

Subscription $1.00 per year in advance.
G. A. STEPHENSON, Editor and Pub.
WEDNESDAY, APRIL 21, 1909.
Entered at the postoffice at Reynoldsville Pa. as second class mailmatter.
SUMMERSVILLE TELEPHONE NO. 61.

To Clean Your Home Thoroughly Paper the Walls

To help you do it economically, we will include the borders of any paper in stock without charge if you present this advertisement before May 1, 1909.

Stoke & Feicht Drug Company

A Little of Everything.

The West Reynoldsville public schools close next week.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. G. M. McDonald April 18th, 1909.

The Republican State convention will be held in Harrisburg June 16th.

The largest trust in the world is the newspaper trust. If one would judge by the amount trusted out by them.—Clearfield Journal.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Lutheran church will hold a market in Priester's furniture store Saturday afternoon and evening.

The Tribe of Improved Order of Red Men of Punxsutawney subscribed for $1,000.00 stock in the silk mill to be located in that town this year.

J. W. Kirkwood, who had his right shoulder bone broken recently while at work in the Henry coal mine, will not be able to work for six weeks at least.

On account of the Union meeting in the M. E. church next Sunday evening there will not be preaching in the Baptist and Presbyterian churches that evening.

Some Pleasant Avenue boys have been annoying some citizens of Hopkins on Sundays and unless the boys discontinue their pranks arrests will be made.

Services at the M. E. church next Sunday as follows: 11:00 a. m., sermon, theme: "The Old Dispensation." 7:30 p. m., union service to be addressed by Florence D. Richards.

About one hundred Odd Fellows attended public service in the M. E. church in a body at 11:00 a. m. last Sunday. Rev. John F. Black preached a special sermon. Each Odd Fellow wore a red garbanon.

Rev. J. Vernon Bell has been pastor of the DuBois Presbyterian church a quarter of a century. Special service was held in that church last Sunday to celebrate the silver anniversary of his pastorate.

Jerry Rhodes, who was convicted in the Jefferson county court last week on charge of keeping a disorderly and bawdy house in Reynoldsville, was sentenced to one year in the Allegheny County Workhouse.

The Paradise Farmers' Telephone Co. line has been extended to Prospect and a number of people in that section can now be reached by telephone. The Paradise line is connected with the Summersville line.

J. M. Culp, our former friend from Desira, was in town one day last week and made THE STAR office a pleasant call. As a token of good fellowship he brought a half bushel of apples along for the editor and office force.

A resident of Jackson street thinks it would have a good effect on the moral condition of his section of the street if the names of all persons who call at a certain house in his locality were published in THE STAR each week.

Mr. and Mrs. George J. Elliott, of Philadelphia, some years ago residents of Reynoldsville, with whom the latter's mother, Mrs. Jesse L. Test, spent the winter, and is still with them, came to town Saturday evening to attend the funeral of Mr. A. W. Mulholland. They returned to the "City of Brotherly Love" yesterday.

COMPLETE PROGRAM FOR COMMENCEMENT WEEK

Thirteenth Annual Event Will Be In Keeping With the Spirit Of Past Years.

The thirteenth annual commencement exercises of the Reynoldsville high school will occupy three days, May 9, 10 and 11, 1909. The sermon to the class of 1909 will be preached by the Rev. M. E. Swartz, of Clearfield. This service will be held in the Methodist church on Sunday evening, May 9, at 7.30 o'clock.

On Monday evening, May 10, at eight o'clock the High School will give a musical and literary program in Assembly hall. Four members of the class of 1910 will debate the question, "Resolved that U. S. Senators Should be Elected by Popular Vote." The first year class will contest with the second year class for honors in spelling. A small admission fee will be charged for this entertainment.

Commencement proper will be held in Assembly hall on Tuesday evening, May 11, at 8 o'clock. The Seniors will appear in caps and gowns and each member of the class will read an essay. The diplomas will be presented by Dr. Sayers. Edward A. Carmalt, Esq., will deliver the commencement oration.

As yet no arrangements have been made for an Alumni reunion and banquet.

MORE STATE ROAD NEEDED.

Are the Proper Authorities Making the Demands As Persistently As They Should?

We need more paved roads in and around Reynoldsville and on account of so many demands for public highways from various parts of the state the Highway Department does not have sufficient cash on hand to build all the roads in one year, therefore it is supposed to be divided in various sections, but it has been our observation that some sections of the state get more paved roads than others, and we think the reason for this is because persistent claims from those sections are on file in the State Highway Department at Harrisburg. Because the state paid a portion of the paving between Reynoldsville and the Clearfield county line last year is no reason why the Highway Department should not pay part for much more needed paving on some other public roads that run out from Reynoldsville. Don't hesitate to ask, and then press the matter. Don't be satisfied with one paved road.

