

Subscription $1.00 per year in advance. C. A. STEPHENSON, Editor and Pub. WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 1, 1909.

Take A Kodak With You

KODAKS $5.00 to $111.50 BROWNIES $1.00 to $12.00

Let us show you how easy it is to make pictures the Kodak way. We do developing free of charge.

Stoke & Feicht Drug Company

A Little of Everything.

Parochial school begins this morning. Brookville fair September 14 to 17, inclusive.

The public schools of this borough open Monday of next week, Sept. 6.

Mrs. Susan Boyle, of Reynoldsville, has been granted a pension of $12.00 per month.

Regular preaching in the Presbyterian church next Sunday morning and evening.

Attend the Big Brookville Fair, Races and Firemen's Tournament Sept. 14, 15, 16 and 17, 1909.

James H. Spry moved from Aspinwall to Reynoldsville last week. We welcome him back to our town.

Dr. Benjamin, returned missionary from India, gave a very interesting talk in the Baptist church Sunday evening.

The Fraternal Order of Eagles of Reynoldsville will hold a basket picnic at Wishaw Park on Labor Day, Sept. 6.

Fred M. McEntire, who is employed at Homer City during his school vacation, spent Sunday at his home in this place.

Mrs. R. M. Matson died at her home in Brookville last Saturday from an attack of apoplexy. Funeral was held yesterday afternoon.

George B. Woodford and wife attended the John Kinnerman family reunion in Clearfield last week. They returned home the first of this week.

Dr. A. J. Meek, pastor of the Baptist church, who has been visiting in New Jersey, will return home this week and fill his pulpit next Sunday.

J. H. Hughes, wife and son, Clyde, Mrs. Ella Frederick and two children spent four or five days in Warren, Pa., returning home yesterday.

J. E. Keys, of Erdice, was in Reynoldsville on business a day last week and from here went to East Brady, where he will reside in the future.

Rev. John F. Black, pastor of the M. E. church, was called to North East Monday to conduct the funeral of a friend. Will return at noon to-day.

J. W. Sykes, of Roaring Branch, Pa., formerly superintendent of the tannery at this place, visited at home of his sister, Mrs. Howard Sipes, in this place last week.

W. E. Lucas, member of the firm of Lucas & Deible, plumbers, who have shops in Reynoldsville and Brookville, moved from this place to Brookville last week.

J. R. Whitesel and wife, of Bellwood, are visiting the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Davis, in West Reynoldsville. Mrs. Whitesel is recovering from a severe illness.

Williams Bros. will move their barber shop to the room formerly occupied by the Nolan Shoe store in the Nolan block. The room is now being fitted up for the barber shop.

Rev. John Mahew Fulton, D. D., of Philadelphia, will preach in the Reynoldsville Presbyterian church Sunday morning. All regular church services will be resumed Sunday.

Henry W. Herpel and wife, Harry Bryan and wife, Mrs. Byrd Stamey and the Kate Doverspike attended the Harvest Home picnic at Alois Park, Ridge, last Thursday.

PASTOR TO LEAVE.

Rev. S. W. Mitchell Will Enter Crozier Seminary at Chester.

Rev. S. Wallace Mitchell, who for the past year has worthily and acceptably filled the pastorate of Bethel Baptist church, expects to leave about September 10th for Chester, near Philadelphia, where he will enter Crozier Theological Seminary to further prepare himself for usefulness in his chosen calling.

Rev. Mitchell is one of our town boys, son of Mrs. Cora Mitchell of Grant street.

MINER'S BACK BROKEN.

Heavy Rock Fell on Francesco Buzzella Wednesday.

By fall of a large rock in one of the headings in Cascade mine on Wednesday morning Francesco Buzzella, an Italian miner, had his back broken and was otherwise seriously injured. The rock under which Buzzella was working was propped in a seemingly secure manner, but one of the props broke and a rock fell upon him.

