It is estimated that 12,000 people attended the Brookville fair last Thursday.

In the near future the Helping Hand Society of the M. E. church will serve a New England dinner.

At the monthly meeting of the Reynoldsville Building and Loan Association Monday evening $3,600 was sold.

The Summerville Telephone Company is putting up a new copper wire line between Reynoldsville and DuBois.

The Mahler glass plant at DuBois began operation last Friday night and the New Bethlehem plant will begin work this week.

Frank Tapper is at Clarion this week with the four horse tally-ho hauling people from Clarion town to fair grounds and return.

Roy Evans, of this place, had his left arm broken last Wednesday afternoon in jumping off a P. R. R. freight train at Brookville.

Chester Arnold was at the Grube hospital in Punxsutawney Monday for an examination for tuberculosis. He does not have the disease.

Rev. John F. Black, pastor of the M. E. church, will preach next Sunday morning on "Here and Now," and in the evening on the "Pre-eminence of Christ."

Mrs. Barrett's Sabbath school class will hold a dime social at the M. E. church Friday evening, September 25. Peaches and cream will be served. Everybody invited.

Next Saturday, September 26th, is a Jewish holiday—New Year Day—and for that reason the Peoples Bazaar store will be closed from six o'clock Friday evening until Monday morning.

Four hundred and thirty tickets were sold at the P. R. R. station in this place last Thursday for Brookville—the big day at the fair. In addition to above a number of one way tickets were sold and a number of people used mileage books.

The W. C. T. U. of Jefferson county hereby offers a prize of $5.00 to the pupil of any of the schools of the county who writes the best essay upon local option. For particulars write to the County President, Mrs. Tillie Fitch, Brookville.

The M. E. choir gave a farewell social at home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Gillespie last Friday evening in honor of Miss Mary Parsons, who was one of the faithful members of the choir during the four years of her father's pastorate in Reynoldsville.

Reynoldsville, for a village of its size, undoubtedly has more cases of appendicitis than any town on the map. Scarcely a week passes that two or three residents of that place do not undergo an operation for the popular disease.—Punxsutawney Spirit.

A meeting of the Jefferson County Pomona Grange will be held at Elder Grange, Oliveburg, Pa., on Wednesday, October 13, 1908. The Rathmel and Horntown Granges will take part on program. Mrs. A. W. Mulholland, of Rathmel, will give a reading at the evening session.

CUPID CONTINUES PRANKS.

Klauser Robison and Miss Cora C. Greene Married Last Week.

Wedding bells rang out right merrily on Wednesday, September 16, 1908, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Greene, Union township, four miles west of Brookville. The occasion was the marriage of their only daughter, Miss Cora C. Greene, to Mr. Klauser Robison, of Parnassus, Pa. The wedding ceremony was solemnized at 11:00 a. m. in the presence of about forty guests, the bride's pastor, Rev. I. N. Earle, of the Brookville Baptist church, officiating. The bride was given away by her father. The maid of honor was Miss Ada Thomas, of Butler, the bridesmaid being Miss Mildred Robison, of Brookville, sister of the bridegroom. Roy Greene, brother of bride, acted as best man. The wedding march was played by Miss Margaret Martin, of Reynoldsville. After the ceremony the guests retired to the dining room where they were served with a sumptuous wedding dinner. The bride carried a magnificent bouquet of white carnations, which, after the wedding feast, was thrown from the stairway into the midst of an eager group of the unmarried. In the merry scramble to see who would be the next candidate for matrimonial bliss, we did not learn who carried off the prize, but believe there will be several next ones.

Mr. and Mrs. Robison begin their married life under very happy auspices. They will reside at Parnassus, where Mr. Robison has a home ready furnished for his bride. Many beautiful and valuable presents will adorn their home and remind them of the love and good wishes of friends, among which the chief was a handsome check to the bride from her father. It is believed that this will be no check to the happiness of the youthful pair.

