

A Disappearing Non-Greasy Skin Cream

Harmony Skin Cream is a dainty toilet requisite for making the flesh clean, clear, firm, fresh and healthy. It will act to promote and preserve a beautiful complexion and create a good contour to the skin when rightly used as a massage.

Harmony Skin Cream does not stain. It is absorbed by the skin readily. Gloves or other dress may be worn directly after the Cream is applied. It has a tendency to whiten the skin and give a rosy hue to complexions.

Put up in beautiful opal jars, tied with red ribbon. Beyond doubt the most exquisite package and preparation now on the market.

Stoke & Feicht Drug Company

A Little of Everything.

Less than three weeks until the Fourth of July.

County fair will be held at Brookville September 14-17.

Monday was Flag Day. Not many flags displayed in Reynoldsville.

Charles M. Feicht, of Punxsutawney, came over yesterday to attend the funeral of Geo. W. Stoke, Sr.

Miss Naomi Mitchell sprained her left ankle badly last Friday and will be confined to her home several weeks.

All Odd Fellows are requested to meet at the lodge room at 1.15 p. m., Thursday, June 17th, to attend the funeral of Bro. Henry Rhoden.

The Bing-Stoke Co. store and the Stoke & Feicht Drug Co. store were closed Monday and Tuesday on account of the death of George Stoke, Sr.

Mrs. J. H. Hughes' Sunday school class will hold a lawn fete on Lutheran church lawn Saturday, June 19, from 4 p. m. to 9.00 p. m. Everybody invited to come.

Albert, little son of Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Euffer, met with an accident while playing one day last week. He fell and cut a deep gash under the right eye, which had to be dressed by a doctor.

A number of Presbyterian ladies attended the meeting of the Presbyterian Work Society at home of Mrs. J. P. Eddy at Camp Run Thursday afternoon and held a basket picnic after the business meeting.

H. Eugene Phillips and son, Francis, were in Brookville Saturday and Monday decorating the town for the reunion of the Northwestern Reunion Association of the Patriotic Order Sons of America held in Brookville yesterday.

Alex Deemer, one of our progressive farmers, last week left at this office a pumpkin which is exceedingly well preserved for this time of the year, being as sound as the day it was gathered from the vine. The pumpkin is on view in one of our windows.—Sykesville Post-Dispatch.

Miss Nancy Callen, of near Corsica, a sister of Mrs. T. J. Davis, of Reynoldsville, died Monday, June 14, 1909, at 10.00 a. m. The funeral will be held at 2.00 p. m. Wednesday. Mrs. T. J. Davis was at the bedside of her sister during the two weeks preceding dissolution and attended the funeral.

Squire J. D. Woodring went to Philadelphia last Wednesday on account of his daughter, Mrs. D. H. Krumsacker, of White Haven, Pa., being in the Presbyterian Hospital in that city in a very critical condition with gonorrhea on her neck. She is receiving electrical treatment and may have to undergo an operation. W. P. Woodring, brother of Mrs. Krumsacker, went to Philadelphia Saturday night to see his sister and returned yesterday.

Last Friday night Frank Bohren and Hugh Morrison, who had been attending parties and were returning home at a late hour, not together, however, met two fellows near the P. R. R. crossing who requested them to stop, but both young men are good sprinters and they skipped. In both cases the fellows followed the young men to the iron bridge. No doubt but it was the same fellows that demanded both Bohren and Morrison to stop.

HENRY RHODEN DIED MONDAY.

Was Fatally Injured on an Amusement Device at Ontario Beach Sunday.

Henry Rhoden, who moved to Reynoldsville about 35 years ago, was fatally injured on an amusement device at Ontario Beach, near Rochester, N. Y., Sunday afternoon and died in a hospital at Rochester at 7.30 p. m. Monday, June 14, 1909. The body arrived here at 6.35 this morning. Funeral at 2.00 p. m. Thursday at residence of Will Rhoden. Rev. John F. Black will conduct the services. Interment will be made in Beulah cemetery.

