A Little of Everything.

Trout fishing season opens to-morrow, April 15th.

"Right Upon the Scaffold, Wrong Upon the Throne" at Assembly hall Tuesday evening, April 20.

Sunday evening Rev. S. Wallace Mitchell baptised five persons in the Baptist church at Sykesville.

The Sunday services at M. E. church are as follows: 11.00 a. m. theme, "F. L. T.," 7.30 p. m. theme, "Contentment."

Miss Ella Murphy, who resides near Emerickville, lost her valuable driving horse, Dan, the past week. The horse was found.

A warning notice appearing in THE STAR two weeks ago should have read, "house J. E. Rhodes lives in" instead of "F. E. Rhodes."

Among the old soldiers to whom pensions were granted the past week was George W. Stoke, Sr., of Reynoldsville, $20.00 per month.

Committee No. 1 of the Ladies' Work Society of the Presbyterian church will hold a market at the Keystone Hardware store on Saturday, April 17th.

On account of the Easter season, the pupils of the parochial school were given a vacation from Wednesday of last week until Monday morning of this week.

Monday morning of this week Ninian Cooper remarked that sixty-five years ago to-day the grass was four or five inches high and the cattle were picking a living in the woodlands.

Francis G. Rea has been appointed carrier on R. F. D. route No. 4 from the Reynoldsville office to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of his brother, George H. Rea.

The Jefferson Macaroni Factory at Reynoldsville shipped a solid car of macaroni to Bradford Saturday. March was a busy month at this factory, which makes a fine grade of macaroni.

The choir and a full orchestra under the leadership of Prof. Arthur H. Haskins, rendered some excellent music in the Methodist Episcopal church last Sunday evening. There was a large congregation present.

At the eleven o'clock service in the Methodist Episcopal church next Sunday members of the I. O. O. F. Lodge will attend in a body and Rev. John F. Black, pastor of the church, will preach a special sermon.

The spring session of the Clarion Presbytery meets in the Presbyterian church in Falls Creek on Tuesday of next week. Rev. A. D. McKay and J. K. Johnston will represent the Reynoldsville Presbyterian church.

See the Jefferson County Fair at the opera house on Thursday and Friday evenings of this week. Admission 25 and 35 cents. Attend and have a good laugh. This entertainment is given under the auspices of the Woman's Relief Corps.

The intended "Old Home Week" celebration in Clarion in June next has been declared off by the executive committee, consisting of seven well known and representative citizens appointed at a general meeting last fall, by reason of indisposition on the part of business men of the town to come up to the committee's requirement in the matter of contributions.

UNDESIRABLE CITIZENS MUST LEAVE THE TOWN

Mayor and Police on the Trail of Persons of Evil Repute and Their Protectors.

It has been an open secret for some time that a number of "soiled doves" have been hovering around Reynoldsville and that several houses of ill fame exist in our midst. Mayor J. D. Williams has issued orders to the police that these houses must be closed and the people of disrepute must either change their manner of living or get out of town, consequently one man was arrested last week on charge of keeping a disorderly and bawdy house and was taken to the county jail. His case will come up in criminal court at Brookville this week. Two women were arrested and taken to the county jail yesterday. Mayor Williams is making a move in the right direction and should receive the support of all the good citizens of Reynoldsville. It is to be hoped that the officers will not let up until all the houses of ill repute be closed and all the reprobates be driven out of our town.

EASTER SUNDAY SERVICES.

Large Crowds Filled The Churches.—Special Sermons and Special Music.

It is claimed by those who have searched the records that not since 1890—nineteen years ago—has this section of the country been favored with an Easter Sunday as fine as that of this year, and the result was that the attendance at the religious services in Reynoldsville was unusually large last Sunday. Special music, special sermons and fine decorations were arranged in all the churches. The decorations in the Catholic church this year was, perhaps, the most beautiful ever seen in that church.

Tax Collector Copping Resigned.

On Monday of this week William Copping resigned as tax collector in Reynoldsville for the 1909 taxes. Mr. Copping has until June to collect the 1908 taxes and when that time expires he will have served four years as tax collector in Reynoldsville borough, and at the February election this year he was elected for another year. A notice to be found elsewhere in this issue of THE STAR indicates rather emphatically that Mr. Copping proposes to be lenient no longer with delinquent tax payers. He seems to have "blood in his eye" and will evidently make it lively for any property owners who do not liquidate their taxes within a specified time.

Congregational Meeting.

There was a good attendance at the annual congregational meeting held in the Presbyterian church last Wednesday evening. Very gratifying and encouraging reports from the various societies of the church were read. The following church officers were elected: Chairman, D. H. Breakey; clerk, Smith M. McCraith; trustee, W. Harry Moore; Elders, L. M. Simmons, John H. Wagner, W. J. Hunter; auditor, Walter R. Reed. After the business meeting the Ladies' Work Society served a lunch. The new elders will be installed at the 11.00 a. m. service next Sunday.

