

A Disappearing Non-Greasy Skin Cream

Harmony Skin Cream is a dainty toilet requisite for making the skin clean, clear, firm, fresh and healthy.

Harmony Skin Cream does not stain. It is absorbed by the skin readily. Gloves or other dress may be worn directly after the Cream is applied.

Put up in beautiful opal jars, tied with red ribbon. Beyond doubt the most exquisite package and preparation now on the market.

Stoke & Feicht Drug Company

A Little of Everything.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Deible June 7, 1909, a son.

Lawn fete and social on Baptist parsonage lawn to-morrow evening.

George W. Stoke, Sr., an old veteran, is critically ill at his home on Fifth street.

The Republican state convention will be held in Harrisburg on Wednesday of next week, June 16.

The Lutheran Aid Society will hold a market Saturday, June 12, at Hunter & Millren meat market.

The Jefferson county teachers' institute will be held in Brookville this year the week beginning December 20.

The Fancy Work Society met at the home of Mrs. F. P. Alexander last Thursday afternoon. Luncheon was served.

During the heavy rain and electrical storm last Friday night the barn of Robert and J. Stewart, at Coal Glen, was struck by lightning and burned down.

Fred B. Caldwell, a Washington township farmer who was on the Low Grade mail trains ninety days weighing mails for Uncle Sam, is back to farm life again.

The thirty-eighth annual outing of the Pennsylvania State Editorial Association will be a trip in Canada. Special train will leave Niagara Falls Monday, June 21.

The sixty-third annual meeting of the Clearfield Baptist Association will be held in the Baptist church at Allens Mills next week. The meeting opens at 10:00 a. m. Wednesday, June 18.

By an article of agreement, signed by a number of merchants, it will be seen that beginning next Monday a number of stores will be closed at six o'clock four evenings during the week.

The barn of Roll London, on the Zaccariah Doemer homestead near Deemer's Cross Roads, burned Sunday night, about midnight. Origin of fire unknown. Loss $1,000.00. Insurance $400.00.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Baptist church will hold a dime social on Rev. Meek's lawn Thursday evening of this week, June 10. Ice cream, cake and candy. Everybody invited.

Will Lidle, who was foreman in the Volunteer office in this place a year and a half, has resigned that position and the latter part of this week he will go to Boston, Mass., to learn to manipulate a type setting machine.

On account of the absence of the pastor, Rev. A. D. McKay, who went to Mt. Pleasant, Ohio, to attend the funeral of his father-in-law, there was no preaching in the Presbyterian church Sunday evening.

A number of town people drove over to Winslow, in Gaskill township, Jefferson county, yesterday to attend the annual reunion at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Hoover, parents of Dr. B. E. Hoover, of Reynoldsville.

The Hungarians of this community held communion service in the Presbyterian church last Sunday, the service beginning at 12:30 p. m. Twenty-three Hungarians commended. Rev. Valentine D. Morice, P. D., of Uniontown, Pa., had charge of the service.

EARLY CLOSING HOURS.

Many Local Business Houses Agree To Six O'Clock Closing During the Summer Months.

The following article of agreement signed by a number of merchants, is self explanatory:

Commencing Monday, June 14, 1909, we the undersigned merchants of Reynoldsville agree to close our stores each evening, except Saturday and Monday evenings of each week, and the evenings of tannery pay which comes on or near the 12th and 27th of each month, at 6:00 p. m. Mondays and tannery pay, when it falls on nights other than Saturdays, stores to close at 8:00 p. m. as usual, Saturdays as usual at 10:00 p. m. Same to continue in effect until Saturday, Sept. 4, 1909.

Each merchant to ascertain as to exact date of tannery pay as it does not fall on same date each time. Shick & Wagner, Dry Goods. C. R. Hall, Furniture. Reynoldsville Hardware Co., Hardware and Furniture.

