

Reynoldsville

Has modern schools and churches, paved streets, water, gas and electric accommodations, convenient trolley service, high and healthful location, varied employment for labor and many other residential advantages.

The ★ Star.

Reynoldsville

Offers exceptional advantages for the location of new industries: Free factory sites, cheap and abundant fuel, direct shipping facilities and low freight rates and plentiful supply of laborers.

VOLUME 17.

REYNOLDSVILLE, PENN'A., WEDNESDAY, APRIL 7, 1909.

NUMBER 47.

RAILROAD RUMORS ABOUND

Franklin & Clearfield To Connect with R. & F. C. Near Reynoldsville.

PROSPECT GOOD FOR LOCAL FREIGHT CREWS

Passenger Station Will Probably Be Erected, Or B., R. & P. Station at the Foot of Fourth Street Leased.

There has been considerable newspaper talk about the proposed route of the Franklin & Clearfield railroad between Brookville and Clearfield, and people have become skeptical concerning these statements, but the time has now come when we can safely make the statement that the P. R. R. tracks will be used from Brookville to Reynoldsville, the Reynoldsville & Falls Creek tracks from Reynoldsville to Falls Creek and the B., R. & P. tracks to Clearfield and there connect with the New York Central for eastern points. A corps of B. R. & P. engineers have been surveying in this section during the past week to get a connection between the P. R. R. and R. & F. C. for the Franklin & Clearfield. It is likely the connecting switch on the P. R. R. will be put in near the east end of the big cut just below town and connect with the R. & F. C. near the freight station at foot of Fourth street. To do this it will be necessary to raise the R. & F. C. track about five feet at that point, and probably make it necessary to raise Main street several feet at end of iron bridge.

There was some talk of the Franklin & Clearfield using the P. R. R. tracks from Brookville to Falls Creek, but in that case the new railroad would be of little benefit, if any, to Reynoldsville, as the passenger and freight trains would likely run through the town without even stopping, but the use of the R. & F. C. tracks will mean much for our town. It will give us additional passenger and freight service east and west, and this may be a convenient place to lay over a few railroad crews.

If this route, which now looks certain, is taken the Franklin & Clearfield will either use the old B., R. & P. station at foot of Fourth street or build a new station, and in case a new one is built it should be located at foot of Main street near the iron bridge.

Caleb Powers Next Assembly Hall Orator

Noted Kentuckian Will Speak In Reynoldsville Tuesday Evening, April 20.

Caleb Powers, the young Kentuckian and ex-Secretary of State, around whom all the political rancor, strife and hatred of Kentucky partisan politics have gathered, has within the past eight years attracted more attention because of his untiring fight for justice than any other man in America public life. Mr. Powers was born and reared on a farm near Barbourville, Knox County, Kentucky. By close application to study he managed to obtain a splendid education, having graduated with honors before entering public life in the Law department of two of the Nation's greatest Universities.

Mr. Powers has made a National reputation as a brilliant lecturer. His lectures are attracting unusual attention and everywhere he goes he is met with a great outpouring of people. He has fought an unusual battle against all kinds of corrupt political combinations, partisan courts, packed juries and perjured witnesses. Cool, deliberate and without feeling of partisan hatred, he portrays the story of the most wonderful career in the annals of history. He is extremely pleasant and convincing on the platform and is rapidly gaining fame as one of the Nation's greatest orators. There is nothing in his lecture that will offend the most rabid partisan.

At Assembly Hall Tuesday evening, April 20th.

Copyright 1909 by Hart Schaffner & Marx

GETTING in front and keeping there--that's the way Marathon races are won. Its the way anything else in this world is won; and no man who wants to win can afford to neglect anything, great or small, which may contribute to his being in front.

You want to win success in your undertakings, whatever they may be; and one of the things which every man needs and ought to be sure of, is good clothes; they help your appearance, add to your effectiveness, make you feel more successful; and there's a lot in the way a man feels who is trying to win.

Hart Schaffner & Marx are in front among all the clothes-makers of the world; they got there by making clothes right; by correct style, by perfect and thorough tailoring, by using none but all wool fabrics when so many makers think part cotton is good enough for you.

We sell these clothes because we believe they're that kind of clothes; because we want to keep in front. They're the sort of clothes that are a benefit and a profit to all concerned; to you who wear them most of all.

If you're in front and want to stay there; or if you want to get there, here are the clothes for it.

This store is the home of Hart Schaffner & Marx clothes.

W. H. BELL

REYNOLDSVILLE

PENNSYLVANIA