FRANK L. SADLER, Of Sykesville. Subject to action of Republicans of Jefferson county at primary election Saturday, April 11, 1908.

A Little of Everything.

Primary election Saturday. Friday, April 24, is Arbor Day. Dr. J. B. Neale spent Sunday in Kane.

A. T. McClure was in Pittsburg this week. Criminal court opens at Brookville Monday.

C. R. Hall is at Sheffield this week on business. Don't forget to vote for Charles M. Dinger for county commissioner.

The Utopia Society will hold a social at home of S. S. Robinson Friday evening.

Meeting of the Men's Club of the M. E. church will be held Friday evening.

The merchants of Sykesville are being very much annoyed by shop-lifters.

A vote for C. Scheafnocker is a vote to continue in office a tried and true servant.

Vote for J. G. Allen; he stands at the head of the list. You may go farther and fare worse.

A vote for W. G. Buffington will be an endorsement of an honorable and worthy young man.

Special trolley will be run from Punxsutawney to Reynoldsville after the theatre next Monday night.

A vote for Lockard is a vote for a staunch Republican who will not become an habitual office seeker.

The school board of Sykesville has bought a lot and will have a $14,000 school building erected this summer.

If you think Charles M. Dinger was right in his fight to have two candidates placed on the ticket, stick to him.

Robert Douthit, who resided on a farm in Winslow township a number of years, is moving into Reynoldsville to live a retired life.

James Pomroy and Miss Alice Spencer were united in marriage by Squire E. Neff at his office on Wednesday, April 1, at 2.00 p. m.

At the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Reynoldsville Brick & Tile Co. yesterday the old board of directors were re-elected.

Alice, five-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Cable, of near Emericville, died Monday evening, April 6, 1908. Measles was cause of death. Funeral today.

Dr. J. A. Parsons will deliver a local option address in the Church of God at Rathmel on Thursday evening of this week, April 9. The voters are especially invited to attend.

ANOTHER MOTHER GONE.

Mrs. Robert Douthit Died Monday Night at Home of George Hartman.

Mrs. Robert Douthit, who was well known to many people in this community, having resided on a farm in Winslow township forty-three years, died at the home of her son-in-law, George Hartman, on Hill street, at 10.15 p. m. Monday, April 6, 1908.

The funeral procession will leave Mr. Hartman's residence at 10.00 a. m. Thursday and go to the Synbit M. E. church in Paradise where funeral service will be held, conducted by Rev. J. C. McEntire and Dr. J. A. Parsons.

Barbara Vasbinder was maiden name of deceased. She was born in Clarion county, Pa., February 9, 1846, and was 62 years old last February. April 10, 1865, she was united in marriage to Robert Douthit and they went to house-keeping on the farm in Winslow township, from where they made their first move last week.

Mrs. Douthit had been a member of the Methodist Episcopal church for many years. She was a faithful and helpful wife, a good mother and a kind neighbor.

James S. Lockard is the oldest man in point of service to the Republican party who is a candidate for county treasurer who has not been rewarded with an office.

Harry Darr is one of the popular candidates for the office of Register and Recorder; a young man fully qualified to attend to the duties of that office both promptly and properly.

A miscellaneous shower was given by Mrs. E. E. Deible at her home on Jackson street last Thursday evening in honor of Miss Irene Philippi.

Jerry G. Allen comes from Warsaw township, a township that has always been loyal to the party and that has never been honored with a public official, therefore, vote for Allen. You cannot vote for a better man.

Only a couple of more days and the primary election campaign in Jefferson county will be over and one hundred and eight out of the one hundred and twenty candidates will be defeated and some of them badly disappointed.

Thirty-five members of the I. O. O. F. lodge of Reynoldsville, including the degree team, visited the I. O. O. F. lodge at Big Run Monday night. They went by special trolley via Sykesville.

Preparation for reunion of the Improved Order of Red Men at Reynoldsville next month is going along nicely. Already twelve tribes have sent word that they will be here to participate in the parade and contest for prizes.

The well known character and ability of T. T. Millin has made him a prominent candidate for Register and Recorder since his announcement. His canvass has been a fair, open field contest and has attracted and impressed the public favorably throughout the county.

Little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Crawford, of Ford City, died Wednesday, April 1st. J. H. Hughes, of Hughes & Fleming, undertakers, went to Ford City, prepared the body for burial and Thursday it was brought to Reynoldsville and taken to home of Miss Mollie Horn, where short funeral service was conducted by Dr. A. J. Meek and interment was made in the Baptist cemetery.

New Trolley Line in Operation.

The new trolley line between Sykesville and Big Run was completed last week and on Monday of this week cars began running between the two towns on schedule time.

