S. S. WORKERS' CONVENTION

Large Number at Punxsutawney Last Week; Interesting Program.

The nineteenth annual convention of the Jefferson County Sunday School Association met in First M. E. church, Punxsutawney, June 7-9. Six sessions were held and although the weather proved to be unpleasant, many of the Sunday schools of the county were represented. Monday evening Bishop Thoburn gave a glimpse of the 50 years which he spent as a missionary in India. This was very interesting and inspiring. Music, led by Punxsutawney Choral Society, under the direction of Prof. Cogswell, consisted of both congregational singing and special numbers. Each session of the convention was opened with devotional exercises.

TUESDAY MORNING.

Rev. Eakins gave a hearty welcome to the delegates and exhorted all during their stay in Punxsutawney to shine for Jesus.

Rev. Hall, in the response, endeavored to have the delegates keep in mind the standard of appreciation voiced in the address of welcome.

Mrs. J. A. Crawford, one of the State S. S. workers, said that "The model S. S. does not consist in quantity but quality. The S. S. is that department of the church that teaches the word of Christ, brings souls to Christ and builds souls up in Christ. The teachers should know the characteristics of children, also the book. The model S. S. should be divided into departments corresponding to natural divisions of the pupils."

Clarion county's efforts for front line position were brought out in a very practical talk by Harry Reed, Secretary Clarion County's S. S. Association.

TUESDAY AFTERNOON

The secretary of Jefferson County's S. S. Association showed by statistics that this county will certainly have to put forth strong efforts to measure up to standard of excellence required for front line position.

The Cradle Roll, Home Departments and District Organization were ably discussed by Mrs. W. H. Robinson, Rev. C. W. Miner and W. B. Cowan.

TUESDAY EVENING.

Illustrated Lecture on the "Life of Christ." The views for this lecture were collected by the late Prof. Hammers, and the lecture written and delivered by Rev. Miner. This lecture was masterful and instructive as well as tender and effective.

WEDNESDAY MORNING.

Mr. Eldredge, another state worker, said the S. S. had become great in numbers, in influence, in fellowship, in literature, in its fields, and it will become greater in equipment both in room and in better teaching force.

Rev. Jelbart showed the need of Teachers' Training classes. Only five S. S. have such classes in the county. The nominating committee which consisted of Revs. Zeller, Kerns, Madtes, Wilson and Messrs. Blakeley, Allison and Stauffer reported the following nominations for office and officers elected by convention for ensuing year:

President, W. B. Cowan, of Brookville; Vice-President, A. J. Flegal, of Punxsutawney; Secretary, Miss Margaret Butler, of Reynoldsville; Treasurer, Capt. S. A. Craig, of Brookville; Supt. Cradle Roll Dept., Mrs. Samuel Drummond, of Punxsutawney; Supt. Primary Dept., Mrs. C. R. Crisman, of Brookville; Supt. Home Dept., Miss

Of Allegheny, Pa., who will be one the leading speakers at the Epworth League convention to be held in the Reynoldsville M. E. Church June 29th and 30th.

Committee on resolutions consisting of Rev. A. J. Meek, Rev. Kirschner, Rev. Newell, Rev. Waldrop, Prof. W. M. Brown, Mrs. J. B. Hill and Mrs. Shiroy, gave a report which was adopted.

WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON.

Mr. Eldredge addressed the convention on "Big Business." Mr. Martiu, "The Boy Question," also Mr. Baer continued this discussion.

Revs. Teagarden and Hill made short addresses and the convention closed. There were about 100 delegates present and all went home enthusiastic in the desire to better the conditions in their own S. S. and thus bring up the standard in Jefferson county. SECRETARY.

Town Booming Helps

II.—The Head of the Table

A lot of quarrelsome Scottish chiefs used to quarrel because each wanted to sit at the head of the table. Some one hit on the plan of putting a round table in the room where they met, and each of them then imagined that he had the place of honor.

This arrangement worked splendidly until Rob Roy McGregor took a shy at it. After he had become sure of his power a banquet was being served to the chiefs at the round table.

When the servants brought in the roast McGregor shouted, "PUT IT AT THE HEAD OF THE TABLE!" "But where is the head of the table?" asked the servant. "THE HEAD OF THE TABLE IS WHERE THE MCGREGOR SITS." The McGregor spirit is what this town needs. So far as we are concerned, this is the CENTER OF THE EARTH. If we're not proud of our town we should get a hustle on and make it a town to be proud of—MAKE IT THE MOST IMPORTANT PLACE ON THE MAP! Make it the chief place on the green earth in the eyes of its citizens.

