Robbers Attempt To Gain Entrance

At Home of A. B. Weed And Find Preparations Made For Their Reception.

A. B. Weed, train dispatcher on P. R. R., who resides in West Reynoldsville, some years ago fixed a burglar alarm on the stairs of his residence, so that no one can get up stairs when alarm is set without ringing a bell. After long years of waiting for a burglar he finally arrived last Wednesday night, the alarm did its work, the burglar made a hasty exit with Mr. Weed in hot pursuit shooting at the fellow as he ran.

Mr. Weed, who was in the house alone, his wife being away on a visit, got awake about 1.00 a. m. and was just falling into the embrace of morpheus again when a bell began ringing, which he first thought was the telephone bell, but the continued ring of the bell made him think that some person was standing on the burglar alarm, which was the right solution of the whyfore of the jingling of the bell. When the burglar stepped on the alarm he was surprised, and not suspecting that he was standing on the spring that was ringing the bell, he stood still and the bell continued to proclaim the fact that an enemy was on the stairs. When Mr. Weed jumped out of bed the burglar heard him and skipped for the open country, having opened the front door before starting up stairs. The fellow ran down to railroad and down the track as if he had very urgent business in some other town. Mr. Weed fired four shots after his uninvited visitor, but in the hastiness, excitement and unexpectedness of the little drama he, apparently, was not a good marksman on this occasion and the would-be robber escaped without a puncture in his hide.

The burglar had gained entrance to the house through the back door.

Swallowed His False Teeth.

Peter Jackson, one of the best known miners in this section, and section boss at the Coal Hill mines, near Luthersburg, was the victim of a most peculiar accident on Saturday afternoon, when he swallowed his false teeth and, the physicians say, would have died but for quick action which took him to the Adrian Hospital where he was immediately operated upon and relieved of the foreign substance.

Mr. Jackson was at work at the mines when he began to feel the effects of the great heat and in a fainting condition was helping himself to some water which relieved him. It was while drinking that the teeth slipped down his throat. Medical aid was immediately summoned and it was found that the teeth had lodged in the esophagus. The plate was forced into the stomach and he was rushed to the hospital in an automobile in record time and quickly operated upon. He is now resting easy and nothing serious is expected to result.—DuBois Courier.

Cherry Run Campmeeting.

The usual annual Methodist Campmeeting at Cherry Run, Clarion Co., Pennsylvania, will be held Thursday, August 12th, to Wednesday, August 25th, and is promised to be the best campmeeting held there in years. Rev. J. Bell Neff, D. D., of DuBois, the superintendent of the Clarion District of Erie Conference, will be in attendance throughout the meeting and take an active part, preaching frequently. The presence of Bishop Berry, one of the most gifted speakers of the day, on Sunday, August 15, and Monday, will add much to the interest of the meeting. A number of other noted speakers are on the program who will draw large crowds.

To Stop Pollution.

State Fish Commissioner M. E. Meehan, of Meadville, a few days ago gave out some important information in regard to stopping the pollution of the streams of the state. He says he attended a conference of tannerymen at Ridgway, and that representatives of the Elk Tanning Co., which controls about 50 tanneries in the state, and other large independent companies, and stated that efforts are being made to take care of acids and liquors so no pollution will occur.—DuBois Express.

Old Home Week At Punxsutawney

Interest Increases As the Event Draws Near—Great Crowd Is a Certainty.

There is every outward indication that at least 30,000 people will spend Old Home Week here. On every side at least a dozen times a day one hears the remark, "If other people are going to have as many visitors Old Home Week as we are, there will certainly be a crowd in town." And such is the case. There is scarcely a home in town that will not entertain from three to ten persons during the big week, and with those who come for the day Punxsutawney is likely to entertain at least 70,000 people during the week.

The amusement committee, as well as every other committee connected with the big doings, is making every effort to see that the visitors will be royally entertained. Furniture dealers are having a run on beds. Everybody in all the surrounding towns is talking "Old Home Week at Punxsutawney Spirit."

Clarion State Normal School.

Beautiful location, healthful surroundings, attractive home life, fine equipment, strong faculty, free tuition, excellent music department are some of the factors that have caused the Clarion State Normal School, Clarion, Pa., to practically double its attendance during the last few years. New dormitory ready for occupancy at the beginning of the fall term, Sept. 14. Write for catalog and information.

J. GEORGE BECHT, Principal.

Notice.

The West Reynoldsville school board will receive bids until September 7, 1909, for furnishing good mine run coal for the coming term; also, bids for janitor. The board reserves the right to reject any or all bids.
