

Subscription $1.00 per year in advance.
U. A. STEPHENSON, Editor and Pub.
WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 24, 1909

WHAT ROOM NEEDS PAPERING

Is there a room in your house that looks dirty in spite of your efforts at cleanliness. Ten to one it's the paper that's soiled.

Stoke & Feicht Drug Company

A Little of Everything.

W. G. Harris, of Rathmel, has been very ill the past week.
The Sandy Lick Creek is again within its banks after a week of overflow.

The Brookville fair will be held September 14 to 17 this year. DuBois September 7 to 10.

All members of the local camp of the P. O. S. of A. are requested to meet at the hall at 7.30 Friday evening, Feb. 25.

An anti-vaccination fight developed in the contest for school directors in Henderson township last Tuesday, and the "antis" won.

D. E. Hibner, the DuBois hardware merchant, has just been elected president of the State Association of Retail Hardware Dealers.

All candidates for office last Tuesday, whether elected or defeated, must file an expense account with the prothonotary within thirty days.

Miss Grace E. Book, assisted by a few of her pupils gave a recital at the residence of J. S. Hammond on Friday evening, February 19th at eight o'clock.

Indiana dedicated a new $75,000 school building Friday. Among the speakers was Reed B. Teitrick, deputy state superintendent, formerly of Jefferson county.

Dr. N. W. Smith, company doctor at Soldier for some time, has gone to Punxsutawney. He will be succeeded at Soldier by Doctor Johnston, now of Eleasora.

"The Power of Invisible Things" will be the subject of the morning discourse by Rev. John F. Black in the M. E. church Sunday. Rev. J. Bell Neff, of DuBois, will preach in the evening.

The Martha Washington, tea in basement of the M. E. church Monday evening was well attended. Interest was lent to the occasion by the presence of Mr. G. B. Kemp with his wireless telegraph apparatus.

Two men and a woman giving their names as Samuel Sloc, Isaac Sloc and Mrs. Samuel Sloc, and their residence as Big Soldier, were arrested at Falls Creek Saturday for disorderly conduct and trying to board a freight train. A fine of $10.00 each was promptly paid.

The Pennsylvania Retail Hardware Association endorsed strongly newspaper advertising as a basis for the key to success. If the local merchant wishes to get ahead of the mail order house he must be a liberal patron of the advertising columns of the local newspaper.

Through the courtesy of Frank B. Ritzle, a former Reynoldsville boy now located at Seattle, Wash., THE STAR has received a copy of the Exposition number of the Seattle Sunday Times. It gives a magnificent write-up of the great Seattle Exposition as well as of the city of Seattle and its citizens.

Forty ladies, members of the L. C. B. A. at DuBois and Punxsutawney, were guests of the Reynoldsville branch of the order Friday evening last and were entertained in the banquet room of the I. O. O. F. hall. A supper was served and the evening was pleasantly spent with music and dancing, games and amusements of various kinds. At a late hour special trolleys cars took the Punxsutawney and DuBois ladies back to their homes.

WEDDING AT HIGH NOON.

Harry Conrad Herpel and Miss Elva Coleman United To Day.
At 12.00 o'clock to-day, Wednesday, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Coleman, on East Main street, their daughter, Miss Elva, will be united in marriage to Harry Conrad Herpel, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Herpel of West Reynoldsville.

RATHMEL'S UNION REVIVAL.

Dr. Manchester Accomplishing a Good Work in the Mining Village.
The union revival meetings now in progress in the Presbyterian church at Rathmel are well attended and half a score have professed conversion.

Clarion is arranging for a big Old Home Week reunion during the week commencing June 20. This coincides with the commencement exercises at the normal when many of the alumni will return.

As the annual business meeting of the Reynoldsville Building and Loan Association Monday evening five of the former directors whose terms expired were re-elected, as follows: J. H. Kaucher, H. C. Deible, F. S. Hoffman, A. T. McClure, Wm. Copping. P. A. Hardman was re-elected an auditor.