Henry Rhoden, whose family has resided here 35 years, had not been at home much of the time for a number of years. At time of his death was employed with the B. R. & P. R. Y. carpenter crew and had gone to Rochester to do some work for the company, and while spending Sunday in that city had gone to the summer resort where he received the fatal injury.

Deceased was over 70 years old. He was a member of the I. O. O. F. Lodge of Reynoldsville and members of that lodge will attend the funeral in a body. He is survived by his wife, who resides on Jackson street, one son, Will Rhoden, who resides on Mabel street, and four or five daughters. None of the daughters stay in Reynoldsville.

P. O. S. OF A. REUNION.

Reynoldsville Camp Took First Prize for Best Appearance in Parade at Brookville.

The P. O. S. of A. Northwestern Reunion Association had a pleasant day for the annual reunion held in Brookville yesterday. Judge John W. Reed delivered the address of welcome to the P. O. S. of A. visitors assembled at the court house. Harvey S. Dater, of Reynoldsville, responded. Clearfield was chosen as the place for holding the reunion in 1910.

Washington Camp No. 268 of Reynoldsville took the first prize in the parade for the best appearing Camp in the line.

Neighborhood Club Meeting.

The Neighborhood Club, composed of ladies' societies of Indiana, Punxsutawney, DuBois, Ridgway and the Utopia Society of Reynoldsville, met in Ridgway last week, Thursday and Friday. Mrs. J. W. Gillespie was the only member of the Utopia Society that attended the Neighborhood Club meeting. She read a paper on "The Individual in Club." Thursday evening a reception was held for the visiting ladies by Mrs. John G. Whitmore in her beautiful home. It was an evening of great social enjoyment. The Ridgway orchestra furnished music. Delicious refreshments were served. After the business meetings the ladies were taken in automobiles to Mrs. N. T. Arnold's magnificent home at Bonifels, a short distance from Ridgway, and were royally entertained at luncheon.

Punxsutawney was chosen as the next meeting place of the Neighborhood Club. Following officers were elected: President, Mrs. H. L. Young, of Punxsutawney; vice-presidents, Mrs. G. L. Glenn and Mrs. Emma Burkett, of Punxsutawney, Mrs. Christy, of Indiana, Mrs. L. S. Elber, of DuBois, Mrs. H. Alex Stoke, of Reynoldsville; treasurer, Mrs. J. W. Gillespie, of Reynoldsville.

Died in DuBois.

Joseph Hunter, a well-known citizen and for many years a resident of this town, died at his home on the Boulevard at 6 o'clock Thursday afternoon after an illness of less than twenty-four hours, uremic poisoning being the cause of death.

The deceased was forty-four years of age and is survived by a wife and three children, all at home. He had lived in DuBois for a score of years and had many friends who were shocked to hear of his untimely death.

The deceased was feeling well on Wednesday and worked in his garden until dark on the evening of that day. He was suddenly taken ill and medical aid was summoned and it was found that his condition was precarious. He grew rapidly worse and death occurred at the time stated.—DuBois Courier.

Deceased was a cousin of George C. Hunter and Mrs. J. R. Milliren, of Reynoldsville. Funeral took place in DuBois cemetery at 4.00 p. m. Sunday, G. C. Hunter and wife, J. R. Milliren and wife, of this place, and Joseph Hunter, of Punxsutawney, drove up from Reynoldsville and attended the funeral.

Both Teams Sanguine of Winning.

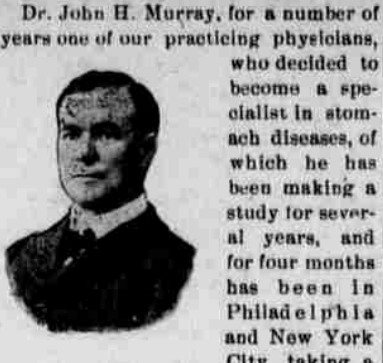

The deciding contest of three games will be played by the Reynoldsville Merchants and "Pencil Pushers" baseball nine Thursday, June 17th, at 3 o'clock p. m.