Two new directors, H. L. Hoke and Charles A. Herpel, and the following other officers were elected by the Reynoldsville Brick & Tile Co. last week: President, A. O'Donnell, Sr., Vice-President, H. L. Hoke; Treasurer, Henry Herpel. The board of directors now are: George Mellinger, Ira S. Smith, A. O'Donnell, Sr., Charles A. Herpel, H. L. Hoke. Clyde C. Murray had been re-elected secretary of the company previously.

On the copy furnished us by the Winslow township auditors' report the number of days' time for Thomas Woods, one of the supervisors, was omitted entirely and Mr. Woods came into THE STAR office before last week's issue and asked that the number of days he worked be put in the report, and we understood him to state 38 days, but it seems that we did not hear correctly and instead of 38 days it should have been 28 days, the latter being the number of days time handed in by Mr. Woods.

Last Thursday, April 8th, the entire family of G. M. Rea gathered at the family home, near Reynoldsville, for a sort of farewell meeting before George Rea and family and Irven Rea leave for New Mexico, where they expect to locate. The family consists of ten children, seven grand-children and four daughters-in-law. An excellent dinner was partaken of and then the boys gathered in the yard on the old playground and indulged in a game of marbles in true boyish style, after which a picture of the boys was taken and then the several families separated for their own homes, hoping that the family ties might not soon be broken.

HIGH SCHOOL COMMENCEMENT.

Date Has Been Fixed for May 9, 10 and 11—No Junior Contest This Year.

The Reynoldsville High School Commencement will be held May 9, 10 and 11, beginning with the baccalaureate sermon Sunday, May 9, by Rev. M. E. Swartz, of Clearfield. There will be a literary and musical entertainment Monday evening, April 10, and the commencement will be held May 11. The commencement oration will be given by Edward A. Carmalt Esq., of Brookville. There will not be a junior oratorical contest this year. More particulars about the commencement will be published later.

HAVE CALLED A PASTOR.

Rev. W. Yeistey Will Become Pastor of Trinity Lutheran Church May 16.

Rev. W. Yeistey, who has been pastor of what is known as the Brick church in Armstrong county, Pa., has accepted a call to the pastorate of the Trinity Lutheran church in Reynoldsville, the Chestnut Grove and Emerickville Lutheran churches. Rev. Yeistey will take charge of the work at this place May 16th. He comes to the Trinity Lutheran church highly recommended and will, no doubt, do good work for that congregation.

Building and Loan Report.

The nineteenth annual report of the Reynoldsville Building and Loan Association will be found in this issue of THE STAR. A large number of our readers will be interested in this report.

Commissioners' Statement.

In this issue of THE STAR will be found the commissioners' statement of the finances of Jefferson county for the year 1908. The statement shows the large amount of business done by the board of commissioners in one year. It should be of interest to our readers to read the statement.

Candidates for District Attorney.

In this issue of THE STAR, under the head of political announcements, will be found the announcement of Smith M. McCraith, of Reynoldsville, and Raymond E. Brown, of Brookville, for district attorney. Both candidates are young men of ability and are well qualified to fill the office to which they aspire.

Easter Service in Rathmel.

It is claimed that the Easter program rendered in the Methodist Episcopal church in Rathmel last Sunday evening surpassed anything of the kind ever given in that church. We heard one man say, "It was the finest Easter service ever given in Jefferson county." The church was packed and the building was too small for every person to gain admission.

Officers Elected.

At the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Reynoldsville Woolen Mill Co. the following board of directors was elected: S. B. Elliott, F. H. Beck, James T. Evans, Daniel Nolan, M. Phalen, Richard Smith, Charles A. Herpel, and the directors elected S. B. Elliott president, F. H. Beck vice-president, James T. Evans, secretary, and John H. Kaucher treasurer.

Railroad Changes Rumored.

It is rumored that the first of next month the Low Grade Division of the P. R. R. will become a part of the P. & E. Division of the Pennsylvania and that the Low Grade Division dispatcher's office will be changed from Reynoldsville to Renovo. This may only be "railroad talk" and the change may not be made, but some of the railroad men at this place seem to feel pretty certain that it is a sure thing. We hope not.

Caleb Powers.

Caleb Powers, for a number of years the most prominent figure in Kentucky politics, and ex Secretary of State, who was tried a couple of times for complicity in the murder of Governor Goebel, of that state, will lecture in Assembly Hall, Reynoldsville, on Tuesday evening of next week, April 20, his subject being, "Right Upon the Scaffold, Wrong Upon the Throne." His lecture will consist largely in telling the story of his connection with the Goebel murder. He is said to be a good talker and his lecture is represented as very interesting. His lecture has attracted large audiences wherever he has appeared. It was largely through his untiring efforts and powers as an orator in the campaign of 1899 that the entire Republican state ticket was elected in Kentucky.

General admission 35 cents. Reserved seats can be secured at the Stoke & Feicht Drug Company store for 10 cents extra.

Baptist Annual Meeting.

