W. C. Euler is opening a ladies' dining room in a building near the public fountain at corner of Main and Fifth streets. Will also handle fish, oysters, etc.

Rev. J. E. Allgood, pastor of the M. E. church at Big Run, preached an excellent sermon in the M. E. church at this place last Sunday morning.

Bricklayers began work Monday morning laying brick on the new building. P. McDonald is erecting on Main street, next to Stoke & Feicht Drug store.

Large Congregation Present—An Interesting Meeting—Good Addresses. The Presbyterian Brotherhood rally in the Presbyterian church Sunday evening was attended by a large congregation, and it was a splendid rally. There were two addresses and they were both excellent. Prof. W. M. Rife, superintendent of the public schools of Reynoldsville, and Hon. John W. Reed, of Brookville, president judge of the Jefferson county courts, were the speakers. Prof. Rife's subject was "The Fraternal Tie," and Judge Reed's subject was "The Three Wise Men from the East."

School Notes. The high school has organized for the football season with the following officers: Manager, Prof. Hawk; assistant manager, George Smith; captain, Dominic Nolan.

Prof. Rife has engaged a fine line of talent for this season's lecture course. It includes Victor's Band, October 27; Judge George D. Alden, December 9; the Opbean Musical Club, January 14; the Italian Boys and Elbert Foland (musical and literary), February 16; Hon. Robert L. Taylor, of Tennessee, March 15.

In the game law published in THE STAR two weeks ago it was stated that a hunter could only kill twenty pheasants in a season. The law allows you to kill fifty in a season.

The bright star to be seen in the eastern part of the heavens these nights is what some of the scientists call the Star of Bethlehem. This star only comes around once in about 500 years.

There was a small blaze on back porch of W. B. Hoffman's residence Sunday. A couple of buckets of water extinguished the fire. A small boy with matches and a candle in cigar box was cause of the fire.

Naturalization court was held in Brookville yesterday. All the applicants were not granted naturalization papers. It is not so easy to become a citizen of the United States under the new law as it was under the old law.

A. F. Hoy, a lawyer of Clarion who was a member of the B. P. O. E. No. 519 of Reynoldsville, died at 2.30 p. m. Monday, September 20. Funeral at 2.30 p. m. to-day. Members of the lodge from this place, Brookville and New Bethlehem will attend the funeral.

Flying airships is attracting the attention of small boys just now. A piece of paper turned up at sides, piece of muslin on end for a tail and a liberal supply of cord is all that is necessary. Six months ago the boys would not have objected to having called the contrivance a kite, but now they object. It's an airship.

Dr. J. Bell Neff, of DuBois, who has entered the second year as superintendent of the Clarion district of the Methodist Episcopal church, preached an able and very interesting sermon in the M. E. church at this place last Sunday evening before a large congregation. Dr. Neff is a bright man and the people here are always glad to hear him preach.

We received a letter Monday from Sol Friedman, former merchant of this place, who is now located at Pueblo, Col., in which he says: "I am not sorry for leaving Reynoldsville, business has been very good with me, but would like to see my Reynoldsville friends again. On my next trip to New York I expect to stop in Reynoldsville to see all my friends."

The government has issued orders to the effect that hereafter you can mark your letters simply "R. D.," when they are destined for rural routes, dropping the "F." heretofore used. It will now be simply rural delivery in place of rural free delivery. The service has become so general that there is no longer need of using the term "free." Everybody now knows it is free.

Reynoldsville, West Reynoldsville and Winslow township school districts have received the state appropriation for this year, not including the high school fund, which will be received later. Each district received following amounts: Reynoldsville $3,531.29; West Reynoldsville, $1,008.80; Winslow township, $4,861.47.

Discharged and Enlisted Again. I. A. Sprague, son of Ed. G. Sprague, of Emerickville, who served four years in the U. S. Navy and was honorably discharged Aug. 23rd, has re-enlisted for another four years. He visited his aunt, Mrs. B. E. Hoover, in this place Sunday and went to Pittsburgh Monday. He expects to go on the cruiser New York, same ship his cousin, Arthur Phillippi, is on.

Auto Crippled. Monday evening John O'Hare took his family out in his automobile for a drive to Luthersburg, returning via DuBois and Falls Creek. After the trip Mr. O'Hare was turning the auto on Main street when the rear axle on left side of auto broke off. Had the axle broke while Mr. O'Hare and family were speeding along the result might have been serious.

Boy Wirewalker Missing. A dispatch from Kittanning to Pittsburgh papers yesterday states that Fred Cunningham, of Kittanning, a high wire performer, has mysteriously disappeared and relatives fear foul play. Last Wednesday the boy wired his father at Kittanning that he was on his way from York, Pa. Since that time nothing has been heard from him. This is the boy that did the high wire performance at Reynoldsville during "Old Home Week"—two years ago.

Bottle Factory to Resume. The Brockway Machine Bottle factory will start next week for the coming winter's run. Fires have been lighted and Tuesday or Wednesday of next week will see the plant working its full capacity. Six machines will be in operation, and about the same corps of workmen are expected to be present at the opening and continue with the company during the season. During the summer suspension of the factory everything has been overhauled and gotten into good working order, and the outlook is good for the coming season to have a prosperous year.—Brookwayville Record.

