

Has modern schools and churches, paved streets, water, gas and electric accommodations, convenient trolley service, high and healthful location, varied employment for labor and many other residential advantages

The Star.

Offers exceptional advantages for the location of new industries: Free factory sites, cheap and abundant fuel, direct shipping facilities and low freight rates and plentiful supply of laborers.

MYSTERIOUS DISAPPEARANCE OF WILLIAM HARRIS SUNDAY MORNING PUZZLES FRIENDS

Drove to Camp Quay, Above Sandy Valley Saturday Night.

DESERTED HORSES FOUND NEXT MORNING IN CAVE-IN

Searching Parties Organized By Relatives Scour Woods For Three Days Without Finding a Trace of the Man.

Between twelve and one o'clock Saturday night Thomas Mitchell and Audley Myers went to E. C. Burns' livery stable and hired a double team and driver to take them to the Quay Camp in Beechwoods. William Harris went along as driver. Mitchell and Myers say that Harris started on the return trip from camp about 2:00 a. m., but he has not yet returned to town and although a search has been made no trace of Harris has been found. Jake Boyer, who lives about a mile from Quay Camp, found the team of horses almost buried in an old coal mine near his home about ten o'clock Sunday forenoon. One horse was on top of the other, the harness was almost all torn off the horses and they were badly bruised and skinned. It is doubtful whether one of the horses will recover. When the horses were found Mr. Boyer sent a boy to Sandy Valley and some men went to the old mine and had to work several hours before they got the horses out. The props were taken out to mouth of mine and the roof cut down so the horses could walk out. It was Burns' spirited team of bob-tails.

The township road formerly crossed over the old mine near opening, but people had been driving around the mine for sometime, but the road over top of mine had never been closed to the public, and on the return trip the team had started over the old road and the earth caved in with the horses. It is not known whether Harris was in the back when the team fell into the mine, or whether he got frightened and skipped out when he saw the horses plunging in the deep hole. It is hardly possible that he would runaway and leave the team in the mine. Harris' disappearance is a great mystery.

Mr. Harris, father of the lost man, who resides at Brockwayville, with others has been searching for his lost son the past two days. He is of the opinion that something serious has happened to his son. Wm. Harris is twenty-eight years old.

There was a report here last evening that a man answering to description of Harris was seen going towards Ramseytown yesterday afternoon.

Mining Congress.

The eleventh annual session of the American Mining Congress will be held at Pittsburgh December 2, 3, 4 and 5, 1908. The main purpose of the convention is to bring out the opinions and suggestions of all men interested in mining upon such matters as need consideration, in order to arrive at a remedy for any improper condition. To this end, every member of the convention is earnestly requested to introduce by resolution such matters as he may deem important. County commissioners can appoint two delegates, mayor can appoint two and mining organizations two. The name and postoffice address of each delegate appointed should be forwarded to the secretary, J. F. Callbroath, Jr., care Chamber of Commerce, Pittsburgh, Pa.

The Virtue of Silence.

There is a charity that consists in withholding words, in abstaining from speech, in to speak is to condemn. Such charity hears the tales of slander, but does not repeat it; listens in silence, but forbears comment; then locks the unpleasant secret up in the very depths of his heart. Silence can still rumor; it is speech that keeps a story alive, and lends it vigor. It is in the kind and gentle heart that charity abides with the peacefulness of a dove. There it makes its home, and by the word withheld, and the kindly one unspoken, we have the sign of the dove of peace nesting in the heart. For kind words are like "apples of gold in pictures of silver."—Exchange.

Subscribe for THE STAR $1 a year.

Nagging.

The Erie Dispatch makes these observations on nagging, a habit that does more toward making life miserable for more people than any other in the entire catalogue:

"There is nothing so sure to drive happiness from home, as the habit of nagging. The parent who does this makes life miserable for all under the roof. Children, servants, everybody responds vastly better to carefully worded praise than to constant fault-finding.

"Of course, there will always be some short-comings to correct. Our children, not being born angels, it is unfair to expect them to be perfect.

"The wise mother tries to say 'do' as often as possible, instead of 'don't.' She knows when to be blind and deaf to childish doings, and when to correct, but she will never nag at a child, for that is sure to do more harm than good.

