The High School football team tried to break a game here last Saturday, but did not succeed in doing so.

Thursday, October 21, 1909, a daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Davis. The infant weighed 12 1/2 pounds.

Hon. S. B. Elliott, of this place, lectured on forestry in the public school at Punxsutawney last Friday—Arbor Day.

Mrs. Harriet Morrow and daughter, Mrs. K. C. Schuckers, gave a fancy work party at home of Mrs. Morrow yesterday afternoon.

The fall session of the M. E. Clarion District Conference was held in the Methodist church at Big Run Monday and Tuesday of this week.

A professional dog catcher named Elymiller is at work in DuBois. Friday evening he executed nine dogs that he picked up on the streets of DuBois.

The first quarterly conference of present conference year was held in the M. E. church last Friday evening. Dr. J. Bell Neff, District Superintendent, presided.

Rev. A. D. McKay was called into state of Iowa last week on business and Rev. S. G. Palmer, of Big Run, preached in the Presbyterian church in this place Sunday.

One of the old comrades who attended the reunion of the 106th regiment at Punxsutawney last Thursday, says there was only one flag hung out in the entire town that day.

A resident of West Reynoldsville, who lives on the outskirts of town and whose chickens get out in the woods nearby, claims that hunters have been killing his spring chickens.

Lon Pantall, a prominent ex-banker of Punxsutawney, died last Wednesday evening from Bright's disease. He was the son of Theof. Pantall and was born on a farm near Punxsutawney forty-six years ago.

J. K. Neil and family have removed to Reynoldsville where they expect to make their future home. After long residence here they carry the best wishes of their friends to their new home.—Big Run Tribune.

Miss Vina Harris ran a needle into her right hand a week ago and on Sunday a doctor had to cut into the hand a half inch to get the needle, or half needle, out of her hand. The needle had gone into hand head first.

Carl Kirk, who has charge of the state forestry nursery at Penfield, spent Sunday at his home in this place and on Monday he gathered a bushel of seeds from the whitethorn tree in front of THE STAR office to plant in the state nursery.

FAREWELL RECEPTION.

Given in Honor of Miss Elsie Ross, Who Goes to India as a Missionary.

For the first time in the history of the Methodist Episcopal church of Reynoldsville, one of its members, Miss Elsie Ross, goes into the far east as a missionary. A number of young men have gone out from this church into the ministry, but Miss Ross is the first one to decide to take up the great work of a foreign missionary.

A large audience assembled in the auditorium of the church and at 8.30 the program that had been arranged was taken up. John T. Barkley, president of the Epworth League, presided.

Program: Singing missionary hymn by congregation; prayer by Rev. John F. Black; solo, Prof. A. H. Haskins; address by Harvey S. Deter as a representative of the League; selection by quartette, Messrs. A. H. Haskins, Robert Koehler, Misses Lizzie and Flora Northey; address by Mrs. B. A. Barrett, president of the Women's Foreign Missionary Society; address by Rev. J. F. Black, pastor of the church; solo, John Reddeliff; address by Dr. J. Bell Neff, superintendent of the Clarion District; address by Miss Elsie Ross. Every person on the program caught the spirit of the occasion and did splendidly.

After the program was completed the folding doors between the auditorium and Sunday school room were thrown open and an informal reception was held in the Sunday school room. Light refreshments were served by members of the League. It was a delightful social gathering.

To-day Miss Ross will say good bye to her loved ones and friends in Reynoldsville and go to Pittsburgh to attend a meeting and from there goes to New York City to complete all arrangements for her work in India and on November 6th the ship on which she starts on her long journey sails out of the harbor of New York.

School Notes.

Miss Lois Robinson substituted for Miss Robertson on Thursday afternoon and for Miss Sloan on Friday.

Mr. Springer, of Johnstown, was a school visitor last week.

Miss Edith Clark and Miss Lois Robinson have made contributions to the Alumni Laboratory Fund.

Rooms 4, 5, 6, 9, 11, 12 and 124 had no tardy pupils last week. Number tardy in the grades, 6. Number tardy in the high school, 7; total, 13.

On Monday morning an order was received from Prof. Steele, of the Clarion Normal School faculty, to hold a section of seats for his party for the concert to-night.

All members of the W. R. C. are requested to attend the meeting Thursday evening to arrange to go to Brookville.

The Epworth League will hold a masquerade social in the Red Men's hall Tuesday evening, Nov. 2. The League extends a special invitation to the other young peoples' organizations of the town.

Archibald Roybould is employed by I. D. Keiz, photographer, to solicit orders for crayon and pastel work, enlarging pictures and picture framing, therefore, people need not be afraid to give him orders and make payments to him for work.

The body of William Hughes, who was killed at Victor, Colorado, September 7, mention of which was made in THE STAR last week, will be exhumed and shipped to Kittanning, Pa., and buried in the family lot in the Kittanning cemetery.

The Winslow township school board found it necessary to open two more rooms in the township, one at Wishaw and one at Soldier. Miss Cora Milliren was elected to teach in the additional room at Wishaw and Miss Mary Hanson was given the additional room at Soldier.

Communion in the Presbyterian church next Sunday and there will be preparatory services Thursday and Friday evenings of this week. Rev. J. F. Black, pastor of M. E. church, will preach Thursday evening and Rev. J. B. Eakin, D. D., of Punxsutawney, will preach Friday evening.