Paralyzed by Fall of Rock. James Horner, a coal miner, was badly injured in the Veratone & Hibner mine at Fuller last Friday morning by a fall of rock.

H. J. Hughes, who had been in Reynoldsville two months, returned to Pittsburgh yesterday. Ezra Neff, who has been spending the summer vacation at his home in this place, will return to Girard College in Philadelphia the latter part of this week.

C. E. Miller, of Edenburg, Pa., and J. N. Barrett and wife, of Messena, N. Y., were visitors at home of E. C. Davis a couple of days last week.

Dr. J. B. Neff, superintendent of the Clarion District of the M. E. church, held the fourth quarterly conference for the Reynoldsville charge in the M. E. church at this place last Saturday evening and preached in the church Sunday morning.

Dr. A. H. Bowser, wife and son, Addison, and daughter, Mrs. Eugene Deible, attended the tenth annual Bowser reunion held in Kittanning yesterday. Mrs. Bowser and Mrs. Deible went to Fairmount City Monday afternoon and visited the former's brother, Dr. Fred J. Booth, until Tuesday morning.

Prof. J. R. Wilson, principal of the Reynoldsville high-school last year, will leave for Athens, Georgia, next week to enter the Forestry Department of the University of Georgia. Mr. Wilson expects to make a life profession of forestry and has chosen one of the leading colleges of the country in which to pursue his studies.

Mrs. Hettie C. Neff left here yesterday morning for Mesquite, New Mexico, to accept a position in the sewing room of the Indian school at that place. Mrs. Neff went to Ashland, Wis., last fall and spent nine months in the Indian school at that place, returning to her home in this place the first week in July on a vacation.

H. Alex Stoke and wife, who spent eight days at Camp Hackney, on the Conewango creek in Warren Co., Pa., and went from there to Buffalo, Niagara Falls, Thousand Islands, back to Buffalo and from there to Cleveland, Ohio, by boat and visited several places in Ohio, returned to Reynoldsville via Pittsburgh, Thursday evening.

First street, on both sides of Main street, has never been given much attention and was never filled up as it should have been, but council has instructed Street Commissioner Whitaker to fix up the street at that point and make it passable. Nine or ten large cars of cinders and ashes have been unloaded on the street. It will make an improvement on the appearance of the street. Railroad street, from Bradford street to Tenth, is also to be filled up and made passable.

The Reynoldsville Athletic and Phoenix ball club of DuBois played a game at Edgemont Park, near Falls Creek, on Wednesday afternoon of last week which resulted in a victory for the Reynoldsville boys. Score 9-8. The Athletic players were: Keagle s-p, DeHart 3b, Dacey c, Weaver 1b, Baum, cf, Shutt 2b, J. King lf, Taylor, rf, F. King p-s. This game was one of the events of Protected Home Circle picnic held at Edgemont Wednesday, which was attended by a number of Reynoldsville people.

Miss Sloan Elected.

The Reynoldsville school board elected Miss Alice Sloan, of Clarion, to teach in room No. 9, to fill vacancy made by resignation of Miss Edith Clark.

Golden Wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Bone, Sr., of Reynoldsville, will celebrate their golden wedding on Friday, September 10th. Invitations have been issued.

Married in Ohio.

Roy Foster, formerly of Reynoldsville, and Miss Martha McCullough, of Mt. Vernon, Ohio, were married at Mount Vernon, Ohio, August 9th, 1909. Mr. Foster is a son of Mrs. F. W. Grove of this place.

Will Move to Williamsport.

Harry F. Lavo, bricklayer, who has resided in Reynoldsville several years, will move to Williamsport the first of October. Mr. and Mrs. Lavo have many friends here who will be sorry to see them move away.

Last Sunday Before Conference.

Rev. John F. Black, pastor of the M. E. church, will close up his first year next Sunday as pastor of this church and will go to Fredonia, N. Y., the first of next week to attend annual conference. Rev. Black has been very successful in his first year's work here.

