P. O. S. of A. flag presentation in Assembly hall Feb. 27.

The citizens of Indiana are trying to secure a state armory.

The Armstrong County Fair grounds were sold by the sheriff last week.

Attend the D. A. R. prize essay contest in Assembly hall Monday evening.

Assembly hall should be as well filled to hear Dolliver as it was when Senator Tillman appeared.

Marble playing among the boys—the usual harbinger of spring—commenced on the streets this week.

The Eleanora base ball club will hold a dance in Wishaw Park pavilion on the evening of Washington's birthday, Feb. 22.

The Ridgway Brick Co.'s plant has been purchased by Fluke & Co., a Boston, Mass., firm conducting a large selling agency.

Don't forget to drop into the Bijou nickelodeon Thursday night, Feb. 18. Proceeds go to the free reading room—and they need the money.

The Woman's Baptist Mission Circle will meet at the home of Mrs. E. C. Davis on Fourth street Thursday evening. Luncheon at 10.00.

Norman Butler, formerly a Reynoldsville business man, whose property was destroyed by fire December 5th, has purchased a billiard and pool room at New Bethlehem.

The prettiest valentine that came to any one at Reynoldsville arrived at home of Mr. and Mrs. P. F. Skinner Sunday morning, Feb. 14. It was a fine girl baby.

An extension of the B., R. & P. Ry across Westmoreland county, into Washington and Fayette counties, to tap newly acquired coal fields there is the latest railway rumor.

The Reynoldsville Business Men's Association made an effort to secure William Jennings Bryan to lecture in Reynoldsville while in this section of the state next month, but were unable to secure an open date.

Senator Dolliver, one of the biggest men in the United States Senate, will appear in Assembly hall February 23rd. There are few public men whose utterances command such wide attention as Dolliver's.

George Washington was a great general, Martha Washington was a good cook. Let it be proven to you at the Martha Washington Tea in M. E. church Monday evening from 5 to 7 o'clock. Supper 25 cents.

A six o'clock dinner was served by Mr. and Mrs. Thomas M. Jewell Thursday evening, at their home on West Main street to a select number of invited friends. The evening was a most enjoyable one for the participants.

The town of Hawthorne, near New Bethlehem, has had six fires, apparently of incendiary origin, within the last few months, and a detachment of the State Constabulary has been stationed there to try to discover the perpetrator.

The Punxsutawney and DuBois papers get consolation for Viola Alice cascading her dates at those places by reflecting that the famous actress was probably afraid to play before the ultra-critical audiences of the Avenue and Jefferson Theatres.

NONAGENARIAN PASSES AWAY.

James Jones Had Resided in Reynoldsville for Thirty-Seven Years.

Mr. James Jones, one of the most venerable men in Jefferson county, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Annie Winslow on Jackson street at 2.00 p. m. Saturday afternoon, February 13th. A paralytic stroke six years ago had rendered Mr. Jones almost helpless and this with the feebleness of extreme age, eventually caused his demise.

James Jones was born in Blen Avon, Wales, in 1819, making him 90 years of age at time of death. In that country he was married and lived until his 42nd year, when he came to America. For a time he resided at Scranton, Pa., but in 1872, when Reynoldsville was enjoying its first big boom, Mr. Jones came here and in the thirty-seven years since had made his home with our people.

The deceased is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Hannah Stewart, of Pittsburgh, and Mrs. Annie Winslow, of Reynoldsville. Fourteen grand-children and three great-grandchildren also survive.

Hon. W. O. Smith, editor of the Punxsutawney Spirit, visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John S. Smith, in Reynoldsville Saturday.

L. W. Huyek, formerly manager of the Reynoldsville Woolen Co.'s mill in this place, now connected with a large mill at Apollo, Pa., was in town a day last week, the guest of Hood Knox, on Grant street.

