SINGLE MEN EASY VICTORS

Win On the Diamond By a Score of 22 to 8—Knocked Pitcher Out of Box.

BATTING THE FEATURE

The long looked for game of base ball between married and single men took place Monday. The married men had expected to have a walk over, but the single men had too much life and ginger and the downfall of the benedicts was the result. The married men had made all sorts of promises to their wives, especially F. O. Sutter, but it did not materialize. While the sun shone over the crest of the hill, amid the multitude of 500 fans, including many married women, Umpire King called "Play ball." From the start of the game it was clearly seen that the married men were outclassed. The single men fell on Sutter's delivery from the very start of the game and he was driven to the woods in the seventh inning. Williams, who took his place on the slab, fared but little better, the single men jumping on his delivery for nine runs in two innings. Burge, who pitched for the single men, had the opposing batsmen at his mercy throughout the game and only seven hits were made off his delivery. Wagner, of the married men, being the only one to hit him with ease. McEntire, who shone as a star in the other two games, was all to the bad. All in all the married men were completely outclassed. The single men, while none of their sweethearts were present, played a good game.

ROASTED IN A COKE OVEN

Inebriated Man Finds Warm Bunk at Tyler But Never Came Out Again.

R. H. Snyder, of DuBois, who worked in the woods, was smothered to death in a coke oven at Tyler Saturday night. Snyder had been drinking and it is supposed he had crawled into coke oven, in which was no fire, to sleep. The ovens on each side of the one Snyder had crawled into had fire in them and before morning the heat was so intense that he was smothered to death. His body was burned to a crisp. Was buried in DuBois cemetery.

National Army Day at Chautauqua, N. Y.

National Army Day at Chautauqua, New York, falls this year on Saturday the 17th of July. A gathering of the veterans from nearby towns will take place as in previous years. A patriotic concert will be a feature of the late morning and in the afternoon at 2:30 the National Army Day address will be delivered by Bishop John H. HOT BLAZE MONDAY

Fire of Unknown Origin Destroyed N. A. Headley's Barn And Damaged Damore's Barn.—Good Work By The Local Fire Companies Prevented Heavy Loss.

NO INSURANCE CARRIED ON THE BUILDINGS.

Shortly after four o'clock Monday afternoon fire was discovered issuing from the barn of N. A. Headley, in the east end of town. The alarm was given promptly, but before the fire companies could reach the scene the building was past saving. A quantity of hay inside spread the fire very rapidly. When the fire companies got the water into play an end of the barn on the John Damore property adjoining was also in flames and it required hard work to prevent its destruction. Twice while the firemen were so employed, the home of Mr. Headley caught fire on the roof but prompt ripping off of shingles saved the house. The origin of the fire is unknown, the supposition being, however, that boys had been in the barn smoking. Mr. Headley's wagons, harness and other fixtures were saved, but one young pig was burned. There was no insurance on the barn. The loss may be estimated at $300. The damage to the Damore barn was about $50.

ELOPEMENT FOILED

Ramsertown Couple Quarrel and the Wife Departs With Another Man.—Were Arrested at Reynoldsville Yesterday Noon and Locked Up.

A married woman and one of her boarders, both Italians, of Ramsertown, Jefferson county, arrived here on the 11:42 a. m. train yesterday and were immediately picked by the police and lodged in the lock-up on charge of eloping. The husband of the woman arrived here on the 6:22 p. m. train and after a long and heated conference the woman returned home with her husband on the 8:03 p. m. train. The story of the woman and boarder is that the husband and wife had quarrelled Monday evening, that he had threatened to cut her face. She decided to go to the home of a sister at Kaylor and she wanted the boarder to go with her. After the husband went to work yesterday morning they started on the trip but were travelling in the wrong direction. The couple insisted that they had no intention of eloping.

SUGGESTION FOR TROLLEY

To Connect Reynoldsville and Clarion Via Brookville And Corsica.

We have been thinking for some time that it would be a good enterprise to build a trolley road from Reynoldsville to Clarion, through Emericville, Brookville, Corsica and Strattonville, following the line of the Susquehanna and Waterford turnpike. The road would pass through a rich and densely populated section, that would afford much travel and freight. Reaching the county seats of Jefferson and Clarion counties, the road would afford facilities now much needed. It would make communication between Reynoldsville and Brookville much cheaper and more convenient, also between Brookville and Clarion. With the contemplated road built from East Brady to Clarion, it would make a continuous trolley road from DuBois to Pittsburgh. The enterprise is worth considering.—Brookville Democrat.

Does This Strike You?

The following, taken from the Minneapolis Star, was handed to the editor for publication with the remark that a number of citizens came under the classifications made. The Star said: The men who do a town more harm than good may be classed as follows:
First—Those who oppose improvement.
Second—Those who run it down to strangers.
Third—Those who never advertise their business.
Fourth—Those who distrust public spirited men.
Fifth—Those who show no hospitality to anyone.
Sixth—Those who hate to see others make money.
Seventh—Those who oppose every movement that doesn't originate with themselves.
Eighth—Those who put on long faces when a stranger speaks of locating in their town.
Ninth—Those who oppose every public enterprise which does not appear of personal benefit to themselves.
There are some men born with the idea that it is their job to grease the axle of the world and keep the old 'gal' in running order, but somehow, when they shuffle off, there is not the slightest quiver.

Housefly a Disease Breeder.
Here are some facts which every careful housekeeper should know: The common housefly is a carrier of disease. Typhoid fever, diarrhoea, dysentery and tuberculosis are carried by flies.
Flies feed on food, and also on filth. They go from one to the other. In this way they carry disease germs to the table.
Flies breed in manure heaps, out-houses, refuse, ash pits and all decomposing animal or vegetable matter, and unclean places. Do not allow decaying material of any sort to accumulate on or near your premises. If such exist, cover with lime or kerosene oil, and remove as early as possible.
Screen all food; cover food after the meal; burn all scraps and refuse. Screen all windows and doors. Burn pyrethrum powder in the house if flies should gain entrance. If there is no filth there will be no flies.