Owing to a conflict of dates with several other announced functions, the D. A. R. junior prize essay contest was postponed from Monday evening to Thursday afternoon, February 25th at 2.45 p. m. The program as originally prepared will be carried out and will be well worth the attendance of a large crowd.

The Mission Circle of the Baptist church elected the following officers at home of Mrs. E. C. Davis last Thursday evening: Mrs. G. G. Williams, President; Mrs. A. H. Bowser, Vice-President for Home Missions; Mrs. D. W. Atwater, Vice-President for Foreign Missions; Miss Lucille Mitchell, Secretary and Treasurer.

Adrian Iselin, Jr., has been elected president of the B. R. & P. R'y system to succeed the late A. G. Yates. William T. Noonan, general manager of the road, was promoted to the vice-presidency vacated by Mr. Iselin. The selection of these men indicates that there will be little change in the general policy of the company.

The Presbyterian Brotherhood will hold a social in their church Thursday evening, February 25, for which special invitations to the gentlemen of the Presbyterian congregation and their wives have been issued. W. C. Pentz, of DuBois, and G. M. McDonald, Esq., of Reynoldsville will give addresses, and there will be a program of vocal and instrumental music.

A boy who lived with his mother in the woods at a lonely point in Eldred township, Jefferson county, died last week and it was said the cause was starvation. The body remained unburied until neighbors heard of the affair and laid away the remains several days later. The poor old mother will be removed to the county home now that attention has been drawn to her destitution.

Either run a town with a vim or just sell out and loaf, says an exchange. One thing must be done—run the town for all it's worth; get up steam and keep it up. Do you want trade? Bid for it. Do you want business to come to your town? Encourage what you have. Do you want a prosperous town? Then never permit jealousy to rule your actions, but work together for the common prosperity and mutual benefit.

A series of all-around athletic tests between different classes is now in progress in the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium at New Castle which is creating much interest in that city. In a recent issue of a New Castle daily we noted the name of Arthur J. Farrell, son of M. J. Farrell, of Reynoldsville, in second place on the senior class with a total of 666 points, the leader having 702. The contest is just half closed and a Reynoldsville boy may yet land the prize.

Fifty ladies and gentlemen from Punxsutawney were entertained in the Reynoldsville Young Ladies' Sodality in the banquet room of the I. O. O. F. hall Monday evening. Progressive euchre furnished the amusement of the evening. An address was made by Lawyer Clement W. Flynn on Washington and his service to the country which received unusual commendation from the auditors. The Punxsutawney guests returned home in a special car.

ASSOCIATION MEMBERS!

Annual Meeting for Nomination of Officers Next Tuesday Evening.
All members of the Reynoldsville Business Men's Association are urged to make a special effort to attend the regular annual meeting next Tuesday evening, March 2nd. Nominations for all offices and for executive committee will be made that night, the election occurring one month later.

Broken Arm.

Mrs. Jane Sprague, of Grant street, fell on an icy porch at her home on Tuesday last and broke an arm.

Dolliver's Lecture Postponed.

Monday morning Prof. W. M. Rife received a telegram announcing the inability of Senator Jonathan P. Dolliver to fill his lecture engagement at Reynoldsville and promised a later date, probably the middle of March.

Change at Tannery.

J. W. Sykes, superintendent at the Reynoldsville plant of the Elk Tanning Co., has been transferred to Roaring Branch near Williamsport, and went to his new location this week. As yet his successor at Reynoldsville has not been appointed.

Strike at Mahler Plant.

Union glassworkers at the Mahler glass plant, near DuBois, came out on a strike last week. The plant was in operation this fire but a short time, a stock company of French and Belgian glass men attempting to run it. The strikers ask a flat rate of pay which the stockholders claim is too high to allow profitable manufacture.

Washington Birthday Party.

