spring line of suits for men at Bing-Stoke Co's.

When you want plumbing done or anything in the plumbing line, call on C. E. Humphrey on Main street.

See the spring line of dress trousers at Bing-Stoke Co's.

Home rendered lard at Hunter & Milliron's meat market.