Resolutions of Respect

At the regular session of Bellview Lodge No. 214, Knights of Pythias, DeLancey, Pa., April 2nd, 1908, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, It was the decree of our Supreme Creator whose laws are everlasting and before whose awful majesty and divine will all life must invariably succumb, has seen fit to remove from our midst into the realms of perpetual bliss, on March 23rd, 1908, our beloved and esteemed brother, P. C. David M. Motherwell, and

WHEREAS, The parting from us poor earthly denizens, has cast a shadow and grief on those to whom he most reluctantly bade farewell, and within whose hearts dwelt that spirit of fraternal love, which softly binds all men as brethren, and

WHEREAS, Transition from life to a higher sphere is but promise of higher bliss, and as we mourn the loss of so Valiant Knight and friend, a loyal citizen, a devoted husband and father, and one who was ever ready to proffer the hand of aid, and the voice of sympathy to the needy, and whose memory we love to revere, expressions of sincere balm, to heal the wound in sympathies, consolatory words; therefore, be it

Resolved, That the members of Bellview Lodge No. 214 Knights of Pythias, extend to the widow and family of our lamented brother, P. C. David M. Motherwell our sympathy in their sad affliction, and commend them to the care of our Supreme Creator who doeth all things well. Be it further

Resolved, That these resolutions be spread upon the minutes, and a copy thereof suitably engrossed be forwarded to the widow and family, and our charter be draped for thirty days.

As bowed by sudden storm,
The rose sinks on the garden breast,
Down to the grave our Brother,
Go in silence here to rest.