Misses Aldine Reed and Jane Smith entertained sixty young people at the Reed residence at corner of Main and Fifth streets Monday evening. The home had been elaborately decorated for the event, the national colors having a prominent place in the decorative scheme. Various games were played and light refreshments served during the evening. It was a most enjoyable affair for all present.

Malicious Mischief.

At an early hour Saturday morning some person went to the apiary of Isaac Miller, on Worth street and uncovered seven hives of bees, evidently with the intention of causing loss by exposing the bees to the sleet and rain. Mr. Miller discovered the deed in the morning and also noticed in the soft ground imprints of No. 9 shoes which furnish a pretty fair clue to the perpetrator of the act, and if more evidence can be secured will see that the marauder gets due reward for the deviltry.

Pythians Open Club Rooms.

During the past six months over thirty-five new members have been initiated into Valiant Lodge No. 461, Knights of Pythias, increasing their total membership to over 110. Recently the lodge appropriated funds for the rent and equipment of two rooms in addition to their old lodge room, to be used for club purposes. These rooms are on the third floor of the Smith & McClure building, and have been very tastefully decorated and fitted with chairs, tables and other accessories. Books, magazines and newspapers will be arranged for and the rooms will be made a cozy and comfortable place in which to spend an idle hour in reading or playing games.

Checker Tournament Averages.

Table with columns: Name, Won, Lost, Pct.
Averages in the checker tournament up to February 23 were as follows:
J. Campbell 56 6 .903
Ross 84 10 .894
Fisher 64 15 .810
Henry 75 21 .781
Burgoon 42 14 .750
Caldwell 41 39 .513
Leach 16 16 .500
Smith 46 50 .469
Whitmore 40 48 .455
Reed 47 57 .452
Stewart 41 63 .394
Young 21 48 .328
Burriss 31 72 .308
McClure 20 52 .277
Campbell 10 54 .156
Sheasley 16 88 .154

Letter List.

List of unclaimed letters remaining in post office at Reynoldsville, Pa., for week ending Feb. 20, 1909.

Mrs. Mollie Bush, Miss Nellie Mumphreys.
Foreign—Saverio O'Luca.
Say advertised and give date of list when calling for above.

E. C. BURNS, P. M.

If you want good, genuine reelected Anchor Brand cloyer and timothy seed go to the Keystone Hardware store. Ask Ninlan Cooper and he will tell you where to find it.

Subscribe for THE STAR. $1 a year.
Men's-ess-shoes, price $3.00 to $5.50. Adam's.

Bad breath, crust in the nose, snuffles, watery eyes, all stopped in a few days, by Hyomei, the dry air catarrh cure. Stoke & Feicht Drug Co. sells it and guarantees it. $1.00 for complete outfit.

PRETTY HOME WEDDING.

Miss Edna Myers Married to Edwin E. Ellis Monday Noon.
A beautiful home wedding occurred on Monday, February 22, 1909, at the home of J. A. Myers, of Hill street, when his youngest daughter, Edna, was married to Edwin Elroy Ellis, of Kenosha, Wis. The house was decorated profusely with roses, carnations, hyacinths, smilax and ferns. It was just 12 o'clock when the happy couple stepped between a bell composed of smilax and white hyacinths, and were made one by the pastor of the Presbyterian church, Rev. A. D. McKay.

After best wishes and congratulations a dainty collation was served, and Mr. Kelz took a picture of the happy company to grace the walls of the bride's distant home. The gown that the bride wore, was of white silk batiste and lace; very beautiful indeed, but not more beautiful than she who wore it so graciously.

Mr. Ellis is a prosperous and genial business man, who is to be congratulated upon his success in winning one of our best girls.

