

Preparing Medicines

Preparing medicines from doctors' prescriptions is not only our most important work but it is also the work we like best to do.

We take a professional pride in this work and give it our unstinted endeavor. Will you trust your prescription in our care?

Stoke & Feicht
Drug Company

A Little of Everything.

There was a frost in this section Friday morning, August 21.

The Winslow township schools open Monday, September 14.

The West Reynoldsville school opens next Monday, August 31st.

Read the Macaroni Factory article on last page of this issue.

The members of the Ingelo Club picniced near Wishaw last Friday.

The Methodist Episcopal choir held a picnic near Wishaw yesterday afternoon.

How about the merchants picnic this year? Time to arrange for it if it is to be held.

H. E. Cochran, a Paradise farmer, raised 294 bushels of wheat on a ten acre field this year.

Miss May Eddy entertained twenty-five young people of this place at her home at Camp Run last evening.

The Daughters of St. George will hold a picnic at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Sarah near Soldier to-day, August 29.

Thomas Sharp, a member of the S. of V. Camp at this place, was wounded in the sham battle on Sheesley's hill Friday afternoon.

Special annual Harvest Home service in the Trinity Lutheran church at 10.45 a. m. next Sunday. Vesper service at 7.45 p. m.

Eugene Deemer cut an ugly gash in his left hand last Friday evening. He was cutting a snag with a penknife and the knife slipped.

Mrs. Ann Siple, Robert V. Siple and wife, J. S. Cooper and wife and Misses Leanna and Alma Siple were in Brookville Friday attending the Hutcheson reunion.

The doctor's picnic at Wishaw Park Thursday afternoon was well attended. It was confined almost exclusively to physicians, dentists, druggists and their families.

At the state convention of the Ancient Order of Hibernians held in Philadelphia last week Bernard Rice, of DuBois, was elected state vice-president of the A. O. H.

Dr. Eugene Flynn, one of our town boys, who graduated recently in a Philadelphia dental college and passed the state board examination, will open a dental office in Big Run.

The Reynoldsville baseball team will play the Tyler team at Tyler this afternoon. A number of "rooters" from here will go over to see the game, which promises to be a good one.

Next Sunday Dr. J. A. Parsons will close his fourth year as pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church. He will go to Erie Annual Conference at Jamestown, N. Y., Tuesday, September 1st.

Frank Sutter and family, Fred K. Alexander and family, Frank P. Alexander family and Dr. R. De Vere King and family are living close to nature this week at Camp Quay, near Sandy Valley.

The suit of Postmaster E. C. Burns vs. Reynoldsville borough for damage to property in grading Fourth street for paving is on trial in court at Brookville. Mr. Burns claims $700.28 damage to his property.

Circle No. 2 of the Presbyterian Work Society will hold a lawn fete on Mrs. L. P. Miller's lawn Saturday evening.

Mrs. A. P. Utter entertained a number of lady friends at a ten o'clock breakfast last Friday and in the evening Mr. and Mrs. Utter gave a card party to a number of friends. Dainty refreshments were served.

The members of the Baptist Missionary Society and their husbands will picnic at home of Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Atwater at 3.00 p. m. to-morrow, Thursday. Miss Elsie Ross will give an address on home mission.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas M. Jewell went to Dayton, Armstrong Co., yesterday to attend the centennial celebration of the organization of the Glade Run Presbyterian church, which takes place to-day and to-morrow, August 26 and 27.

The fire alarm given by the power house at Rathmel Junction about two o'clock Sunday afternoon startled the denizens of that section, but quick work prevented any property loss. A defective flue on a dwelling caused all the trouble.

A special train will be run over the P. R. R. from Reynoldsville to the Harvest Home picnic at Aicola Park Thursday morning of this week. Train leaves here at 7.45 and will stop at entrance to park. The regular trains will not stop at park.

John McMartin was playing baseball Thursday afternoon and in sliding to second base he sprained his left ankle very badly. He will not be able to use his left foot for some time. A broken limb would not have been much worse than the sprain he sustained.

Large crowds attended the four-day carnival at Nolan Park last week. Reynoldsville was fairly represented. A special train was run from here to the park Thursday morning. The Nolan Park Association gave the people a good four day program this year.

Twelve members of the Odd Fellows lodge of Cool Spring, visited the I. O. O. F. lodge in this place Saturday evening and brought one candidate with them to have the degree team of this place confer the second degree on him. The Reynoldsville team does fine work.