The first game was won by the "Pencil Pushers" and the Merchants won the second. Captain Williams, of the Merchants, says his team will win by a "walk away." Captain Horwitz, of the "Pencil Pushers," also feels confident of victory. This game should prove a "hair raiser." The line-up:

Burns	LF	Schuckers
Brewer	CF	Dubie
J. Strauss	RF	Horwitz
Wagner	3rd	Coleman
Noian	2nd	Alexander
Bell	1st	F. P. Alexander
Williams	SS	Flynn
Smith	P	Haggerty

DR MURRAY RETURNS

After Studying Several Months in Philadelphia and New York City.

Dr. John H. Murray, for a number of years one of our practicing physicians, who decided to become a specialist in stomach diseases, of which he has been making a study for several years, and for four months has been in Philadelphia and New York City taking a special course in diseases of the stomach, returned to his home in this place Saturday morning and expects to have his office—in his residence—open for business July 1st. Dr. Murray has been successful in his work as a practicing physician and there is no doubt but what he will be successful as a specialist in stomach diseases. He will devote his time to this work alone and will not take up the ordinary practice again.

Party Friday Evening.

Last Friday evening a party was given at the home of Mrs. Lizzie Smith on Grant street in honor of her sister and cousin, Miss Edna Britton, of Beechwoods, and Madie Britton, of Brookwayville. Thirty-five guests were present. Games were played and refreshments served.

Enlarging the Mill.

Allen Wallace and Frank C. Steff, new proprietors of the chop mill on Railroad street, who took charge of the mill on Monday of this week, will build an addition to the mill and make the new addition as large as the old. These gentlemen will do business under the firm name of Wallace & Steff.

Violin Recital.

The W. H. Haigh's violin class of DuBois held their annual recital last Thursday afternoon at Edgemont Park, near Falls Creek. After the program was rendered a memory contest was held at which first prize was won by George Harvey, of Coal Glen, second prize won by Madge Henry, of Reynoldsville, and third prize by her brother, John Henry, of this place.

University and Normal Graduates

Miss Amy Bollinger, Miss Joanne V. Milliren and Miss Olive Sykes, three highly esteemed young ladies of our town, are among the graduates in University and Normal schools this year. Miss Bollinger graduates in the Bucknell University at Lewisburg, Pa., on the 23rd inst. Mrs. David Bollinger will go to Lewisburg to see her daughter graduate. Misses Milliren and Sykes graduate in the Clarion State Normal the first of next week.

Getting Short of Funds.

It has been the custom of the Woman's Relief Corps of Reynoldsville for a number of years to furnish a Maltese Cross of cut flowers when an old soldier died, but so many of the veterans are passing away that it has become a severe drain on the funds of the Corps and the ladies find it necessary to change their custom, and instead of a Maltese Cross will hereafter furnish a casket bouquet. This statement is made public so that there will be no misunderstanding. The ladies would gladly continue the old custom but their finances will not permit it.

Will Enforce Dog Ordinance.

Elsewhere in this issue of THE STAR will be found a notice from Chief Burgess Jarvis D. Williams notifying owners of dogs that from July 1st to September 1st all dogs running on the streets of Reynoldsville must be muzzled and must wear a collar with owners name and tag tax on collar or the dogs will be killed. Burgess Williams says this is not a bluff, but that the borough ordinance will positively be enforced and any violation of the law will mean death to the dog. If you have a dog that you value you had better get a muzzle, collar and tag tax to put on it June 30th or very early July 1st.

West Reynoldsville School Board.

Tuesday evening of last week, June 8th, the West Reynoldsville school board met and re-organized by electing M. H. Stiles as president of the board, O. H. Johnston secretary, and William P. Woodring treasurer. O. H. Johnston and Harry Bryan succeeded themselves at the spring election and the board is composed of same members as last year: T. D. Brewer, Harry Bryan, O. H. Johnston, W. A. Leech, M. H. Stiles and W. P. Woodring.

The board met Thursday evening and elected two teachers for next term and laid the millage for 1909. Teachers, Miss Emma Davis room No. 3, Miss Mabelle Lucas room No. 1. Millage, school 9 mills, bond 3 1/2 mills, sinking fund 5 1/2 mills.