Beside the home circle there were present Mr. and Mrs. Smith, Claud, Grace and Mary Smith, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Lucas, all of Brookville; J. H. Moore, of Corsica, Pa., Mrs. Ray Crawford, Vandergrift, Pa., Miss Laura Speer, Limestone, Pa., Master Noyes Ellis, Kenosha, Wis., Rev. and Mrs. A. D. McKay, Reynoldsville.

M. D. M.

DIED AT ARNOLD.

Body of Mrs. Elizabeth Hunsinger Will Be Brought Here for Interment.

Mrs. Elizabeth Hunsinger, wife of John C. Hunsinger and eldest daughter of George and Sarah Burket, of Deemers Cross Roads, died at her home in Arnold, Pa., Monday, February 22nd, 1909, of pleural pneumonia.

Mrs. Hunsinger had been suffering from blood poison in her right lower limb, but was thought to be satisfactorily recovering from this when pneumonia set in and she survived but a short time. She was 38 years, 6 months and 3 days old at time of her death and is survived by a husband and three daughters, Beatrix, Cora and Hazel, father, mother, four brothers and two sisters. She had many friends here who will hear with regret of her untimely death.

The body will be brought to the home of the parents Wednesday noon and funeral services will take place Thursday afternoon at 1.30 in Chestnut Grove church. Interment in Smith cemetery.

W. C. T. U. Report.

Jefferson County Woman's Christian Temperance Union met in executive session at the home of Mrs. Prescott in Reynoldsville Wednesday, February 10, 1909.

Seven unions were represented as follows: Punxsutawney, Anita, Wishaw, Baxter, Brockwayville, Reynoldsville and Brookville. It was decided to hold the annual convention for 1909 at Punxsutawney beginning August 26 State president Mrs. George has kindly consented to be present and assist with the convention. Arrangements are being made to have a silver medal contest the opening night, the contestants to be taken from the different towns in Jefferson county. Mrs. Iddings, superintendent of the Loyal Temperance Legion having resigned, Miss Jennie Cottle was appointed to fill her place. After disposing of the business and making plans for future work the ladies returned to their homes feeling that they had a good meeting as well as a good social time.

Will Hold Bazaar.

The Helping Hand Society of the M. E. church will hold a bazaar in the church March 25 and 26. Supper will be served each evening.

WANT COLUMN.

Rates—One cent per word for each and over insertion.

FOR RENT—C. F. Hoffman house, bath, hot and cold water and all modern conveniences. Inquire of G. M. McDonald.

LOST—Bar pin set with sapphires and pearls. Finder please leave at THE STAR office.

Eggs for hatching from select strain of winter laying white leghorns and Barred Rocks. $1.00 for 15. E. A. Hull, Reynoldsville.

WANTED—To buy some Summerville Telephone Co. stock. Address, S. A. C., care THE STAR, Reynoldsville, Pa.

FOR SALE—Fresh Jersey cow. Inquire of John H. Deemer, R. F. D. No. 4.

FOR SALE—Lumber in a barn. Inquire of S. S. Robinson.

FOR SALE—A few thoroughbred single comb Rhode Island Red Cockerels. John M. Hays.

FOR SALE—30 acres land, horse, harness and buggy, farming implements. Inquire of B. J. Rudolph, Wishaw, or S. M. McCright, Reynoldsville.

WILL LEASE—The Reynolds opera house will be leased. Inquire of Mrs. Thos. M. Jewell.

AGED LADY PASSES AWAY.

Mrs. Mary Ann Hughes Died Early Tuesday Morning, February 23rd.

At 8.00 a. m. Tuesday morning, February 23rd, Mrs. Mary Ann Hughes expired at the home of her son, James Hughes, on Fourth street. She had been very feeble for several months, due to her advanced age, but retained consciousness until within a day of the end and passed away without a struggle.

A short funeral service will be held at the residence of James Hughes at 11.00 a. m. this morning, conducted by Rev. A. D. McKay, of the Reynoldsville Presbyterian church, and the remains will be taken to Kittanning on the 1.29 Pennsylvania passenger train. At that place a second service will be held at the home of Mrs. Stivanson, after which interment will be made in a cemetery at Kittanning beside the remains of the husband of the deceased, James Hughes, Sr., who died thirty-eight years ago.