The Presbyterian church and Sunday school will hold a picnic at Wishaw Park on Friday of this week. Tickets good for the round trip can be secured at McEntire's drug store for 10 cents and can be used on any car going that way on Friday. An enjoyable day is anticipated.

Mrs. E. Norine Law, noted temperance lecturer, was booked to speak in Centennial hall four evenings this week, but a telegram last week calling her to the bedside of a sister in Michigan, who is seriously ill, made it necessary to cancel the dates for Reynoldsville for the present.

The ball game at Reynoldsville last Wednesday afternoon between the home team and Brookwayville's fast team was a fine exhibition of base ball. Our boys were a little too fast for the visitors and at the end of ninth inning the Reynoldsville team had 5 scores and the visitors had 2 scores. There was a large attendance at this game.

George H. Small, of Cool Spring, a prominent Granger in the county, who was one of the Republican candidates for the Assembly nomination at the primary election in April, was in town Saturday wearing his usual smile and shaking hands as cordially as if he had been nominated. George don't propose to allow a defeat for the nomination for office sour him against the people. Oh, no.

The Reynoldsville base ball team will be deprived of the services of Catcher Reynolds Gibson, for a few weeks through an injury received in the game with Brookwayville Wednesday. A Brookwayville player swung on one of Carney's curves for a foul tip and Gibson attempted to take the ball right off the bat. His right hand was split open for two inches from the base of the fingers.

Mrs. August Baldauf went to Pittsburgh Saturday to see her fourteen-year-old son, John Baldauf, who was operated on in the Mercy Hospital on Thursday for appendicitis. Mention was made in THE STAR last week that John had an attack of appendicitis July 4th and recovered from it, but was afraid of another attack and decided to undergo an operation before he would be prostrated with it again. John is getting along nicely and will be able to return home inside of a couple of weeks.

The Pifer reunion was held at Romantic Park, Sykesville, last Thursday. There were about five hundred persons present. The Pifer orchestra, composed of members of Thomas H. Pifer's family, of near Eleanor, was present and furnished music for the picnickers. Harry Pifer, of Reynoldsville, is a member of the orchestra. A game of baseball was played between the Jefferson county Pifers and Clearfield county Pifers and the Jefferson county boys were victorious. Score 8 to 11.

Married Thursday Evening.

At 6.30 p. m. Thursday, August 20, 1908, Floyd Douthitt and Miss Myrtle Binney were married by Rev. J. C. McEntire at his home in West Reynoldsville.

Died at Heathville.
Mrs. Clinton C. Myers, whose maiden name was Mary Groves, died at her home at Heathville Tuesday, August 18, 1908, and was buried on Friday. Mrs. Myers was well known at Deemer's Cross Roads and Horntown.

Will be Operated on To-day.
E. A. Hull, manager of the Supply Co. store at this place, who had a severe attack of appendicitis the early part of July, will go to the Adrian Hospital at Punxsutawney to-day to undergo an operation for appendicitis.

Operation for Appendicitis.
Miss Margaret Stokes, clerk in the Stoke & Feicht Drug Co. store, went to the Mercy Hospital in Pittsburgh Friday afternoon and was operated on Saturday morning for appendicitis. She stood the operation all right and is getting along nicely.

Two Draw Games.
The Soldier foot ball team and the Austrian foot ball team of Wishaw have played two games this month, at Soldier August 8 and at Wishaw August 22. They were both draw games. These two teams are evenly matched and both played hard to win out.

Old Folks' Day.
The annual old folks' day service, under auspices of the Epworth League, will be held in the Methodist Episcopal church at 11.00 a. m. next Sunday, August 30th. Dr. J. A. Parsons, pastor of the church, will preach a special sermon. As has been the custom heretofore, carriages will be furnished to take to and from the church all the old people who are crippled or too feeble to walk.

Mishap Coming From Mountains.
Mrs. Minerva Strauss and son, Prof. Will L. Strauss, who camped in Boone's mountains, Clearfield county, during the summer for benefit of the latter's health, returned home last week and were both injured, although not seriously, on the trip home. They were driving a mule in a top buggy and the animal became unruly and ran away with them. Mrs. Strauss and son were both thrown out of buggy and were injured.

Hope Hartman Died Saturday.
At 8.00 a. m. Saturday, August 22, 1908, Hope, little daughter of George Hartman, died. She had been ill one week with cholera infantum. Hope was born October 1st, 1905, and was two years, ten months and twenty-one days old at time of death. She was a member of the M. E. Sunday school cradle roll. Funeral service was held at the family residence on Hill street at 3.00 p. m. Sunday, conducted by Dr. J. A. Parsons. Interment was made in the Reynoldsville cemetery beside the mother, who died one year ago last May.