ENACT SPITTING ORDINANCE.

Expectorating on the Sidewalk is a Filthy Habit—Other Towns Prohibit by Ordinance.

Our borough "dads" should enact an ordinance that will prohibit spitting on the sidewalks within the borough limits. Such laws are being successfully enforced in other towns and could be enforced in Reynoldsville. From the Ridgway Advocate of last week we clip the following:

"The new signs, warning persons to comply with the borough ordinance in regard to expectorating on the sidewalks, which were ordered by the secretary of the council, according to direction, have arrived. They will soon be placed conspicuously in the main business streets, and, there being fifteen in all, they should afford ample notice. The signs are attractively made. As soon as they have been placed the police will begin to enforce very vigorously the ordinance against spitting, so it behooves all more men to keep the fact topmost in their conscience when striding the streets."

OLD LADY'S ARM BROKEN.

Mrs. W. A. Thompson fell in the P. R. R. Toilet Room Saturday Afternoon. While waiting for the train at the P. R. R. station Saturday afternoon Mrs. W. A. Thompson went into the dingy toilet room, which is a step lower than the station floor, and not noticing the step down, fell and broke her left forearm and bruised her left hip badly.

Mrs. Wm. Barclay and her mother, Mrs. Jessie Lowther, went to Lumberton, Fayette Co., Pa., Monday, where they were called by the serious illness of Juna Love, granddaughter of Mrs. Lowther. Juna died at 8.00 p. m. Monday. Tuberculosis was cause of death.

Mrs. Criseman, of Ridgway, whose husband was pastor of the Trinity Lutheran church in Reynoldsville eighteen or twenty years ago, was the guest of Mrs. Hood Knox on Grant street last week. This is Mrs. Criseman's first visit in town in sixteen years.

P. A. Cashman, of Halleybury, Canada, formerly general manager of the Panther Run Coal Mining Co. plant at Pardus, Pa., spent the past week at his home in this place, leaving here last night for Canada. Mr. Cashman expects to move his family to Halleybury in June.

Right Foot Amputated.

Tuberculosis of bone in right foot made it necessary for Joseph Lyons to have his right foot amputated. The operation was performed by a couple of town doctors yesterday forenoon.

Golden Wedding To-Day.

To-day Squire W. L. Johnston and wife, of West Reynoldsville, celebrate the fiftieth anniversary of their wedding. Large number of friends and relatives have been invited to attend this golden wedding.

Stanford-Cochran Wedding.

On Thursday, April 15, 1909, at 3:00 p. m., at the home of the bride's daughter, Mrs. Charles Dunlap, on Fourth street, Reynoldsville, Pa., David E. Stanford, of Washington township, and Mrs. Susannah Cochran, of Reynoldsville, were united in marriage. Squire E. Neff performed the wedding ceremony.

Farewell Surprise Party.

Last Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. John R. Whitesell, who left here Monday for Bellwood, where they will reside, were given a farewell surprise party at the home of Mrs. Whitesell's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Davis, in West Reynoldsville. The party was gotten up by Mrs. Whitesell's lady friends. There were fifty people present. Refreshments were served. It was a very enjoyable surprise party. The guests departed for their respective homes before the midnight hour.

Big Reception Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. King and son of Real del Monte, Mexico, will arrive here to-day and will be given a reception at home of the former's father, Dr. J. C. King, on Main street, Friday afternoon of this week, from three to five o'clock. Mr. King, one of our bright and promising young men, who went to Mexico three years ago in singleness, returns to Reynoldsville a happy husband and proud father.

Union Meeting in M. E. Church.

Next Sunday evening a union meeting will be held in the Methodist Episcopal church under the direction of the W. C. T. U. Mrs. Florence D. Richards, of Ohio, will deliver an address. The Kenton (Ohio) Daily Democrat, says:

"No doubt one of the greatest woman orators in this country is Florence Richards, of Ohio. She is fast gaining this reputation. She is a speaker of unusual magnetic power. When she speaks however, every member of her audience seems to listen spell-bound."

Mrs. Richards will also lecture in Centennial Hall four evenings next week, April 27, 28, 29 and 30. Everybody invited to attend these meetings.

"Jefferson County Fair."

