The * Star.

Subscription $1.00 per year in advance. OA. STEPHENSON, Editor and Pub WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 2, 1908.

Intered at the postoffice at Keynoldsville Pa., as second class mail matter.

SUMMERVILLE TELEPHONE NO. 61.

PHARMACY Is An Exacting SCIENCE

So with new discoveries, new remedies and new ideas the modern druggist must be up-to-date. This is a thoroughly modern store-an example of all that is latest and best in scientific pharmacy. You who want to feel secure have good reason in bringing your prescriptions here.

Stoke & Feicht Drug Company

A Little of Everything.

Durno at Assembly hall Dec. 22.

Bankrupt sale advertisement on last page of this issue.

The Jefferson County Medical Society met at the National Hotel in this place last Friday afternoon.

Ninian Cooper says we had more snow last month than there was during the entire winter of 1850.

Dr. and Mrs. John H. Murray at-tended the Winslow-Rinn wedding in Punxsutawney last Wednesday evening. It was a "sweli" wedding

The annual convention of the Jefferson county school directors will be held in Brookville on Wednesday and Thursday of institute week, Dec. 16 and 17. The rabble, pheasant, squirrel and deer hunting season closed Monday. A large number of hunters went out from this place Monday for small game.

The Foreign Missionary Society will meet at home of Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Johns on Hill street, at 4 00 p. m. next Friday. Supper at 6 00. Husbands in-

Attilio Benigni has movel his meat market from the Evans building to the one story building next to Certennial building. He now has a large meat

There is one case of typhoid fever in town. The patient had been drinking water from a spring and it is supposed she got the typhoid germ in the spring

Following are the themes for Rev John F. Black's sermons in the M. E. church next Sunday: Morning, "The Desired Visions;" evening, "One-Sided Development." Prof. Charles S Marsh, instructor the "Kiski" school at Saltsburg, sacher one term in the public schools borough, was a visitor in town one day last week. Joseph P. Smith and Miss Bers Snyder were married in the Trinity Lutheran church at this place at 11 00 a. m on Thursday, Nov. 26, 1908 Rev. J. W. Myers officiated. The Ladies' Aid Society of the Lu-theran church will hold a bazaar and market in the vacant room in Centen nial hall building on Friday and Satur day, December 4 and 5.

The first basket ball game of the season will be played in the pavilion in Frank's Park to morrow, Thursday, evening between the Reynoldsville and Falls Creek high school teams. In the case of E. C. Burns against the Reynoldsville borough for damages resulting from the paving of Fourth street, which was tried last week, Mr. Burns was allowed $400.00 damage.

Seven Syrian peddlers were arrested in New Bethlehem last week for selling fancy work, lace, beads, &c., in that borough. The peddlers were fined $50.00 apiece. They paid the fines.

Our farmer friend, J. M. Culp, of Desire, was in town yesterday and pre-sented THE STAR office with a half bushel of fine eating apples. May be live long, be happy and prosperous.

Mrs. A. D. McKay, of Reynoldsville, delivered an address Sunday evening at the annual meeting of the Mission-ary Society of the Presbyterian church of Punxeutawney in the church at that Clarion M. E. district, preached in the M. E. church at this place last Friday and Sunday evenings. A large congregation attended the Sunday evening service.

There was not a large congregation at the union Thanksgiving service in the M. E church Thursday forenoon. Rev. A. D. McKay, paster of the Presbyterian church, preached the sermon. His theme was "Content-

FAREWELL SERMON SUNDAY.

Rev. J. W. Myers Moving to Natrona, Pa , His New Field of Labor.

