Pheasants Plenty.

Game Warden Hummelsbaugh, of Clearfield, is given authority for the statement that there would be an abundance of game this fall, especially pheasants. His explanation is that these birds were not killed off in any great numbers last year, due largely to the fact that the woods were so dry that the hunters could not approach very close to them. Another fact that contributed to their immunity from death was that the leaves remained on the trees for such a long time that it was the fall end of the season before they fell and pheasant hunters could not see any distance ahead of them.

Alphabet List School Children in the Prevention of Tuberculosis.

A is for Anybody who can help prevent consumption, a child as well as a grown person.
B is for Breathing, which you should learn to do deeply. Take deep breaths in fresh open air.
C is for Coughing, which you should never do in anyone's face, nor should you sneeze in anyone's face. Turn away your head and hold your hand before your mouth.

D is for Don't. Don't swap apple cores, candy, chewing gum, half eaten food, whistles, bean blowers, or anything you put in your mouth.
E is for Eating no fruit that has not been washed or peeled, or anything that is not clean.

F is for Fingers, which should not be put in the mouth nor wet to turn the pages of books.

G is for Giving good example to your fellow pupils and playmates by being always neat and clean, just as much so at home as at school.

H is for Handkerchief, which should be used only to wipe your nose and not your slate, desk or shoes.

I is for Illness of other kinds besides consumption, which following these rules will help to prevent, such as colds, measles, grippe, diphtheria and pneumonia.

J is for Joints, where children have tuberculosis more often than in their lungs.

K is for keeping your fingernails clean. A scratch from a finger nail may make a bad sore.

L is for Learning to love fresh air, and not for learning to smoke.

M is for Mouth, which is meant to put food and drink into, and not for pins and money, or anything not good to eat in it.

N is for Nose, which you should never pick nor wipe on your hand or sleeve.

O is for Outdoors, where you should stay just as much as much as you can.

P is for Pencils, which you should not wet in your mouth to make them write blacker.

Q is for Question, which you should ask the teacher if you don't understand all these rules.

R is for Roughness in play by which you may hurt yourself or your comrades. If you have cut yourself, have been hurt by others, or feel sick, don't fear to tell the teacher.

S is for Spitting, which should never be done except in a spittoon, or a piece of cloth or handkerchief used for that purpose alone. Never spit on a slate, on the floor, the playground, nor the sidewalk.

T is for Teeth, which you should clean with toothbrush and water after each meal, or when you get up in the morning and before you go to bed at night.

U is for Unkind, which you should never be to a consumptive.

V is for Vessels, like drinking cups and glasses, which should not be used by one child after another without being washed in clean water each time.

W is for Washing your hands with soap and water before each meal, even if it is only lunch.

X is for X-rays, which sometimes help to discover consumption or other forms of tuberculosis.

Y is for You who should never kiss anyone on the mouth, nor allow them to do so to you.

Z is for Zeal in carrying out these rules.—DR. S. ADOLPHUS KNOPF, New York Post-Graduate Medical School and Hospital.

The Lurid Glow of Doom

Was seen in the red face, hands and body of the little son of H. M. Adams, of Henrietta, Pa. His awful plight from eczema had, for five years, defied all remedies and baffled the best doctors, who said that the poisoned blood had affected his lungs and nothing could save him. "But," writes his mother, "seven bottles of Electric Bitters completely cured him." For eruptions, eczema, salt rheum, sores and all blood disorders and rheumatism Electric Bitters is supreme. Only 50c. Guaranteed by H. L. McEntire.

Don't Expect Too Much.

It is not infrequent that newspapers find themselves unappreciated by the men whom they have favored by their support, column after column being published in their favor, and yet such favors, when the test comes are unappreciated. When you find your home paper taking no interest in you or your success, when you find it keeping aggravatingly silent when you think the editor should be tearing his linen in your behalf, do not worry yourself in a fever of anxiety as to the cause, but just ask yourself wherein have you placed the paper and its editor under obligations to use space and energy for you.—Exchange.

Notice to all Dealers and Traders of Every Kind.

You are hereby forbidden and warned against giving any one credit on my account, as I will pay no bills unless ordered by myself. G. W. FULLER.

J. F. & C. Excursion.

The excursion of General Charles Miller over the Franklin & Clearfield railroad Saturday afternoon was a great success. There were 264 people aboard the four special coaches brought here from Youngstown. These included the Galena-Signal experts, the members of the office force and their wives and a few invited friends. The train went through to the end of the line at Rose Siding, where the connection is made with the Low Grade Division of the Pennsylvania road. Stops were made at the principal points of interest and the excursionists given an opportunity to view the magnificent scenery. It seemed to be the unanimous opinion that the view from the Welsh run viaduct was the most beautiful, though that from the Clarion river bridge is a close second. Much interest was shown, also, in the road as it circles Shippenville. This has already unofficially been named the "Horseshoe Curve."

General Miller didn't overlook anything that would add to the pleasure and convenience of his guests and assisted personally in making the trip enjoyable. Ginger ale and sandwiches were served on the train.—Franklin Evening News.