"The Jefferson County Fair," the home talent play given in the Reynolds opera house on Thursday and Friday nights of last week, under the auspices of the Women's Relief Corps, was one of the most amusing and enjoyable entertainments given in Reynoldsville in many a day. For an amateur performance it was excellent. We don't have space to give each one of the performers special mention but they all did excellent. The dialogue parts of the play were all on the comedy order and with the makeup characteristic to a back number county fair the scene itself was one of interest and amusement. The songs and choruses were all of the latest catchy, rollicking spirited order, such as the up-to-date American audience is fond of. The "County Fair" was well patronized.

Two Punxsutawnyes in Lock-Up.

Monday Jack McEwen and W. J. Brennan, who claim Punxsutawney as their home town, came to Reynoldsville to have a "good time" and are now in the borough jail. They went to a house on "Poverty Flat" Monday night and when refused admission proceeded to batter the doors with an ax. They also tried to get into a house on Main street and were arrested by the police and given lodging in the lock-up. Yesterday morning they were taken before Mayor Williams charged with disorderly conduct for their action at the house in the borough. The Mayor imposed a fine of $5.00 and as they did not have required amount of "ootin of the realm" to meet the Mayor's sentence they are to spend 48 hours in the borough jail. Before the pair got away from the Mayor's office a constable came in and arrested them on charge of malicious mischief for pounding the doors on "Poverty Flat" residence with an ax. The twats were given a hearing before Squire Neff on this charge and were bound over to court in the sum of $300.00 apiece. If they fail to furnish bail before their lock-up sentence expires they will be taken to the county jail.

Waists.

Immense line to select from. 50c to $4.00. GILLESPIES.

CALEB POWERS PLEASED AUDIENCE LAST NIGHT.

The Young Kentuckian Recounts His Wrongs and Long Fight For Vindication.

Slender and pallid, with an appearance almost boyish, Caleb Powers, the noted Kentuckian who lectured in Assembly hall last night, does not at first sight impress one as a man of strong personality, the central figure of a tragedy which held the attention of millions for eight long years. Looking at the haggard eye, one questions if it can belong to the same man who once electrified Kentucky by his eloquence. It is only when Powers commences the narrative of his life and of the incidents which led to the deplorable shooting of William Goebel, the Democratic candidate for the governorship, that the old-time fire re-enters the eye and the pale face flushes with the memories of a popular victory honestly gained. Elected secretary of state and with an untainted character and high ambition, Caleb Powers had reason to believe himself on the threshold of a brilliant and honored public career. In that hour rang out the shot which laid William Goebel low and furnished the basis of a charge which placed the prison bars across the path of Powers. The recital of these events is highly dramatic and when the lecturer tells of the weary waiting and tactical trials, of his treatment and the denial of justice, one comes to understand the listless air and look of patient resignation in the eye. While pardoned after eight years, Powers was denied a clear vindication of his innocence.

Caleb Powers is a man of education and refinement, and linked with the narrative of his wrongs was a warning to the people couched in truly eloquent language, of what must inevitably result if the voters ignore reason and prostitute the ballot to the vile purposes of purely partisan politics.

The lecture was as interesting as the man himself and well repaid the audience.

Attended Funeral of E. A. Bigler.

Dr. W. B. Alexander was in Clearfield last Wednesday attending the funeral of his cousin, Hon. Edmund A. Bigler, who died at his home on Second street, Clearfield, Monday, as the result of an illness of 12 years' duration. The Clearfield Public Spirit says: "In spite of his affliction Mr. Bigler was ever of a cheerful disposition and bore his sufferings with true christian fortitude. Mr. Bigler was a brainy, able and successful business man when in health and was a most representative citizen of our town and county. Though quiet and reserved in his manner, he was possessed of a genial personality and made friends of all who knew him. His death will be sincerely mourned by a large circle of true friends. Edmund A. Bigler was the fourth son of the late ex-Governor Bigler, and had always resided in Clearfield."

Its A Top Notch Doer.

Great deeds compel regard. The world crowns its doers. That's why the American people have crowned Dr. King's New Discovery the King of Throat and Lung remedies. Every atom is a health force. It kills germs, colds and a gripe vanish. It heals cough-raked membranes and coughing stops. Sore, inflamed bronchial tubes and lungs are cured and hemorrhages cease. Dr. George More, Black Jack, N. C., writes: "It cured me of lung trouble, pronounced hopeless by all doctors." 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by H. L. McIntire.

Rev. Dickey Dying.

Rev. and Mrs. A. D. McKay went to Mt. Pleasant, Ohio, yesterday, called there by the critical condition of the latter's father, Rev. D. L. Dickey, who is dying. Rev. Dickey is 84 years old. Rev. McKay expects to return to fill his pulpit Sunday morning.