The annual business meeting of the congregation of the First Baptist church of Reynoldsville was held in the church Monday night. Three deacons, E. D. Davis, T. J. Fagley and N. F. Dean, were elected, as well as several new deaconesses. R. H. Wilson was chosen trustee for one year. I. M. Hoch, treasurer, Miss Lucile Mitchell, clerk, Miss Katherine King, organist, Misses Mary McCreight, Florence Harris and Helen Meek, assistant organists. The auditing committee is composed of Dr. J. C. King, R. H. Wilson and T. J. Fagley. The reports showed gratifying advancement in all lines of the church work. A large audience was present and excellent refreshments were served to the people by the ladies of the church at the close of the business meeting.

Officers Installed.

Last Saturday evening District Deputy Grandmaster I. B. McLaughlin, of Summerville, installed the following officers in Reynoldsville Lodge No. 824, O. O. F.: N. G., P. F. Skinner; V. G., John Reddecliff; Secretary, M. E. Weed; Warden, E. E. Snyder; Conductor, Albert Neale; I. G., Edward Binney; O. G., R. W. Miller; R. S. N. G., John W. Gibson; L. S. N. G., W. G. Trudgen; R. S. V. G., K. L. Stiles; L. S. V. G., L. M. Alderton; R. S. S., John R. Sowers; L. S. S. Wm. Binney; Chaplain, E. C. Davis; Representative to Grand Lodge, John Ross.

The Checker Tournament.

The final result of the second checker tournament in the Reynoldsville Checker and Chess Club is given below. It was a contest among the leaders in the first tournament and by winning the highest average James Campbell was pretty clearly established his supremacy among the Reynoldsville devotees of the game.

Table with columns: Name, Won, Lost, Pct. J Campbell 29 11 .725, Fisher 26 14 .650, Burgoon 24 16 .600, Henry 24 16 .600, Ross 10 30 .250, Caldwell 9 31 .225

Its A Top Notch Doer.

Great deeds compel regard. The world crowns its doers. That's why the American people have crowned Dr. King's New Discovery the King of Throat and Lung remedies. Every atom is a health force. It kills germs, cools and la grippe vanish. It heals cough-raked membranes and coughing stops. Sore, inflamed bronchial tubes and lungs are cured and hemorrhages cease. Dr. George More, Black Jack, N. C., writes: "It cured me of lung trouble, pronounced hopeless by all doctors." 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by H. L. McEntire.

ANOTHER OLD SOLDIER GONE.

B. F. Hamaker Died Thursday—Funeral Saturday Afternoon—Interment in Beulah Cemetery.

Benjamin Franklin Hamaker, an old veteran, died at his home on Worth street at 1.20 a. m. Thursday, April 8th, 1909. Funeral services were held at the family residence at 2.00 p. m. Saturday, conducted by Rev. John F. Black, of the M. E. church, and Rev. A. J. Meek, of the Baptist church. Interment was made in Beulah cemetery beside a daughter, Mertie Hamaker, who died about thirty years ago. John C. Conser Grand Army Post had charge of services at cemetery, assisted by firing squad from Sons of Veterans.

Benjamin F. Hamaker was born in Huntington Co., Pa., April 26, 1838, and would have been 71 years old this month. Early in the fifties his parents moved to this section of the country, locating near Panic. When the country needed soldier boys in 1862 Mr. Hamaker enlisted in Company H, 105th Regiment—the "Wild Cat" Regiment—and served three years when he was honorably discharged. May 17, 1871, Mr. Hamaker was united in marriage to Lovena Bush. They spent five years in Missouri and Kansas and balance of married life was spent in this place. Deceased is survived by his widow, one son, William Irvin Hamaker, and one daughter, Mrs. Nora Sybert, of Reynoldsville, one brother, John Hamaker, in Kansas, and five sisters, Mrs. Hannah Malze, of Nebraska, Mrs. Mary Ann Lucas, Mrs. Catherine Kemp, Nancy Hamaker, of Reynoldsville, Mrs. Sarah Myers, of Panic.

In Memoriam.

At the regular convocation of Mystic Commandery No. 313, A. & I. O. K. M., held on Wednesday evening, April 7, 1909, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, It has pleased Almighty God in His infinite wisdom to visit our Commandery and call from our midst our worthy and esteemed companion, Zachary T. Roush, therefore in view of the loss sustained by those nearest and dearest to him,

Resolved, That while we bow in humble submission to the Supreme will, we deeply deplore our loss, but hope it has been his eternal gain.

Resolved, That the Commandery tender its warmest sympathy to the widow and family of Companion Roush in their bereavement, with the earnest prayer that they may be comforted by the God of all comfort.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be spread on the minutes and our charter be draped in mourning for a period of thirty days, and a copy sent to the widow of our deceased Companion and published in THE STAR of Reynoldsville.

BACK TAXES MUST BE PAID.

Only Thirty Days Will Be Given to Delinquent Taxpayers, Regardless of Who is Pinched.

Owing to my inability to secure bonds as tax collector I have resigned that office for 1909 taxes, and this will be a legal 30 days notice that all 1907 and 1908 back taxes not paid within the 30 days will be positively collected according to law, regardless of whom it hits or misses. This is a matter between my bondsmen and myself. They must be protected and the taxes must be paid. Further time cannot be allowed. This is not a "bluff." I mean business.
