WHAT ROOM NEEDS PAPERING

Is there a room in your house that looks dirty in spite of your efforts at cleanliness. Ten to one it's the paper that's soiled. Well, there's nothing that will freshen up things so well as nice bright paper and we don't know where you'll see such a variety of papers to do it with as you will at—

Stoke & Feicht Drug Company

A Little of Everything.

The Lenten season commenced last Wednesday. The Katzen cloth'g store has been moved from Soldier to Sykesville. Lewis Williams, the Rossiter murderer, was captured at Johnstown last week. The auditors of Reynoldsville borough met to audit municipal accounts March 8th. Indiana will be bonded for $40,000 for the purpose of erecting a sewage disposal plant. The U. S. government will erect a postoffice building at Kittanning the coming summer. John McMartin is acting as baggage-master at the Pennsylvania railroad station at present. THE STAR acknowledges receipt from Congressman J. G. Beale of a number of government documents. William Jennings Bryan lectures in the Belvedere opera house at Brookville Friday afternoon, March 12. Jury Commissioner John Trudgen was in Brookville Tuesday drawing jurors for the April term of court. A new drug store has been opened in the Estes & Long building at Sykesville by W. J. Nourse, formerly of Mt. Jewett. After twenty-five years' service as clerk of the Brookville borough council, C. Z. Gordon will voluntarily retire this week. The new borough officers were sworn in Monday night, excepting school directors, who will commence their term in June. Samuel Wilcox, an expert glass tank builder, is in charge of the re-building of the tank in the Star Glass Co. plant at this place. M. L. McQuown, Jr., of Cherry Tree, has opened a billiard and pool room in the Hoover building. The equipment is new and up-to-date. Dr. J. Bell Noff, of DuBois, District Superintendent of the Clarion M. E. District, preached in the M. E. church at this place Sunday evening. Mrs. Orval Johns entertained a few of her lady friends and their husbands at a six o'clock dinner at her home on Hill street last Friday evening. Allen Carnduff, of DuBois, who was employed in the mines at Rathmel, died at the latter place Feb. 23rd. His body was taken to DuBois for burial. The Ladies' Work Society of the Presbyterian church will hold a social on Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. S. Hammond, on Main street. Mrs. Harry Corbett, of West Reynoldsville, entertained a dozen ladies of a DuBois Fancy Work Club and several Reynoldsville ladies at her home last Friday afternoon. The Brookville postoffice has been granted its sixth rural mail route. Service will commence May 1st. The route is over 21 miles long and covers territory north and northeast of Brookville. The DuBois Express is agitating a Marathon race with Reynoldsville as one terminal. Boom it. Possibly Reynoldsville has a few fleet-footed boys who could help make it interesting.