Millren Bros., Clothing. J. R. Hillis & Co., Furniture. Adam Shoe Co., Shoes. D. H. Breaky, Basket Store. Keystone Hardware Co., Hardware. Henry Priestler, Furniture. Bing-Stoke Co., Department Stores. W. H. Bell, Clothing. D. Nolan Shoe Store, Shoes. W. C. Henry, Clothing. Gillespies, Dry Goods.

Stricken With Paralysis.

Mrs. Margaret Mitchell received word Monday that her sister, Mrs. Hattie Miller, nee Cotton, of San Francisco, Cal., had been stricken with paralysis and that her entire right side had been paralyzed and that she is in a hospital in that city in a critical condition. Some years ago Mrs. Miller resided with her parents in Reynoldsville and is remembered by a number of our citizens.

Clyde C. Murray to be Married.

Invitations are out for the wedding of Clyde C. Murray, of Reynoldsville, and Miss Mary Belle Jones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Jones, of Pansy, Pa., which will take place at the home of the bride's parents at 4:00 p. m., June 24th.

The Presbyterian Work Society will meet at the home of Mrs. J. P. Eddy, Camp Run, Thursday afternoon, June 10th, going down on the 4.38 train. It has been requested that the ladies take well filled baskets and after the meeting the regular annual picnic will be held at that place.

The Christian Endeavor Societies of Jefferson county will hold a convention in the Presbyterian church at Brookville on Tuesday and Wednesday, June 22nd and 23rd. Misses Hazel McCreight and Dorothy Elliott have been elected by the Presbyterian Endeavor Society at this place as delegates to attend the convention.

Artemas W. Pentz, an engineer for Uncle Sam on the Panama Canal, who went to Panama some time ago without his family, has returned to move his family from DuBois to Panama. Mr. Pentz spent last Wednesday with his father, Joseph Pentz, in Reynoldsville. Artemas gained ten pounds since he first went to Panama.

Monday evening the Baptist Young Peoples Union elected the following officers: President, Archibald Caldwell; Vice-President, Miss Maud Rea; Recording Secretary, Miss Helen Meek; Corresponding Secretary, Miss Margaret Davis; Treasurer, Miss Nellie Krob; Organist, Miss Helen Meek; Assistant Organist, Miss Florence Harris; Chorister, M. C. Coleman.

The following delegates from Reynoldsville are attending the Jefferson County Sunday school convention being held in the Methodist Episcopal church in Punxsutawney this week from the following schools: Presbyterian, Misses Margaret Butler, Jane Smith, Eleanor Sillea, Elvira Johnston; Methodist, Mrs. B. A. Barrett, Miss Lillian Northey; Baptist, Dr. A. J. Meek, M. H. Caldwell, Archie Caldwell.

George Hartman went to Baltimore, Md., Monday to enter a hospital for treatment for bladder trouble. Mr. Hartman had been in a Pittsburgh hospital ten weeks and was taken to the operating room for an operation, but after going that far the doctors decided that an operation would not do any good and did not operate. Tuberculosis of the bladder is what the Pittsburgh doctors pronounced the trouble. Mr. Hartman has hopes that in a Baltimore hospital he can find relief that will prolong his life.

Rev. Warren H. Wilson, Ph. D., of New York City, assistant superintendent of the "Church and Labor Department" of the Presbyterian church in general, preached a special sermon in the Reynoldsville Presbyterian church at 11:00 a. m. last Sunday. His theme was "The Religion of the Breadwinner." A special invitation was given to labor organization members and laboring men in general to attend this service and there was a large congregation present. Dr. Wilson preached a very interesting sermon.

Ten Machines.

The Falls Creek glass plant was started at midnight Sunday night with ten glass blowing machines. The machines are operated by experienced men.

Laid the Millage.

Monday evening the West Reynoldsville town council laid the following millage for 1909: Borough 4 mills, light 2 1/2 mills, water 1.

County Convention To-Day.

