

Take
A Kodak
With You

KODAKS
$.50 to $111.50
BROWNIES
$.10 to $12.00

Let us show you how easy it is to make pictures the Kodak way. We do developing free of charge.

Stoke & Feicht
Drug Company

A Little of Everything.

Democratic State convention will be held in Harrisburg to-day.
The Jefferson Traction Company is having all trolley cars repainted.
Charles S. Kirebartz, of Warren, was in town several days the past week.
Ferdinand Yetka went to New Bethlehem Saturday to work in glass plant.
John T. Barclay and family are spending this week at North Fork Park.
Huckleberries are scarce this year. It is claimed that the berries dry up on the bushes.
F. C. Westcoat went to New Bethlehem the first of this week to work in glass plant.
Paul, young son of John A. Walsh, had a finger of his right hand broken one day last week.
Hon W. O. Smith, editor Punsutawney Spirit, visited his parents in this place Saturday.
The Jefferson county commissioners took four persons from this county to the Warren asylum last week.
The weigh scale on Main street, near Frank's Tavern, has been moved to Third street, near Main street.
Mayor Jarvis D. Williams and his father, Reece Williams, spent Sunday and Monday at North Fork Park.
Some of our sidewalks show unmistakable evidence that the new spitting law is not enforced in Reynoldsville.
W. W. Deble and family and A. Z. Snyder and family spent the past week at camp north of Sandy Valley.
K. L. Stiles, a government gauger, is now stationed at Logansport, Pa. He went to that place the first of this week.
Edward Elder, of DuBois, has been visiting his uncles, J. M. and C. A. Stephenson, in this place several days.
Miss Eleanor Reed's Sunday school class of M. E. S. S., held a picnic near the Jenks school house last Thursday.
Harvey S. Deter, of this place, was one of the speakers at the Sunday school convention at Wishaw last evening.
Karl Weitzel, of Iselin, Indiana Co., Pa., visited his uncles, John M. and C. A. Stephenson in this place the past week.
Lloyd Marshall, of Clarion, formerly of this place, now a conductor on the P., S. & C. R. R., spent Sunday in Reynoldsville.
Ex-Tax Collector Wm. Copping was in Big Bus last week and collected two years taxes from a former citizen of Reynoldsville.
Winolet Township Sunday School Association held a convention in the M. E. church at Wishaw yesterday. There were three sessions.
Rev. J. W. Myers, of Natrona, former pastor of the Trinity Lutheran church in this place, passed through town Monday on his way to Renovo to visit his daughter.
Frank A. McConnell, proprietor of Frank's Tavern, is having new sidewalk built in front of his hostelry and will also build an addition to the large porch in front of hotel.
The warden of the Punsutawney look-up reports that 353 persons had their names inscribed on the official roster of the look-up the first six months of this year.

No morning service in the Trinity Lutheran church during August. Vesper service every Sunday evening at 7.30.
Lloyd Arnold, student in Girard College at Philadelphia, is spending the summer vacation at home of his mother, Mrs. David Sowers, on Pleasant Avenue.
An infant of Mr. and Mrs. Merrell McEntire was buried in the Reynoldsville cemetery Monday afternoon, August 2, 1909. Dr. A. J. Meek conducted short funeral service.
Francis D. Smith, who is engaged in the lumber business at Enterprise, Miss., returned to that place this week after spending a couple of weeks with his family in Reynoldsville.
Ex-Tax Collector Copping is now enforcing the law on delinquent taxpayers. One arrest was made this week and there will be others if back taxes are not promptly paid.
A new brick sidewalk has been laid in front of the P. O. S. of A. building on Main street, and H. Alex Stoke is having a new brick sidewalk laid along his property on Fifth street.
Thirty-five members of the Daughters of St. George Lodge of Reynoldsville drove to DuBois in tally-hos last Wednesday, July 28, and picniced at home Mr. and Mrs. John Stauffer.
Alexander Lavelle, of Ramseytown, and Cora Shovestull, of Cool Spring, were married by Squire E. Neff at his office on Main street, Reynoldsville, at 2.30 p. m. Monday, August 2, 1909.