Right Kidney Removed.

George Hartman, who was in the John Hopkins Hospital in Baltimore, Md., nine weeks, returned to this place last Thursday. Mr. Hartman had to undergo an operation. His right kidney was removed. He is improving nicely and expects to be able to go to work in a couple of weeks.

Two Elected—One Resigned.

The Winslow township school board met Saturday and elected two teachers to fill vacancies. M. C. Calhoun was elected for Rathmel schools and Miss Anna Cooper for Dean No. 2. Guy Dietrick, who was to have been principal of Big Soldier schools, resigned and the school board has not secured a teacher yet for that position.

Old Folks' Day.

The annual 'Old Folks' Day' service will be held in the M. E. church at 11.00 a. m. next Sunday. The Epworth League has charge of this service and will send invitations to all the old people in Reynoldsville. As has been the custom, carriages will be provided for those who are not able to walk to and from the church. Rev. John F. Black will preach a special sermon.

Blood Poison from Corn.

M. H. Caldwell, of this place, has received word that his brother, J. R. Caldwell, of Indiana, Pa., had his right leg amputated last week on account of blood poisoning, which came from a corn on one of his toes. What makes this case doubly sad is the fact that two years ago Mr. Caldwell had his left leg amputated on account of blood poisoning. Besides having both legs amputated he has a badly crippled hand.

Stopped Too Suddenly.

W. Harry Moore, the groceryman, is hobbling around on crutches on account of a sprained ankle. Last Thursday Mr. Moore was at his new brick building, now being erected, and he stepped on to an elevator, which is used for taking brick up to top of building, and the elevator dropped. The descent was not too swift for Mr. Moore, but the sudden stop was too much for him and when he gathered himself up his left ankle was badly sprained.

Fell Off Trolley Car.

Dr. B. E. Hoover, dentist, of this place, was badly bruised and had a narrow escape from fatal injury last Wednesday night by falling off a trolley car at Sixth street. Doctor was returning from Punxsutawney and the car was packed. He was in the baggage end of car and when near Sixth street he stepped over the seat that runs along the side door of car to be ready to jump off when car stopped at Sixth street, but his foot slipped, he lost his hold on side of car and fell on the brick paved street. The left side of his face was badly bruised and he received a number of other bruises.

New Law Partnership.

William T. Darr, Esq., and ex-Prothonotary Cyrus H. Blood, of Brookville, have announced the formation of a partnership for the general practice of law, under the firm name of Darr & Blood, with offices in Canning building, opposite Commercial hotel. Neither of these well known gentlemen require an introduction to the people of Jefferson county and we bespeak for them success in their new relation. Mr. Blood has been enjoying a well earned rest since his retirement from the arduous duties of the Prothonotary's office on January 1st. His many friends will be delighted to learn of this partnership, which insures his remaining a citizen of Brookville.—Brookville Republican.

Committee No. 2 of the Ladies Work Society will hold a market in C. R. Hall's store Saturday afternoon, Sept. 4th.

Now is the time to do your roofing. Red Cedar shingles galore at the Woodward Supply Co. storage.

AN OLD CITIZEN GONE.

John O'Conner Died at His Home on Mabel St. Friday Afternoon.

John O'Conner, who moved to Reynoldsville in 1871, when the Low Grade railroad was being constructed, died at his home on Mabel street at 4.30 p. m., August 27, 1909, from a complication of diseases. He had been an invalid four years. He was badly injured in a coal mine about fifteen years ago and never had very good health after that.

John O'Conner was born in County Caven, Ireland, August 16, 1824, and was 85 years and 11 days old at time of death. February 7, 1852, was united in marriage to Mary Brady, who survives him. They came to America in 1864 and moved to Reynoldsville in 1871. Unto Mr. and Mrs. O'Conner nine children were born, five of whom, with the widow, survive deceased and are: John B. O'Conner, of Reynoldsville, Thomas O'Conner, of Youngsville, Pa., Mrs. R. V. Siple, of Reynoldsville, Frances and Anna at home.

