Brevities

THE HALL OF FAME.

Admiral and Mrs. Dewey are spending the summer at Buena Vista, Pa.

Major Weed of New Haven, Conn., aged sixty-seven, has ridden 49,735 miles on a bicycle in the last eight years.

F. L. Prèntiss of Alstead, N. H., after living in one house for fifty-seven years has decided that it is time to move.

W. Cole of Groombridge, Sussex, England, has succeeded in planting 5,000 cabbages in three hours and ten minutes. In the first hour he planted 2,003.

Colonel William C. Greene, the "copper king" of Cananea, Mexico, accompanied by his daughter and a party of friends, is making a tour of the world.

Edward Rogers, a Norridgewock (Me.) man, with other men was cutting down a tree when a young crow flew down from the nest, and Rogers, making a flying leap, caught the bird.

George Getty of Franklin, Pa., has been the father of twenty-eight children by two wives, and twenty of them survive; also forty-eight grandchildren and twenty-five great-grandchildren.

Prince Cen, son of Prince Ching, president of the board of foreign affairs, and Liang Tun Yen, assistant secretary to the board of foreign affairs, have been selected to receive the American fleet of battleships when it arrives at Amoy.

Vernon Stiles, the American tenor, has been engaged for a period of six years to sing leading tenor roles at the Royal Opera in Vienna. After three years, under the terms of the contract, Mr. Stiles is free to return to America for five months each year to sing at the Metropolitan Opera House, New York.

Laundry Lines.

Drive a hook or staple in small end of ironing board and hang in closet or inside of door.

In ironing handkerchiefs it is well to begin at the center. If one irons the hem first the middle will have a tendency to bulge or "full."

If you unexpectedly find your wire clothesline hopelessly rusted, lay strips of newspaper on it and pin clothes over them. Then the first bright day give your line two good coats of gray paint.

Flannel will not harden or shrink if when new it is put into clean cold water and left for a week, changing the water frequently. Wash well in warm water, using a little soap to remove the oil. Flannel thus washed never hardens.

English Etchings.

London eats 180,000 tons of fish a year.

England loses 60,000 persons every year by emigration.

The newest visiting card fad is to have a little plan showing the residence and the adjacent streets printed on the back.

The latest wonder is the installation at the London Hippodrome of a series of tiny machines that silently generate sea air in the auditorium.

The Society For the Protection of Ancient Buildings has been making strenuous protests of late against the manner in which Exeter cathedral is being restored, more especially with reference to the sculpture, which, it is declared, has been obliterated without reason.

Pith and Point.

A man hates faint praise worse than he hates abuse.

The little things get together and cause big troubles.

Every one thinks he gives as much to the poor as his means will allow.

A genius is a man who knows how to do only one thing and knows how to do that well.

A man is never so humble that his opinion is not worth quoting when favorable to you.

Roosters are a good deal like men. A rooster never gives notice of having found a worm until after he has swallowed it.—Aitchison Globe.

Plays and Players.

Doris Mitchell will be Norman Hackett's leading lady in "Classmates."

George Broadhurst has written a new play, called "An International Marriage."

A dramatization of "David Copperfield" may be produced in Paris the coming season.

Dallas Welford is to appear in a new piece under the Shubert management called "Her Highness Radish."

Andrew Mack will star the coming season again under the management of William Harris in the repertory including "Arrah-na-Pogue" and a new comedy.

Encouragement.

Encouragement is something we naturally look for. A little praise, a word of hope or a cheerful smile—something for a hungry soul to grasp and the weary mind to rest upon, as we climb the toilsome mountain of life. How many poor hearts have sunk into despondency, when a little encouragement has reassured them. The soldier looks for it on the field of battle; it is the cheering voice of his leader that urges him on through the danger of death and crowns the day with victory. The poet and the artist, the writer and the musician look to the world to acknowledge their genius and give them praise. It is encouragement which calls forth their noblest words to climb the mount of fame until they surmount all difficulties and write their names in flaming letters upon its summit. Then let us give encouragement to each other in every effort of good, in every noble action, in the little duties of life, and we will be happier for it, the world will be better, and a smiling providence will look down and bless our labor of love.—Exchange.