The Young Men's Reading Room club recently elected the following officers: President, Jesse Hirst; Vice-President, Thomas White; Secretary, Melvin Fisher, Treasurer, Harry Kirkwood. Get your news items to the editor before they are moss grown. He prefers to publish a death notice before the child is waned, a marriage before divorce proceedings are begun, and a death before the widower is married again. David C. Whitehill, who recently sold the DuBois Express to A. E. Hasbrook, spent last Tuesday afternoon in Reynoldsville and while away the time teaching several members of the Reynoldsville checker club how the game is played. J. M. Dailey, the local insurance man, was in Indiana a day last week and while there went through the plant of the Clymer Manufacturing Co. He found the company operating at full capacity and turning out a product equal to the best on the market. The theme at the Methodist Episcopal church next Sunday morning will be "A Longed For but Useless Remedy." The evening service will be in charge of the ladies of the Women's Foreign Missionary Society. A special program is being arranged. Employees of the Climax Brick Co. plant at New Bethlehem have been out on a strike several weeks in an effort to compel reinstatement of a discharged worker. An effort is being made to run the plant with new hands and several of the old employes have moved away. Andrew Denny and family were called to East Brady last week on account of the death of Mrs. Denny's aged mother, who had been in feeble health for some time. A host of friends deeply sympathize with the family in the hour of their sad bereavement.—Driftwood Gazette. Thomas Haggerty, of Reynoldsville, was one of the prominent speakers at the mass meeting held in DuBois Sunday to protest against the recent Gompers-Mitchell-Morrison contempt of court jail sentence. The meeting ended by putting through a resolution of protest. At a meeting of the Utopia Club Monday evening the following officers were elected for a year: President, Mrs. W. C. Elliott; Vice-President, Mrs. V. R. Pratt; Secretary, Mrs. Fred K. Alexander; Treasurer, Mrs. James A. McCraight; Referee, Mrs. L. M. Simmons. The trustees of the First Methodist Episcopal church of Reynoldsville, were entertained at an informal dinner party by Mr. and Mrs. John F. Black at the parsonage Friday evening. The affair was a most delightful one in which the pastor and his official board were drawn closer together. Miss Cora Mitchell, who was nine years old Feb. 23rd, entertained a dozen ladies at home of her grandmother, Mrs. Cora Mitchell, on Grant street, after school on her birthday. It is hardly necessary to add that the girls had a jolly time. A nice luncheon was served. Cora received a number of presents. The Ladies' Missionary Society of the Presbyterian church will hold its regular meeting at the home of Mrs. David Matherwell, in Snydertown, on Friday afternoon at 2:30 sharp, at which time the annual election of officers will take place and business of the past year will be closed up. All members are urged to be present. Edward Bates, a former Reynoldsville glassworker who has been employed in New Jersey for several years, and son, Joseph, are guests at the home of Joseph Shaffer in this place. Like every other man who ever lived in Reynoldsville Mr. Bates has a warm spot in his heart for the town and may some day return to make it his permanent home. Edwin C. Kime, who enlisted last August as a musician in the 15th U. S. Cavalry stationed at Cienfuegos, Cuba, has been promoted to the rank of corporal with an increase of six dollars a month in his pay. His company has returned to the states and is stationed at Ft. Myer, Va. The 15th Cavalry band will play at the inaugural ceremony on March 4th. Robert Z. Parrish, of Reynoldsville, was in Indiana and Homer City a day last week and while at Indiana met many of the officials of the Clymer Manufacturing Co., the concern now planning the establishment of an enameling plant in Reynoldsville. These gentlemen have a reputation for fair and square dealing at home which speaks well for the future operations in Reynoldsville. Edward H. Herpel, formerly of San Antonio, Texas, who has been in Reynoldsville over a year visiting his uncle, Chas. A. Herpel, left on Saturday for Philadelphia to attend an automobile school. He expects to attend the inauguration at Washington also. Mr. Herpel has made many friends during his visit in town who were sorry to see him go but all wish him success in his undertaking.