The Reynoldsville Lumber Co. planing mill was sold at public sale last Friday and it was bought by D. H. Young for $2,300. Mr. Young expects to have the mill in operation about the first of May and run it full capacity.

Last Wednesday evening the annual congregational meeting was held in the Presbyterian church. The following officers were elected: Chairman, D. H. Breaker; clerk, F. P. Alexander; trustee five years, M. E. Weed; auditor, J. W. Hunter. The pastor's salary was increased from $1,000 to $1,200 per year.

We have been informed, although not officially, that there will not be any government garden seeds sent to the printing offices this spring for distribution. A number of persons have called at THE STAR office to inquire when seeds would be in and we make this statement so that all may know that there will be no free seeds from this office this year.

Earl Galbraith, who is building up considerable strength in Falls Creek for the Republican nomination for sheriff, was here Tuesday shaking hands with his friends. Earl feels that the situation is looking rosy and there are plenty of people in Falls Creek who will not be disappointed if the returns bring him a winner in the April primaries.

The tax levy in Winslow township is less this year than it has been for some years and there will be about $1,200 in the treasury. Two years ago 16 mills were laid and this year the total millage is only 8 mills.

The annual congregational business meeting in the Baptist church that was announced for Tuesday evening of this week, has been postponed until Thursday evening, April 9, on account of union meeting in Centennial hall.

In the list published in THE STAR two weeks ago of home candidates who are seeking nomination at the primary election next Saturday, by mistake, the name of Lawyer Clement W. Flynn, Democratic candidate for Assembly, was omitted. Mr. Flynn is a bright and promising young man and most likely will be one of the nominees of his party for Assemblymen.

The lecture given in the Methodist Episcopal church last Friday evening by Dr. Chas. L. E. Cartwright, under the auspices of the Epworth League, can be classed as one of the best lectures delivered in Reynoldsville this season.

Gaining Friends Every Day.

Frank McClure, of Reynoldsville borough, Republican candidate for the nomination for county commissioner, is adding new friends every day to his host of old friends and supporters.

While he worked in the mines near Punxsutawney all his fellow workmen could testify that he was a friend in need, and he would certainly look after their interest if elected. During his residence in Lindsey he was elected to the office of constable. He left a record that he can justly be proud of.

What we need in men who represent us in the commissioners' office is that they shall be honest, capable and practical. Mr. McClure has these qualifications and if the voters of Jefferson county extend him their confidence it will not be misplaced.

In the person of Ira J. Campbell, who is just concluding a term of service as county treasurer, the people of the county have a thoroughly competent and capable public officer, one who has given careful and painstaking attention to the county's business and courteous and obliging treatment to those transacting business at the treasurer's office.

Mr. Campbell is now before the people of the county as a candidate for Register and Recorder, following a precedent established by his predecessors, Messrs. Reitz and Means—a precedent, by the way, which has given the county the service of two excellent officers.

Mention was made in THE STAR last week of the remarkable work of Ninian Cooper in writing 669 words on a postal card, and a challenge was made for any person to beat it. The remarkable part was on account of the age of Mr. Cooper, who is 83.

Robert Mantell in Shakespeare.

A noteworthy engagement that has already excited the most pleasurable anticipations of interest is that of Robert Mantell at the Jefferson Theatre, Monday, April 13th, when he will appear in the "Merchant of Venice," the most important revival of a Shakespearian play that this city has known in many years.

It seems only a few years since Mr. Mantell was one of the most popular actors who visited this city from year to year in plays of romantic character; since then he has climbed to the supreme heights of the theatrical profession, for he is regarded to-day by the highest authorities as the greatest interpreter of the powerful and sublime Shakespearian roles on the English-speaking stage.

Mr. Mantell has been engaged in the contracting business. If you ask anyone that has done business with him they will tell you that they have always received full value for their money. What we need in men who represent us in the commissioners' office is that they shall be honest, capable and practical.

Jefferson county paid Scheafnocker $1,264.64 less than was paid to his predecessor in the same length of time. Jefferson county received $2,892.64 more in fines and costs from Scheafnocker than was received from his predecessor in the same length of time.

Sheriff Scheafnocker collected and paid to the county $2,650.00 in fines alone (clear profit for the county). NORMAN STEWART, Expert Accountant. Subscribed and sworn to before me the 24th day of March, A. D. 1908.

A rock on the rails in West-Benets Monday morning delayed the westbound P. R. R. passenger train, due here at 8.08, an hour and a half. The rock had been loosened by the recent rains and rolled down on track.

DIED SUDDENLY SATURDAY.