Mrs. A. C. Scott and daughter, Helen, of Brookville, who spent three months with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Thompson, taking care of latter, who had broken arm, returned home Saturday.
Mrs. B. M. McEntire, of Waterson, Clarion county, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Davis, the past week. Mrs. McEntire had been over at Bellwood to see her sister, Mrs. J. R. Whitesel, who has been very ill.
A young man named Harrison Jewart, aged 18 years, was killed by lightning Friday near Sagamore. Jewart was mowing hay when a storm came up and he drove under a walnut tree for shelter. Lightning struck the tree, killing Jewart instantly.
The house of Henry Hunter, of Curry Run, was struck by lightning Saturday and was so badly damaged that it will take considerable repairing before it will be fit to live in. Mr. and Mrs. Hunter had a miraculous escape. Mr. Hunter is a brother of G. C. Hunter and Mrs. J. R. Millren, of this place.
The Reynoldsville & Falls Creek R'y is building a new reservoir near the Sherwood No. 2 mine to water engines. The company had a reservoir alongside the site of the new dam, but it is full of sulphur water and cannot be used in engines, hence a new reservoir is being built in an adjoining ravine to get pure water.
J. Van Reed has one of the best croquet grounds in this vicinity and some warmly contested and interesting games are played on it. The croquet ground is lighted with electricity and sometimes the game is played until late in the night. One night last week it was almost 2.00 a. m. before the last game was finished.
The monthly meeting of the Foreign Missionary Society of the Methodist Episcopal church will be held at home of Mrs. L. S. Anderson on Mabel street at three o'clock on Friday afternoon of this week. All members having mite boxes are requested to take them to this meeting, and all unpaid dues should be paid at this meeting, the last of the conference year, when all accounts must be sent to conference treasurer.
J. W. Gillespie, one of Reynoldsville's most progressive citizens and merchants, was a pleasant caller at this office last Friday. J. W. is an old time "picnic" who thoroughly enjoys a visit to a print shop and his genial personality makes him a welcome visitor at any office. He has been successful in commercial lines and we wish him continued success until the mystic number "80" is hung up for him.—Sykesville Post-Dispatch.
Frank Sharp and wife were arrested on charge of keeping a common, disorderly, ill-governed and rowdy house, and Harry Sharp and wife and Mrs. May Brink were arrested for frequenting such a house. The first four were given a hearing before Squire Neff and Mrs. Brink was taken to Squire W. L. Johnston's court. Frank Sharp and wife gave bail in sum of $500.00 apiece for their appearance at court, and the other three were taken to the county jail last Wednesday.
It was stated in THE STAR last week that George Burtop, Beechwoods farmer, had out one hundred and eighty-five dozen sheaves of wheat off three and one-half acres, almost fifty-three dozen to acre, and a challenge was made for any other farmer to beat it. Another Beechwoods farmer, John H. Burtop, cousin of George Burtop, reports that his wheat averaged a trifle over fifty-seven dozen to acre. Four dozen per acre better than George's wheat field yielded. Whose wheatfield can beat John H. Burtop's?

TRUMAN B. LONDON DEAD.
Had Been Ill Three Months—Complication of Diseases Was Cause of Death.
Truman B. London, aged 73 years, died at his home near Bloomington Mines, at 2.30 a. m. Monday, August 2nd, 1909, after an illness of three months from a complication of diseases. He was a member of the Baptist church. He is survived by his wife, three daughters and two sons, Mrs. Furman Dean, Mrs. L. O. Henry, Mrs. George Johnston, Thomas and Monroe London. Funeral this afternoon, conducted by Dr. A. J. Meek.
ANOTHER BRICK BUILDING.
It Will Be Erected Next to the Stoke & Feicht Drug Store.
P. McDonald has men at work excavating for a two story brick building on the vacant space between Hunter & Millren's meat market and Stoke & Feicht Drug Co.'s store. When this building is ready for occupancy the building now occupied by the meat market will be torn down and replaced with a brick structure.
Appointed Justice of Peace.
Perry B. Love, ex-constable of Reynoldsville borough, has been appointed by Gov. Stuart as justice of the peace in this borough, to fill the unexpired term of Squire Harry Martin, who resigned.