Evening Party. Miss Fannie Alexander entertained a number of young friends at her home on Grant street last Thursday evening. An elegant luncheon was served. Games were played and members of the Cadanza minstrels who were present entertained the guests for an hour. Left Hospital Monday. Dr. S. Reynolds, of Warren, formerly of this place, who was operated on in the Mercy Hospital in Pittsburgh three weeks ago last Monday, was able to leave the hospital on Monday of this week. Mrs. Reynolds, who has been visiting in Reynoldsville a week, will go to Pittsburgh to-day and the latter part of this week Dr. and Mrs. Reynolds will go to Connellsville to visit a couple of weeks with relatives. Aged Wedding Guest. We feel safe in making the assertion that in one respect at least the Herpel-Coleman wedding on the 24th ult. surpassed any other wedding ever held in Reynoldsville, and that was in having as a wedding guest the grandfather of the bride, Mr. Jacob King, who is in his 96th year. One young man who attended the wedding said: "Grandfather King acted as young and spry as any of us and, apparently, enjoyed the occasion as much as any of the other guests." Missionary Meeting. The regular monthly meeting of the Foreign Missionary Society of the M. E. church will be held at the home of Mrs. F. C. Wescoat on Main street at 3:00 p. m. on Thursday afternoon of this week instead of Friday afternoon. Mrs. A. S. M. Hopkins, of Hazlehurst, Pa., Conference Secretary will be present and give a missionary talk. Mrs. Hopkins is a very interesting and instructive speaker and all members of the Missionary Society should be present to hear her. Supper served at six o'clock. Husbands invited. Died in Colorado. E. D. Davis, of West Reynoldsville, received word the past week of the death of a brother, Thomas Davis, at Silverton, Colorado, February 20th. The deceased was attacked by pneumonia in acute form and died in a hospital where he was undergoing treatment. Orders were dispatched to ship the body home to Ebensburg, Pa., for burial, but owing to heavy storms in Colorado, railroad traffic was blocked for several days. This is the third brother of Mr. Davis to die in Colorado, two of them within the last four months. Died at Howe. James O'Donnell, a brother of Arthur O'Donnell, Sr., of West Reynoldsville, died near Howe, this county, Tuesday, Feb. 23rd, at the age of 72 years. His body was taken to Brookville and thence to New Bethlehem Friday, in-terment being made at the latter place. Mr. O'Donnell was never married and made his home with the family of Thomas Lyle, near Howe for many years. Arthur O'Donnell, Sr., of Reynoldsville, Charles O'Donnell, of Bradford, brothers of deceased, and Arthur O'Donnell, Jr., and Charles O'Donnell, of this place, nephews of the deceased, went to New Bethlehem Friday to be present at the last rites. Notice to Taxpayers of Winalow Twp. The county commissioners have placed the county taxes of the different collectors into the hands of their attorney up to 1908 to compel the collectors to at once collect the same. The 1908 taxes are also due and collectible. The supervisors and school board are after me for their money and I will have to proceed at once and collect the taxes. AMOS STROUSE, Collector. Card of Thanks. We wish to thank our friends and neighbors for their kind assistance during the sickness and death of our mother, Mary A. Hughes. SONS AND DAUGHTERS. Notice. DOCTOR NEALE MAKES A REQUEST. Neither a borrower nor a lender be, But if you have my anatomy— Return it to me. DR. J. B. NEALE. HOME WEDDING LAST WEDNESDAY MORNING. Miss Elvie Sarah Coleman Became the Bride of Harry Conrad Herpel At High Noon. One of the prettiest home weddings of the season took place Wednesday, February 24th, 1909, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Coleman on East Main street, when their daughter, Miss Elvie Sarah Coleman, was married to Harry Conrad Herpel, both of Reynoldsville. The house was beautifully decorated with roses, carnations, smilax and rhododendron. At high noon to the strains of the wedding march played by Miss Golda King, cousin of the bride, the wedding party was ushered into the presence of about fifty guests, meeting under a canopy of rhododendron and pink carnations, where the ceremony was performed by Dr. H. F. King, pastor of the Indiana Baptist church, assisted by Dr. A. J. Meek, pastor of the First Baptist church of Reynoldsville. Immediately following best wishes and congratulations a dainty wedding breakfast was served. The bride wore a gown of white net on princess model, trimmed with lace and carried a shower bouquet of white sweet peas. She was attended by her cousin, Miss Kathryn King, as maid of honor. The ribbon girls were Misses Elizabeth Herpel and Helen King, the ribbon bearer, little Louise King. Mr. Curt Mueller, of Cleveland, Ohio, was best man. The out of town guests were: Dr. H. F. King, Indiana, Pa., Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Coleman, Summerville, Mr. and Mrs. George Fulton, Horatio, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. F. Hirst, Indiana, William F. Herpel, Punxsutawney, Curt Mueller and Mortimer Mehling, Cleveland, Ohio, Clarence H. Reynolds, Warren, Pa. WILLIAM HINES DIED MONDAY. Funeral Will Be Held Thursday Morning and Burial Will Be Made in the Catholic Church. William Henry Hines, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hines, died at the family residence on Fourth street at 9:40 p. m. Monday, March 1st, 1909, after an illness of three months duration. He was employed with his brother, Clarence, at Eldred, Pa., when the first indications of uraemic poisoning forced him to return to Reynoldsville. He grew worse rapidly and passed away at the time mentioned above. Funeral services will be held at the Catholic church at 9:00 a. m. Thursday and burial will be made in the Catholic cemetery. Mr. Hines was born in New York state and 22 years and 8 months old. He came to Reynoldsville in 1901 with his parents and was employed as a glass cutter in the Star Glass Co. plant at Reynoldsville when it was in operation. He was quiet and reserved in disposition.