Funeral service was held in the Catholic church at 9.00 a. m. Monday and interment was made in the Catholic cemetery.

To Our Lady Patrons.

We wish to announce to you that we have secured the agency for the American Ladies' Tailoring Co., of Chicago, Ill., and have now on display at our store their complete portfolio of fabrics and fashions, showing 180 samples of cloth (all of them in vogue this fall) which can be made up in 24 separate styles of suits, 18 styles of skirts and 12 styles of coats, and every garment cut to individual measurement and a fit guaranteed at prices that are lower than the ready-to-wear garments, quality and workmanship considered. Glance over these prices then come in and inspect the portfolio: Suits from $15.00 to $50.00. Separate Jackets from $9.00 to $32.00. Separate Coats from $8.25 to $30.00. Separate Skirts from $5.50 to $21.50. Yours respectfully, BING STROKE CO.

Important Missionary Meeting.

The monthly business meeting and supper of the Foreign Missionary Society of the M. E. church will be held at the home of Mrs. Thomas Jewell on Main street on Friday afternoon of this week. This will be a very important meeting and every member of the society is urgently requested to be present. Officers will be elected and the articles will be given the missionary that goes out from Reynoldsville. Business meeting at 3.00 p. m. and supper at 6.00. Husbands invited for supper.

K. of P. Picnic.

The Knights of Pythias basket picnic will be held at Alahoe Park, near Big Run, on Labor Day, Sept. 6. The street car leaving Reynoldsville at 8.10 a. m. will make connection with a special train of the B. & S. R. R. Train will leave park at 7.00 p. m. Fare from Sykesville to park and return will be 35 cents. All knights and their families, with invited friends, welcome.

Money Making Scheme.

It is reported that fellows are traveling around claiming to be taking census and they are followed in a day or two by others who have obituary cards filled out with birth and death of deceased members of families which they want to sell at a big profit. It is a money making scheme.

Operation for Appendicitis.

C. Grant Rhoads, of this place, was operated on at the Adrian Hospital in Punxsutawney yesterday for appendicitis. The operation was successful and Mr. Rhoads is getting along as well as could be expected.

Brick Contract Let.

Theodore Cook, of Sigel, has been given the contract for the brick work on M. M. Fisher's new theatre. The bricklayers are to begin work on Monday of next week.

Did your child complain of headache or do poor work in school last term? Its eyes may be at fault. Have them examined by Gibson, optician. See adv. and dates in this paper.

Special prices on all oxfords at Adam's.

If you want to vote at the fall election and have not been registered you must attend to it to-day. This is the last day to register.

Ladies' oxfords in all lines at cut prices at Adam's.

The Jefferson County Agricultural Society has our thanks for a complimentary ticket for the big fair and agricultural exhibit in Brookville September 14, 15, 16 and 17.

A ladies' tan oxford suede top was $3.50 now $2.98 at Adam's.

The postoffice at Beechtree was discontinued August 31st. The people of that section will get their mail by rural route from Brookwayville.

Some men's $5.00 oxfords that are wonders for the price $3.23. Adam Shoe Co.

Men's oxfords at special prices at Adam's.

THE PEOPLE WHO ARE PASSING TO AND FRO.

Miss Naomi Mitchell is in Philadelphia.

Mrs. C. R. Hall is in Pittsburgh this week.

J. W. Gillespie and wife spent Sunday in Punxsutawney.

Mrs. John M. Hays, milliner, is in Pittsburgh this week.

Miss Helena Black spent Sunday with a sister at Tyler.

Thomas M. Jewell visited in Dayton, Armstrong Co., last week.

Mrs. J. R. Milliren and two daughters visited in DuBois Friday.

Charles H. Aimen, of Vandergrift, was a visitor in town last week.

W. B. Hoffman and wife were in East Brady and Pittsburgh last week.

Robert Z. Parrish and wife visited in Westville the first of this week.