Mrs. Katherine Marasco, of Wishaw, died in Grube's Hospital at Punxsutawney Monday morning and will be buried in the Reynoldsville Catholic cemetery to-day. Mass will be conducted in the Catholic church at 9.30 a. m. The deceased was 40 years old.

Services at the Methodist church for the week are as follows: Love Feast Wednesday evening at 7.30. The sacrament of the Lord's supper Sunday morning at 11.00. Theme for the 7.30 service, "The Philosophy of Prayer." Strangers and visitors are cordially invited to attend these services.

One of the most appropriate window displays seen in Reynoldsville in recent years was a replica of the famous Lincoln monument at Springfield, Illinois, exhibited by the Stoke & Feicht Drug Company on Friday—the hundredth anniversary of Lincoln's birth. The replica was designed and constructed by J. Herman Guthrie.

Some one was needed to answer him, and the Republicans put forth the finest orator in the House, Dolliver, of Iowa. Mr. Dolliver, on the other hand, is entirely free from angularity in body and mind and his speeches are masterpieces.—New York Independent, Feb. 2, 1899. At Assembly hall Tuesday night, Feb. 23, 1909.

The plant of the Reynoldsville Brick and Tile Company will be idle for the next thirty days while repairs are being made. This company has had a very successful year, operations going on continuously throughout 1908 despite the business depression over the land, and its payroll has become a material factor in insuring local prosperity. The prospects for the coming year are even better than last.

After a ten months' stay in Reynoldsville, Charles J. Bangert has decided that after all there is no place like home, and after this week will issue the Herald from Falls Creek. The machinery is being moved this week. The Crystal City was the scene of the Herald's greatest success in past years and its citizens will doubtless welcome the return of the newspaper which, more than any other institution, was responsible for the town's early fame.

"John Brown's body lies a-mouldering in the grave but his soul goes marching on,"—and his descendants also. A grandson of the noted Harper's Ferry martyr of war times will address a mass meeting in the Avenue Theatre at DuBois Sunday afternoon, Feb. 28. The meeting is for the purpose of protesting against the recent Gompers-Mitchell-Morrison jail sentence for contempt of court in an injunction case.

Farmer's Institute will be held at Paradise Friday and Saturday, February 19 and 20. Topics will be discussed by many of the best known men in the county among them Noah Syphrit, A. A. Rudolph, Isaac Miller, W. T. Cox, Prof. L. M. Jones, I. J. Phillips, W. A. Sheasley, A. W. Mulholland, J. W. Syphrit, Rev. H. G. Teagarden, J. W. Norris; and the following ladies: Mrs. A. J. Sprague, Mrs. A. W. Mulholland, Mrs. Minerva Strouse, Ethel Sprague, Belle Syphrit, Margaret Catchers, Carrie Davis, Stella Norris. State speakers will be present both days.

D. A. R. CONTEST MONDAY NIGHT.

Public Invited to Hear the Prize Essays of the Juniors Read in Assembly Hall.

The D. A. R. prize essay contest will be held in Assembly hall Monday evening, February 22nd, at eight o'clock. A prize of five dollars is offered for the best essay. The subject is, "Colonial Beliefs and Customs." Only members of the Junior class without conditions are eligible to enter the contest.

FLAG PRESENTATION.

P. O. S. of A. Will Present Large American Flag to the Public Schools.

Friday evening, February 26, a large American flag will be presented to the public schools of Reynoldsville borough by Washington Camp No. 602, P. O. S. of A., of Reynoldsville. The presentation will be made in Assembly hall and an elaborate program is being prepared for the occasion.

KILLED AT SHARON.

John R. Burgoon, of Brookville, Fatally Injured Crossing Railroad.