"It has been well said: 'A mother is responsible for her child, body and soul.' Too often people forget that the average child, who has plenty of sleep, lots of wholesome play and fresh air, and ample nourishing food will not be troublesome or 'bad.'

"Even the saintliest mortal is not proof against constant nagging, there is nothing so calculated to send children away from the sheltering arms of home, which should be made the dearest, happiest spot on earth."

CAMELS HARBOR HATRED.

Will Wait Until an Opportunity Arrives For Revenge.

The Arab who has angered a camel will throw his clothes upon the ground, and the infuriated beast after stamping on them and tearing them asunder with its teeth goes on its way, and the driver is thereafter quite safe, as it seems to be an axiom with the camel that no man shall be put in peril of life twice for one offense.

The camel is stupid save when angry and then seems to become almost preternatural in carrying out its vengeful designs. Palgrave relates the following story of a camel's revenge, which serves to illustrate this point: "A lad of fourteen had conducted a large camel laden with wood from one village to another at a half hour's distance. As the animal loitered or turned out of the way its conductor struck it repeatedly and harder than it seemed to have thought he had a right to do; but, not finding the occasion favorable for taking immediate quits, it 'bode its time.' That time was not long in coming.

"A few days later the same lad had to reconduct the beast, but unladen, to his own village. When they were about halfway on the road and at some distance from any habitation the camel suddenly stopped, looked deliberately round in every direction to assure itself that no one was in sight and, finding the road clear of passers-by, made a step forward, seized the unlucky boy's head in its monstrous mouth and, lifting him up in the air, flung him down again on the earth with the upper part of his skull completely torn off.

"Having thus satisfied its revenge, the brute quietly resumed its pace toward the village, as though nothing were the matter, till some men who had observed the whole, though unfortunately at too great a distance to be able to afford timely help, came up and killed it."—London Telegraph.

Why He Drowned.

Describing the stringent police regulations of Berlin, a citizen of that city by way of illustration told the following story:

"Schmidt and Krauss met one morning in the park.

"Have you heard," says Schmidt, "the sad news about Muller?"

"No," says Krauss. "What is it?"

"Well, poor Muller went boating on the river yesterday. The boat capsized, and he was drowned. The water was ten feet deep."

"But couldn't he swim?"

"Swim? Don't you know that all persons are strictly forbidden by the police to swim in the river."—Philadelphia Record.

Not Mentioned by Herodotus.

Xerxes was meditating upon his good luck in having been made king by his royal father in preference to the eldest son.

"Still," he said, "if the succession had been determined by a primary election I would have got it just the same. Naturally everybody would have marked an X opposite my name."

Subsequently, however, the Greeks gave him the double cross at Plataea.

—Chicago Tribune.

A Peer Place.

"And you say you almost starved to death in your last position?" said the kind housewife. "What position was it?"

"I was treasurer of a poets' union, mum," replied the dusty wayfarer, with a deep sigh.—Exchange.

Fashionable Wedding At DuBois Thursday

Miss Nora Wilson United to Marshall R. Allen Thursday Evening.

A wedding of unusual social interest took place Thursday evening, Nov. 5, at 8 o'clock at the home of Dr. and Mrs. C. A. Wilson, of East Long avenue, when their daughter, Miss Nora LaVonne, was united in marriage to Mr. Marshall R. Allen.

A large number of invited guests were present, many from out of town, and the wedding was an affair of great brilliancy from start to finish. The house was most charmingly decorated throughout with palms, ferns and smilax.

Promptly at 8 o'clock Miss Florence Murphy struck up the wedding march from Lohengren and the bridal party entered the parlor. The bride on the arm of her father was preceded by her twin nieces, Mildred and Marian Alexander, of Reynoldsville, aged five years, who strewed rose petals along the path. The bride was accompanied by Miss Edna Evans, of Philadelphia, who acted as bridesmaid, and Robert Matthews was best man to the groom.

The ushers were Frank Alexander, of Reynoldsville, and Warren Wilson, of DuBois. The bridal party took their positions and the words of the wedding ceremony were pronounced by Rev. J. Bell Neff, who used the impressive ring service of the Methodist Episcopal church.

Following the ceremony, a wedding supper was served. The bride's table was attractively decorated in smilax, pink ribbons and pink roses.