Bargains in all departments Thursday afternoon from 4 to 6 o'clock. Bing-Stoke Co.

You will find us in the Dunn building next door to Hall's furniture store. When in need of flour or feed by sack or wagon load, come and see us. Robinson & Mundorff.

MELLINGER-MILLEN NUPTIALS

Married at Home of Bride's Parents Near Stanton—An Uncle of Bride Officiated.

At high noon on Thursday, June 10, 1909, a beautiful and impressive wedding ceremony took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. T. Millen, near Stanton, Jefferson Co., Pa., when their daughter, Miss Florence Millen, was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Louis O'Neill Mellinger, son of Mr. George Mellinger, of Reynoldsville. It was a ritzy ceremony, and the officiating clergyman was Rev. Dr. Renwick Millen, United Presbyterian minister of Cincinnati, Ohio, an uncle of the bride. The bridesmaids were Miss Montana Millen, sister of bride, and Miss Anna Henderson, of Brookville, and the groomsmen were Mr. Frank P. Alexander, of Reynoldsville, almost a life-long friend of the groom. The bride and bridesmaids were attired in beautiful white dresses. The house was tastefully decorated with evergreen and orange blossoms. A sumptuous wedding dinner was served. The bride received a number of beautiful presents—cut glass, silver, linens, cash, &c.

Mr. Mellinger and bride left on the westbound evening train for Pittsburgh, Philadelphia, Pa., Princeton, N. J., where they attended the commencement at Princeton University. Mr. Mellinger's alma mater. From Princeton they went to Boston, Mass., where they took a steamer for Malcom, C. B., Nova Scotia, where Mr. Mellinger holds a lucrative and responsible position with a large coal company, and where they will remain for six months or a year. A commodious house, completely furnished, even to cooking utensils, was furnished by the company and ready for occupancy by Mr. and Mrs. Mellinger.

We are not personally acquainted with the bride, but know that she comes from a highly respected family, that she is spoken of as an excellent young lady and has been a successful school teacher. The groom, whom we have known since he was a lad in knee pants, is one of the best young men that has ever gone out from Reynoldsville into the active affairs of life. He is bright, honest and has no bad habits, and if he is not overtaken by misfortune we believe he will successfully meet the strenuous demands of the 20th century and when he reaches the zenith of life he will be a man of affluence.

THE STAR, which will visit Mr. and Mrs. Mellinger every week in their Nova Scotia home and give them all the town gossip that is publishable in a newspaper, joins with their host of friends in extending congratulations and good wishes.

The following Reynoldsville people attended the wedding: Mr. and Mrs. George Mellinger, Mr. and Mrs. Ira S. Smith, George and Helen Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Frank P. Alexander, Miss Lydia I. Mellinger.

Dogs Must be Muzzled.

All dogs running at large from July 1st to September 1st must be muzzled, must wear collar with owner's name and tag tax on or the dogs will be destroyed. This is a fair warning. I will positively have the borough ordinance enforced and persons owning dogs must comply with the law or their dogs will certainly be destroyed.

J. D. WILLIAMS, Chief Burgess.

Auditors' Reports.

In this issue of THE STAR will be found the auditors' reports of the school funds of West Reynoldsville borough and Winslow township for the year ending June 7th, 1909.

In Memoriam.

Death, the grim reaper, the invader of every home, has again sought out a young brother from our beloved circle. Brother Walter Hoover has been summoned, and his spirit has winged its flight to realms of light and life eternal. It is to be regretted that one so young, and buoyant with hope, should have been, so early, cut down, when the future to him looked so bright and promising; but the mysteries of a Divine Providence are so inscrutable that no human being can unfathom, and as believers in His dispensations we can but bow in humble submission to His will.

To his loving wife and four little daughters we tender our sincere sympathy, and commend them to Him who has promised to comfort the sorrowing and bereaved hearts of his children. Resolved, That our charter be draped in mourning for thirty days.

P. G., L. J. MCENTIRE.