John R. Burgoon, a former resident of Brookville and a cousin of S. J. Burgoon, of Reynoldsville, was fatally injured by being struck by a train at South Sharon, Pa., where he has resided for sometime, on Saturday of last week, at about 11.00 o'clock, a. m. Mr. Burgoon had been to see his son, Bernard, an employee of the American Steel and Wire Company, on a matter of business, and had left the latter on his way home, when he attempted to cross the railway tracks and falling to note the coming of a swiftly moving northbound passenger train he stepped directly in front of it, being struck upon the right side and hurled a distance of some fifteen feet, sustaining such severe injuries that his death resulted on Sunday morning at two o'clock. The injured man never regained consciousness.

Mr. Burgoon was a brother of Dr. J. A., Samuel and Dennis Burgoon, and is survived by four children: C. P. Burgoon, of Brookville, Mrs. Clarence Hines, of Eldred, Bernard, of South Sharon, and John, of Sharon.

Bank Reports.

Reports of the condition of the First National and the Citizens National banks, at the close of business February 5th, will be found in this issue of THE STAR. The reports show the banks to be in good condition.

Cochran-Carl.

At the Presbyterian parsonage Friday evening, February 12th, Walter Cochran, son of James Cochran, of Reynoldsville, and Miss Olive Carl, of Punxsutawney, were united in marriage by Rev. A. D. McKay. The couple are now staying at the home of the groom's parents on Fifth street.

Card of Thanks.

For the kindness and sympathy extended before and after the death of our father, Mr. James Jones, we desire to extend sincere appreciation. MRS. ANNIE WINSLOW.

Notice.

We furnish you Henry's, Davis' or Little's coal at your request. City Dray, W. U. Ellenberger.

A Reward

May be yours in the line of a good supper if you attend the Martha Washington Tea in the M. E. church basement Monday evening from 5 to 7 p. m.

All Hats Must Go.

Come and get a hat at your own price. Trimmed to suit without extra charge. MRS. L. P. MILLER.

Notice.

I bought a pair of Men's-Case shoes at Adam's for $3.00, wore them to work for 13 months, had them half-soled 9 times and they are not worn out yet. Thos. Deegan.

The entertainment in Assembly hall Monday evening will be free and worth an evening's time.

WINSLOW TOWNSHIP TEACHERS' INSTITUTE.

The public school teachers of Winslow township will hold an institute in the church at Wishaw, on the Jefferson Traction Co. line, Saturday, February 27th. Almost every teacher of a township school has been placed on the program, with a special address by Prof. W. M. Rife, superintendent of the Reynoldsville schools. The directors are expected to be present to participate in discussion. The institute is free to all. The program announced follows:

- MORNING SESSION—10 A. M. SHARP. Devotional Exercises... Rev. J. F. Black. Roll Call... Responded to by Appropriate Quotations. Sunny Side in Teaching... Ray Breakley, Floe Best, Ella McDonnell, May Corbett.

DELIVERED FINE LINCOLN ADDRESS

REV. JOHN F. BLACK was the principal orator at the impressive Lincoln Centennial exercises in the M. E. church Friday night.

DEATH OF JAMES HAWTHORNE

Man Prominent as an Educator and Citizen Succumbs to Apoplexy.

James Hawthorne, a veteran of the civil war, died at his home in Brookville at 10.00 o'clock Saturday evening, February 13th. The deceased had been in his usual health until five o'clock Saturday, when he suffered a stroke of apoplexy. An hour later a second stroke came and at 10.00 he departed. The funeral services were held Tuesday at 10.00 a. m. and burial was made in the family plot in the old Brookville cemetery.

Mr. Hawthorne was seventy-one years of age and had spent his life in the region near Brookville and was well known over the county. For twenty years he was a teacher in the public schools. His wife, one son and three daughters survive, as follows: Claude K. Hawthorne, Mrs. Dr. J. K. Brown, Mrs. James Canning, all of Brookville, and Miss Virginia Hawthorne, at home.

Surprised Their Friends.

L. C. Trout, head clerk in M. H. Morris' clothing store, of Punxsutawney, and Miss Nelle Pifer, a teacher in the Eleanora public schools, Wednesday at 10 o'clock p. m., were married at home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Pifer, of McCalmont township, Rev. H. T. Teagarden, of Punxsutawney officiating.

