NUTRITIVE HYPOPHOSPHITES

When a person feels "blue"—"all tired out"—"doesn't feel like doing anything"—cannot concentrate his mind on his work—feels weak mentally and physically—doubts his powers—complains of poor appetite and sleeplessness—suffers from headaches—then his nervous system is run-down and demands a good up-building tonic.

Funeral of A. T. Bing. The funeral of A. T. Bing, the highly esteemed and well known merchant, who dropped dead on Main street on the evening of August 3, 1908, was held at the family residence on Grant street at 10.00 a. m. Friday, Dr. J. A. Parsons, pastor of the First M. E. church, had charge of the funeral. He was assisted by Dr. A. J. Meek, of Baptist church, Rev. A. D. McKay, of Presbyterian church, Reynoldsville, and Rev. J. H. Jelbart, pastor of the M. E. church of Brockwayville. All the business places in town, stores, banks, dental offices, printing offices, barbershops, meat shops, blacksmith shops, barrooms, &c., were closed during the funeral hour and a large number of business men attended the funeral. There never was a funeral in Reynoldsville on a week day—that so many business men attended as were at the funeral of Mr. Bing. The floral tributes from relatives and friends were profuse and beautiful. Interment was made in Reynoldsville cemetery.

August Term in Progress. The August term of criminal court opened Monday with Judge John W. Reed on the bench. Dr. J. W. Foust, of Reynoldsville, was appointed foreman of the grand jury, and Wm. Gibson, constable of Clover township, was placed in charge of the grand jury. R. K. Mohny, of Brockwayville, and William Gaston, of Oliver township, were appointed tipstaves to assist the regular court tipstave, C. H. Withers.

Judge R. S. Holt, of Beaver county, is assisting Judge Reed this week. Judge Holt is presiding in the court room and Judge Reed is occupying the jury room on the third floor. Judge Reed gave the constables and the grand jury some advice on the subject of their duty in regard to seeing that the roads of the county were kept in good repair, and read the recent act of assembly regarding the removal of loose stones from the highway, commenting upon the fact that the act does not make neglect to remove these loose stones a criminal act, but that action must be taken against the supervisor by an individual, and the fine of $10 specified by the act collected as a debt.

Harry Bryan Had Narrow Escape. Harry Bryan, an employe at the Ross House, who has a local reputation as a "yarn spinner," came very nearly having his brains spilled on the ground last Wednesday by being hit on head with a large cake of ice. Mr. Bryan was helping to get out some ice and was stooping down when the man in ice house threw out a large cake of ice, which fell about eight feet and struck Harry on head. It required four stitches to sew up the gash on his head.

Circle No. 2 of the Presbyterian Work Society will hold a lawn fete and automobile excursion at Mrs. L. P. Miller's lawn, Main st., this Wednesday evening, Aug. 12. Every body invited.

Tony Danore was hit just above the temple with a stone thrown by another boy which cut an ugly gash about four inches long in his head. Had the stone struck an inch lower it would likely have killed Tony.

At the recent third annual Arnold reunion held in Clarion Miss Isabel Arnold, of this place, was elected secretary of the reunion association for the coming year. The reunion will be held in Curwensville next year.

The Reynoldsville and New Bethlehem ball teams played at Alcola Park yesterday afternoon. On account of some rank decisions by the umpire the Reynoldsville team refused to play in the eighth inning and forfeited the game. The score was 4-4 when our boys quit, but they claim the score should have been 4-2 in favor of Reynoldsville team.

PROF. STAHLMAN MARRIED. Principal of Eleanora Schools and Miss Anna Mauk United in Marriage. Prof. C. A. Stahlman, of Ringgold, principal of the Eleanora public schools, and Miss Alice Mauk, daughter of Mrs. Anna Mauk, of near Worthville, were married in the M. E. church at Worthville Sunday, Rev. E. Ringgold, officiating. The church was crowded with relatives, friends and neighbors of the high contracting parties, who are both highly esteemed by a large circle of friends in both Ringgold and Worthville. Mr. and Mrs. Stahlman will reside in Eleanora.—Punxsutawney Spirit.

Opening Postponed. The services that had been planned for the opening of the Presbyterian church August 18th have been postponed, as the church will not be completed. Preaching will be held in the Centennial hall in the morning.

Wedding this Morning. James McCloskey and Miss Mary O'Neil, both of Rathmel, were united in marriage in the St. Mary's Catholic church in Reynoldsville at 7.00 a. m. today, Wednesday, August 12. Father P. A. Lynch performed the ceremony.

John Walker Dead. John Walker, for a number of years a resident of Rathmel, died at his home at Soldier on Tuesday, August 11, 1908. Deceased was born in Scotland 68 years ago. Funeral Thursday afternoon. Interment in Reynoldsville cemetery.

Birthday Surprise Party. Mrs. Grant C. Rhoads was given a birthday surprise party on Friday evening of last week, August 7. There were sixty-four members of Pocohontas Council and other friends present. Mrs. Rhoads was given a very nice present. Various kinds of games were played. Supper was served at 10.30.