The Sulk Mill

Has not started but house cleaning has. You need lace curtains, carpets and floor rugs as well as matings and window trimmings. Before buying see our stock. C. R. HALL

Red nose, hawking spitting, snuffling, catarrh, bronchitis are all easily cured by Hyomei. Ask Stoke & Feicht Drug Co. They guarantee Hyomei. $1.00 for a complete outfit, including inhaler.

See the new shapes in Walk-Overs for spring. Price $4.00. Adam's.

Dr. L. M. Emerick, of Georgetown, Pa., specialist in chronic diseases, will be at Frank's Tavern, Reynoldsville, May 7. All persons suffering from organic trouble should visit him for an examination.

Ask for the Ace Brand of clover seed. Reynoldsville Hardware Co.

The Walk-Overs are better than ever. A style to suit every occasion, price $4.00. Adam's.

Cunningham is offering some wonderful bargains in his Dollar Sale—see his window.

DEATH FROM TUBERCULOSIS.

Miss Mary Rodebaugh Died in a Philadelphia Hospital—Body Buried Here Monday.

Miss Mary Rodebaugh, second daughter of E. D. Rodebaugh, deceased, died in the Western Philadelphia Hospital at 4:30 p. m. Thursday, April 15, 1909, from tuberculosis. The body was shipped to Reynoldsville by express and was expected here on the 10:25 a. m. train Sunday, but as that train does not carry express the body laid at Dristwood until Monday morning, arriving here on the 8.08 train. Interment was made immediately in the Reynoldsville cemetery beside the father and mother of Mary. Rev. A. D. McKay conducted the service at the cemetery.

Mary Rodebaugh, whose parents resided in West Reynoldsville a number of years, was 19 years old the 22nd of November, 1908. She lived at home of W. Harry Moore several years ago. Mary is survived by four sisters, Alice and Sophia in Clearfield and Emma and Carrie in Philadelphia. The last two named are in a Presbyterian school in Philadelphia. Alice and Sophia came to Reynoldsville to attend the funeral of their sister.

Needs Attention Badly.

We are a little surprised that the Pennsylvania Railroad Company does not provide toilet rooms at the passenger station in Reynoldsville. They could be put in at small expense, and they are certainly badly needed. No wonder that frequently men waiting for trains become indignant because there are no closets in or near the station. There is a dingy toilet room for ladies that is kept under lock and key as carefully as if it was something respectable, and a lady can get into the room by asking the agent for the key. We venture the assertion that there are few, if any, other stations along the Low Grade Division where there are more tickets sold than there are in Reynoldsville, and yet the Pennsylvania Railroad Company acts as if "anything is good enough for the people of Reynoldsville."

There is a possibility that if the health officers were to carefully inspect the ladies' toilet room at the P. R. R. station that it would be condemned and that the company would have to remove it.

Junior Class Day.

Junior class day in the West Reynoldsville public schools at 2:00 p. m. on Friday of this week, April 23rd. Program as follows:

- PROGRAMME. Daley Mowery The First Settlers' Story. Joseph Kosinski Liberty and Union. Nellie Small Senior Poem. Sarah Leech Senior Song. Emma Bowly Class Recitation. Sleep (Mrs. Browning). Character sketch of Edgar Allen Poe. Sallie Belle Johnston Recitation. Agnes Shannon The Second Trial. Class Song.

Junie Love Dead

Miss Junie Love, niece of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Barclay, of Jackson street, died at the home of her step father, Harry H. Mincer, at Lumberton, Pa., at 8:00 p. m. Monday, April 19, 1909. Junie would have been 27 years old this coming June. She resided in Reynoldsville some years, moving away from here about ten years ago. Junie had a number of friends in this place. Tuberculosis was cause of her death.

Fair, Clear and Forceful Speaker.

Prof. H. D. Patton, of Lancaster, Pa., of national reputation, will give Prohibition addresses in Centennial hall on Thursday and Friday evenings of this week, April 22 and 23, at 8:00 o'clock each evening. Prof. Patton is a fair, clear, entertaining and forcible speaker. He comes fresh from anti-licorose contests in West Virginia.

Lest You Forget.

I want to remind all persons who have not paid their 1907 and 1908 borough taxes that if the same is not paid before May 15, 1909, I will positively collect the taxes according to law. I must protect myself and bondsmen. WM. COPPING, Collector.

While They Last

Curtain stretchers at Halls, 90c.

New goods in crepe effects, cream, blues and pinks at 25c a yard at Gillespies.

Cleaners will clean gloves, shoes or spots on clothes. Price 25c. Adam's.

Lot new striped suitings at 50c and $1.00 a yard. Beautiful shades and newest styles at Gillespies.