COMPLETING PLANS FOR THE BIG CELEBRATION

VETERAN ANSWERS LAST ROLL CALL

George W. Stokc, Sr., Had an Honorable and Noteworthy Military Record.

George Washington Stokc, Sr., a well known and respected citizen of Reynoldsville, died at his home on Fifth street at 7.45 p. m. Sunday, June 13, 1909. Mr. Stokc had been in poor health for some time, but had only been confined to bed one week. His death was caused by a complication of diseases. He slipped away from earthly scenes without a struggle. Gently passed into that "bourn from which no traveler e'er returns."

Funeral service was held at the family residence at 2.00 p. m. yesterday, conducted by Rev. John F. Black and interment was made in Beulah cemetery.

George W. Stokc was born in Crawford Co., Pa., February 22, 1834, George Washington's Birthday, and was 75 years, 8 months and 22 days old at time of death. Was united in marriage to Joanna Sullivan at Stewartson Furnace, Pa., in February, 1846, whom with two sons and three daughters, one an adopted daughter, survive the husband and father.

Lieut. George W. Stokc was among the brave young men who responded to the country's call for soldiers during the perilous times in the sixties, and on the 25th of September, 1861, he enlisted in Company D, 103rd Regiment P. V., and afterwards was transferred to Company B, 103rd Regiment. In April, 1862, he was promoted to lieutenant. He was in active service almost four years, and was honorably discharged June 25, 1865. He was in the skirmishes at Blackwater, Va., December 2, 1862, Southwest Creek, N. C., Dec. 13, 1862, Blounts Creek, N. C., April 9, 1863, Williamstown, N. C., July 7, 1863, and Fosters Mills, N. C., July 27, 1863.

With a number of other Union soldiers Mr. Stokc was captured at Plymouth, N. C., April 20, 1864. They were taken to Andersonville, Ga., from there to Macon, Ga., from there to Charleston, S. C., and then to Columbus, S. C. At the latter place Mr. Stokc bribed the guard to let out six Union soldier prisoners by giving the guard his watch, then valued at $100.00. Mr. Stokc and his messmate, Col. Steele, of Second Pa. V. C., two of the six prisoners to escape, secured a boat and after eleven days of peril and hardships on the Santee river, finally reached Santee Island and were picked up by a Union gunboat and Mr. Stokc was soon back in his company again.

Another old soldier has dropped by the wayside, has answered the last roll call.

Mr. Stokc moved to Reynoldsville in the fall of 1873 and has ever since been a citizen of this town. The surviving members of the family, including the wife and mother are: H. Alex Stokc, George W. Stokc, Jr., Misses Maggie, Julia and Margaret Stokc. The floral tributes were elaborate and beautiful.

A large number of prominent business and professional men attended the funeral.

ARRANGING GAMES, RACES AND CONTESTS

REYNOLDSVILLE will have the only big Fourth of July celebration in this section of the state and in recognition of that fact the committees are now planning an event bigger and better even than their first thought possible. They are enabled and encouraged to do this by the liberal voluntary contributions of local business men, who appreciate the value of such a celebration to the town. Present indications are that, given a fair day, Reynoldsville will entertain as large a crowd July 5th as has ever gathered on its streets. Everybody seems interested and willing to help.

Just what the big free street exhibitions, the central feature of the celebration, will be, has not been definitely decided. The amusement committee has in view a number of attractions, some fully as thrilling as Breton's famous feat of "Jumping the Gap," given during "Old Home Week." Whatever they choose, the public may rest assured it will be new and unique. This committee has also closed its contract for an exhibition of fireworks on the evening of the Fifth. It will be up to expectations.

Chairman Williams selected a live bunch for an advertising committee and they are right down to business hustling the bills and dodgers out over the country. The committee has sent advertising matter to almost every important town in a radius of fifty miles of Reynoldsville and will flood the county with literature in the next two weeks. When Reynoldsville celebrates she likes to have the rest of the world drop in and share the fun.

There's going to be plenty of music on the Fifth. The music committee is certain of one band of eighteen pieces and may secure another, an Italian band of twenty pieces, to help out. Free band concerts will be one of the features of the program.