Jonathan H. Frederick Dead. Jonathan H. Frederick died at his home in Winslow township Saturday, August 8, 1908. Pulmonary tuberculosis was cause of his death. Deceased was born September 8, 1835, and was 72 years and 11 months old at time of death. Interment was made in Temple cemetery, near Hazen, Monday. Rev. Sibley conducted funeral service.

Tall Grass. Some of our exchanges have been "blowing" about tall grass that grew in their neighborhood, but there were three stalks of timothy left at THE STAR office Saturday that beat any we have heard of this year. Each one of the three stalks measured 5 feet and 6 inches. This tall grass grew on what is known as the Henry Beams farm in Henderson township, which is now being farmed by Ira Eagle.

Bowser Reunion. The annual reunion of the Bowser family will be held on Tuesday, August 25th, at the fair grounds in Kittanning. This annual reunion of the Bowser family is becoming quite an event and it is attended by hundreds of Bowsters from all over the country. There are two members of the family in Reynoldsville, Dr. A. H. Bowser and Mrs. D. R. Cochran, who will likely attend the reunion on 25th inst.

Trees Fell All Around Them. Will P. Woodring and family camped last week on the hill back of West Reynoldsville and during the rain and wind storm that came this way Tuesday evening eleven trees were blown down near their tent, but fortunately none of the trees fell on the tent, in which Mr. Woodring and his family were sheltered from the storm, unconscious of the danger that was lurking around. After the storm had passed and Mr. and Mrs. Woodring looked out and saw the number of trees that the storm king had uprooted they were very much frightened.

A few children's low shoes, that can be yours for little money. Adam's. Notwithstanding the fact that the Lock Haven State Normal School has large dormitories, its rooms will all be taken for the fall term beginning Sept. 7th. This is an indication of the esteem in which this splendid school is held by the young people of this state. It has a first class equipment, a fine faculty and an ideal location. Expenses are moderate. Address the principal for illustrated catalogue.

HOME TIES BROKEN. Mrs. Wm. G. Brenholtz Died in Adrian Hospital Wednesday Morning. Monday of last week Mrs. W. G. Brenholtz was taken to the Adrian hospital in Punxsutawney to be operated on for a tumor. At 8.00 a. m. Tuesday the operation was performed and at 2.00 a. m. Wednesday, August 5, 1908, Mrs. Brenholtz died. The body was brought to her late home on the Coax farm, near this place, and at 3.00 p. m. Friday funeral service was held at the family residence, conducted by Dr. A. J. Meek. The floral tributes, consisting of wreaths and bouquets, were beautiful. Interment was made in the Reynoldsville cemetery. Henry Priester was funeral director.

Sarah Emma Bish was born in Clarion county, Pa., October 16, 1870, making her 37 years, 9 months and 20 days old at time of death. On the first day of March, 1893, she was united in marriage to Wm. G. Brenholtz, whom, with three daughters, Carrie, aged 14 years, Margaret, aged 6 years, and Florence, aged 3 years, survive the wife and mother. Mrs. Brenholtz was a member of the Gethsemane Baptist church at Allens Mills 15 years. She was a devoted wife and mother and good a neighbor.

Besides the husband and three daughters, deceased is survived by her father, J. A. Bish, two brothers and one sister, S. P. Bish, of Templeton, W. G. Bish, of New Bethlehem, and Mrs. Spencer, of Armstrong Co.

Death of an Estimable Lady. Mrs. Susan, wife of John Ryder, of Rathmel, died at that place August 4, 1908, at the age of sixty-four years. The funeral service was held at the Rathmel M. E. church at 2.00 o'clock Friday afternoon, conducted by Rev. W. E. Frampton, of Sykesville. Burial was made in the Reynoldsville cemetery. Mrs. Ryder was born in Cornwall, England, March 9, 1844 and came to America twenty-six years ago. In 1893 the family moved to Rathmel and ever after resided there. The widower, five sons and one daughter survive, as follows: Edward, George and William Ryder, of Illinois, Eli Ryder, of New Kensington, Pa., Thomas Ryder, of Rathmel, and Mrs. James Rowe, of Illinois.

The floral tribute was beautiful, consisting of wreaths by friends of Rathmel, and Mrs. Nelle Harris, bouquets by Mrs. Eli Ryder, Mrs. Chas. Harris, Mrs. T. Trudgen, and many other friends.

Tally-ho Excursion. Thursday afternoon Miss Fannie Alexander gave a delightful tally-ho excursion to eighteen of her friends to Luthersburg. Supper was served at Hotel Carlisle. There was a dance in hotel parlor in the evening. The party was given in honor of Miss Alexander's guest, Miss May Van Dusen, of Hastings. Mrs. W. B. Alexander acted as chaperon. The following young people composed the party: Miss May Van Dusen, Miss Florence Harris, Miss Lucille Deible, Miss Marie Altman, Miss Alice Mitchell, Miss Lena Herpel, Miss Maude Pratt, Miss Ida Williams, Miss Fannie Alexander, Messrs.