Chronic dyspeptics, Mi-o-na tablets will make you feel better, brighter, happier in two days. They have cured thousands where everything else failed. 50 cents a large box. Stoke & Feicht Drug Co. guarantees them.

Patent leather, one strap pumps, a fine fitter. Price $3.00. Adam's.

White goods—this will be another white goods summer. We have a fine line, 10c to $1.00 a yard. Gillespies.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS.

Glimpses of the People who are Passing To and Fro.

Mrs. Nancy Beer is visiting in Brookwayville.

Irvin R. Klock was in Pittsburgh last week.

Miss Margaret Applegate spent Sunday in DuBois.

G. W. Robinson, of Tionesta, is a visitor in town.

David Showers and wife visited in Brookville Friday.

W. A. Thompson and wife spent Sunday in Brookville.

Mrs. Andy Denny, of Dristwood, was a visitor in town Saturday.

Miss Vera Applegate has been visiting in DuBois the past week.

Arthur Barclay went to Greensburg yesterday to accept a position.

Charles Hirst and wife, of Indiana, were visitors in town over Sunday.

Mrs. G. P. Williams, of Sligo, was a visitor in town a day last week.

J. C. Swartz, of Brookville, spent Sunday at home of his parents in this place.

Mrs. Mary Riggs visited her son, M. J. Riggs, at Winterburn the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank P. Alexander spent Sunday in Falls Creek with friends.

Mrs. H. Earl Swift, of Brookville, visited her parents in this place the past week.

N. Hagan, merchant, is in Philadelphia and New York this week on a business trip.

Mrs. Dr. H. P. Thompson, of Brookville visited her parents on Pleasant Avenue Monday.

Mrs. G. C. Raymond, of Smethport, Pa., is visiting at home of her uncle, John H. Wagner.

Mrs. J. A. Armagost was in East Brady last week attending the funeral of Maggie Wiserman.

Mrs. Imogene A. Reynolds, of Warren, Pa., is visiting at home of G. A. Stephenson this week.

Dr. B. E. Hoover and sons and J. R. Millire and wife were at Winslow Sunday visiting relatives.

Mrs. James Hanley, of Carwensville, visited her sister, Mrs. Dr. A. H. Bowser, in this place last week.

Miss Margaret Hunter, of Beechwoods, visited her brother, E. Wray Hunter, in this place last week.

Mrs. J. W. Chatham, of New Bethlehem, visited her daughter, Mrs. H. F. Euler, at Hopkins the past week.

Mrs. James Fleming and daughter, Miss Hazel Fleming, of Corvado, visited at home of John M. Hays the past week.

Lawyer C. W. Flynn was in Pittsburgh this week attending Supreme Court, having a case before that tribunal.

Miss Elberta Dickey, of Erie, has been visiting at home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Dickey, the past ten days.

George W. Cornmesser, who has been employed at Catfish, Pa., six weeks, spent Sunday at his home in Winslow township.

Herman Guthrie, pharmacist in employ of Stoke & Feicht Drug Co. store, was in Austin, Pa., last week doing "relief work."

Mrs. Joseph Hunter, of Beechwoods, visited her sister and father, Mrs. J. K. Johnston and Ninian Cooper, in this place last week.

Mr. and Mrs. William W. Huff, of Renovo, visited the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Amos Strouse, in Paradise the past week.

Mrs. Robert Ferguson and children, of Kennerdell, Pa., visited the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John M. Hays, in this place the past week.

Mrs. A. H. McKellip and niece, Ruby Dinger, of Pittsburgh, visited the former's sisters, Mrs. D. H. Young and Mrs. Samuel Ressler, in this place the past week.

Mrs. W. H. Karns and son, William, of Oakmont, visited at home of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Weed the past week, called here by illness of Mrs. Weed, who had a bad case of grip.

Mrs. Emiline Lauffer, of Warren, Pa., and son, Alfred Lauffer, of Fairberry, Neb., visited the former's brothers, Jacob and Henry C. Deible, in this place last week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Organ and son, William, of Punxsutawney, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. John C. Shober, of Jackson street. Mrs. Organ, who has been ill, will remain for a short visit.

Mrs. C. P. Harding, daughter Mamie Harding, and granddaughter, Anna Harding, left here Friday for Ostrander, Washington, where Mr. Harding has been since last fall. They will reside in Washington state.

R. L. Johnston and wife, of Akron, Ohio, Mrs. E. P. Johnston, of Corsica, Pa., and Rev. T. R. Johnston, of Goshen, N. Y., are among the guests who had arrived yesterday to attend the golden wedding of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Johnston.