Republican county convention will be held in the court house at Brookville at 2:00 p. m. to-day, June 9th, at which time a county chairman will be elected for the ensuing year. According to the rules of the Republican party it is not necessary that the man elected chairman must be a member of the county committee.

Birthday Surprise Party.

There was a birthday surprise party given in honor of Miss Esther Klepfer at home of her sister, Mrs. Fred J. Austin, in West Reynoldsville on Tuesday evening of last week, June 1st. There were a number of guests present. Games were played and light refreshments served. Miss Esther received a number of presents.

Rev. D. L. Dickey Dead.

Rev. D. L. Dickey, father of Mrs. A. D. McKay, of Reynoldsville, died at his home at Mt. Pleasant, Ohio, Friday, June 4. Mrs. McKay was at his bedside when he closed his eyes to earthly scenes. Rev. McKay went to Mt. Pleasant Saturday. Rev. McKay and family will return to Reynoldsville to-day or to-morrow.

Lecture and Entertainment.

A lecture and entertainment under the auspices of the Epworth League will be given in the M. E. church at this place on Friday evening, June 18. "The Charlot Race" and many other thrilling scenes from the story of "Ben Hur" and "The Prodigal Son." A triple program of colored pictures, songs, stories, etc. Unique, interesting and instructive. Admission 25 cents.

Craig King Graduates.

In our write-up last week of Reynoldsville students who graduate in Colleges and Universities this month, we unintentionally omitted the name of Dr. Craig King, youngest son of Dr. J. C. King, who graduates in the Dental Department of the University of Pennsylvania in Philadelphia June 10th. Craig is one of our highly esteemed and promising young men.

Finger Length Trout.

Last Saturday nineteen consignments of finger length trout, about fifteen thousand in all, arrived in Reynoldsville on the 1.28 p. m. passenger train over the P. R. R. The little speckle beauties were shipped from White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., by the government to stock some of the streams in this vicinity. A number of piscatorial sports were at the station with hooks to immediately take the little trout to the streams they wanted to stock.

Recruiting Officer Coming.

Henry Ebert, of Pittsburgh, recruiting officer for the U. S. Navy, will be in Reynoldsville June 24 to June 26 on a tour of the traveling recruiting duty for the Navy. We understand that Mr. Ebert is very energetic and is making every effort to secure a large number of desirable young men for our Navy. Applicants must be American citizens, either native born or naturalized, must be between the ages of 17 and 35 years and able to read, write and speak the English language in order to be accepted.

We Are In Second Class.

State Superintendent Schaeffer has issued a tabulated statement in which all the high schools of the state are classed as first, second or third class. Brookville and DuBois are the only schools in this section which are placed in the first class. Punxsutawney, Reynoldsville, Brookwayville and Beechwoods are in the second class; while all other schools in the county are third class. Neither Clarion nor Armstrong county has a high school of the first class, the boroughs of Clarion and Kittanning being placed in the second group. The state appropriation for high schools is based upon the standing of the school as certified by the Department of Public Instruction.

Moving to Canada.

P. W. Cashman, who was general manager of the Panther Run Coal Co. at Pardus, Pa., several years and resided in Reynoldsville, is moving to Halleybury, Ontario, where he is interested in and in the employ of four large silver mining companies. Mr. Cashman resigned his position with the Panther Coal Co. early this year and went to Canada. His household goods will be shipped this week and Mr. Cashman, wife and daughter will remain here until the first of next week before starting for their new home in Canada. Mr. and Mrs. Cashman are both congenial and consequently have many friends here who are sorry to see them move away.

We sell you the flour that is the bread maker, both quality and quantity. Robinson & Mundorf.

LONG THE NOMINEE.