In the neighborhood of seventy guests were present and the event was one for the giving of hearty congratulations and the exchange of sociability until the northbound B. & P. flyer left bearing the newly wedded couple away for a trip to Syracuse, New York, Philadelphia and other eastern cities.

There was a fine array of presents, expressions of the high esteem in which the young people are held. Mr. Allen has been a resident of DuBois for several years, being employed at the Corbett company store. He is a young man of great promise and undoubted ability. The bride is a young woman of great popularity among her associates.—DuBois Express.

The bride, who is a sister of Mrs. Frank P. Alexander, of this place, visited in town frequently and is known by a large number of young people in Reynoldsville.

Glendale.

Mrs. Frances Shoemaker is visiting among her many friends in this place. Mrs. Alice Moore's mother, Mrs. Geo. Wilson, visited her last week.

The Sulger Lumber Co. will shut down their mill for the winter after this week.

The P. S. & N. R. R. has built a very neat and substantial flag station at this place.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Burkhouse were visiting friends and relatives in Brookville Monday and Tuesday of this week.

The Hallowe'en social at the Horn Run school was not very well attended last Thursday evening.

George Wilson passed through Glendale last week on his way to Emerickville.

John Emerick and family were the guests of Charles Berkhouse and family last Sunday. When they returned home Miss Elva Berkhouse accompanied them for a visit of a few days.

Friday Night's the Night.

Friday night's the night! At last an opportunity will be given to see the much talked of European and New York success—"The Devil" (Der Teufel). There is hardly any doubt but that the Jefferson Theatre at Punxsutawney Friday evening, Nov. 13, will be crowded to its utmost capacity, judging from the enormous advance sale of seats. By special arrangement with Henry W. Savage, Mr. Alfred E. Aarons is enabled to present to the theatregoers of Punxsutawney the version that created such a furore at the Garden Theatre, New York. It is without a precedent that one play can be presented simultaneously at two New York Theatres, but "The Devil" has succeeded in accomplishing this stupendous feat, and to capacity houses at that.

L. P. Seeley Died Suddenly at His Pittsburgh Home Yesterday

High School Bulletin

Editor-in-Chief, MARGARET FRAMPTON
Senior Reporter, ADA EARLEY
Junior Reporter, JANE SMITH
Soph. Reporter, MARION HARRIS
Fresh Reporter, JAMES DEHART

We have determined to produce a Bulletin which shall conform as nearly as possible with the ideas of our readers, as to what the Bulletin should be. We want it to be interesting and the way in which this can be accomplished is for every student and faculty member to take an interest in it. We shall be glad at any time to receive suggestions as to the improvement of this column.

Mrs. J. W. Hunter, nee Craig, called on the R. H. S. Friday.

Miss Coleman resumed her work of teaching music in the school Monday.

Messrs. Evans and Crissman visited our school last week.

Monday was the first day of the third month.

Prof. Rife will speak on the subject, "Are our courses of study too advanced or rigid?" at the Round Table Conference of Superintendents and Principals of Central Pennsylvania at DuBois November 20.

All the exams. are over?

Rev. Wallace Mitchell visited our school Friday.

The Juniors have taken up Latin composition to aid them in reading Cicero.

The Seniors have commenced to read Milton's minor poems.

Prof. in Latin—Be seated at the board.

Senior—Cheap, cheaper, more cheaper, more cheaply.

Senior—"In the church yard?" Wish we all were there.

The R. H. S. and Big Run played a game of football on the latter's grounds on Tuesday of last week. The game was very interesting during the first half and open football was used by our boys. The game started by Big Run kicking to Reynoldsville. Heckman got the ball on the 20-yard line and went to Big Run's 45-yard line. Then our quarter-back, Nolan, called a delayed pass and carried about 15 yards. Bohren got the ball on a criss-cross and with Nolan's interference made a touchdown. After two minutes' play Burns kicked goal. After the touchdown the ball was kept about the middle of the field. The first half ended with the score 6-0 in favor of R. H. S. In the second half Reynoldsville kicked to Big Run. Reynoldsville held them for downs and Big Run kicked. Heckman recovered the ball and was downed after running about twenty yards. Then Nolan, trying another fake play, called Bohren for a fake kick, who went around the end for about 40 yards. For various reasons the game was not finished, the score remaining 6-0 in favor of Reynoldsville. Line-up of R. H. S: Ends, Edleblute and Wescoat; tackles, Coleman and Heckman; guards, Moyer and Fisher; center, Bohren; right half, Heckman; left half, Bohren; full back, Foley; substitute, Postethwait; head linesman, London and Hartman.