C. S. Armagost Expired at His Home on Jackson Street From Heart Failure.

At 8.00 p. m. Saturday, April 4th, 1908, C. S. Armagost, a respected citizen and old soldier of Reynoldsville, expired at his home suddenly. Mr. Armagost had been suffering some years with a complication of diseases, but the immediate cause of death was heart failure. The news of his death was a surprise and shock to his many friends, as Mr. Armagost had been on the streets at five o'clock Saturday afternoon. At 5.30 he took suddenly ill and at 8.00 p. m. he died.

Mr. Armagost was born at Squirrel Hill, Clarion county, Pa., May 29, 1844, and would have been 64 years old next month. When a youth, not yet 20 years old, the patriotic spirit coursed through his veins and February 26, 1864, he enlisted in Company K, 148th Pa. Vol., and went to the conflict against the soldiers from the south-land. He was in the Battle of the Wilderness, was wounded at Spottsylvania and was in the Harewood hospital. While in this hospital he contracted disease from which he never after suffered. He was honorably discharged June 30, 1865.

August 17, 1865, Mr. Armagost was united in marriage to Elizabeth E. Pentz at Leatherwood, Clarion Co., who survives him. Unto Mr. and Mrs. Armagost eleven children were born, four of whom preceded the father into the Eternal land. The surviving children are: Mrs. John Hall, of Platemouth, Neb.; James A., T. H., D. E. Armagost, of Reynoldsville, Mrs. H. T. Adams, of East Brady, Mrs. C. W. Kimmell, Roy E. Armagost, Reynoldsville. Also survived by 25 grandchildren and 7 great grandchildren.

Mr. and Mrs. Armagost moved to Reynoldsville 20 years ago, and during their residence here made many warm friends. Mr. Armagost followed rail-roading for a quarter of a century and at one time was an engineer on the Low Grade Division. He was a member of the M. E. church for a number of years. He was an unassuming gentleman who paid attention to his own business. Was a good husband and kind father.

Short funeral service was held at the family residence at 7.30 Monday evening, conducted by Dr. A. J. Meek, and the body was taken to New Bethlehem on the 8.08 a. m. train over P. R. R. yesterday. Funeral service was held in the Baptist church at that place and interment was made in the family lot in the New Bethlehem cemetery beside the children who preceded him over the river.

Grand Army comrades acted as pall bearers. Hughes & Fleming, undertakers, had charge of the funeral.

A VETERAN CAMPAIGNER.

John S. Barr on the Home Stretch in the Commissioner Contest. The most picturesque figure in the present primary battle is that veteran of many campaigns, John S. Barr, who is contesting with his old time vigor for renomination as county commissioner. Although in his 84th year Mr. Barr is demonstrating that he is still young, and since he has entered upon his campaign reports come up from every district as to his hustling ability, which age cannot wither. In making his campaign Mr. Barr has the advantage of a wide friendship which has been cemented through many years of active and energetic business life, in which he has proven himself to many people of the county a friend in need and a friend indeed. Probably no other candidate in the field has so large a personal acquaintance as the veteran commissioner, and he has demonstrated in the past that to know him is to be for him at the polls. Although Mr. Barr has filled a number of offices within the gift of the people there is yet to be filed any complaint of failure on his part to do the work for which the people have chosen him intelligently and well.

He has rendered good service to the people and has demonstrated during the past three years his ability to still perform his public duties with energy and ability, and there are many who freely predict that when the votes are counted on the evening of April 11th, the veteran will again be found in the vanguard.

Commenting upon Mr. Barr's candidacy, the Sykesville Post Dispatch says: "John S. Barr, of Brookville, one of our present county commissioners, was in town Tuesday calling with his many friends in interest of his candidacy for re-election for county commissioner. Much credit is due Mr. Barr for the way he has looked after the interests of the county as a commissioner as well as in other public offices he has filled. Mr. Barr, though being an old man is yet one of the best men the county has ever put into office. Square deal to all is assured for another term if he is re-elected which no doubt will be a fact, for he surely will carry the same large vote that he did when elected the last time."—Brookville Republican.

Miss M. E. Dally will give a millinery opening of ladies' and children's hats Friday and Saturday, April 10 and 11, at the store two doors above Imperial Hotel.

John C. Richards, and son, Harry, returned on 2nd inst. from a month's trip to Wiggins, Miss., and the Gulf of Mexico. They were accompanied home by Frank and Miss Sallie Lewis, of Wiggins, Miss.

Why not select a young man who is qualified to perform the duties of Register and Recorder and to attend to the work with promptness, courtesy and accuracy? Vote for Harry Darr. A showing of Easter millinery Wednesday, April 15, at Flo Best's. Allen should receive every Republican vote in Reynoldsville. Why? Because he has been identified with our industrial interests, helping to provide labor for the laboring man. Vote for Allen and get a good night's rest with an easy conscience.
