A Little of Everything. Decorator Day comes on Sunday this year. Will we have a Fourth of July celebration this year? Two months to get ready Robinson & Mundorf have moved their flour and feed store into the Dunn building. A new daughter arrived at the home of Dr. Ira Bowser at Rathmel Sunday, May 2nd. Sunday, May 2, 1909, a son was born to Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Stauffer in West Reynoldsville. Services in Trinity Lutheran church Sunday morning at 11.45. Every member should be present. Special business. The Presbyterian Missionary Society will meet at home of Mrs. Alex Riston on Friday afternoon of this week, May 7. Rev. M. E. Swartz, of Clearfield, will preach in the First Methodist Episcopal church in this place at 11.00 a. m. next Sunday. Eight or ten members of Valiant Lodge, K. of P., attended a "blowout" given by the Knights of Pythias Lodge in DuBois last evening. Next Sunday is white carnation day—"Mothers' Day." Every person who can get one should wear a white carnation that day in honor of the mothers. Rev. James Waite, an erstwhile Reynoldsville boy, has been dismissed from the Clarion to the Blairsville Presbyterian and is now pastor of the Presbyterian church at Barnesboro. On account of the high school baccalaureate sermon in the M. E. church next Sunday evening there will not be any preaching in the Baptist and Presbyterian churches that evening. The fall session of the Clarion Presbytery will be held in the Beechwoods Presbyterian church at which time Rev. Geo. H. Hill will celebrate his twentieth anniversary as pastor of that church. Word was received here yesterday that Dr. Clifford L. Kaucher had successfully undergone an operation for appendicitis at 10.00 a. m. Monday in Medico-Chirurgical hospital at Philadelphia. Etta Vida Foltz, born June 12, 1907, aged 23 months and 20 days, died at home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Foltz, at Soldier at 4.00 p. m. Sunday, May 2, 1909. Interment at Sykesville yesterday afternoon. Miss Emma Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Smith, of this place, who has been in the Gill Hospital at Steubenville, Ohio, preparing for trained nurse, has been transferred to the Woman's Hospital at Detroit, Mich. Last Friday evening Miss Sadie Huson entertained the Reynoldsville Musical Club, composed of ten young ladies, at her home in West Reynoldsville. On account of the high water the young ladies from this borough rode over the "swelling tide" in a spring wagon. George W. Kline, who has been at Berwind, Pa., seven weeks assisting J. C. Hirst, of this place, install his new mining machines, spent Sunday at his home in this place and returned to Berwind yesterday. It will take about three weeks more to complete the work there.

An Air of Secrecy. An air of profound mystery has settled over the vicinity of southwest Big Run, which on Saturday was brought into the limelight because of the announcement that an oil gusher had been brought in. Aside from the hauling of some extra coal to the derrick on the Brown Bros. farm and posting up some additional "No trespass" notices, there is not much doing in the way of outward evidences of a oil strike. No person not in the confidence of the company that is doing the drilling is allowed to go near the well, and the proprietors have absolutely refused to say anything further for publication. The attitude of all those who have any interest in the project is such as to leave outsiders to believe that there is nothing doing in the oil line at that particular well. All men in the town figure that there would be no need of so much secrecy if the well was anything approaching the importance of a gusher.—Punxsutawney Spirit. Three members of the West Reynolds school board, William P. Woodring, president, O. H. Johnston, secretary, and T. D. Brewer were in Pittsburgh this week looking over a heating system for the new school building to be erected in West Reynoldsville this year. Mrs. Dr. R. DeVere King entertained the Fancy Work Club at her home on Grant street last Thursday afternoon. A six course dinner was served. Yellow was the color scheme. The out of town guests, not members of the Club, were Mrs. Harry C. Hoppel, of Monessen, Pa., and Mrs. Charles L. King, of Real del Monte, Mexico. The ludicrous representation of the ladies' spring hats exhibited in one of Bing-Stoke Co.'s show windows the past week attracted much attention. Butter bowl and two waste baskets were used as hat frames. It was a clever window attraction, and while the representation of the spring hat is a little exaggerated, yet not so much either. W. L. Johnston, Esq. of West Reynoldsville, was among the justices of the peace elected at the February election who were given their new commission at Brookville Monday. This is the third commission Squire Johnston has received as justice of the peace in West Reynoldsville, and he was elected for one or two terms while residing in Clarion county. Simpsons' Daily Leader is the name of a new daily paper launched upon the journalistic sea at Kittanning on Saturday, May 1st, with John T. and Roland B. Simpson as editors. It is a six column, eight page paper, well filled with advertising and local news. It is a sprightly looking youngster, and if the Simpsons keep up the pace set the Leader will certainly be a winner. Success, gentlemen. The undergraduates of the Reynoldsville High School will give the Senior class a reception and banquet in the I. O. O. F. banqueting hall on Friday evening of this week. The Helping Hand Society of the M. E. church will serve the banquet. The following pupils will respond to toasts: Florence Gray, Jane Smith, George