Several weeks ago mention was made in THE STAR that Rev. J. W. Myers, who had been pastor of the Trinity Lutheran church at this place and the Chestnut Grove and Emerickville Lutheran churches six years, had tendered his resignation to take effect December 1st. Last Sunday evening Rev. Myers preached his farewell ser-mon in the Tribity Lutheran church and is moving to Natrona, Pa., his new pastorate this week. Rev. Myers has pastorate this week. Rev. Myers has shipped his goods and expects to go to Natrona to-day. As previously stated in this paper, Rev. Myers is an able, excellent, faithful and zealous preacher and a christian gentleman. His parishoners are sorry to lose him and his estimable wife and they also have a host of friends outside of the church relationship that are sorry church relationship that are sorry to see them move away from our town. Their friends wish them success at

AWFUL MINE DISASTER.

Joseph Powell, Brother of Mrs. W. E. Reed. One of the Victims.

In an explosion in the shaft of the Pittsburgh-Buffalo Coal Company's mine at Marianna, Washington county, Pa., last Saturday over two hundred miners were entombed in the shaft and miners were entombed in the shaft and about one hundred and forty of the men were killed. Among the victims of this awful dieaster was Joseph Powell, bother of Mrs. William Recd, of this pace. Mr. Reed went to Marianna Sanday. The body will be brought here for burial if it can be identified.

Married in Pittsburgh.

At one o'clock Saturday afternoon, Nov. 28, 1908, a quiet wedding of a great deal of interest in Kittanning was great deal of interest in Kittanning was solemnized in Pittsburgh when Miss Anna Laura Colwell, daughter of Councilman and Mrs. M. H. Colwell, of Jacob street, and Walter William Sheridan, son of Tax Collector Hugh Sheridan, of North Water street, were united in marriage by the rector of one of the Catholic churches.—Kittanning Daily Times.

churches.—Kittanning Daily Times.

The bride visited Miss Margaret Applegate in Reynoldsville several times and has a number of friends here who extend congratulations and good

Found Dead in Spring.

Mrs. Susan Dempsey, wife of Harrison Dempsey, who resides near Emerickville, was found dead in a spring near her home Monday afternoon.

Mrs. Dempsey was subject to epileptic fits and it is supposed she took a fit and fell into the spring. Deceased was born August 24, 1864, and was fort-yfour years old her last birthday Funeral service will be held in the Funeral service will be held in the Church of God at Emerickville at 2.00 p. m. to day. Rev. Sibley will conduct funeral service.

Reports of the condition of the copies National First National and Citizens National banks at the close of business November 27, 1908, will be found in this issue of THE STAR. The reports show the banks are in good con-

The school board held regular monthv meeting last evening

The Jefferson county teachers' in-stitute will be held in the Belvedere opera house at Brookville December 14 to 18 Good instructors for day sessions and good entertainments for evenings have been engaged for the coming institute.

Two large raccoons in the large win dow at Williams Brothers tonsorial parlors are attracting considerable attention. These 'coons will be seen in the Cadenza minstrel show at the Grand Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday evenings of next week.

Last Thursday evening Miss Julia Repsher entertained fourteen young people at home of her grandm Mrs. Harriet Repsher, on Jackson street. Games were played and for-tunes told. It was a pleasant party. Fine refrashments were served.

John Scheafnocker, of Brookville, son of Sheriff Scheafnocker, was in town the latter part of last week carrying his right hand in a sling. There was a fire at Brookville last week and while at work at fire John's hand was so badly cut that four stitches had to be put in to sew up the gash.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C Secrist, former residents of this place, who resided in DuBols a few years, moved to Tacoma, Wash., last month. In a letter to THE STAR office giving their new address, Mrs Secrist said: "We have located at Tacoma: like the place just fine and will have to get THE STAR to get the Pennsylvania news.

