Political Announcements.

In this issue of THE STAR will be found the announcements of thirty-six Republican candidates who are seeking nominations at the April primary election, and there are other Republican candidates besides those who have announced in this paper. In our list are four for congress, three for state senate, four for assembly, five for sheriff, six for county treasurer, four for register and recorder, four for prothonotary and six for county commissioner.

No Use to Die.

"I have found out that there is no use to die of lung trouble as long as you can get Dr. King's New Discovery," says Mrs. J. P. White, of Rushboro, Pa. "I would not be alive to-day only for that wonderful medicine. It loosens up a cough quicker than anything else, and cures lung disease even after the case is pronounced hopeless." This most reliable remedy for coughs and colds, influenza, asthma, bronchitis and hoarseness, is sold under guarantee at Stoke & Feicht Drug Co. drug store, 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

Notice to Contractors.

Sealed proposals will be received by the town council of the borough of Reynolds, Pa., until Tuesday, the 7th day of April, 1908, at six o'clock p. m., for the curbing of that part of Main street in said borough which lies between the end of the present brick paving on said street at Seventh street on the west, and the borough line at "Cool Spring Hollow," on the east, both for sand stone and cement curbing. All bids to be for the completed work, including all materials, labor and the setting of the curb to the proper grade. The bids to be made shall be for the completed work by the linear foot and shall specify the price submitted on each width of curbing, and also, shall specify and designate those submitted for sandstone and those submitted for cement curb. The plans and specifications therefore can be seen at the office of the Clerk of Council. The council reserves the right to reject any or all bids.

His Turn to Criticize.

Little John, who at the mature age of four has learned the Lord's Prayer, is often criticized by his father, two years older, for slight mistakes which he cannot always avoid in reciting the prayer. A few Sundays ago he was taken to church for the first time. When the moment for the prayer arrived and the congregation bowed their heads John's mother took the precaution to whisper to him that he must be very quiet. "Listen," she said, "and you will hear the minister pray." This interested John at once, and his little face took on a look of serious attention, but his mother, watching him covertly, saw his expression change presently to one of surprise and disapproval. A few minutes more, and he could stand it no longer. What could this man be saying? Not a word of the prayer did he recognize as the only formula he had ever heard called by that name.

Political Methods in Japan.

Lafadio hears through his wife and a few pupils had access to the intimacies and courtesies, the customs and legends and superstitions of the past, which made his happiness. But the necessities of his livelihood brought him into contact with a colder world of polite, critical, practical persons, whose habits of mind jarred at every point on his more wayward and emotional spirit. Writing on behalf of a western friend, who he considered to have been harshly treated by oriental employers, he said bitterly: "Japanese civilization is not lovable, and it is oriental when unpleasant." It does not say, "Here, if you don't like things, get out; here's your salary!" On the contrary, it suddenly becomes coaxing, cajoling, infinitely sweet, and invites you out for multitudinous insult. Then you are suddenly surrounded by smiling combinations unimagined and unimaginable and softly struck in a hundred ways. A knockdown blow is nothing to it. I pity a man of letters in the government service in Tokyo."

Left Out in the Cold.

Elder (discussing the new minister's probation discourse)—In my opinion he wasna justified in dividing folk into the sheep and the goats. I wadna just say, Jamie, that I was among the unco guid, an' I wadna say that you were among the unco bad. So whar do we come in? He'll no do for us, Jamie. We'll no vote for him.—London Punch.

An Estimate and a Hope.

"You've heard her, you say?" remarked Mr. Dumbley. "Ah, she certainly has the gift of song."
"Well, I hope that's what it is," replied Miss Knox. "I should hate to think she paid anything for it."—Philadelphia Press.

Same Old Misery.

"Sposé dar wuz a turkey fer every man in de country?"
"Wouldn't make any difference, fer dey'd have wings enough to fly out er reach."—Atlanta Constitution.

A Piece of Homely Truth.

"Do you expect people to believe all that you tell them?"
"That is not the idea," answered the sagacious campaigner. "The way to win the hearts of the people is to tell them what they already believe."

Freed from Piles

THE JOY OF IT.
The utter misery and despair of the sufferer from piles or hemorrhoids can never be described. Not only the intense itching and stinging, not only the dread of a surgical operation, but the whole system seems to be undermined by this horrible disease.
The joy which cured ones experience on being freed from itching, bleeding and protruding piles is told in thousands of letters received in regard to

Dr. A. W. Chase's Ointment

You need not tell the writers of these letters that there is a case of piles which Dr. A. W. Chase's Ointment will not cure, for they will not believe it. They alone know how they suffered, and also know that this ointment cured them. It brings relief at once. 50 cts. a box, at all dealers or Dr. A. W. Chase Medicine Co., Buffalo, N. Y.
Mr. John Auer, East 5th St., Marysville, Ohio, states:
"For twenty years I could get no relief from itching piles, either from doctors' or other treatments. One box of Dr. A. W. Chase's Ointment positively cured them, to stay cured and the relief and comfort is too great to be described."

Lord Brampton's Innocent Ways.

Lord Brampton, Sir Henry Hawkins, was a picturesque figure who for years gave variety and spice to the dull routine of the English courts. Some of his lordship's ways were unpleasant. When Lord Brampton wanted to get a case finished no one could more quickly grasp the intricacies than he. When, however, he meant a case to last then he was the high priest of innocence. There was not a game or trick at cards with which he was not familiar, yet when the counsel mentioned the ace of spades, "Ace of spades? What is an ace of spades?" cooed his lordship. "It—er—it's one of a pack of cards, of—er—playing cards, m'lad," gasped counsel, taken aback. "Really, then I must ask you to put it in," said Hawkins. A solicitor's clerk was sent flying to a stationer's to get a pack of cards. Upon his return the ace was extracted and counsel handed it up. "M'lad, this piece of card is one of fifty-two such cards which are called playing cards," said counsel. "The card which I now venture to ask your lordship to examine is called the ace of spades." Hawkins took the card, examined it curiously, marked it, placed it with his notes. "Thank you, proceed, please," he said. With legal expenses averaging $5 a minute this little play would cost a fifty dollar bill.