S. M. McCreight Close Second in the District Attorney Contest—Democrats Make Nomination.

Jesse C. Long, of Punxsutawney, was the winner at the primaries last Saturday in the contest for the Republican nomination for district attorney, defeating S. M. McCreight, of Reynoldsville, by 313 plurality. The total vote in the county for district attorney was: R. E. Brown, of Brookville, 575, S. M. McCreight 1582, Jesse C. Long 1895. This is the unofficial vote. In Reynoldsville the vote was McCreight 229, Brown 36, Long 15; West Reynoldsville, McCreight 33, Brown 6, Long 0; Winslow township, McCreight 136, Brown 8, Long 15. This shows that McCreight was well supported in his home districts.

Robert Kelley was nominated for jury commissioner, and Dr. J. C. Sayers, of Reynoldsville, William Calhoun, of Falls Creek, and H. H. McHenry, of Punxsutawney, were elected delegates to the Republican state convention.

For district attorney the Democrats nominated W. M. Gillespie, Esq., of Punxsutawney, without opposition. W. T. Pifer, of Henderson township, was the Democratic nominee for jury commissioner.

Stewart H. Whitehill, of Brookville, and William Fairman, of Punxsutawney, were elected delegates to the Democratic state convention.

Daughters of St. George.

Last week Mrs. Annie Justham installed the following new officers in the Pride of Reynoldsville Lodge No. 81, Daughters of St. George:

- W. P. P., Ella Johns. W. P. P., Annie Justham. W. V. P., Elizabeth Bolt. W. F. S., Jennie A. Barclay. W. R. S., Grace Hocking. W. Trea, Margaret Trudgen. W. C., Mary Copping. W. F. C., Emma Bashor. W. S. C., Margaret E. Trudgen. W. I. G., Mary A. Grix. W. O. G., Elizabeth Northey.

After the installation refreshments were served.

Two Weddings.

Rev. Dr. A. J. Meek, pastor of the First Baptist church at Reynoldsville, performed two wedding ceremonies at the Baptist parsonage last week, uniting the following young people in the holy bonds of matrimony:

JOHNSON-MILLER.

At 9:00 p. m., Wednesday, June 2, 1909, John F. Johnson, of DuBois, and Miss Anna Miller, of Prescotville. They will reside in DuBois.

ROUSH WOLFGANG.

At high noon on Friday, June 4, 1909, D. S. Roush, of Reynoldsville, and Mary C. Wolfgang, of Skyecove. They will reside in Homer City, Pa.

Will Go to India.

Miss Elsie Ross, an esteemed young lady of Reynoldsville, graduated in the Poltz Mission Institute at Herkimer, N. Y., last week and is now at home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Ross, on Worth street. Miss Ross attended the Poltz Mission with the intention of working in foreign mission fields, and we understand that she has decided to go to India some time in August to take up the mission work.

Business Men Play Ball.

Last Thursday afternoon there was a ball game on the local diamond between merchants and "pencil pushers" or office clerks. The latter defeated the merchants. Score 13 to 8. A. M. Smith pitcher and Alex Riston catcher for the merchants. Hugh Haggerty and Walter Strouse battery for the winning side. There were some great base ball "stunts" on the diamond during this game.

Ginghams.

30 inch chambray ginghams, 15c is not too much for them. You can get them for 10c a yard at GILLESPIES.

Notice.

Parties having lawn mowers which they wish sharpened should leave them at J. Van Reed's this week or next to receive prompt attention. All work guaranteed. W. H. CUMINS.

Umbrellas.

You'll need one for rainy or sunny days. You can save 25 per cent on them at GILLESPIES.

Monday of next week, June 14, will be Flag Day. This will be the 132nd anniversary of the adoption of the Stars and Stripes by the United States congress, but it has only been in the past eleven years that Flag Day has been celebrated throughout the country.

Children's day practice in the Baptist church Wednesday, Thursday and Friday afternoons and Friday evening of this week.

Gibson has visited so long and his optical work is so well known that persons needing glasses will not mistake in seeing him at the American Hotel Brookville, June 14-15, or Imperial Hotel, Reynoldsville, June 16.

THE PEOPLE WHO ARE PASSING TO AND FRO.

Miss Dora Reed is visiting in Wilkesbarre, Pa.