Joseph Horwitz, the Reynoldsville artist who recently became connected with the Philadelphia North American, has been offered and has accepted a position as chief of the art department of the Evening Sun, a new journalistic venture in the Quaker City, generally supposed to have the financial backing of several powerful state political lead, ers. The position given Mr. Horwitz is a responsible one and a deserved recognition of his ability and enter-

The School Heraid, containing full announcement of the Jefferson county teachers' institute, and the names and addresses of all teachers and directors has been mailed to teachers and directors. ors of the county. If through mistake any of these do not receive the publication, they should notify the superintend-ent and another copy will be sent. Any other person desiring a copy can secure it by calling at the office of the county superintendent or by writing and re-

The following out of town relatives attended the funeral of Mrs. D. J. Thomas last Thursday: Mr. and Mrs. George Scott and son, John Scott. Andrew Hiles, Will Hiles, Caristina Hiles, of Brady's Bend, John Hiles, of Kaylor, Will M. Thomas and wife, of Driftwood, T. J. Thomas and wife, of Falls Creek, John Barclay and wife and Mrs. George Hiles, of DuBols, Mrs. M. Furman, of Strattonville, R. M. Bonner and wife, of Clearfield, Mrs. D. H. Parsons and Mrs. Edward Barcan, of Sligo.

DIED AT NEW KENSINGTON.

John Endean Was a Former Citizen of Reynoldsville-Son-in-Law of M. Phillips,

John Endean, a former citizen of Reynoldsville, died at his home at New Kensingson, Pa., at 6 30 a. m. Sunday, November 29, 1908, of heart trouble. Mr. Endean was born at Devonshire. England, August 8, 1852, and was in his fifty-seventh year at time of death. Was married to Minnie Phillips, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Philips on August 31st, 1882. Unto them eightchildren were born and are: Frank Endean, of Parnassus, Mrs. Har-vey S. Deter, of Reynoldsville, Lillian, Chester, Laura, Matthew, John and Mabel, at home.

Mr. Endean was a kind and affectionate husband and father. Was of a very quiet disposition and always enjoyed the pleasure of the home life. Although he never joined any church, he died in the christian faith, trusting in the Lord to take him to the Heavenly

The funeral services were held Dec. 1-t at 2.00 p. m., conducted by Rev. M. M. Rigg, pastor of the Frst M. E. church of New Kensington, and interment was made in the Parnassus ceme-

The following persons attended the funeral: Matthew Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey S. Deter, Mrs. A. J. Wells, of Reynoldsville, Mrs. John Beck, of Fairmount City, Charles Hartman, of New Bethlebem, William Endean and Mrs. Frank Cetter, of Petrolia Frank Mrs. Frank Cotton, of Petrolia, Frank and Claude Endean, of Pittsburg, Newton Milberger, of Tarentum.

The flowers were beautiful.

MEMORIAL SERVICES SUNDAY

By Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks in Centennial Hall-Everybody Welcome.

Next Sunday afternoon the B. P. O. E. Lodge No. 519 will hold public memorial services in Centennial hall in memory of John D. Nolan, Edward B. Phalen, William Degnan, Scott McClelland and S. P. Evans. The order of exercises as follows: Funeral order of exercises as follows: Funeral march by orchestra; opening ceremonies; opening ode; invocation, Dr. A. J. Meek; male quartette; eulogy, G. M. McDonald, Esq.; solo, "Meditation" (by Gounod), Mrs. J. P. Eddy; address, P. E. R. Prof. J. J. Lynch, of St. Marys Lodge No. 437; male quartette; closing exercises; benediction, Rev. John F. Black; music by orchestra. Everybody welcome.

William Shoemaker's Funeral

The funeral of William A. Shoemaker, whose sudden death from a stroke of apoplexy mentioned in THE STAR last week, was held at the family residence at 1.00 p. m. Friday, conducted by Rev. J. C. McEntire. Interment was made in the Reynoldsville cemetery. Hughes & Fieming had charge of the funeral.

Death From Heart Trouble.

Mrs. Sarah Stewart, mother of Mrs. George Marshall, of Rathmel died suddenly at home of her daughter in New Bethlehem Monday afternoon, Nov. 30, from heart trouble. Mrs. Stewart was 76 years old. Was the widow of W. F. Stewart who died ten years ago. They resided in Beech woods a number of years Interment will be made in the Beechwoods cemetery to-day beside the husband. Mr. tery to-day beside the husband. Mr. and Mrs. Marshall went to New Bethlehem vesterday morning.

Mrs. David Reams Dead.