Smith, Marlon Harris, Howard Higgins, Ronald McDonald. The B., R. & P. railroad is asking for bid from contractors to do away with the present viaduct near Rockton on the C. & M. division and go across the valley on a fill. A number of contractors were in DuBois Friday and in company with Division Engineer Watkins went over the proposed work. It is expected that the contract for this work will be let early this month and that the work will be started at once. Roderick McDonald, the patriarch of Beechwoods, shook hands with numerous DuBois friends yesterday. Although the old gentleman has passed through the sunshine and storms of eighty-seven years he walked along the streets as erect as an Indian, and there was a confidence in his tread that carried his towering figure along with almost the conchance of a recently graduated collegian of football experience.—DuBois Express. Rev. Harry G. Teagarden, Ph. D., who has been supplying the Eleanor and Adrian Presbyterian churches for some time, has been called to these churches and was installed as pastor Monday night at Eleanor. Rev. C. A. Clark, pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Punxsutawney, preached the sermon, Rev. A. D. McKay, of Reynoldsville, delivered the charge to the congregation and Rev. Palmer, of Big Run, delivered the charge to the pastor. The young men's club which was organized over seven months ago and has its rooms over the Bijou nickelodeon, met last Thursday evening and decided on a permanent name for the club, to be called the "Young Americans' Independent Club." Any young men desiring to make application for membership can do so by securing an application blank from any one of the present members. This club now has twenty members and is in good condition.

Died This Morning. Mrs. John Borgeson died at her home in West Reynoldsville at 1.30 this morning. Her maiden name was Emma Anderson. Funeral arrangements not made yet. McCreight is Hustling. Smith M. McCreight, of this place, Republican candidate for the nomination for District Attorney, has been hustling the past ten days and he remarked Saturday, "Things look good to me." This would indicate that Smith is receiving encouragement from the voters in the precincts he has visited. J. M. Norris Appointed Supervisor. Last week Judge John W. Reed appointed J. M. Norris as supervisor in Winslow township to fill the vacancy on that board made by the death of A. W. Mulholland. Mr. Norris served as supervisor two terms and is familiar with the work, and will look carefully after the township's interests. He is a good man for the office. Miller-Herold Nuptials. At 8.30 Wednesday evening, April 28, 1909, at the Methodist Episcopal parsonage in Reynoldsville, Miss Elizabeth A. Herold, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Herold, of Pleasant Avenue, and John Miller, of Prescottville, were united in marriage. Rev. John F. Black officiated. Mr. and Mrs. Miller have the congratulations and good wishes of their numerous friends. Bank Reports. In this issue of THE STAR will be found the reports of the condition of the Peoples National, First National and Citizens National banks at the close of business April 28th, 1909. The reports show the banks in good condition. In the three banks there are individual deposits, subject to check, $597,120.25, over a half million, not including the time deposits. This shows that some of our citizens have money that they could soon put in circulation. Operators' Request Rejected. The operators' committee of the Central Pennsylvania bituminous coal field requested the miners of this district to make a reduction of eleven cents per ton for mining coal, which the operators claim will enable them to meet competition, and the executive board of district No. 2, United Mine Workers of America, met in Clearfield last Thursday afternoon and rejected the proposed reduction of eleven cents. The scale signed in March, which is to be in effect until March 31, 1910, gives the miners 63 cents per ton. Reynoldsville Boy in Oklahoma. Frederick C. Lidle, formerly of Reynoldsville, is now located at Sapulpa, Oklahoma, holding the position of advertising manager of the Daily Democrat, an enterprising journal in the fastest growing city in the state where cities grow while you wait. Mr. Lidle has had considerable experience in the advertising business since leaving Reynoldsville and has made good through the versatility and originality of his methods. Trains Late Friday. Three or four loaded cars in an east-bound double-header fast freight train on the Low Grade Division of the P. R. R. jumped the track near Mayport last Friday forenoon and traffic was delayed five or six hours. The work train was sent from this place to clear the track and near Summerville this train struck a rock that had slid down on the track and the train was wrecked. Passenger train No. 273, due here at 11.42 a. m., was behind the wreck and the train was annulled east of Mayport. The east-bound passenger train due here at 12.52 p. m. and westbound due here at 12.28 p. m., transferred at the Mayport wreck and the 12.52 train arrived here almost four hours late. The 11.42 a. m. train only runs to DuBois and lays over there until 4.00 p. m. and returns to Red Bank and on account of the train being annulled east of Mayport there was no train at DuBois to leave at 4.00 p. m. and that train was annulled and passengers westbound had to wait until the 7.58 p. m. train, or for a train Saturday morning. The heavy rains Thursday and Thursday night caused several large washouts on the River Division of P. R. R. and gave the company trouble on that division Friday. Annual Banquet.