Clyde Murray was in Rochester, N. Y., last week.

Miss Lucille Deible visited in Punxsutawney last week.

Miss Alice Mitchell visited in Punxsutawney last week.

George Heckman visited his sister in Punxsutawney last week.

Miss Ruth Whittaker visited in Punxsutawney last week.

Mrs. G. P. Williams, of Sligo, was a visitor in town last week.

Alex Adam, of Clearfield, was a visitor in town the first of this week.

Maurice L. Kerr left here Monday for New Kensington and Pittsburgh.

Mrs. Walter B. Reynolds, of Warren, is visiting her mother in this place.

Mrs. Lavina Baum, of Pittsburgh, was a visitor in town the past week.

James Hoffman, of East Brady, visited his parents in this place this week.

Mrs. George Hughes, of DuBois, visited her parents in this place this week.

Andrew Wheeler was at St. Louis, Mo., last week buying a carload of mules.

Miss Florence Parrish has gone to Ridgeview Park, Pa., to spend the summer.

Jacob Helm, of Williamsport, was the guest of J. N. Small the first of this week.

Miss Jennie Henderson, of Brookville, was the guest of Mrs. C. R. Hall last Thursday.

Dr. A. J. Meek was at Curwensville one day last week to see Rev. J. Booth, who is very ill.

W. A. Stanford, of Huey, Pa., visited his father, D. E. Stanford, at Pardus the past week.

Mrs. Samuel Bond, of DuBois, visited at home of her parents in this place yesterday.

Helen Mitchell, of Kane, is visiting at home of her Grandfather Sutter on Pleasant Avenue.

Miss Elizabeth Latz is in Punxsutawney this week attending the Sunday school convention.

Miss Laura Moore, of Brookville, visited her sister, Mrs. W. H. Moore, in this place last week.

John Reed and daughter, Miss Dora Reed, returned several days ago from a trip to Atlantic City.

Mrs. H. G. Hall, wife of the M. E. pastor at Brookville, was the guest of Mrs. C. R. Hall Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry L. McEntire have been over in Potter county several days trout fishing.

Graydon Robinson, student in Dickinson College at Carlisle, Pa., is home for the summer vacation.

Edward Reynolds left here last Friday morning for Globe City, Arizona, where he expects to locate.

Mrs. George Hartman, of Pittsburgh, visited her father, D. E. Stanford, at Pardus, Pa., the past week.

Mrs. J. A. Armagost and son, Toot, visited the former's sister, Mrs. Charles Adams, at East Brady this week.

Eugene Murray will go to York, Pa., next Monday where he will be employed during the summer vacation.

Miss Minerva Hinderliter, of Medina, Ohio, visited at the homes of W. W. Foster and Josh F. Hinderliter the past week.

Mrs. Ralph D. Albright and children left here yesterday for Goshen, Indiana, where Mr. Albright is located.

Bert A. Hoffman, student in the Law Department of Dickinson College at Carlisle, Pa., is home for the summer vacation.

James H. Spry, of Asplival, Pa., a former hustling groceryman of Reynoldsville, was in town the first of this week.

Harry L. Schlabig, of Buffalo, N. Y., was called to this place Sunday on account of the illness of his mother, Mrs. Milton Schlabig.

Mrs. E. H. Slauchenhaupt, of Newark, Ohio, some years ago a resident of Reynoldsville, is visiting at home of William Copping.

Mrs. Frank J. Black, son and daughter, of Anita, visited at home of the former's father-in-law, Thomas Black, in this place last week.

Miss Caroline Robinson left here Monday noon on her trip to Butte, Montana, and Seattle, Wash. She expects to be absent until fall.

James K. Johnston, who was at Denver, Colorado, attending the General Assembly of the Presbyterian church as a delegate from Clarion Presbytery, returned home Saturday evening.

James Gray, of Morton Co., southern part of North Dakota, visited his cousin, C. R. Hall, in this place Monday. Mr. Gray went to North Dakota several years ago and took up a homestead.