Mrs. David Reams, of DuBols, sister of Mrs. Jacob Schwem, of this place, of Mrs. Jacob Schwein, of this place, died at her home in DuBois Saturday morning, Nov. 28 Kidney trouble was cause of her death. Deceased was in her 74th year. Her maiden name was Susannah Elizabeth Kuntz. Was born at Hughesville, Lycoming Co., Pa. Funeral service was held Monday afternoon, conducted by Rev. R. E. Crum, of the Reformed church. Interment in the Reformed cemetery at Luthersburg.

Christmas Post Cards

Notice the magnificent assortment of Christmas post cards at the Columbus Studio branch, next door to postoffice. Beautiful cards sell for from 3 for 5c up. Pictures and picture fram-

Phonographs.

You know how people will run to the window to hear the band. Get a phonograph and have a band in the house. Easy terms if you wish. Stoke & Feicht Drug Co.

We shall discontinue our Thursday After-Supper Sales until after the holi-BING-STOKE CO.

Don't fail to read Bing-Stoke Co.'s full page ad in this week's issue.

Irresistibly pretty pieces in the toilet goods line at Stoke & Feicht Drug Co.'s.

Best Xmas gift for your sweetheart is a beautiful box of candy from Reyn-oldsville Candy Works.

Gold Seal rubbers are worth two pair of any other kind. Men's $1.25, women's We have 100 tons of varieties of candies in stock to please everybody for Christmas treats. Reynoldsville Candy

A travelling case for your friend who travels. Many styles at Stoke & Feicht Drug Co.'s.

Before you buy your Christmas treats visit the Reynoldsville Candy Works and get prices.

Good shoes for bad boys. Price $2 50 and $3.00. Adam's. Special prices are offered in candies for treats to churches and school com-mittees at Reynoldsville Candy Work. I have worn five pairs of half-soles on those shoes—that's what they say about Mens-ease. Price $3.00. Adam's

The only place to buy your home-made candy is the Reynoldsville Candy Work.

American Boy's shoes in high tops, black and tan; price $2.75 to $3.50. Alam's.

COUNCIL TO CARRY BURNS CASE TO HIGHER COURT.

Instructs Borough Solicitor To Appeal to Superior Court In Damage Suit.

The regular monthly meeting of town council was held last evening. Follow-ing members present: Hoffman, King, Young, Dinger and Herold.

Street committee was authorized to lower the brick paving on approach of Eighth street to Main street.

Tax Collector William Copping re-ported having collected $135.99 of 1908 taxes and $51.62 of 1907 taxes during Bills amounting to $461 52 were or dered to be paid.

Borough solicitor was instructed to file an appeal to Superior Court on behalf of the borough in the case of E. C. Burns against Reynoldsville Chief Burgess S. M. McCreight re-ported having collected $34.00 in fines and licenses during November.

Council settled with Johnston & Hastings, contractors, in full for curbing and the borough apportionment for paving Main street from Seventh street to borough line. The approx-imated cost to borough was about

Hand Painted China.

Every one is invited to come and see my display of hand painted china and art jeweiry, consisting of belt pins, hat pins and bar pins done in Japanese enamel and raised paste, the latest things for Xmas gifts. I studied last fall under one of the finest teachers in New York City, Miss M. M. Mason, and last spring under Mrs. Walters and Mrs. Dr. Philips, of Pittsburgh. I have pretty cheese plates for only 55c. They will be at Gillespies Dec. 18. Don't forget the date. Every one is invited to come and see forget the date

ELLA EVELYN SEELEY.

Red Cross "Christmas Stamps," Have you seen the little Red Cross "Christmas stamps" on sale at Stoke & Feicht Drug Co. store and D. H. Breakey's racket store? They are just the thing for sticking on Christmas rackets and a story. packages and are only a penny. There is no profit to the dealers who sell these stamps. The proceeds from the sale will be applied to fighting tuberculosis in our state. If you want to aid in fighting the White Plague buy some of these penny "Christmas stamps"

A Dangerous Operation

Is the removal of the appendix by a surgeon. No one who takes Dr. King's New Life Pills is ever subjected to this frightful ordeal. They work so quietly you don't feel them. They core constipation headache, billiousness and malaria. 25c at Stoke & Feicht Drug Co. drug store

Notice to Delinquents.