Will Exchange Pulpits.
Rev. John F. Black, pastor of Reynoldsville M. E. church, and Rev. Charles Zetler, pastor of Summersville M. E. church, will exchange pulpits next Sunday. Rev. Zetler will preach here morning and evening.
Brown-Bolt Wedding.
G. M. Brown and Miss Lizzie Bolt, of this place, were married at the M. E. parsonage at 8.00 p. m. Wednesday, July 28, 1909, by Rev. John F. Black. Mr. and Mrs. Brown both have friends in town who extend congratulations and good wishes.
Large Monument.
Yesterday a large monument or shaft was hauled from this place to Beechwoods cemetery. It was shipped from New York City by James W. Stevenson and will be erected in memory of Mr. Stevenson's wife. The shaft weighed almost five tons.
Never Wears Shoes.
It is claimed to be a fact that a foreign woman at Big Soldier has not had shoes on for fifteen years. Summer and winter she goes around in her bare feet. When the thermometer registered 20 degrees below zero she has been seen to go out to a meat wagon in her bare feet and stand long enough to buy meat that she wanted.
Bee Keepers' Convention.
The annual convention and basket picnic of the bee keepers of Jefferson, Clarion and Armstrong counties will be held in A. J. M. Applegate's grove, Main street, Reynoldsville, to-morrow, August 5th. A program, beginning at 9.00 a. m. has been arranged for this convention. All persons interested are cordially invited to attend.
Dwelling Burned.
The dwelling house of Mrs. Jennie Jones-Showers, in east end of town, was destroyed by fire Sunday forenoon. The fire was discovered about 10.30 a. m., after Mrs. Showers had gone to church. Mrs. Showers' aged mother, who is 92 years old, and the household goods, were carried out of the house by neighbors, but before the fire company arrived the interior of house was so badly burned that it cannot be repaired. The fire started in a small summer kitchen.
Baptist Picnic.
The Baptist Sunday school picnic at Wishaw last Thursday was a very pleasant outing, notwithstanding the fact that there was a shower in the afternoon. The most exciting feature of the picnic was an egg hunt. One hundred boiled eggs were hidden all around the picnic ground and at a given time the picnickers started on the hunt for the eggs. Among the one hundred hidden were four golden eggs and the finder of a golden egg was given a prize. At least two hundred and fifty people attended the picnic.
Moving Back to Our Town.
Fred J. Butler, a former business man of Reynoldsville, who has been manager of a large company store at Listie, Pa., several years, is moving back to Reynoldsville. Mr. Butler is secretary and treasurer of the First-Butler Electrical Machine Company, which has an office in the Syndicate Building, and he will have charge of the office and books of this company. Mrs. Butler has bought the James Hughes property on Fourth street, where the family will reside. Mr. Butler is an enterprising young man and we are glad to welcome him back as a citizen of Reynoldsville.
See the trained lions, tigers and polar bears at Nolan Park Carnival on P. S. & C. August 18 to 21. Highest class attractions this year that was ever brought to this part of the country.
Now is the time to buy oxfords. Special prices at Adam's.

BIRTHDAY SURPRISE PARTY.
Miss Mary Loding Was "Sweet Sixteen" Last Friday.
Friday, July 30th, was the sixteenth birthday anniversary of Miss Mary Loding, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Loding, of Main street, and the anniversary was celebrated with a big birthday surprise party. Miss Mary went to Rathmel Friday to spend the day at home of her uncle, Edward Hughes, and during her absence the way was clear for preparing for the party. She was to have returned on the 7.50 p. m. trolley, but her cousins managed very nicely to miss that car and then decided they would drive down to Reynoldsville and bring Mary home. When they got here at 9.00 p. m. and there was no light in the house Mary thought her parents had retired unusually early, but when she stepped into front door the light was suddenly turned on and she saw the rooms full of her young friends she comprehended the whole affair in an instant, but it was a great surprise to her all the same. There were over fifty guests present and it is hardly necessary to add that they had a jolly time. Various games were played. Frank Di Church and sons, of Sykesville, furnished some fine music. Refreshments were served. Miss Mary received numerous presents. It was a happy birthday anniversary for her.