Prof. W. J. Summersville, principal of West Reynoldsville schools two terms, now teaching in a summer school at Sigel, was in town Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Irwin, of New Castle, who were married June 2nd, now enjoying their honeymoon trip, are visiting at home of the former's brother, J. M. Irwin, in this place.

John R. Sowers, of West Reynoldsville, had a serious operation performed on his neck at the Mercy Hospital in Pittsburgh last Thursday. We understand that Mr. Sowers is getting along as well as could be expected.

Mrs. L. M. Simmons was in Clarion last week attending the thirty-fifth annual convention of the Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary Societies of the Clarion Presbytery, which was held in the Clarion Presbyterian church.

Dr. Fred K. Booth, one of our town boys and a graduate of the Reynoldsville High School, who is now a physician at Fairmont City, Pa., with a large practice, visited his sister, Mrs. Dr. A. H. Bower, in this place last Friday.

Mrs. John H. Murray, who had been in Philadelphia and New York several months with her husband, who is taking a special course in stomach diseases, returned home last evening. Dr. Murray will return home the latter part of this month.

Edward Bird and wife, of Clearfield, visited the latter's father, L. W. Scott, in this place a day last week. They came over to attend the funeral of L. W. Missimer, who died in Johnson City, Tenn., and was buried in Punxsutawney cemetery. Mrs. Bird and Mrs. Missimer are cousins.

Miss Lydia Mellinger, of Miles City, Montana, kindergarten teacher in that city, came to her home in this place Sunday. As mentioned in THE STAR last week, she came home at this time to attend the wedding of her brother, L. O. Mellinger, who will be married tomorrow.

Winslow Township School Board.

Monday the Winslow township school board met at Frank's Tavern in this place and settled the accounts of last year, re-organized and laid the millage for next year. J. M. McCreight was elected president of the board, Frank P. Best secretary and O. H. Broadhead treasurer. The retiring members of the board were Noah Syphrit and Amos Goss. New members J. M. Hutchison and Alex Watson. The new board consists of following members: J. M. McCreight, Frank P. Best, O. H. Broadhead, G. W. Mohney, J. M. Hutchison and Alex Watson. The millage laid was 10 mills for school and 2 mills for school building.

Attended Funeral.

Thomas H. Pifer and wife, of Eleonora, and Harry K. Pifer and wife, of Reynoldsville, were at Brookwayville last Friday attending the funeral of Mrs. Thomas H. Hutchison, sister-in-law of first two mentioned and an aunt of Harry K. Pifer. Mrs. Hutchison died at an early hour last Wednesday morning, June 2, after a long illness from a complication of diseases. She was the daughter of Matthew and Elizabeth Smith and was born in Beechwoods August 18, 1845. She is survived by her husband and eight children. Interment was made in Wildwood cemetery at Brookwayville.

Children's Day Exercises.

Next Sunday is Children's Day and special programs have been prepared and will be rendered in the following churches. The churches will be nicely decorated:

METHODIST CHURCH

The Children's Day program will take the place of the regular preaching service at 11:00 a. m. next Sunday.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.

At 11:00 a. m. next Sunday the Children's Day program will be given in the Presbyterian church.

BAPTIST CHURCH.

The Children's Day exercises will be given in the Baptist church next Sunday evening.

Reception and Banquet.

Tuesday evening of next week, June 15, the Protected Home Circle of Reynoldsville will give a reception and banquet in the I. O. O. F. banquet hall to those who took the cast e. characters in "Old Hickory Farm," which was played recently for benefit of the P. H. C. One of the entertainers of the occasion will be Miss Norma Albaugh, of DuBois, who has won several gold medals reciting before P. H. C. and W. C. T. U. conventions. Miss Albaugh will be the guest of Miss Florence Atwater on Fourth street while in Reynoldsville.

Dress Goods.

All $1.00 dress goods colors and new weaves.