Mrs. Hughes was born in Ireland 86 years ago, and came to America when fifteen years of age. She was married to James Hughes, Sr. The following sons and daughters survive: H. J. Hughes, of Pittsburgh, William, of Colorado, James, of Reynoldsville, Edward, of Rathmel, George, of Reynoldsville, Mrs. William Lodging, of Reynoldsville, and Mrs. Robert Stivanson, of Kittanning. A sister ninety years of age survives, as well as twenty grand children.

All the sons and daughters, except William Hughes, of Colorado, were at her bedside during the last hours, and will accompany the body to its last resting place to-day.

DEATH OF JACOB KUNTZ.

McCalmont Township Citizen Dies From Paralytic Stroke.

Jacob Kuntz, one of the oldest and best known citizens in McCalmont township, and Southern Jefferson county, died at 11 o'clock a. m. Tuesday, as a result of a paralytic stroke, which he suffered about two weeks ago.

Mr. Kuntz came to Jefferson county from Eastern Pennsylvania about fifty years ago. He was one of the first settlers to clear off a farm in this section, where he has since lived, and for 25 years his was one of the most productive of farm properties in this section.

The deceased, who was 73 years old is survived by a widow and one daughter, Mrs. Samuel Hawk, of New Bethlehem, and two sons, Jefferson, of Brookville, and Amos, of Sykesville.

The funeral took place from the late home of the deceased near Adrian Thursday at 10.00 o'clock a. m. Rev. S. T. Himes, pastor of the First Lutheran church and the Mt. Zion church, officiated. Interment was made in the Grube cemetery.

Mr. Kuntz was president of the Sykesville Clay Product Co.—Sykesville Post Dispatch.

Dyspeptic sufferers of Reynoldsville, Mi-o-na tablets will give you immediate relief. In most cases they will cure any stomach disease in two weeks. Stoke & Feicht Drug Co. guarantees them. 50 cents a large box.

High School Bulletin

Editor-in-Chief, CELIA YOST
Senior Reporter, FONDA KING
Junior Reporter, SARA FORD
Soph. Reporter, HAZEL HOFFMAN
Fresh. Rep. GUY POSTLETHWAITE

Hon. S. B. Elliott will deliver a lecture on "Forestry" in the auditorium of the public school on March 12th at 8.00 p. m. This lecture is free and everybody is invited.

Senator Dolliver's lecture has been postponed on account of important business in congress. The lecture will be given sometime early in March.

The D. A. R. essay contest will be held in Assembly hall on Thursday afternoon, February 25, at 2.45 p. m.

Prof. W. M. Rife will speak at the Wislaw teachers' institute on Saturday. Subject: "The Country and Its School."

No tardy pupils last week in these rooms: No. 2, No. 4, No. 6, No. 8, No. 9, N. 10.

Supt. L. M. Jones called at the schools on Wednesday. On account of the monthly examinations being scheduled for that day, he postponed his monthly visit.

E. C. Shields, of DuBois, paid his respects to the teachers last week.

The Seniors are reading 52 lines of Virgil daily. They read 150 lines last Friday.

They say, that if you would only pause to think, when mad enough to choke, that the word that cuts the deepest is the word that's never spoke, you'd let the other fellow talk, till the storm had passed away—then he would get to thinking of the things you DIDN'T say.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS.

Climpes of the People who are Passing To and Fro.

Mrs. George W. Kline spent Friday in DuBois.

Mrs. J. R. Hillis was in Punxsutawney Thursday.

Harry Bryan and family visited in Mayport last week.

Misses Edith and Pauline Katzen visited in DuBois Sunday.

Will A. Reynolds, of Warren, was in Reynoldsville a day the past week.