Church Opening.
Opening services will be held in the Presbyterian church next Sunday. The church has been closed, undergoing repairs and improvements, since the first of May. Sunday school will be held at 9.45 a. m., preaching at 11 a. m., Men's Brotherhood meeting and Christian Endeavor at 6.30 p. m. and preaching at 7.30 p. m. Rev. W. Frank Reber, of Hutchinson, Kansas, a former pastor of the church, is expected to be present and to preach either in the morning or evening. No money will be received at either service for the improvements. An organ recital will be given a week from next Friday evening, Sept. 4. A good program is being prepared for it and will appear in THE STAR next week.

Fifth Annual Outing.
The fifth annual outing of the Chic-Corn Club was held at the Old Salt Works, three miles west of town, last Friday evening and according to reports it was "the best ever." There are twenty members in the club and at the last three outings the ladies of the members have been guests. The men do all the work. Following are the members of the club: Henry C. Deible, Lawyer G. M. McDonald, James W. Gillespie, Charles M. Milliren, Ira S. Smith, W. C. Elliott, George W. Stoke, Jr., W. C. Murray, A. T. McClure, H. Alex Stoke, Dr. J. H. Murray, J. S. Hammond, Walter R. Reed, Andrew Wheeler, Charles A. Herpel, John H. Wagner, W. Harry Moore, Dr. L. L. Means, J. M. Dailey, Dr. Harry B. King.

A remedy for tired, burning feet, White Cross foot powder 10 and 25c. Adam's.

Keep your shoes in shape with a pair of shoe trees. Womens' 50c and mens' 75c. Adam's.

No Bounty Money.

According to reports emanating from the Auditor General's Department at Harrisburg no more state money will be paid for the scalps of noxious animals for a year at least. The last Legislature appropriated $50,000 for this purpose, authorizing the payment of $4 for each wildcat, $2 for each fox and $1 for each mink or weasel. Only $2,347 remains of the appropriation and bills for bounties were received at the auditor general's department aggregating $22,979. The money on hand will be distributed pro rata among these claimants, who will thus get about 10 per cent of their claim. Many hunters have made out well on the bounties. One Huntingdon county man collected $1,500. The next Legislature will be asked to double the appropriation.

K. G. E. Reunion Coming Here.
The annual reunion of the Knights of the Golden Eagle of Northwestern Pennsylvania was held at Ocolea Mills, Clearfield county, last Wednesday and was attended by a large crowd. The weather was fair and all things favorable, making it a very pleasant event for the Knights in attendance. Thomas Justham was the delegate from Mountain Cliff Castle of Reynoldsville and was successful in having the association choose Reynoldsville for the place of holding the reunion in 1909. The date will be set by the local lodge later and will probably be in the latter part of July or first week in August.

Some Tall Ones.
Five feet eleven inches! That's the latest tall timothy record reported at THE STAR office and K. B. Daemer, who raised it, had a field of giant timothy that looked like a forest of California trees before it was mowed. The Deemer's Cross Roads section is gaining a good reputation for fertility. It is reported that two years ago Daniel Smith, one of its substantial agriculturists, raised a field of corn that averaged twenty feet in height and had stalks so thick that he let the contract for cutting it to a crew of lumbermen. When they bound the sheaves it was necessary to use ten foot ladders to do the work.

Medical Society Program.
At the September meeting of the Jefferson County Medical Society, to be held in Reynoldsville the fourth Friday of the month, the following subjects will be taken up: Cholera Infantum, Dr. J. B. Neale, of Reynoldsville; Artificial Feeding of Infants, Dr. Meigs Byer, of Punxsutawney; Acute Enterocolitis, Dr. Johnston, of Eleanor. Dr. Lorenzo, of Punxsutawney, will lecture on the pathology and treatment of the above diseases, and conduct a clinic given at the medical colleges. Not only members of the society, but laymen are invited to attend the September meeting.

Re-Building Glass House.
The McKeesport Steel Construction Company has been given a contract for the erection of the cutting house and flattening room of the Brookville Glass & Tile Company, destroyed by fire in the evening of July 3rd, and began work on Monday upon the dismantling of the walls and the salvage of the iron work now in the ruins. The new building will be rushed to completion at the earliest possible moment.—Brookville Republican.

Explosion in Church.
While Dr. J. A. Parsons was praying during the Sunday evening service in the Methodist Episcopal church there was a loud explosion, a flash like lightning, scream from the gentler sex, with assistance from a few of the sterner sex, and all was still again. It was all over in a second. A fuse in one section of the electric light switch board had burned out.