Some people who are in arrears on the subscription to THE STAR made promises several months ago that have not been fulfilled yet. We must ask all subscribers over one year in arrears to make prompt payment.

Card of Thanks

We desire to express sincere thanks to all friends and neighbors for kindness shown during illness and after death of our wife and mother.

D. J. THOMAS AND FAMILY.

Fine Lot of Horses For Sale.

Puesday of next week, December I will be at Tapper's livery stable with a lot of horses, pacers, trotters, sada lot of horses, pacers, trotters, sad-dlers, general business and draft horses for sale or exchange. This will be a rare opportunity to get a good horse. GRANT SHUSTER.

Xms Cameras.

There's nothing in our store for Christmas giving that suits old and young alike as well as a camera. There's fun and instruction in every Stoke & Feicht Drug Co.

Card of Thanks

We desire to express sincere thanks to all friends and neighbors for kindness shown during illnesss and after death of our husband and father. MRS. LYDIA BRITTON and FAMILY.

August Walter, the artistic shoe polisher of Reynoldsville, has accepted the agency for the City Steam Laun-dry, of Bradford, Pa. Work done in dry, of Bradford, Pa. first-class style, up-to date and guaranteed. Mr. Wal'er will solient your work every Monday and deliver it Friday. Should he overlook you on his tour a postal will bring him to your place. Reserve your patronage for him. Office in Basement Shaving

Parlor, Imperial Hotel. I. E. ELLIS Prop. City Steam Laundry, Bradford, Pa.

Xmas candy in boxes, packed in the daintiest way. We are exclusive agents for the best in the country and you will be safe in buying here. Stoke & Feicht Drug Co.

The only place to buy your Christmas treats is at Reynoldsville Candy Works.

It is a unique way Stoke & Feicht Drug Co. have of selling Hyomel, a guaranteed cure for catarrh. Com-plete treatment $1.00. Money back if it falls.

Now is the time to leave orders for Christmas treats of candles at Reynoldsville Candy Works. Carload of new sleighs, second hand sleighs and bob-sleds for sale at Burns' livery stable. Not often is it possible to make such a selection in real dainty tollets for so little money as it now is at Stoke & Feicht Drug Co.'s store. ters, of Ohl, spent Sunday with the former's sister, Miss Alice Reitz, in West Reynoldsville.

Did you ever try a pound of home made delicious Fluffy Rufles, at Reynoldsville Candy Works.

week.

THE PEOPLE WHO ARE PASSING TO AND FRO.

Miss Ida Miles spent Sunday in Brookville.

Mrs. Henry Rhoden is visiting in Cyrus Wells and wife visited at Dents Run last week.

Miss Gertrude Stoke visited in Du-Bois last week.

Mrs. Dennis O'Brien was in Brookville yesterday. John H. Wagner, wife and son visited in Altoona last week.

Miss Minnie Keck visited her sister in Brookville last week.

Mrs. Belle P. Bing visited relatives in DuBois last Thursday. Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Sutter visited in New Bethlehem yesterday. Frank Wiley, of Force, visited his parents in this place last week.

D. Winslow and wife, of Driftwood, were visitors in town yesterday.

George Wildauer and wife, of Du-Bois, were visitors in town Saturday. Mrs. Dr. C. W. Hoffman, of Rimersburg, was a visitor in town last week.

Fred J. Austin and family, of Clear-field, spent Thanksgiving in this place. Henry Robertson and wife, of Force, Elk Co., visited in Rathmel last week.