Mrs. Dr. S. Reynolds, of Warren, Pa., is visiting at home of C. A. Stephenson.

Mrs. Harry F. Lord and children, of Johnsonburg, are visiting relatives in this place.

M. Fred Reed, of Washington, D. C., is visiting his father, J. Van Reed, on Main street.

Mrs. North, of Punxsutawney, is visiting her sister, Mrs. J. R. Hillis, on Grant street.

Joseph Mitchell, assistant in H. L. McEntire's pharmacy, visited in Kane the first of this week.

Mrs. S. V. Hays and daughter, Miss Phyllis, are visiting in Pittsburgh and Allegheny City this week.

Mrs. Fred Farber, of Falls Creek, was entertained at the home of Mrs. Richard L. Taafé over Sunday.

Richard A. Warnock, of Youngstown, Ohio, is the guest of his sister, Mrs. M. M. Fisher, on Hill street.

Clarence H. Reynolds, of Warren, came to town last evening to attend the Herpel-Coleman wedding to-day.

L. P. Brenholtz, who was visiting a son at Patton, Pa., is now a guest at home of W. G. Brenholtz in this place.

Miss Ophelia Wasson is in the Samaritan Hospital in Philadelphia, where she was operated on a few days ago.

Miss Edna Smith, a teacher in the Indiana State Normal school, was the guest of Miss Erma Robinson over Sunday.

Mrs. W. C. Euffer, of Reynoldsville, visited her sister-in-law, Mrs. H. F. Euffer, in Hopkins several days last week.

Mrs. John C. Shobert, of Jackson street spent Sunday with her daughter, Mrs. W. P. Organ, of Punxsutawney.

Robert H. Wilson, of this place, and son, Dr. Reid Wilson, of Brookville, left last Friday for a trip through Colorado.

Misses Jessie Bantz and Pauline Brookbank, of DuBois, spent Sunday with Misses Vera and Margarette Applegate.

Mrs. A. E. Foster, of Smethport, was a guest at the home of Mrs. D. M. Dunsmore in West Reynoldsville the past week.

Mrs. L. L. Gourlay, of Pittsburgh, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Sutter, in West Reynoldsville, last week.

Miss Mary McClure went to Pittsburgh yesterday to visit her brother, Arthur McClure. She will remain there sometime.

Mrs. Maggie Taylor, of Dents Run, returned home Monday after a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Barclay, at Rathmel.

Robert Fergus, wife and children, of Kennersell, Pa., spent Sunday with Mrs. Fergus' parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Hays, in this place.

Dr. A. J. Meek returned Friday evening from a visit at Fulton, Washington county, where he was called by the illness of his aged mother.

M. C. Yube returned from the Ridgeway hospital last week, where he had gone to have an eye, accidentally injured ten weeks ago, removed.

E. C. Wells, of Piolet, Clarion county, was the guest of his mother, Mrs. Mary Wells, and other relatives in West Reynoldsville, last week.

Mrs. Adam Welder and daughter, Miss Bessie, of Big Run, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Fales in West Reynoldsville a few days the past week.

Rev. T. H. Gaupp, district superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League, spent last Wednesday in Reynoldsville in the interest of his organization.

B. F. Clark and wife, of West Reynoldsville, will go to Washington, Pa., Monday to visit until the middle of March amid the scenes of Mr. Clark's boyhood.

Mrs. H. F. George, who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Ressler on Fifth street several months, went to Port Allegheny, Pa., Friday last. She will join her husband there and they will shortly return to their home in Wisconsin.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Koehler, of this place, attended a big banquet at the National hotel in DuBois Saturday evening, which was given to the Prudential Insurance Company's officers and field staff of the DuBois District. Mr. Koehler is staff agent of the company at Reynoldsville.

Notice.

We furnish you Henry's, Davis' or Little's coal at your request. City Dray, W. U. Ellenberger.