Letter List.
List of unclaimed letters remaining in post office at Reynoldsville, Pa., for week ending Aug. 22, 1908.
W. M. Chappelle, Miss Rose Fineburg.
Say advertised and give date of list when calling for above.

E. C. BURNS, P. M.
Tail Oats.
George W. Jorntmesser, who resides near Wishaw, brought several oats stalks to THE STAR office last week that were 5 feet and 7 inches long. This is certainly tall oats.

Estray Notice.
Strayed on the premises of the undersigned at Rathmel Junction, August 2, 1908, a brown colored yearling heifer, both hind feet white. Owner must come and claim heifer and pay costs or she will be sold according to law.
M. E. HENRY.

Card of Thanks.
We are very thankful to our neighbors and friends for their kindness during illness and after death of our beloved daughter and sister, Hope.
GEO. HARTMAN AND FAMILY.
Meeting Hope Fire Co.
A meeting of Hope Fire Co., by order of chief, will be held at 8.15 p. m. Thursday of this week. All members are requested to be present.

THE PEOPLE WHO ARE PASSING TO AND FRO.

Benjamin Jones was in Clearfield this week.

A. T. McClure was in Pittsburg over Sunday.

Lewis Johnston visited in Beechwoods Sunday.

Miss Hallie Burns visited in Brookville this week.

Roscoe Deible was in Kittanning several days last week.

Miss Nulu Neale was in Pittsburg several days the past week.

Miss Mary Cronk, of Wilkesbarre, is the guest of Miss Dora Reed.

Lester McGaw, of Brookville, visited Reynoldsville friends this week.

Miss Irene Johnston has been visiting in New Bethlehem the past week.

A. B. Weed and wife are visiting in Oakmont and Pittsburgh this week.

Mrs. George W. Warnick spent Saturday and Sunday in Punxsutawney.

Miss Allie Lineweber, of Kittanning, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Myers.

Earl Dempsey, of Dents Run, visited his father in this place the past week.

Mrs. D. E. Hibner, of DuBois, visited at home of Rev. J. C. McEntire yesterday.

Albert Feicht, of Punxsutawney, visited his parents in this place Monday.

Dr. J. A. Parsons attended Cherry Run campmeeting, near Sligo, this week.

Charles Eddinger, of Brockwayville, was a guest at home of N. Hanau this week.

George F. Wildauer and wife, of DuBois, visited their parents in this place Sunday.

Fred Pifer, of Ridgway, spent Sunday with his brother, Harry K. Pifer, in this place.

Miss Queen Covil, of Brookwayville, is the guest of Miss Maude Jennings this week.

Miss Nelle Stevenson, of Pittsburg, was the guest of Miss Tacy Dempsey last week.

Mr. and Mrs. N. Chittister went to Verona yesterday to remain some time with a son.

Miss "Ted" Himes, of Brookwayville, was the guest of Miss Cora Robertson the past week.

Richard Millen, of Ridgway, was a visitor at home of his uncle, Will H. Bell, the past week.

Misses Mary and Agnes Leister, of Falls Creek, were guests of Miss Kate Feicht over Sunday.

Dr. A. M. Kennedy, of Fayette City, Pa., spent Sunday at home of Postmaster E. C. Burns.

Miss Edie Elliott, of Philadelphia, is visiting her grandmother, Mrs. J. L. Test, on Main street.

Misses Maude and Helen Meek left here Friday to visit in Pittsburgh and Washington Co., Pa.

Mrs. George Shunkmiller, of Clearfield, was the guest of Mrs. J. W. Chatham last week.

Miss Ida Plyler, of Summerville, was the guest of Mrs. John T. Barclay several days last week.

Mrs. Homer Keatley, of Clarion, visited her sister, Mrs. L. L. Guthrie, in this place last week.

Mrs. E. B. Covil, of Brookwayville, was the guest of Mrs. I. F. Miller several days the past week.

Leo Strauss, of Philadelphia, is visiting his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. N. Hanau, in this place.

William Robertson and wife, of Bitumen, who was visiting in town, returned home yesterday.

Walter C. Henry, one of our clothing merchants, is visiting his parents at Hamilton, Pa., this week.

Miss Susan Patterson, of Bradford, returned home Monday after a visit in this place and Eleanor.

Mrs. Earl Dempsey, of Dents Run, visited at home of her father-in-law, J. W. Dempsey, this week.

Miss Sara Hunter, of near Coal Glen, spent Sunday at home of her brother, E. W. Hunter, in this place.