DROPSY CAUSED DEATH.
Mrs. Elizabeth Rech Died Monday Night—Funeral To-Morrow.
Mrs. Elizabeth Rech, a respected lady of Reynoldsville, died at 10.15 p. m. Monday, August 2, 1909, after a long and patient illness from dropsy. Elizabeth Schummer was maiden name of deceased. She was born in Germany May 6, 1844, and was 65 years, 2 months and 27 days old at time of death. Her husband died in Germany about 35 years ago. Mrs. Rech and one son, J. N. Rech, who survives her, moved to Reynoldsville 27 or 28 years ago. Mrs. Rech was a faithful member of the Catholic church and was also a member of the Altar and Rosary Societies of the church.
Funeral service in the Catholic church at 9.00 a. m. to-morrow and interment in the Catholic cemetery.
BIG CLOTHING SALE.
Millirens Semi-Annual Clearance Sale—Rare Bargains.
Our semi-annual clearance sale begins on Saturday of this week, August 7th. The best clothing sales are those announced in the fewest words. When we announce our Great Clearance Sale we simply mean that the season for our clearance sale has arrived. We cut prices on all our clothing for men, boys and children—on all our headwear and haberdashery. We make deep cuts, and in order that there may be no misunderstanding, we announce our offerings in plain figures. You can make a big saving by buying when our clearance sale is on. We consider it good business to close out each season's stock before the next arrives. This sale will continue two weeks only—August 7 to August 21. You will find you can save money faster than you can make it by taking advantage of our big special sale, which begins next Saturday. Watch for the big hand-bills and see the prices.
MILLIRENS, Reynoldsville, Pa.
Free Lessons to Kodakers.
All amateur photographers who are interested in camera and kodak work are invited to come to the Columbus Studio Sunday morning at 10 o'clock, also on Monday and Tuesday afternoons at 2.00 o'clock, when the proprietor, Mr. Kelz, will give free instruction in the use of kodaks and cameras, and the finishing of the negatives. Every person is requested to bring a kodak or camera with them.
Catholic Picnic.
Members of the Catholic church and friends will picnic at Wishaw Park to-morrow. The first car will leave here at 9.00 a m and there will be a car for the park every half hour during the day. Round trip tickets on sale at McEntire's drug store for 10 cents. Last car will leave park at 8.30 p. m.
Elks Annual Picnic.
The B. P. O. Elks of Reynoldsville will hold their annual picnic at Wishaw Park on Thursday of next week, August 12. We understand that friends will be invited this year. It is expected that there will be a large attendance.
Card of Thanks.
W. Vernon Beiton, Reynoldsville Hardware Co. and Messrs Smith and McClure appreciate very much, the work done by the firemen and other citizens Sunday morning, and hereby express their gratitude.
Elected a Principal Last Night.
The West Reynoldsville school board elected Prof. S. R. Mallory, of Bear Lake, Pa., as principal of the public schools of that borough.
It would be difficult to find anywhere in the state as fine a group of buildings as adorns the campus of the Lock Haven Normal School. They are on a commanding elevation facing the beautiful West Branch, are surrounded by the picturesque rolling hills of the Allegheny system, and most important of all, the drainage is perfect. The school is most fortunate in having plenty of pure mountain water. School opens September 8th. Address the principal for a catalog.
One company going to Nolan Park August 18 to 21 will also have ten solid cars. Park will be electric lighted

THE PEOPLE WHO ARE PASSING TO AND FRO.
Mrs. A. Katzen visited in Brookville last week.
Lawyer C. W. Flynn was in Warren last week.
Mrs. D. M. Dunsmore visited in Warren last week.
Marlin McCreeght spent last week in Indiana county.
Miss Erma Robinson visited in DuBois last week.
Miss Hallie Burns is visiting relatives at Rimersburg.
Glenn A. Millren, of Kane, is in town this week.
Miss Edith Katzen is visiting in DuBois this week.
Miss Cora Robertson visited in Brockwayville last week.
Mrs. Francis Yost is visiting a sister in New Bethlehem.
