Fashions

New York City.—Such a breakfast jacket as this one always is in demand. It can be worn with odd skirts and made from any pretty seasonable Tucked Blouse or Shirt Waist.

The simply tucked shirt waist is a prime favorite and fills an all important place in every wardrobe. It can be trimmed with a little embroidery or with frills, as in this instance, or it can be left plain, and it can be made from a whole host of attractive materials while it is equally well adapted to the gown and to the odd blouse. In this instance handkerchief linen is finished with frills of the same and with bands that are scalloped at their edges, but madras can be used for such a waist as this, the cotton lawns are in every way desirable and for an entire gown such materials as dimity, figured batiste, lawns and the like are charming. The elbow sleeves are both becoming and comfortable during the warm weather, but long ones can be substituted if a more severe effect is required. In addition to all the materials mentioned, taffeta and the very thin wash flannels both are suited to the model which, when made from both of these becomes excellently well adapted to hard usage.

The waist is made with fronts and back. The back is tucked to give tapering lines to the figure, but the fronts are arranged in groups of tucks and are becomingly full and soft. There is a regulation shirt material, or it can be made with skirt to match, and it allows a choice of the three-quarter sleeves with frills and of long ones. In the illustration dotted challis is trimmed with lace and banding, but lawn, batiste, French gingham and all the inexpensive wash fabrics are admirable for the purpose, and lace, embroidery or any preferred finish can be used. The big collar is becoming and attractive, and the elbow sleeves are eminently graceful, but the long ones, finished with cuffs, possess certain practical advantages so that the choice of the two is likely to be a welcome one.

The jacket is made with fronts and back and the circular basque portion, which is joined to it by means of a belt. The collar is arranged over the neck and shoulders, and both the elbow sleeves and the long ones are gathered into bands. The long sleeves are left plain, however, while the elbow sleeves are finished with pointed frills.

The quantity of material required for the medium size is four and one-half yards twenty-four, three and seven-eighths yards thirty-two or two and one-eighth yards forty-four inches wide with six yards of embroidery, four yards of insertion and one and one-half yards of beading.

Bows and Bows.
 The little lingerie bows show no end of pretty ideas. Some are made from fine edging of embroidery; others, of linen, have hemstitched ends and the tiniest of lace motifs set in above. Batiste is trimmed with the narrowest thread lace, and handkerchief linen is often embroidered in a color or simply hemmed with it, each and all perfectly charming in effect. Butterflies bows of colored chiffon and velvet are added to the family of bows this season.

Evening Dress Tip.
 Pale tinted soft satin wears better than chiffon or chiffon cloth. A practical little gown can be made out of such material with only a little softening of lace at the neck. A gown of this kind will stand a good deal of wear.

FACTS ABOUT NEW THEORY SECURED BY INTERVIEWS

People Tell the Reason for Their Faith in Cooper's Belief.

An article from the Nashville, Tenn., Banner, published during L. T. Cooper's visit to that city, throws some light on the remarkable success of the young man's theories and medicines in various cities visited by him during the past year. The article is as follows:

"In view of the enormous sale of Cooper's preparations now going on in this city and the intense interest which Mr. Cooper has stirred up since his arrival, a representative of the Banner spent Thursday afternoon at the young man's headquarters, watching the swarm of humanity come and go.

"During the afternoon the reporter interviewed many of the callers and obtained statements from all who cared to give them as to their experience with Cooper and his preparations.

"The following are selected from those statements as being typical of the general expression of the people seen:

"Mr. B. B. Lasater, living at 1224 North Fourth avenue, when interviewed, said: 'I have been troubled with my stomach for the past two years, and have had rheumatism for more than five years. Sometimes I could not walk, and there were times when I could not even move in bed. Hard knots would form on my muscles, which caused me intense pain. Gas formed on my stomach after eating, which gave me much pain and distress, and often I was restless and tossed all night, losing much sleep and rest.

"Feeling of Mr. Cooper and the great work his medicine was accomplishing for others, I decided to try it. I have taken it about two weeks, and find myself in a greatly improved condition. My stomach is in good shape, and does not trouble me at all. My rheumatism has nearly disappeared, and I expect to resume work shortly, for the first time in twelve months. Mr. Cooper certainly has a wonderful medicine, and I am grateful for what it has done for me.

"Another caller was Mrs. T. J. Smith, of 505 Hudson street. She said: 'I have been a sufferer from bladder and kidney trouble for twenty-five years. In that time I have tried many prescriptions and various kinds of medicine, but received little or no benefit from them. I seldom had a sound night's sleep, my rest being broken at intervals throughout the night. I had pains in my back and burning sensations.

"I heard so much of Mr. Cooper that I came to the conclusion he might be able to afford me some relief. I have now been taking the medicine about a week, and feel better in every way. The pain has disappeared, and I have no distress whatever. I have come here today to express my appreciation to Mr. Cooper for his wonderful medicine and what it has done in my case. I will take pleasure in recommending it to others.

"In spite of assertions by various physicians that Cooper is a fad who will soon die out, the young man seems to be gaining even greater headway as his visit draws to a close."

The agency for Cooper's celebrated medicines has been given to us. We are making a fine record with them. —Stoke & Feicht Drug Co.