Reception Friday Evening. On Friday evening of this week, September 24, a reception will be given in the Methodist Episcopal church for Rev. and Mrs. John F. Black. A reception committee will be in the Sunday school room at 7.45 to receive the people and they are to pass on from Sunday school room into the auditorium, where a short program will be rendered, after which a light lunch will be served and everybody is supposed to be social. The main feature of the reception is the social part. All members of the church and congregation are invited and requested to attend the reception. The men's Sunday school Bible class, of which Rev. Black is teacher, has charge of the reception.

Sure 'Coon Hunt. Lawyer Smith M. McCreight and Excusable Perry B. Love, of Reynoldsville, and a half dozen gentlemen from Sykesville and other places, were participants in a 'coon hunt on the Thomas McCreight homestead in Paradise Monday night. After tramping around a couple of hours hunting 'coons about midnight they found a nice juicy, well cooked 'coon on the dining room table at the McCreight home. Some person, with better luck than this bunch of 'coon hunters, had captured a 'coon a couple of days before the night of the hunt, otherwise the hunters would not have eaten 'coon Monday night. Fried chicken and other choice and palatable dishes were provided to make a delightful and very enjoyable feast for the 'coon hunters.

An Editor Married. At eight o'clock on Wednesday evening, September 15, Otto J. Nupp, editor and publisher of the Post-Dispatch, and a general news dealer of Sykesville, was married to Miss Ida May Fillhart, one of Henderson Township's most charming ladies, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Fillhart, parents of bride. Rev. Dr. A. J. Meek, of Reynoldsville, performed the ceremony, assisted by Rev. S. Wallace Mitchell. Fifty guests were present. We understand that the bride is an accomplished daughter of one of the foremost and most highly respected families of Henderson township.

Mr. Nupp is a bright and promising young man. He is full of push and energy, and is certainly a hustler. The editor of THE STAR joins most heartily with their host of friends in wishing Mr. and Mrs. Otto J. Nupp a long, happy and prosperous journey on this mundane sphere.

Stoke & Feicht Drug Co. have a famous prescription called Mf-o-na which they will guarantee to cure any case of indigestion, or money back. Relieves stomach distress in five minutes. 50c a large box.

Rev. S. W. Mitchell Preaches Farewell Sermon at Sykesville. Rev. S. Wallace Mitchell, son of Mrs. Cora Mitchell, of Reynoldsville, who was pastor of the Bethel Baptist church at Sykesville a year, resigned his pastorate several weeks ago and preached his farewell sermon last Sunday evening. He resigned at Sykesville to take a course in the Crozier Theological Seminary at Chester, Pa. The Sykesville Post-Dispatch in speaking of Rev. Mitchell's work as pastor of the Bethel church says:

"Rev. Mitchell's pastorate of the Bethel church has been markedly successful. During his pastorate thirty-five new members have been added to the church, the Sunday school has been increased in membership, the B. Y. P. U. has been revived and the finances of the church have been put on a better footing than for many a year. In addition to this, Rev. Mitchell has gained many friends through his social qualities and he will be sadly missed, not only by his congregation, but by the community in general."

Mr. Mitchell left here on the early train yesterday morning for Chester, Pa., to enter the Crozier Theological Seminary.

Brakeman Stepped Off Into Space. Jesse Wayland, a B. R. & P. brakeman residing at Reynoldsville, was quite severely injured last Wednesday near Carmen when he stepped off his train and instead of striking terra firma as expected, hit space and travelled down into a small stream about twenty feet below.

The train on which he was working parted going up the hill and portion on which Wayland was riding stopped on a bridge. Wayland jumped off to investigate the trouble, but ran into plenty of it himself. In falling he yelled and attracted the attention of the train crew. The injured man was picked up and taken to Ridgway, where it was found he had a bad scalp wound, probable fracture of the right elbow and bruises on the back.—DuBois Express.

Smitten-McCreight. Miss Orrei E. McCreight, of this place, and S. Hunter Smitten, of Pittsburgh, were married at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Warnick, on Main street, at 1.30 p. m. Thursday, September 16, 1909. Rev. A. D. McKay, pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Reynoldsville, performed the wedding ceremony. Only immediate relatives were present. Mr. and Mrs. Smitten, Henry Shields and Miss Angus Warnick drove to DuBois soon after the wedding and Mr. Smitten and bride went to Pittsburgh on the train that passes through here at 4.38 p. m. They will reside in Pittsburgh.

New Dental Office. Dr. D. Roy Eisenhuth, who conducted a dental office in this place a year ago for a few months, has decided to locate here permanently and next Wednesday will open in the Estes and Long building. Dr. Eisenhuth graduated last spring from Philadelphia Dental College and is thoroughly equipped in every branch of the dental profession. Those who patronized his last year speak highly of his ability and we are sure that he will be able to develop a successful practice here.—Sykesville Post-Dispatch.