Mrs. Alex Riston went to Erie last week to visit an aunt.
Walter Breakey is visiting an uncle near Clymer, Indiana Co.
Miss Ruth McKee, of Indiana, was a visitor in town last week.
Miss Nelle Himes, of Brockwayville, visited in town last week.
Will A. Reynolds, of Warren, was a visitor in town the past week.
Fred J. Butler and wife were in Brookville Monday on business.
Mrs. Jane A. Sprague is spending this week in Henderson township.
Squire W. L. Johnston and wife visited a son at Corsica the past week.
Miss Flora Trudgen, of East Brady, visited relatives in town the past week.
Mrs. Wm. Fanner, of New Bethlehem, visited Mrs. C. E. Kroh last week.
Miss Bertha Thomas, of Shamokin, Pa., visited in this place the past week.
Mrs. O. D. O'Dell spent a couple of days with relatives in DuBois last week.
Miss Minerva Markle, of New Castle, is visiting Mrs. W. W. Fetter in this place.
Squire E. Neff spent yesterday in DuBois with his brothers who reside there.
Miss Ophelia Wesson returned Monday from a month's visit in Summersville.
Mrs. Ed. Clark goes to Graceton, Pa., to-day to visit her daughter, Mrs. W. H. Gates.
Mrs. J. A. Armagost and son, Albert, visited in Phillipston and East Brady last week.
George W. Kline went to West Virginia yesterday where he may remain for sometime.
Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Dunsmore are at Allegheny Springs, Warren Co., Pa., this week.
Mrs. Emma Shadel, of Clarion, visited her brother, J. N. Small, in this place last week.
Mrs. E. C. Senor and daughter, Miss Besse Senor, are visiting relatives at Unionville, Pa.
Mrs. George Hughes, of DuBois, visited her parents in this place the first of this week.
Mrs. Edward Bird, of Clearfield, visited her father, L. W. Scott, in this place the past week.
Miss Susan Morrison, of Brookwayville, visited her aunt, Mrs. Hood Knox, the past week.
Dr. R. S. Borland, of Mercer, Pa., was the guest of Rev. John F. Black a couple of days last week.
E. S. Miller and wife, who had been at Madison, S. C., several months, have returned to Reynoldsville.
Dr. John H. Murray, specialist in stomach diseases, was called to Altoona yesterday to see a patient.
Mrs. Ira Evans, of Punsutawney, visited her sister, Mrs. T. D. Brewer, in this place the past week.
Dr. Robert R. Christy and wife, of Pittsburgh, were guests at home of Robert H. Wilson Saturday.
Miss Josephine Montgomery, of Pittsburgh, spent last week at home of her parents in West Reynoldsville.
Miss Ruth Johnston, who spent eight weeks at home of R. E. Koehler at Donora returned home last week.
Mrs. J. P. Lucas, of Brookville, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. A. R. Schubert, in West Reynoldsville.
Mrs. H. E. Swift and daughter, Angeline, of Brookville, visited the former's parents in this place last week.
Miss Cora Beer, trained nurse of Pittsburgh, is visiting her mother, Mrs. Nancy Beer, in West Reynoldsville.
Miss Hazel Heffner, who spent two weeks in Punsutawney with friends, returned home the first of this week.
Charles Carl and sister Cora, of Niagara Falls, N. Y., formerly of this place, are visiting in town this week.
Mrs. Elmer E. Woodward, of Monaca, is visiting at home of her father, E. S. Brewer, in West Reynoldsville.
Miss Helen Schubert is visiting friends in Kittanning. She will visit in Brookville before returning home.
Mrs. M. A. McLain and Mrs. C. E. Lose, of Oil City, are the guests of Mrs. Cora Mitchell on Grant street.
A. A. Neff, of Rosemary, Indiana Co., spent Monday night with his brother, Squire E. Neff, in this place.
Hood Knox and daughter, Miss Mary Knox, spent Sunday at home of the former's mother at Covode, Indiana Co.
Mr. G. L. Way, of Curwensville, is visiting his daughter, Mrs. A. H. Fleming, on Grant st.