Dr. B. E. Hoover and sons Burton and Frederick, spent Sunday at Wins-

Miss Julia Kirk, of Wilkinsburg, visited her parents in this place last

Mrs. E. E. Smith, of Patton Station, visited her father, J. A. Myers, last

Rev. J. W. Myers, wife and daugh-ter, Miss Adda, visited in Renovolast D. W. Atwater went to New Brighton, Pa., yesterday to remain a couple of weeks Misses Florence Atwater and Helen Meck visited in DuBols several days last week.

Mrs. George Sharp and daughter visited Mrs. W. P. Cochran at Baxter

Mrs. W. H. Karns and son, William, of Oakmont, spent Sunday at home of A. B. Weed.

John McClure, of Pittsburgh, visited at home of his parents several days the past week. Miss Ruth Gray, of Punxsutawney, was the guest of Miss Berna Hoover, the past week.

Miss Mary Klahr, of Clarion, visited her aunt. Mrs L. M. Simmons, in this place last week.

Mrs. Lavina Baum, of Pittsburgh, formerly of this place, was a visitor in Miss Edna Myers, of Buffalo, N. Y, visited ner father, J. A. Myers, in this lace the past week. Prof. J. R. Wilson, assistant principal of our public schools, was in Grove City last week.

Jonathan Wolfe, of Lewisburg, vas a visitor at home of G. G. Williams several days last week.

W. K. Rigley and wife, of Curwens-ville, were guests of Mr and Mrs. H. T. Peters last week. Graydon Robinson, student in Dickinson College, Carlisle, came home for Thanksgiving vacation. Miss Mary Bell, of Punxsutawney, visited her sister, Mrs. Alice Motherwell, in this place last week. Mrs. Richard L. Taafe was at Windber, Pa . last week to see her brother. James H. Moore, who is ill.

Miss Anna Jelbart, of Brockwayville, is visiting her grandmother, Mrs. Han-nah Butler, on Grant street. Mrs. E. C. Sensor and two daughters es Besse and Malissa Sensor, visited relatives in DuBois last week. E L Johnston, wife and daughter, Irene, spent Thanksgiving with rela-tives at Waterson, Clarion Jo.

Mrs. H. E. Swift and daughter, Ange line, of Brookville, visited the former's parents in this place last week.

Frank J. Black, wife and son, of Anita, spent Thanksgiving at home of the former's parents in this place.

George Bain, of Lawsonham, spent Sunday at home of his sister, Mrs. J W Campbell, in West Reynoldsviller Arthur Barelay and W. P. Collinge, of Kane, spent several days last week at home of former's parents in this

Miss Dorothy Wilson, of DuBois, was the guest of her cousins, Misses Naomi, and Ruth Mitchell, the past

T. J. Newcome, of Butler, former resident of Wishaw was in town Mon-day in the interest of his coal mining nell University, Lewisburg, spent Thanksgiving vacation at her home Robert Koehler, William Polm and son, James, were in Dents Run hunting on Thanksgiving. They saw one deer and three bears.

Miss Ida Williams, student in Buck

Misses Nulu Neale, Effie Milliren and Einor Stiles were at Clarion Thursday evening to attend the Senior Class play at the State Normal.

Mrs. L. P. Seeley and stepdaughter, Mrs. E. W. Mudge, of Pittsburgh, have been the guests of Mrs. W. B. Alexander the past week. Mrs. T. E. Baughman and two daugh-

Miss Anna Conners, of Brookville, who was called here by illness of her sister, Mrs. Robert V. Siple, returned to Brookville yesterday.

Philip Guthrie and wife spent Sun-day in Big Run.

George Hunter visited his parents at Cloe the first of this week.

Mrs. J. M. Dailey, of Penfield, is vis-iting her daughter, Mrs. G. M. McDon-

Mrs. Mary McCleery, of Jeanette, formerly of this place, is visiting in town.

L. M. Stewart, of Buffalo, N. Y., was called here last week on account of the death of his brother-in-law, William A. Shoemaker.

Mrs. Hannah Butler and grand-daughter, Fay Butler, visited the former's daughter, Mrs. J. H Jelbart, in Brockwayville last week. Miss Lillie Heemer, who was at Jeanette six months, returned home last week on account of the serious illness of her mother, Mrs. C. Heemer.