Equal to the Occasion.

Some time ago a friend of mine got a curious present from a sea captain. It was a fine specimen of the bird which sailors call the "laughing jackass," and he was a little proud of it. As he was carrying it home he met a brawny Irish navvy, who stopped and asked him:
"Phwat kind of a burrd is that, sorr?"
"That's a laughing jackass," explained my friend genially.
The Irishman, thinking he was being made fun of, was equal to the occasion and responded, with a twinkle in the eye:
"It's not yerself; it's the burrd OI name, sorr."—London Answers.

A Nation of Cripples Rheumatism Beyond Control

The Only Hope to Rheumatic Sufferers Is Uric-O Treatment

If rheumatism continues to spread as it has in the past few years, it would seem as though we would before long become a nation of cripples. The terrible destructiveness of this disease is apparent on every side of us. Almost nine out of ten of the cripples one meets had their affliction brought on by Rheumatism. How many thousands more there are that are hopelessly bed-ridden and whom we never see, Rheumatism, from the very nature of the disease, can never cure itself and if neglected is bound to grow worse rather than better. If you ever have any twinges of Rheumatism go to your druggist and get a bottle of Uric-O, the wonderful new Rheumatic Specific. It will cure you and it is the only treatment in the world that will cure you permanently and thoroughly. Uric-O cures by its direct action on the muscles, blood and kidneys. It seeks out the poisonous Uric Acid and drives it from the system and it is only a treatment of such a nature that will ever cure Rheumatism. Ointments and plasters only serve to drive it from one spot to another. They never cure Rheumatism, because it is primarily a blood disease, and until the blood is cleared from the poison, a cure cannot take place.

There never was a case of Rheumatism that Uric-O could not cure and you should not put off trying it. You can test Uric-O free of charge if you wish. Just cut out this advertisement and send it to the Smith Drug Co., Syracuse, N. Y., and we will send you a bottle of Uric-O, the wonderful new Rheumatic Specific. It will cure you and it is the only treatment in the world that will cure you permanently and thoroughly. Uric-O cures by its direct action on the muscles, blood and kidneys. It seeks out the poisonous Uric Acid and drives it from the system and it is only a treatment of such a nature that will ever cure Rheumatism. Ointments and plasters only serve to drive it from one spot to another. They never cure Rheumatism, because it is primarily a blood disease, and until the blood is cleared from the poison, a cure cannot take place.

Uric-O is sold and personally recommended in Reynoldsville by Stoke & Feicht.

NEW THEORY SUCCESSFUL IN INDIANAPOLIS

L. T. Cooper Makes Many Converts During Stay in That City.

The new theory (backed up by his preparation) advanced by L. T. Cooper with regard to the cause of most ill health of the present generation is being soon broadcast by this young man.

Cooper believes that the human stomach has become degenerate in civilized races and claims that good health is impossible unless the stomach is re-vitalized. This he claims to do with his preparation.

An article from the Indianapolis Star during Cooper's stay in that city has this to say of Cooper and his preparation: "Residents of this city are being astounded by L. T. Cooper and his new preparation."

"Reports that preceded Mr. Cooper's visit here told of his success in other localities, but the immense success of his medicine and the general belief in his theory was wholly unprecedented."

"So great is the rush of the public to this young man that people stand in line waiting their turn for hours in an effort to see him. The most interesting feature of this is statements made by reliable citizens as to the actual accomplishments of Cooper's medicine. Among recent statements of this character the following is a fair example:

Mr. B. F. Campbell, of 3224 West Washington Street, had this to say of his experience with Cooper: 'I have been a victim of stomach trouble for the past five years—sick and suffering pain all the time. Everything I ate distressed me. I have been under the treatment of many physicians, and have taken all kinds of medicine, none of which afforded me relief. I was greatly discouraged, and was about ready to give up, when Mr. Cooper came to this city to introduce his preparations.

"I was skeptical, of course, after spending so much money and taking such a large quantity of medicine, but, like the drowning man, I was ready to grab at a straw, so I secured some of Mr. Cooper's New Discovery medicine and began taking it. It seemed to help right from the first dose. I have been taking it for several weeks, and can now eat heartily and enjoy my meals for the first time in five years—eat anything, without pain or distress of any kind. I feel like a new being—life is worth living now."

Let us explain Mr. Cooper's remarkable medicine to you if your general health is not all that it should be.—Stoke & Feicht Drug Co.

Amended.

A Pennsylvania divine formed one of a house party in Philadelphia where the younger son, in accordance with what the clergyman observed to be his constant habit, as soon as he had seated himself at breakfast immediately possessed himself of a large slice of bread, the quality of which he proceeded to test by a liberal mouthful.

The minister, a stickler in such matters of propriety, gazed blandly at him for a moment or so; then he folded his hands and closed his eyes in preparation for grace.

"For what we are about to receive," he intoned, with painful emphasis, "and for what our young friend has already received, Lord, make us truly thankful."—Harper's Weekly.

The Greed For Gold.

"It's a deplorable thing, this greed for gold," said the mournful person.
"Of course," answered Mr. Sirius Barker. "If the greed for gold were not so general you and I might have a chance to get some. It's a case of too many people recognizing a good thing and trying to get in on it."—Washington Star.