The wedding, which was witnessed only by the immediate members of the bride's family and a few friends, was to have taken place at five o'clock, but was delayed on account of the P. R. R. train, which runs out of Mr. Trout's home town, where the bridegroom will go into business with his brothers.—Punxsutawney Spirit.

Surprises

Are in store for you. You couldn't guess half the good things to eat that will be served at the Martha Washington Tea in the basement of the M. E. church Monday evening, February 25, from 5 to 7 o'clock. Supper 25c.

The Crime of Idleness.

Idleness means trouble for anyone. Its same with a lazy liver. It causes constipation, headache, jaundice, sallow complexion, pimples and blotches, loss of appetite, nausea, but Dr. King's New Life Pills soon banish liver troubles and build up your health. 25c at Stoke & Feicht Drug Co.'s store.

Gibson's constantly increasing optical practice speaks for his skill. Consult him if your eyes need care. Imperial Hotel, February 18.

Dr. L. M. Emerick, of Georgetown Pa., specialist in chronic diseases, will be at Frank's Tavern, Reynoldsville, February 19. All persons suffering from organic trouble should visit him for an examination.

Ask Stoke & Feicht Drug Co. about Hyomel, the guaranteed dry air catarrh cure. Cures catarrh, asthma, croup, bronchitis, sore throat; relieves the worst cold in five minutes. Complete outfit $1.00.

Make your shoe bills easy to pay, wear Men's-Case. Price $3.00. Adam's. Subcribe for THE STAR. $1 a year.

High School Bulletin

Editor-in-Chief, CELIA YOST. Senior Reporter, FONDA KING. Junior Reporter, JANE SMITH. Soph. Reporter, HAZEL HOFFMAN. Fresh. Rep. GUY POSTLETHWAITE.

These schools had no pupils tardy last week: Room 2, Miss Myers; room 4, Miss Frampton; room 7, Miss Schultze; room 5, Miss Clarke; room 12, Miss McEntee; room 9, Miss Lewis.

Katherine McCreight and Blanche Vantassel, of DuBois, visited R. H. S. Monday.

The rivalry among the Soph. boys Monday certainly caused a great calamity. No one has found out who was victor, but by the way Dominie was fixed up, one would almost believe he was the favored one.

An earthquake shock was felt in room 15 Monday morning. No serious results.

Prof. W. M. Rife received from Berry Brothers, manufacturers of Philadelphia, copies of Lincoln's letter to Mrs. Bixby, for distribution among the members of the Senior and Junior classes of the high school. An engrossed copy of this letter hangs on the walls of Branose College, Oxford University England, as a specimen of the purest English and most elegant diction extant. It is said that as a model of expressive English, it has rarely, if ever, been equalled.

The Juniors will compete for the D. A. R. prize on Monday evening, Feb. 22, at eight o'clock. Length of program requires this early hour of beginning.

Examinations this week close the fifth month of school.

The G. A. R. turned out on Friday—35 in all. At the conclusion of the exercises, on motion of Dr. Foust, the veterans extended a rising vote of thanks to the school for the interesting program; the pupils accepted this kind appreciation of their work by rising.

Senator Dolliver will be here on Tuesday evening, Feb. 23. This is the last number of the course. Tickets go on sale Friday morning.

Mr. Evans and a force of men have moved the flag pole to the Main street side of the school building. From this position the entire town will have a good view of the new P. O. S. of A. flag.

H. E. Phillips decorated Assembly hall on Friday morning. The artistic arrangement of flags and bunting were no small contribution to the success of the Lincoln Day exercises. The decorations will remain in place till February 27.

Rev. C. H. Frampton, of Sykesville, attended the Lincoln Day exercises last Friday.

Men's-Case shoes, price $3.00 to $5.50. Adam's.