C. A. Campbell, wife and daughter, of Big Run, visited the former's brother, J. W. Campbell, and family in West Reynoldsville over Sunday. Mrs. Amelia Murray, Miss Annie Murray, Clyde Murray, Dr. John H. Murray and family and W. C. Murray and family spent Thanksgiving in Mahaffey, Pa. Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Hall spent Thanksgiving in Brookville and Mrs. Hall remained in Brookville until Fri-day evening to attend an afternoon party Friday. Miss Mabel Love, of Verona, and Miss Alice Sloan, of Clarion, now teaching school at Falls Creek, were guests of Mrs. Robert Z. Parrish several days last week.

James W. Stevenson, of New York City, spent a couple of days last week at home of his father-in-law, M. M. Davis, in this place, and his father, Henry Stevenson, near Sandy Valley.

McCready, of Ridgway, and Miss Alice Dowling, of Coraopolis, Pa., now stu-dent in the Indiana State Normal, were guests at home of the former's brother, Martin Phalen, in West Reynoldsville

Mrs. S. B. Mitche: and Miss Lydia

Arthur Phillippi, son of Mrs. Dr. B. E. Hoover, of Reynoldsville, has enlisted in the United States Navy and is now at Portsmouth, New Hampshire, getting preliminary training before being assigned to duty aboard some floating fortress John H. Lucas, of Chanute, Kan., George M. Lucas, of Heights, Pa., W. L. Davis and wife, of Venitia, Pa., Edward Lucas, of Turtle Creek, Pa.,

Thomas McMillen and wife, of Funxsu-tawney, attended the funeral of W. H. Lucas last Wednesday afternoon. Miss Gartrode Watson was in Punxutawney three days last week visiting her mother. Mrs. Elia Watson, who is in the Grub: Hospital, where she had to undergo a critical operation over three weeks ago and will not be able to return home for a couple of weeks. Miss Minnie Truitt, trained nurse, daughter of Mrs J A. Truitt, of Reyn-oldsville, who has been located in Pittsburgh a couple of years, has gone to California If she likes the climate and can find employment in that state she will likely remain there for an indefinite period.

THREE GREAT MAGAZINES.

$5 50 Year Subscriptions $3 50 at Gilles.

The three magazines offered in combination by us at this greatly reduced price are so well kown as to make decription almost unnecessary.

Everybody's—The great general magof America. Regular price a year $1 50. World's Work-Interpreting all current events, and just now running the story of John D. Rockefeller told by himself. Regular price a year $3.00. The Delineator—The Fashion Authority of the World, and great Home Magazine Regular price a year $1.00.

The regular subscription price for all of these is $5.50. By subscribing here to-morrow they will cost you only $3.50.
GILLESPIES.

It Is Profitable.

Nothing can be more profitable than for young men and women to spend the winter months in preparing themselves for future usefulness along educational lines. Let the Clarion State Normal school help you

J. GEORGE BECHT. Principal, Clarion, Pa.

This is Worth Reading.

Leo F. Zelinski, of 68 Gibson St., Buffalo, N. Y., says: "I cured the most annoying cold sore I ever had, with Bucklen's Arnica Salve. I applied this salve once a day for two days, when every trace of the sore was gone." Heals all sores. Sold under guarantee at Stoke & Feicht Drug Co. drug store.

Card of Thanks.

We express in this simple manner our heartfelt gratitude for the kind acts of sympathy and helpfulness of friends in Reynoldsville and community in the sudden death and subsequent burial of our dear husband and father. Mrs. W. H. Lucas and Son.

Xmas Phonographs.

We have an excellent line from which to select. You can order it now and have it delivered Xmas eve. Get catalogue free at once. Stoke Feicht Drug Co.

A gun for Xmas is about as appro-priate a thing for a boy as anything you can think of. When you decides come and see our stock. Stoke & Feicht Drug Co.