R. M. Bonner and wife, of Clearfield, spent Sunday with relatives here.

Mrs. B. Taylor, of Port Allegheny, is the guest of Mrs. F. W. Grove.

I. Horwitz, one of our merchants, was in Kersey, Elk Co., last week.

Miss Jeanne Mitchell, of Sagamore, is the guest of Miss Julia Repsher.

Miss Emma Rhoden, of Wilkesbarre, is visiting her mother in this place.

Wade Brakey, of Stanton, formerly of this place, was in town yesterday.

Charles Beatty, of Kane, was a visitor at home of S. T. Reynolds last week.

Archie Huntington and wife, of Clymer, were visitors in town last week.

Merl Mohney, of Driftwood, spent Sunday with his parents at Emerickville.

Miss Mabel Long, of Indiana, is visiting Miss Theresa Burns on Grant street.

Harry C. Herpel and wife, of Monessen, are visiting their parents in this place.

Mrs. C. P. Schultze and children, of Iselin, visited in Reynoldsville the past week.

R. E. Hogue went to Kittanning Monday, where he has accepted a position.

Miss May Moore, of Rathmel, went to Leechburg yesterday to spend the winter.

Misses Irene Johnston and Minnie Woodring visited in Brookville the past week.

Miss Clara Rhoden, of Wilkesbarre, visited her mother in this place the past week.

Miss Aida Baum left here Monday on a two weeks' visit in New Kensington and Indiana.

Mrs. H. C. Richards, of Johnsonburg, is visiting her parents, Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Foust.

Miss Annie Lingenfelter is spending this week at Atlantic City, N. J., and Altoona, Pa.

Mrs. Orin N. Pair, of Mt. Jewett, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Myers.

P. H. Smith, of Sharon, several years ago a baker in Reynoldsville, visited in town last week.

Mrs. Jennie Resler and son, Ralph, of DuBois, visited at home of C. G. Rhoads Saturday.

Mrs. N. Hanau returned yesterday morning from a visit in Philadelphia and Atlantic City.

Miss Verna Tussey, of Kane, who was the guest of Miss Minetta Fuller, returned home Monday.

Mrs. Imogene A. Reynolds, of Warren, was the guest of Mrs. C. A. Stephenson over Sunday.

Miss Fannie Alexander returned Monday evening from a four weeks' visit at Hastings, Pa.

Mrs. W. W. Davie, of DuBois, is visiting her sister, Mrs. M. J. Riggs, in West Reynoldsville.

Misses Clara and Frances Aaron, of Brookville, were guests of Miss Jessie Shannon, over Sunday.

Miss Elizabeth Yuengert, of West Reynoldsville, visited her two brothers in Butler the past week.

Miss Inez Snyder, of Brookville, is visiting at homes of her uncles, L. M. and A. Z. Snyder, this week.

Mrs. Kate Hindman and son, Will, of Clarion, spent Sunday at home of R. H. Wilson, on Grant street.

Mrs. T. V. Malloy, of New Castle, who was visiting her parents in this place, returned home Monday.

Earl Dempsey and wife, of Dents Run, Pa., visited the former's father in West Reynoldsville last week.

Mrs. C. N. Lewis and son, Roland, visited the former's mother in Emerickville several days the past week.

Mrs. Ezekiel Sterrett, of Beechwoods, visited her niece, Mrs. V. C. Freas, in this place several days last week.

Miss Sadie Bronnas, trimmer for Mrs. S. V. Hays, is in Pittsburgh learning the latest styles in millinery.

Mrs. Howard Clark and daughter, Miss Elizabeth Clark, were guests of Mrs. J. R. Milliren over Sunday.

Eugene Murray, who has been in the eastern part of the state a couple of months, returned home yesterday.

Frank King, who spent the summer vacation at his home in this place, returned to State College Monday.

John M. Coleman, of Iselin, Pa., visited at home of his parents in this place several days the past week.