Mr. and Mrs. Robison spent several days in Reynoldsville at home of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Kline and Mrs. Hannah Butler. They will reside at Parnassus.

Mr. Robison resided in Reynoldsville about eight years and has a large circle of friends here who extend congratulations and good wishes.

Prof. C. D. Koch, State High School Inspector, visited the Reynoldsville school yesterday.

Mrs. I. N. Earle, of Brookville, returned home yesterday after spending ten days with her daughter, Mrs. J. E. Kirkwood. The stork visited the home of Rev. and Mrs. Kirkwood on 12th inst. and left a son.

Samuel C. Copenhaer, aged 24 years, son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Copenhaer, of Parnassus, died in Brookville Monday noon, Sept. 21, 1908. Dropsy was cause of death. He had been in Brookville some time receiving treatment. Interment will be made in Falls Creek cemetery to-day.

Malcolm Pierce, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Pierce, of Prospect, died Thursday, September 17, 1908, aged 2 years, 3 months and 27 days. Funeral was held Saturday, conducted by Rev. J. E. Kirkwood, Missionary American Sunday School Union. Interment was made in Prospect cemetery.

The Winslow township school house at the Salt Works was destroyed by forest fires last Friday. As there were only two or three pupils to attend this school it was abandoned last year, the scholars sent to Best school and the furniture taken out of the building, so the loss was not as much as it would have been had the furniture been in the building.

Joseph Turner Darr, aged one year, son of Mr. and Mrs. William T. Darr, of Brookville, died at Bayonne, N. J., Thursday afternoon, September 17, 1908. Mrs. Darr had taken Joseph to Bayonne for benefit of his health and he took suddenly worse and died. The little body was taken to Brookville Saturday morning and was interred in the Brookville cemetery Saturday afternoon beside Joseph Turner Darr, grandfather of deceased Joseph was a grandson of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Hall, of Reynoldsville.

Some boys and young men are making themselves very offensive and liable for arrest by spitting on the dresses of women as they pass along Bradford street, near the Supply Co. store. There will be several arrests made some of these days and then the guilty parties will want the newspapers not to publish their names on account of their parents. Better think of that before the offense is committed. A boy or young man that is contemptible enough to spit on a lady's dress should have their names published.

The public water fountain at corner of Main and Fifth streets, which is a great blessing to man and beast, showed signs of being very much affected by the dry spell, but an examination at the spring from whence the supply comes, it was discovered that there was still a good supply and that the lack of water at fountain must be attributed to some other cause. The fountain was taken down Monday and it was found that the elbow of pipe into fountain was so thoroughly corroded that the water supply was shut off. A new pipe was put in and the fountain is now shooting out an abundance of sparkling water.

FRANK HENRY DEAD.

Died at Cannonsburg, Pa.—Body Brought to Reynoldsville Saturday—Interment Sunday.

Frank Henry, aged 29 years, 5 months and 22 days, died at his home at Cannonsburg, Pa., at 10.30 a. m. September 18, 1908, after an illness of over five weeks with typhoid fever. The immediate cause of his death was acute peritonitis. The body was brought to home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Henry, in this place on the 12.52 p. m. train on the P. R. R. Saturday. Service was held at home of the parents at 2.00 p. m. Sunday, conducted by Rev. S. Yates, of Sugar Hill, and interment was made in Baptist cemetery. Deceased was a member of the Improved Order of Red Men at Cannonsburg and members of Mazomania Tribe No. 341, of Reynoldsville, attended the funeral in a body.

Eight years ago Frank Henry was united in marriage to Mertie Wiley, daughter of Charles Wiley, near this place. Unto them one daughter was born, now nearly seven years old, whom with the wife and mother survive deceased. He is also survived by his parents, three brothers and five sisters, James L., Andrew and David Henry, Mrs. John Nelsonger, of Reynoldsville, Mrs. James Walker, of New Kensington, Mrs. Fred Hawk, of Kaylor, Mrs. Fred Biggie and Miss Edith Henry, of Reynoldsville.

