Pittsburgh Trade Boomers Paid A Visit to Reynoldsville Friday

Magnificent Special Train Of Pullman Cars Conveyed The Party.

MET BY LOCAL BUSINESS MEN

The special and well equipped train of Pullmans carrying seventy-five members of the Pittsburgh Chamber of Commerce, who toured forty-two towns and cities in the western part of Pennsylvania four days last week, arrived in Reynoldsville at 10:55 a. m., Friday, on schedule time. About forty of the leading business men of Reynoldsville, wearing white badges, met the visitors at the Pennsylvania station. Mayor Jarvis D. Williams was introduced to the visitors and he in turn introduced Lawyer Clement W. Flynn, who in behalf of the business men and citizens, in a short, spicy, and to the point, address extended a cordial welcome to the Pittsburgh Trade Boomers to our city. Mr. Raugh responded, in behalf of the visitors, to the welcome given them.

The visitors spent the forty-five minutes schedule time in Reynoldsville by visiting the various stores and places of business and getting acquainted with our business men.

The newspaper representatives in the party, Col. Theodore Lampert, of the Dispatch, William Martin, of the Gazette-Times, Sheppard Ewing, of the Post and Sun, H. H. Kraker, representing the Leader, Telegraph and Press, were driven over the paved road to the Clearfield county line in John O'Hare's automobile, which is a fine piece of road for speeding an auto on.

PENNSYLVANIA MAKES CHANGES IN DIVISIONS

Some of the Divisions Made Longer By New Order.

A bulletin has been issued by the Pennsylvania Railroad Co. announcing a change in some of the divisions, making them longer than before. Under the new arrangements the Allegheny division now extends from Kiski Junction, Pa., via Oil City to Olean, N. Y., and the Low Grade from Red Bank to Driftwood; the Buffalo division now takes in the lines from Oil City, Pa., to Buffalo, and Rochester, N. Y., and Emporium, Pa. The Chautauqua division has been eliminated and the superintendent of that division given another position.

James Buckelew, superintendent of the Allegheny division, will move his offices from Pittsburgh to Oil City.

Foltz Barn Struck By Lightning Thursday

Barn Totally Destroyed and Mrs. Foltz Narrowly Escaped Cremation.

During the storm last Thursday afternoon lightning struck the barn of Peter D. Foltz, of Winslow township, who resides a couple of miles out from town. The barn and its contents, four or five tons of hay, straw, feed, four barrels of flour, mower, reaper and other farm implements, were licked up by the fire. Loss about $1,600.00, with $800.00 insurance in the Beechwoods Farmer's Insurance Co.

Mrs. Foltz had gone to the barn to close a door and was near the place where the lightning bolt ran down side of barn. She was knocked down and was badly shocked. She does not know how she got out of the barn, but when she came to herself she was out of barn and her clothing was on fire. Mr. Foltz was away with the team of horses and Mrs. Foltz was alone at time of fire. Had the electrical shock been a little more severe Mrs. Foltz would have been cremated in the burning barn.

H. P. Mean's Home At Frostburg Burned

Wedding Outfit and Gifts Destroyed By Fire.

The residence of H. P. Means, at Frostburg, father of our townsman, Dr. L. L. Means, burned down Saturday afternoon and everything on second floor of building was burned. The piano, rugs, and large pieces of furniture on first floor were saved by four or five neighbor men who hastened to the assistance of Mrs. Means, who was in the house alone when the fire broke out. The fire originated from a defective flue on the garret of the back kitchen and had a good start before it was discovered. It was a frame house and there was a stiff breeze blowing which fanned the fire and it burned rapidly. Loss about $3,000. No insurance.

Miss Aldie Means, graduate of our high school, who will be married at 9.00 a. m. to-day, had her wedding outfit, diamond engagement ring, some wedding presents, &c., amounting to about $300.00, in her room on the second floor and the fire had consumed all.

WILL GRADUATE THIS WEEK AT VARIOUS INSTITUTIONS

Five Reynoldsville Students Have Completed Proscribed Course of Study.

CHOOSE VARIED PROFESSIONS

In Baltimore, Md., Philadelphia, Pa., Lewisburg, Pa., and New York City this week some of our home people are receiving honors in colleges, university and music schools. The following persons graduate with high honors: DR. J. EDWARD HARDMAN.

Dr. J. Edward Hardman, graduate of the Reynoldsville high school and one of our esteemed and promising young men, who graduates to-day, June 2, in the College of Physicians and Surgeons at Baltimore, Md., was in town the latter part of last week. Dr. Hardman has not fully decided where he will locate. After graduation he will go to Tulsa, Okla., to spend a few weeks with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Hardman, who moved from Reynoldsville to Tulsa recently.

DR. D. ROY EISENHUTH.