Mrs. Wm. Stahl and Mrs. Wm. Cummings, of Sykesville, were guests of Mrs. J. O. Johns on Hill street Friday.
J. W. Hunter, cashier of the Citizens National bank, and wife, visited the former's parents near Coal Glen last week.
Mrs. Walter B. Reynolds, of Warren, after two months' visit with her mother in this place, returned home last week.
Miss Edna Schreckengost, of Brookville, was the guest of the Misses Montgomery in West Reynoldsville the past week.
Dr. Harry P. Thompson and wife, of Brookville, visited the latter's parents on Pleasant Avenue a couple of days last week.
Misses Nell Mohny and Hattie Bell Yingling, of Clarion, were guests of Misses Olive Sykes and Ruth Stiles the past week.
Misses Sara and Helen Small, of Cool Spring, visited at home of their uncle, J. N. Small, in West Reynoldsville the past week.
E. D. Davis was at Bellwood this week to see his daughter, Mrs. J. R. Whitesel, who has been ill but is getting better.
Mrs. Hannah Speer, of Pittsburgh, is visiting her sister, Mrs. David Reynolds, and sister-in-law, Mrs. Elizabeth Miles, in this place.
Harry L. Schlabig, of Buffalo, N. Y., visited his parents the past week. Mrs. Schlabig and children have been here several weeks.
Misses Jessie and Ethlyn George, of Clarion, are visiting at home of their grandfather, Robert S. Williams, in West Reynoldsville.
Mr. and Mrs. T. K. Hunter, of Gaskill township, visited their son and daughter, G. C. Hunter and Mrs. J. R. Millren Sunday.
Benjamin Gulliford and wife, of Rimersburg, spent Sunday with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Griffith, in this place.
Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Gibson left here Monday on a trip to Kittanning, Pittsburgh, Pa., Cleveland, Ohio, Detroit and Port Huron, Mich.
Misses Mabel and Beatrice Miller, of Reading, are visiting their sister, Mrs. Charles E. Rudy at the Lutheran parsonage on Jackson street.
Robert Winstup and wife, of Fayette City, and Eli Rider and wife, of Arnold, visited the ladies' mother, Mrs. Ann Harris, in Rathmel last week.
Robert A. Bone, Sr., and wife, have returned home from a three weeks' visit with sons and daughters at Clymer, Barnesboro and Punsutawney.
Miss Clare Prociou, of Hawthorn, visited her sister, Mrs. Dr. J. C. Sayers, in this place last week. Miss Prociou stopped on her way to Chautauque.
Miss Edith Zeitler, who was operated on in the Grube hospital a couple of weeks ago for appendicitis, was able to return to her home in this place this week.
Mrs. N. Hansu went to Asbury Park, N. J., the first of this week to enjoy the sea breeze for a couple of weeks. She will visit in Philadelphia before returning home.
Mrs. M. C. Coleman and Miss Kathryn King went to Monaca Monday to visit the former's daughter, Mrs. Harry C. Herpel. They will also visit in Grove City before returning home.
Monday evening Mr. and Mrs. James Campbell left here for Brielle, N. J., to visit relatives. They will also visit other points along the New Jersey coast. Expect to be gone several weeks.
Albert Worden, of Ashtola, visited at home of his father-in-law, Joseph McKernan, the past week. Mrs. Worden and children, who has been visiting her parents, returned home with Mr. Worden.
Miss Lucile Mitchell, who was in New York City three months taking lessons in cutting in the John J. Mitchell Ladies' Tailors Cutting School returned to her home in this place last Thursday evening.
Miss Emma J. Smith, a graduate nurse, who has been in the Women's Hospital at Detroit, Mich., has returned to home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Smith, on Pleasant Avenue. She will remain here.
Calvin Vandervoort, wife and son, of Salt Lake City, and Reid Vandervoort, wife and two children, of Challis, Idaho, are visiting at home of the gentlemen's sister, Mrs. F. R. Boat, on Fourth street. They were called here by illness of their mother.
Did your child complain of headache or do poor work in school last term? Its eyes may be at fault. Have them examined by Gibson, optician. See adv. and dates in this paper.
See the French Broadwicks at Nolan Park August 18 to 21.