Arnold-Conger Nuptials.

Charles J. Arnold, a well known and prominent citizen of West Reynoldsville, and Miss Emma F. Conger, of Brookville, were united in marriage at the Catholic church in Brookville at 6.00 a. m. Tuesday, September 22, 1908. They came to Mr. Arnold's home in West Reynoldsville yesterday, where they will reside. A host of friends extend congratulations and good wishes.

Reception Thursday Evening.

A reception, under the auspices of the Epworth League, will be held in the Methodist Episcopal church on Thursday evening of this week at 8.15 o'clock for the new pastor, Rev. John F. Black, and family. A short program has been arranged. Every member of the church and congregation are requested to be present to extend a cordial welcome to the pastor and family and to enjoy the reception.

Seventh Anniversary.

The seventh anniversary of the organization of Mystic Commandery No. 313, A. and L. O. K. of M., in this place, will be observed with a banquet at Frank's Tavern and entertainment in the K. of P. hall on Tuesday evening, October 14. The members and their lady friends will meet at the hall at 7.30 p. m. and go to Frank's Tavern for banquet. After the banquet an entertainment will be given in the hall. Invitations will be issued to the members in a few days.

Don't Burn Rubbish.

Last Saturday printed notices, signed by Chief Burgess McCreeght, were put up in town calling attention to the ordinance forbidding the burning of rubbish, &c., on any street or alley within the borough limits, and also requesting people not to burn rubbish, &c., on their lots during the extreme dry spell, as there is danger of setting fire to some house or barn. There is no law forbidding property owners from burning stuff on their own lots and the burgeses can only make a request that no such fires be started when there is so much danger of even a spark being the means of destroying some person's house, and surely no one will ignore the request.

Cattle Thieves Arrested.

Last Wednesday evening Isaac and Fred Hoover and Edward Salada were arrested in DuBois on charge of stealing cattle. They were given a hearing before Squire Barclay Thursday morning and Isaac Hoover and Salada plead guilty to stealing nine heifers from two different parties within two weeks. Being unable to put up the required amount of bail for their appearance at court the trio was taken to the Clearfield county jail.

Several thousand head of cattle are pastured each summer on the barrens between DuBois and Clearfield and herders make a regular business of taking care of the stock. It is claimed that cattle thieves have stolen 200 head of cattle valued at $8,000.00, from the herders. The three men arrested last week are supposed to be part of the gang that has been stealing the cattle.

Lots of good bargains on our 10c and 15c dry goods counters this week. Bing-Stoke Co.

PRETTY HOME WEDDING.

Miss Mertie M. Davis and John R. Whitel Join Matrimonial Ranks.

At 8.00 p. m. Wednesday, September 16, 1908, Miss Mertie M. Davis, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Davis, of West Reynoldsville, and John R. Whitel, whose home is near Punxsutawney, were united in marriage at home of the bride's parents in the presence of 25 immediate relatives of the bride and groom. Dr. A. J. Meek, pastor of the First Baptist church, performed the wedding ceremony, using the impressive ring ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Norman Sprague were the attendants. The bride was dressed in a pretty blue silk. After congratulations and good wishes an excellent wedding supper was served. Mr. and Mrs. Whitel received a number of useful and valuable presents.

Saturday morning the bride and groom left here on a wedding trip to Buffalo, Niagara Falls, N. Y., and Toronto, Canada. They will likely reside at Bellewood, Pa., where Mr. Whitel had been employed as a moulder before the money stringency effected the industries of the country. The numerous friends of this newly married couple extend congratulations and good wishes.

The following out of town relatives from a distance attended the wedding: B. M. McEntire, wife (sister of bride) and two children, of Frampton, Misses Melissa Henry, of Kingsville, and Jessie Servey, of Clarion, cousins of bride, Miss Edith McEntire, of Frampton.
