Disease Has Freaks.

No medical man needs to be told that even disease has its freaks and that recovery has occasionally been brought about by means inexplicably trivial. One of the most remarkable of these unaccountable eccentricities of disease took place at Halver, in Westphalia. The case was that of a boy who, as the result of a very heavy fall backward on his head while skating, had for a year and a half been deaf and dumb. One morning his brother went to awake him and, finding him sleeping heavily, tapped him lightly on the forehead. To his amazement the deaf and dumb boy awoke with a loud cry. Both speech and hearing had been restored.—Kansas City Journal.

Between Fifty and Sixty.

The sixth decade of life has been most prolific in human achievement and may well be designated as the age of the master work. In action alone its accomplishments have revolutionized history, and it would be most difficult to conceive what would be the present status of the world's affairs had these ten years of individual life never existed.—W. A. N. Dorland in Century.

It Stops Itching HEALS THE SKIN.

It is because Dr. A. W. Chase's Ointment possesses in a remarkable degree the ability to stop itching and heal raw skin, that it has become known to the world over as the most successful treatment for such diseases of the skin as eczema, and sah rheum.

Any one who is familiar with the life of Dr. A. W. Chase, the famous Receipt Book author, knows that few physicians ever had such an opportunity of becoming acquainted with the most effective medical treatments, and nothing that the doctor ever put his name to has been so marvellously successful.

Dr. A. W. Chase's Ointment

You can prove this absolutely in any case of eczema. After the first few applications the wretched, stinging, itching sensations are relieved, and gradually and naturally the raw sores become smaller and smaller until they entirely disappear. 50 cts. a box, at all dealers or Dr. A. HOW THE "Advocate" COMPARES IN COST WITH OTHER PAPERS.

The following list of subscription prices of denominational papers of about the same size and grade, shows what a marvel of cheapness the Pittsburg Christian Advocate is:

Pittsburg Advocate,	in advance, $1.00
Western Advocate,	" $2.00
Northwestern,	" $2.00
Presbyterian Banner	" $2.00
Congregationalist	" $3.00
New York Observer	" $3.00
" "	otherwise, $4.00
The Interior	in advance, $2.45
" "	otherwise, $3.00
Herald and Presbyter	in advance, $2.45
The Presbyterian	" $2.45

Most of the above have increased their rates within a year because of increased price in material and labor. The only change made in the Pittsburg Christian Advocate is "cash in advance."

SHE WAS CARELESS.

And So Careful Husband Decided to Teach His Wife a Lesson.

"My wife has a disagreeable habit of leaving her pocketbook in exposed places," said the man who was telling the story. "I had cautioned her more than once that she would lose it if she wasn't more careful.

"I came downtown with her the other morning, and the first thing she did after boarding the car was to deposit her purse upon the car seat, while she relieved herself of the terrible suspicion that her hat wasn't on straight. A movement of her arms knocked the purse on the floor, where it remained until I picked it up.

"I rescued that purse no less than a dozen times before we reached the bargain counter that was the goal of my wife's ambition.

"Events around a bargain counter occur with kaleidoscopic swiftness, and I soon found myself the sole guardian of my wife's purse, which lay before me on the counter where it had been deserted by her in a mad rush for the other end of the counter.

"To teach her a lesson I emptied the contents of the purse in my pocket and retreated to the edge of the crowd to await developments.

"It wasn't long before my wife crowded her way out, triumphantly holding aloft a twenty-five cent cream jug that she had succeeded in buying for 49 cents.

"I didn't know that they charged things here," I began feebly.

"They don't," she answered. "I have money left for three ice cream sodas and a strip of car tickets." And she exhibited the contents of her purse to prove her assertion.

"I nearly fainted when it dawned upon me that I had taken the contents from a purse belonging to some other woman.

"I have no desire to retain possession, and if the woman who lost 70 cents, a postage stamp, three hairpins and a recipe for making angel food will call at my office she may have her property."—Detroit Free Press.

Finished Him.

"Yes," prattled the artless damsel, "I have eight brothers and four sisters. There were sixteen in mother's family and fourteen in her mother's. It's funny about our family. Now, my oldest sister—"

"Maule," gasped the young man, "you mustn't take what I've been saying to you seriously. I hope you understand that it was only a flirtation and that when I asked you to become my wife I—er—well, you understand, don't you?"

Through Foreign Eyes.

Two foreigners were watching their first game of baseball.