John Marsh, of Punxsutawney, visited his daughter, Mrs. T. D. Brewer, in this place last week.

Constable W. W. Higgins and family and Warren W. Deible and family camped at Camp Quay last week.

Mrs. T. G. Morgan and family, of Franklin, are visiting at home of the former's mother, Mrs. J. J. Davis.

Mrs. H. Earl Swift and daughter, Angeline, of Brookville, were campers at Mammoth Park the past week.

Misses Grace Knox and Eleanor Rogers, of DuBois, were guests of Mrs. M. J. Lord a day the past week.

Miss Ida Showers left here yesterday for Hot Springs, South Dakota, where she expects to stay six months at least.

Mrs. J. F. Singer, of Galeton, Pa., visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. Chittister, in this place the past week.

M. J. Farrell was in New Castle over Sunday.

Mrs. L. L. Guthrie is visiting in Heathville.

Dr. R. W. Norris, of Waynesburg, visited his mother, Mrs. Robert Norris, in Paradise during the past week.

John R. Hillis, wife and two daughters visited the former's brother, Dr. R. J. Hillis and family in Altoona the past week.

Philip Hutchison and son, Floy, of Kittanning, visited the former's sister, Mrs. George Mellinger, in this place the past week.

Dr. Howard L. Kaucher, of Bond Brook, N. J., is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Kaucher, at Imperial Hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. Emanuel Reitz, of Manistee, Mich., were guests of L. L. Guthrie and wife in West Reynoldsville over Sunday.

Misses Rose and Mary Marshall, of Hooker, Butler Co., are visitors at home of their uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Corbett.

Mrs. C. A. Stephenson was at North Fork Park, Brookville's summer resort, from Friday until Tuesday the guest of Mrs. Dr. T. C. Lawson.

J. W. Riggs and daughter, Ethel, Mrs. Mary Riggs and Mrs. H. F. Stauffer attended the Riggs reunion in Brookville last Thursday.

John Tyson and Miss Ida Keele, of Ocean, N. Y., are visiting at home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James A. Tyson, on Jackson street.

Frank Smith, an employe in the government printing office in Washington, D. C., visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John S. Smith, in this place the past week.

George Rush, of Wilmerding, and Miss Helena Rush, of Bedford, Pa., visited at home of their uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Farrell, in this place last week.

Miss Mary A. Blakley, of DuBois, and Miss Rena L. Reitzel, of Tyler, two expert railroad telegraphers, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Weed Monday afternoon.

Miss Grace Meek and brother, Andrew Meek, who spent about three months visiting relatives in Washington and Westmoreland counties, returned home Friday.

Mrs. Emma Clark, of Viola, Ill., who visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Bolt, in this place since last May, started for her western home yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. M. A. Gayhart and children, who have been staying in West Reynoldsville over a year, left here yesterday morning for their home in Hot Springs, South Dakota.

B. W. McClure, who has been near Pittsburgh for almost four months, was in town the past week. Mr. McClure and family will return to their home in this place soon.

Mrs. Anna McClarren and daughter, Miss Ethel, of Pittsburgh, who have been visiting the former's mother, Mrs. Thos. Reynolds, in Paradise five weeks, will start for their home this week.

Mrs. William Velt, of Brookville, is making her last visit with Mrs. Henry Foltz in Wishaw prior to the departure of Mr. and Mrs. Velt for the western country, where they go next month.

Mrs. G. J. Weshek and two children, of Newark, N. J., are visiting the former's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Riston. Mrs. Weshek, whose maiden name was Eleanor Taylor, formerly resided in this place.

John Collins, wife and three children, left Reynoldsville Saturday for Battle Creek, Michigan. Mr. Collins has four sisters living in that city whom he has not seen for twenty years and will spend two weeks with them.

Mrs. Will Tyson and Mrs. John McClure, of Big Run, Mrs. James Barrele, of Punxsutawney, Mrs. John Groves and daughter and Mrs. C. A. Wilson, of DuBois, were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank P. Alexander on Fifth street last Thursday.

Get the Habit.
If we get used to looking at the jolly side of things, we'll soon see the things radiating back brightness and good cheer with interest. Life is like a French-plate mirror, and reflects back to us our smiles and frowns. Cultivate a smile or cheerful disposition, and it's dollars to ginks that you find happiness every day in the week.—Franklin News.

The new styles for fall in tan and black leathers are ready for your inspection at Adam's.

Brown, tan and ox blood polish 10c at Adam's.

Cleanshine, a white polish for black shoes. No black on your fingers, 10c. Adams.