BACCALAUREATE SERMON.

Dr. M. E. Swartz Delivered an Excellent Address In M. E. Church to the Graduating Class

Last Sunday evening a large congregation assembled in the Methodist Episcopal church to hear Dr. M. E. Swartz, of Clearfield, preach the baccalaureate sermon to the high school graduating class. Dr. Swartz is an able and elequent speaker, and his sermon was intensely interesting from start to finish. His theme was, "Building on a Rock." His sermon was not only timely and good advice for the graduates, but was applicable both to the man of the world and the careless christian.

Dr. Swartz preached an excellent sermon in the M. E. church Sunday morning. He is a pleasing and forcible speaker. Both morning and evening congregations were well pleased with his sermons.

KILLED BY FALL OF COAL.

Joseph · Kernduff Instantly Killed in Bloomington Yesterday Forenoon.

Joseph Kernduff, a miner of Rathmel, was killed in the Bloomington mines at Skunk Hollow at 11 00 a. m. esterday, May 11, 1900, by a fall of oal. Mr. Kernduff, who was a scraper, was on his knees working when the coal fell and his head was caught between the coal and the mining machine. He was a single man, aged about 29 years. He is survived by two brothers and a sister at Rathmel.

FIRE AT MAPLEWOOD MINE.

Boiler House Burned and Compressor Damaged-Number of Men Idle Until Rebuilt.

Last Saturday night about 9.30 the poller house was burned and compressor damaged by fire at Maplewood Mine No. 2, near Rathmel. There is no water protection there and those who fought the fire had to do so with buckets of water. The origin of the fire is unknown. Fifty to seventy-five men were thrown out of employment by the fire and will be idle until the boiler house is rebuilt.

Mothers' Day.

Lust'Sunday was "Mothers' Day," a day set apart for the mothers of the nation. The outward sign of the observance was the wearing of a white carnation, because its whiteness stands for purity, its form for beauty, its fragrance for love and its lasting qualities for faithfulness-all a true mother's virtues. The demand for white carnations on Saturday was greater than the supply, and notwithstanding the fact that the price had been doubled, about two hundred carnations were sold here and then many people were disappointed because they were unable | Dr. J. C. Sayers; closing exercises. to get the flower even at ten cents

Rev. A. D. McKay preached a special sermon in the Presbyterian church Sunday morning on the mothers, but he also included the fathers.

Somebody started the report in tewn the latter part of last week that Mrs. Nancy Coax and her daughter, Miss Netta D. Coax, formerly of Reynolds ville, now residing in Allegheny, had both died. Rumor said Miss Coax had undergone an operation and died from the operation and the shock was so great for her mother that she had died. We are glad to state that the report was false. It is surprising how auch reports are put in circulation. Miss Coax had been very ill, but is now

Repeated the Prayer Twice.

One morning last week the pupils of the primary department of the public schools attended chapel exercises, which were lead by one of our local ministers that morning. The preacher began his prayer with "Our Father," and the boys and girls, wife had frequently repeated the Lord's postal cards. She received postals prayer in chapel, promptly joined in, as they supposed was intended, and repeated the prayer. After the "Amen," the Reverend gentlemen, who did not intend to repeat the Lord's prayer at that time, made a second attempt to pray, and began as before, by saying "Our Father," but before he could say another word the publis were again saying the Lord's prayer and when they finished the prayer the second time the situation was too humorous for any more praying in chapel that morning.

Celebrated Eighty-Third Birthday.

John S. Smith, who, on account of his inoffensive and extremely quiet manner of life, was years ago dubbed "Noisy John Smith" or "Fighting John Smith," celebrated his eighty-third birthday on Thursday of last week, May 6. Mr. Smith, who is one of our highly respected citizens, has resided longer in Reynoldsville than any other man cow living. He is a surveyor and for nigh unto fifty years he run off township roads and measured farms in Jefferson county. Among the guests who attended the birthday anniversary of our friend and citizen were Hon. W. O. Smith and wife, of Punxsutawney, and Mr. Joseph Keenan, a prominent oil operator of Woodland, Ohio, and wife, Hon. W. O. Smith and Mrs. Keenan are son and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John S. Smith. DEATH FROM TUBERCULOSIS.

Mrs. John Borgeson Died May 5-Funeral Sunday Afternoon

O Mention was made in THE STAR last week that Mrs. John Borgeson had died at her home in West Revnold-ville at 1.30 a. m. that day, May 5, 1909. She had been ill for over a year with tuberculosis, but during the long illness she was very patient and never uttered a complaint. She spent five months of the year in Pittsburgh and Erie, hoping the change might do her good, but the disease had too strong hold on ber to be shaken off, and finally she peacetully succumbed to the disease. She was conscious up to the last moments and had no fear of death.

Her malden name was Emma Anderson, daughter of Mrs. Johanna Anderson, who now resides in West Reynoldsville. She was born at Salamanca, N. Y., March 26, 1874, and was 35 years, 1 month and 9 days old at time of death. Deceased was united in marriage to John Borgeson March 29, 1890, and they always resided on Brown street, West Reynoldsville. Mrs. Borgeson had been a member of the Presbyterian church a number of years.

Mrs. Borgeson is survived by-her husband, one daughter and three sons, Jennie Bertha, Albert Berger, Arthur Eugene, John, and her mother and several brothers and sisters.

Funeral service was held at the family residence at 2.30 p. m. Sunday, conducted by Rev. A. D. McKay and interment was made in the Reynoldsville cemetery beside a daughter who died last September. Mrs. Borgeson was a member of the Daughters of Rebekah, and members of that Lodge attended the funeral in a body.

The floral tribute was elaborate and beautiful.

The following out of town relatives and friends attended the funeral: John K. Hartman and family and Charles Gruseck, of Allegheny, H. E. Gutschow, of Erie.

CONTRACT LET LAST WEEK.

McKean Harl & Son to Erect the West Reynoldsville School Building.

Last week the West Reynoldsville school board let the contract for the new school building in that borough. McKean Harl & Son, of Punxsutawney, who were given the contract, began to excavate yesterday for the foundation. It is to be a six room, red brick building. It is to be completed in time for the next term of school, which means that the contractors will have to hustle.