Dr. D. Roy Eisenhuth, an esteemed and promising young man of Reynoldsville, son of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. B. Eisenhuth of Fourth street, graduates this week in the Philadelphia Dental College. Roy passed a very good examination.

MISS OLEVIA MURRAY.

Miss Olevia Murray, a highly esteemed lady of Reynoldsville, graduates in the Samaritan Hospital and the Temple University in Philadelphia to-day, June 2, as a trained nurse. Her mother, Mrs. Amelia Murray, of this place, and two sisters, Mrs. Martha Campbell, of Punxsutawney, and Miss Anna Murray, of Big Run, went to Philadelphia Saturday to be present when Miss Olevia graduates.

MISS ISABEL ARNOLD.

Miss Isabel Arnold, a well known and highly esteemed lady of Reynoldsville, graduated in the Gullmant Organ School in New York City last evening. Miss Arnold mastered the piano several years ago and was a successful instructor on that instrument before going to the Metropolis, and while attending Gullmant school devoted her time to the pipe organ and is now a skillful player on pipe organ.

MISS IDA WILLIAMS.

Miss Ida Williams, one of our fair maidens, a graduate of the Reynoldsville High School, graduates in the instrumental music department of the Bucknell University at Lewisburg this month. On account of overwork the first two years in Bucknell Miss Williams impaired her health and, consequently, dropped all her studies the passed year but music.

To Our Subscribers.

We have several hundred subscribers who owe us back subscriptions and we take this means of informing those that we would like very much if they would be kind enough to remit what is due. By looking at the date on your paper—first figures is the month, second figures day of month, and last figures the year, for illustration 5 11 08, means May 11, 1908,—you will readily see whether you are one of those in arrears, and if you are just mail us the amount. Do not expect us to notify you by mail, as it costs money to use postage stamps. Glance at the date on the paper opposite your name and if you are in arrears be kind enough to remit the amount, as every little helps.

Looking One's Best.

It's woman's delight to look her best but pimples, skin eruptions, sores and boils rob life of joy. Listen! Bucklen's Arnica Salve cures them; makes the skin soft and velvety. It glorifies the face. Cures pimples, sore eyes, cold sores, cracked lips, chapped hands. Try it. Infallible for piles. 25c at H. L. McEntire's.

JUNE WEDDING.

Miss Aldie Means and Prof. J. M. Cook Join the Matrimonial Ranks To-Day.

At 9.00 a. m. to-day, June 2, 1909, Miss Aldie E. Means, sister, of Dr. L. L. Means, of Reynoldsville, and Prof. J. M. Cook, a merchant of Hamilton, Pa., will be united in marriage at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Omer B. Depp, in Punxsutawney, in the presence of a large number of invited guests. Dr. C. W. Miner, pastor of the First M. E. church in Punxsutawney, will officiate. Miss Joan Milliren, of Reynoldsville, will be bridesmaid, and Eugene Murray, of this place, will be groomsmen.

Miss Means is a graduate of the Reynoldsville high school and is a handsome and accomplished young lady. Prof. Cook taught in our high school a couple of months the first of the last term, resigning his school work to embark in the mercantile business. Therefore, both contracting parties are known to a number of our young people and are both highly esteemed.

The following Reynoldsville people will be guests at this wedding: Dr. L. L. Means and wife, Misses Lucile Deible, Marie Altman, Mildred Suter, Lena Herpel, Lillian Harries, Aldine Reed, Joan Milliren, Messrs. Herman Deible and Eugene Murray.

This wedding was to have taken place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Means, at Frostburg, Jefferson county, but the burning of the residence at Frostburg Saturday afternoon made it necessary for the wedding to take place in Punxsutawney.

Labor Sunday In The Presbyterian Church

Special Services Sunday Morning For Benefit Of The Laboring Men.

Six years ago the General Assembly of the Presbyterian church created a new department in the church known as the "Church and Labor Department." The object of this movement was to bring the church and the laboring men closer together. In some sections of the country the impression was abroad among the laboring men that the church had no interest in their welfare and no sympathy for them in their contentions and struggles for their rights; and on the other hand the church felt that the laboring men were at least indifferent, if not hostile, toward the church. It was to remove this misunderstanding and to establish a more friendly relationship between the church and the laboring men that the General Assembly of the Presbyterian church created this department and placed the work in charge of Mr. Charles Stelzle, of New York City. Other denominations have since taken up the same problem and are moving along the same lines. A great deal of good has already been accomplished and the churches and the laboring men are closer together to-day than they have been for many years. Every person then who has the interest of the church and the laboring men at heart should give the movement his hearty support.

It is in the interest of this movement that a special service will be held in the Presbyterian church next Sunday morning, June 6th, at 11 o'clock. Rev. Warren H. Wilson, Ph. D., assistant superintendent of the above department of the Church and Labor, will speak on the subject, "The Religion of the Breadwinner." All labor unions and laboring men in general are especially invited.
