GOLDEN WEDDING ANNIVERSARY Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Ross Married Fifty

Ps., and Monday evening of this week, August 17, 1908, they were given a surprise celebration of their fiftleth wedding anniversary. It was an impromptu party. About 6.00 p. m. Monday their eldest daughter, Mrs. A. P. Utter, decided she would give her parents a surprise party on the evening of their golden wedding anniversary and invitations were sent out by telephone a couple of hours before the guests were expected to assemble at the Ross House, the home of the bride and groom of fifty years ago. There was some hustling around on the part of Mrs. Utter, Mrs. Stamey and several friends to get refreshments ordered and ready for the event, but they were equal for the occasion.

A. B. Weed took Mr. and Mrs. Ross out for an automobile ride to get them out of the way while preparations were being made for the surprise party. Everything worked off micely, and the party was as enjoyable and as much of a success as if preparations had been made a week before. There were thirty guests present, among whom was 'Squire W. L. #### Over One Hundred Little Tots Presented for Contest.

BABY SHOW FRIDAY EVENING.

A new and novel scheme for drawing a crowd was the baby show at the residence of Dr. John H. Murray on Main street last Friday evening, under the auspices of the Baptist choir. The committee did not expect over fifty babies to be entered for the contest for the prettiest and fattest, and were greatly surprised when over one hundred bables were presented for the contest. They were numbered up to eighty-two and then there was no more room for bables and the last twenty bables that were brought could not be entered. The bables were all numbered and were voted for by number. All babies under nine months were put in one room, those from nine to eighteen months were put in another robm and those from eighteen to twenty-four months were in a separate room. Three rooms full of bables in clothes baskets and on the floor. It was the biggest exhibition of babies ever seen in Reynoldsville and was certainly a novel sight. The voters paid ten cents for the privilege of casting their ballot for the prettlest and fattest in the three divisions, and the winning candidates were as follows: Under nine months-Prettlest, No. 19, name unknown; fattest, Roy Sykes, 6-month-old son of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Sykes, of Sykesville. Roy weighs 16 pounds.

Nine to eighteen months-Prettiest. Aldine Mitchell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph B. Mitchell; fattest, Olive Gertrude Skinner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. F. Skinner.

Eighteen to twenty-four months-Prettiest, Martha Cuara Siple, anughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Siple; fattest, Nellie English, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph English. The interior of the house was elaborately and beautifully decorated with flowers and bunting. The color scheme was yellow and white. Japanese lanterns were strung along in front of the lawn. A lawn fete was also held and peaches and cream, ice cream and cake were served. The members of the choir are very thankful to the mothers for the interest they took in the contest.

The babies were all nicely dressed and were all pretty little pleces of humanity, but as there were only six prizes to be given, two in each class, seventy-six of the innocent candidates were defeated.