Albert Gooder and three sons, of Brookville, visited the former's brother, Ed. Gooder, in this place Friday.

Rev. and Mrs. A. D. McKay returned yesterday from a visit in Ohio and Rev. McKay will fill his pulpit next Sunday.

George Pentz, of Altoona, is visiting his brother and sister, Joseph Pentz and Mrs. M. J. Sprague, on Grant st.

Mrs. Margaret Mitchell and two daughters, Cora and Ruth, visited in New Bethlehem during the past week.

Miss Rose Aaron, of South Sharon, visited her aunt, Mrs. G. R. Yuesgort, in West Reynoldsville the past week.

Miss Clara Anderson went to Pittsburgh yesterday to enter the West Penn Hospital to become a trained nurse.

Mrs. Cora Thomas, of Johnstown, and Miss Floy Stiles, of Ebensburg, were visitors at home of J. B. Ross last week.

Mrs. Jane Haskins left here last Friday for a two months' visit with a sister, Mrs. John Goodwill, at Edmore, North Dakota.

Misses Jessie Rhoads and Mollie McAninch, of Brookville, visited the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Rhoads, Saturday.

Ex-Commissioner Al. Hawk and wife, of Brookville, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Scott in West Reynoldsville last Thursday.

Mrs. M. J. Farrell and grandson, Vincent Malloy, will go to New Castle, Pa., to-day where Mrs. Farrell will visit for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. John McBride, of Washington, D. C., visited Mr. and Mrs. John S. Smith on Tenth street Sunday. Mr. Smith is ill.

Mrs. L. P. Miller, milliner, went to Pittsburgh on business yesterday. She was accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. P. L. Smith, of Punxsutawney.

Samuel Bond and wife, George H. Mundorf, wife and children, of DuBois, were visitors in town Sunday. They came down in Mr. Bond's automobile.

Miss Margaret Stoke, clerk in the Stoke & Feicht Drug Co. store, left here the first of this week to visit in Bluffs, Altoona and West Newton, Pa.

Mrs. J. A. Armagost and sons, Albert and Ardelia, are at East Brady this week to attend the funeral of Belle Montgomery, which took place yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Fleeb, of Wilkesburg, who were married Saturday, August 21st, were guests of Miss Olive Reynolds last week, while out on a wedding trip.

Miss Lydia Mellinger, who spent the summer at her home in this place, returned to Miles City, Montana, last week, where she has been teaching for several years.

Mrs. L. C. Tweedy, of Empson, Kan., who had visited three months with her sister, Mrs. M. J. Riggs, and other sisters near here, started for her home yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. Samuel Resler is visiting her son, Homer R. Resler, and a sister at Johnstown. She will return home via Pittsburgh and visit a brother and sister who reside in that city.

J. B. Nichols, wife and two daughters, Joan and Margaret, of Indiana, Pa., formerly of Reynoldsville, visited at home of Mrs. Nichols' brother, Curt North, near Panic, last week. Mr. Nichols was in town Thursday.

Miss Anna Fleming, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac C. Fleming, of Emerickville, and sister of Mrs. Robert Z. Parrish, of this place, left here last Friday for Woodside, Montana, where she will teach school.

Miss Elvæ Best, who is a clerk in the ladies suit department of Strawbridge and Clothier's large department stores in Philadelphia, has returned to that city after a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank R. Best, in this place.

Misses Edith M. and Gertrude Snyder, of Brookville, Darwan Beck, of Johnsonburg, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Anderson, of Summerville, and Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Scott, of Brookville, visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Snyder, on Jackson street during the past week.

Miss Anna Bohren, of this place, has been visiting Misses Nellie and Pauline Burgoyne in Buffalo, N. Y., the past two weeks. Miss Bohren has been the honored guest at several parties and excursion trips. Mrs. D. J. Burgoyne, two daughters and Miss Bohren spent several days at Thousand Islands.