Teacher to Juniors—A word to the wise is sufficient.

Teacher—Smile.

Pupil—I don't see anything to smile about.

The Rev. I. R. Hicks Almanac.

For 1909, ready Nov. 15, 1908, best ever sent out, beautiful covers in colors, fine portrait of Prof. Hicks in colors, all the old features and several new in the book. The best astronomical year book and the only one containing the original "Hicks Weather Forecasts." By mail 35c, on newsstands 30c. One copy free with Word and Works, the best $1 Monthly in America. Discounts on almanacs in quantities. Agents wanted. Word and Work Pub. Co., 2801 Locust St., St. Louis, Mo. Every citizen owes it to himself, to his fellows and to Prof. Hicks to possess the Hicks forecasts,—the only reliable.

American Boys' shoes, made for service, price $2.00 and $3.50. Adam's.

Was a Prominent Business Man In Reynoldsville for Many Years.

TO BE BURIED AT PITTSBURGH

Mr. Seeley Was a Partner In the First Bank Established In Reynoldsville and Still Had Large Interests Here.

The news of the death of L. P. Seeley of Pittsburgh, who died suddenly at 5:00 p. m. yesterday, November 10, 1908, in Pittsburgh, was a great shock to his relatives and friends in Reynoldsville. The announcement of his death was like a clap of thunder out of a clear sky. He had been ill several weeks ago with rheumatism in left shoulder and side, but had recovered sufficiently to look after his business again.

The older citizens of Reynoldsville and vicinity were well acquainted with Mr. Seeley, as he had been engaged in the mercantile business in this place about twenty years.

Leonard P. Seeley was born in Warren Co., Pa., sixty-three years ago. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Seeley, moved to this vicinity in 1862. After spending a couple years here L. P. went to Corry, Pa., and clerked in a dry goods store five or six years. He returned to Reynoldsville and in 1870 he and C. H. Gordon became partners in the mercantile business on East Main street, which partnership continued several years and then they dissolved. Mr. Seeley opened a store in a frame building down town which was destroyed in the big fire in 1876. After that fire he erected the brick building now occupied by W. H. Bell and Adam Shoe Co., and with an archway between the two rooms Mr. Seeley had one of the largest stores in the county at that time.

Mr. Seeley was a member of the Seeley, Alexander & Co. bank, which did business in our town for a number of years and was converted into The Peoples National bank almost four years ago. Mr. Seeley was a director and large stockholder in this bank at time of death.

About nineteen years ago Mr. Seeley moved to Pittsburgh and opened a hat store under the firm name of Seeley & Leard. He was a successful business man and leaves a large estate.

Mr. Seeley had a large number of warm friends in our town and was held in high esteem by all his acquaintances.

Deceased is survived by his wife, one son and three daughters, also three brothers and two sisters, E. D. Seeley and Mrs. Esther Smith, of Reynoldsville, Lee L. and Charles E. Seeley, of Spivey, Kan., and Mrs. Addie Van Shook, of Pittsburgh.

Funeral Thursday afternoon. Interment in Pittsburgh cemetery.

Seven Years of Proof.

"I have had seven years of proof that Dr. King's New Discovery is the best medicine to take for coughs and colds and for every diseased condition of throat, chest or lungs," says W. V. Henry, of Panama, Mo. The world has had thirty-eight years of proof that Dr. King's New Discovery is the best remedy for coughs and colds, is grippe, asthma, hay fever, bronchitis, hemorrhage of the lungs, and the early stages of consumption. Its timely use always prevents the development of pneumonia. Sold under guarantee at Stoke & Feicht Drug Co. drug store. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

Mind Your Business!

If you don't nobody will. It is your business to keep out of all the trouble you can and you can and will keep out of liver and bowel trouble if you take Dr. King's New Life Pills. They keep biliousness, malaria and jaundice out of your system. 25c at Stoke & Feicht Drug Co. drug store.

Reynoldsville Dyers and Cleaners.