"Dot was a dangerous game, yah?" said the German.

"Eet must be, monsieur," replied the Frenchman. "Why, even ze catcher wears a muzzle to keep him from biting people!"—Chicago News.

Didn't Take It Seriously.

"Yes," drawled Regnald, "I always select a gray hat."

"And why?" asked Miss Tabasco.

"Why, to match the color of my brains."

"Gracious! You must select a small hat then."—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

Not interesting.

Mr. Knox—You women are forever discussing the bad points of your neighbors. If you'd only gossip about their good points it would be more edifying.

Mrs. Knox—Yes, but who'd care to listen to us?—Philadelphia Press.

Concerning Work.

"Work is something that none of us can avoid."

"That's right," answered Mr. Dustin Stax. "Even if you hire somebody to do your work you've got to work hard to keep him from loafing or spilling something."—Washington Star.

Safe and Sane.

"I never can tell what that son of mine is going to do next."

"I can always be sure what mine will do."

"What's that?"

"Not a darned thing."—Cleveland Leader.

Worse Than Too Bad.

The suburbanite stood on the back platform of the car smoking his morning cigar. He struck up a conversation with the conductor when that brass buttoned gent was not busy.

"Whatever became of that basket of eggs that was left on your car?" he inquired.

"I took them home," gloomily replied the conductor.

At the astonished look from the passenger the conductor explained:

"You see, any article left in my car mine if no one puts in a claim for it within six weeks. The six weeks were up yesterday, and the company told me to take the eggs away."

"Too bad," said the passenger.

"Rotten," said the conductor.—Kansas City Newsbook.

Shakespeare's Descendants.

Besides his first child, Susanna, Shakespeare's only other children were a boy and a girl, twins, born in 1585. Susanna married a Dr. Hall, a Stratford physician, in 1607, was left a widow in 1635 and died in 1640. She had only one child, a daughter, who, though twice married, left no children.

Of the twins, the boy, named Hamnet, died at the age of eleven, and the girl, Judith, married Thomas Quincey and had three sons, who all died childless.—New York American.

Men's Dress.

Men are dressed as they are chiefly because fewer of them look ridiculous so clothed than they would in any other costume. Modern dress is merciful to men. It gives no undue advantage to the well built and handsome. Indeed, it detracts from their appearance and modifies the figures of those not blessed with a fine physique.—Court Journal.

Bishop Blomfield was one of the many witty Englishmen whose good things have found their way into a volume of reminiscences, "Leaves From the Notebooks of Lady Dorothy Nevill."

Bishop Blomfield was led into a controversy one time with a learned man as to the mental superiority of the east over the west, and his opponent as a parting shot said:

"Well, at any rate, you can't dispute that the wise-men came from the east."

"Surely that was the wisest thing they could do!" retorted the bishop.

PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD

BULLETIN

TOUR TO YELLOWSTONE PARK AND THE CANADIAN ROCKIES.

In Northwestern Wyoming, in the heart of the Rocky Mountains, lies one of nature's richest treasures—the Yellowstone National Park. Set apart by Act of Congress for the enjoyment of mankind, it is America's greatest show ground. To visit this Park is to see nature in a variety of majestic moods. Mammoth hot springs, with multi-colored terraces, cliffs of glass, beautiful lakes, mighty falls, glorious canyons, and geysers of all descriptions, are found in this wonderful region.

On August 24 a personally conducted tour through the Yellowstone Park to Portland and Seattle, returning through the magnificent Canadian Rocky Mountains, will leave the East by special train over the Pennsylvania Railroad. Five and one-half days will be spent in the Park, one day in Portland, one day in Vancouver, one day at Field, B. C., one day at Laggan, Alberta, one day at Banff, and stops will be made at many other points of interest. The tour will cover a period of twenty-two days.

As an educational trip for either teacher or scholar, this tour is especially attractive, as it covers a section of America rich in scenery and replete with the marvelous manifestations of nature.

The rates, which will cover all necessary expenses, will be $246 from New York, $243.20 from Philadelphia, $241.20 from Washington and Baltimore, $230.80 from Pittsburgh, and proportionate from other points.

Preliminary leaflets may be obtained of agents, and detailed itineraries will be ready for distribution shortly. Persons desiring to avail themselves of this opportunity to visit the Park of the Nation should make application for Pullman space early, as the party will be limited. Make application through local ticket agent or address Geo. W. Boyd, General Passenger Agent, Broad Street Station, Philadelphia.