Having opened an office in the Evans building, opposite the I. O. O. F. hall, Main street, we are prepared to do all kinds of cleaning, pressing, dyeing and repairing, also ladies work of all kinds. REYNOLDSVILLE DYERS AND CLEANERS.

The Official Vote Of Jefferson County

Increase of Nine Hundred and Five Votes Over Election Of 1904.

Below we publish the official returns of Jefferson county at the general election held on Tuesday of last week, November 3rd. The returns show that there were 905 more votes polled in the county last week than was cast for the office of President in 1904:

| | |
|----------------------------|------|
| President | |
| Taft & Sherman, Rep. | 5652 |
| Bryan & Kern, Dem. | 2986 |
| Chafin & Watkins, Pro. | 527 |
| Debs & Hanford, Soc. | 211 |
| Hilsen & Graves, Ind. | 5 |
| Gilhaus & Munro, Soc. Lab. | 0 |
| Superior Court Judge | |
| W. D. Porter, Rep. | 5322 |
| Webster Grim, Dem. | 2497 |
| D. Sturgeon, Pro. | 594 |
| T. H. Kennedy, Soc. | 197 |
| L. S. Kauffman, Ind. | 0 |
| Congress | |
| J. N. Langham, Rep. | 5350 |
| J. S. Shibley, Dem. | 2637 |
| J. T. Pender, Pro. | 603 |
| State Senator | |
| T. M. Kurtz, Rep. | 5091 |
| B. B. Brumbaugh, Dem. | 3719 |
| J. S. Startzell, Pro. | 634 |
| Assemblyman | |
| R. H. Longwell, Rep. | 4783 |
| J. G. Mitchell, Rep. | 4418 |
| A. D. Deemer, Dem. | 3628 |
| Irvin M. Simpson, Dem. | 2907 |
| M. H. Caldwell, Pro. | 435 |
| Register & Recorder | |
| Ira J. Campbell, Rep. | 5519 |
| A. C. Sherman, Dem. | 2473 |
| Marshall McLaughlin, Pro. | 542 |
| Prothonotary | |
| Blake E. Irvin, Rep. | 5398 |
| Calvin Mowry, Dem. | 2638 |
| Samuel Ferman, Pro. | 539 |
| Sheriff | |
| A. E. Galbraith, Rep. | 5639 |
| Eli Vaabinder, Dem. | 3261 |
| G. W. Minich, Pro. | 421 |
| County Treasurer | |
| W. G. Buffington, Rep. | 5345 |
| J. H. Carr, Dem. | 2832 |
| Rufus Kirk, Pro. | 473 |
| County Commissioner | |
| J. N. Kelly, Rep. | 5032 |
| A. F. Reitz, Rep. | 5385 |
| E. T. McGaw, Dem. | 2570 |
| J. C. Sprankle, Pro. | 680 |
| A. C. Smith, Ind. | 1494 |
| County Auditor | |
| T. B. Adams, Rep. | 5339 |
| Eli Vaabinder, Rep. | 4821 |
| David Neale, Dem. | 2819 |
| Milo Barber, Pro. | 677 |
| Wm. Steele, Pro. | 644 |
| County Coroner | |
| J. C. Sayers, Rep. | 5812 |

It is logical that pouring drugs into the stomach will not cure catarrh in the head. Hy-o-mel, medicated air, reaches the seat of the disease and cures. Guaranteed by Stoke & Feicht Drug Co.

WANT COLUMN.

Rates—One cent per word for each and every insertion.

WANTED—Good girl for housework. Inquire at THE STAR office.

FOUND—Set of false upper teeth. Owner can have same by calling at THE STAR office and paying for this ad.

FOR RENT—Six room house. Inquire of Mrs. Armor.

FOUND—A sum of money, owner can have same by calling at Adam's shoe store and describing it.

FOR RENT—Five room house. Inquire of L. M. Snyder.

FOR SALE—Good driving horse. Inquire of C. J. Kerr.

FOR SALE—One horse, one buggy, one sleigh, and household utensils. Inquire of Rev. J. W. Myers.

FOR RENT—House on Hill street. Inquire of James T. Butler, the barber.

FOR RENT—Store room. Inquire of Mrs. R. L. Taaf.

FOR RENT OR SALE—Property on Pike street, West Reynoldsville. Inquire at Building and Loan office.