The speakers at the Christian Endeavor rally in the Presbyterian church last Friday evening were Rev. A. J. Shurtle, of Reading, state secretary, Rev. R. A. Longenecker, of DuBois, president of County C. E. Union, and Rev. S. G. Palmer, of Big Run. The addresses were excellent. The choir furnished special music for the rally.

John Lowther, of Rimersburg, was married on Tuesday, October 19, 1909, to Miss Mame Reese, of Rimersburg. Mr. Lowther is well known by Kittanning people, he having been clerk at the Hotel Alexander for some time, while Mr. Stedford was proprietor of the same.—Kittanning Daily Leader. John Lowther, Jr., is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Lowther, formerly citizens of Reynoldsville.

SOLDIERS' MONUMENT FUND.

The Money Stringency Has Delayed the Work—Will Take Up Work in the Spring.

A number of months ago it was stated in THE STAR that the Women's Relief Corps of this place contemplated the erection of a large monument in honor and memory of the brave soldier boys that went out from this vicinity during the war between the north and the south. The ladies started a subscription to raise funds to carry out the worthy and commendable project they had undertaken, but the hard times struck our community about that time and those who had charge of the raising of the necessary funds wisely decided to let up on subscription work until the prosperity wagon comes this way and then the work will be taken up and a sufficient sum raised to erect a large and creditable monument.

What money has been collected is in a bank on interest. The ladies think they can take up the subscription work next spring.

Right Thigh Broken.

One day last week the four-year-old son of Davis Lewis, of this place, fell and broke his right thigh.

Accidental Shooting.

Ralph Carsons, of Camp Run, was fooling with a .22-calibre revolver several evenings ago and it was accidentally discharged. The bullet punctured Mr. Carsons' right foot.

Another Big Potato.

W. H. Barkhouse, who is farming the David Hetrick farm in Washington township, brought a potato to this office Saturday that weighed two pounds and ten ounces. It was a Carmine No. 2. This was the largest potato brought to THE STAR office this fall.

Struck by Lightning.

During the rain, hail, wind, thunder and lightning storm that struck this section last Thursday evening lightning struck the residence of J. J. Skehan on Grant street, but did little damage. The lightning ran down the chimney, scattered soot through the house and frightened the family.

Died Suddenly.

Daniel Kinder, some years ago a resident of Reynoldsville, died suddenly at his home in Beechwoods at eight o'clock Thursday morning, October 21st. Mr. Kinder was about fifty years old. His sudden death was caused by heart failure. Interment was made in the Beechwoods cemetery Saturday forenoon.

Request for Clothing, Etc.

There are a few families in town where there are children that cannot attend school because they do not have clothing to wear. Any persons in the town or community who have clothing, shoes, &c., which their children have grown out of, and the clothing is still good enough to wear, are requested to notify Constable W. W. Higgins and he will call for the articles and see that they are given to the families in need of them. No doubt there are a number of families who have dresses, suits, underwear, &c., that are too small for members of their own family who will gladly give such articles to children in need of them, and this is a good opportunity to place them where they will do good.

Rathmel Not Included.

Heretofore there has been four appointments for preaching services on the Sykesville charge of the M. E. church, including Sykesville, Paradise, Bollinger and Rathmel, but for lack of membership and financial support, says the Sykesville Post-Dispatch, the Rathmel appointment has been dropped and the Sykesville charge will embrace but three appointments, Sykesville, Paradise and Bollinger. By this change the Sykesville church will have preaching every Sunday evening and every other Sunday morning. The remaining services will be divided between Bollinger and Paradise, alternating morning and afternoon.

It is likely that if it is possible Dr. J. Bell Neff, district superintendent, will make some provision for occasional service at Rathmel.

Two Pigs Roasted Alive.

At 1.45 a. m. Sunday a pig pen owned by George Hughes on Fourth street was burned and two large pigs, that would weigh over 300 pounds each, were roasted alive. Mr. Hughes' children had a playhouse in one end of the pen and they had built a fire place with brick, on which was a boiler of water, and when ready to close the playhouse for the night they would pour the water on the fire. The children had a fire in the playhouse Saturday afternoon and evening, and as usual, had put the water on the fire, but evidently did not extinguish all the fire and it burned up again and set the pen on fire. When the fire was discovered Jay Hughes ran down and opened the door to get the pigs out, but the flames drove him back from the pen and he could see the pigs writhing in death struggle.

Everyone is invited to attend the masquerade in the Red Men's hall, Nov. 2, under auspices of Epworth League.

Poor Trolley Service.

A short item in last week's Post-Dispatch in regard to the poor trolley service, has provoked a great deal of discussion, all of which is condemnatory of the service rendered by the trolleys operating in this community. Our citizens are outspoken in their protests not only against the DuBois line, but also against the Jefferson Traction Company, which curtails its Sunday services so that the last car leaves Reynoldsville at nine o'clock. This proves decidedly inconvenient to those who wish to attend church in Reynoldsville and, as the trolley line has been granted a franchise as a public servitor and for public convenience, the people are beginning to awaken to the fact that they are not being served in an adequate manner consistent with the rights granted the company, which certainly charges a high enough rate for its fares between Sykesville and Reynoldsville.—Sykesville Post Dispatch.

Funeral of John Springer.

Mention was made in THE STAR last week that John Springer, a miner of Shawmut, died, at his home in Shawmut on Monday, October 18, from a stroke of paralysis, having been stricken while at work in the mines on the 14th inst.

Funeral service was held at late residence of Mr. Springer Thursday forenoon, conducted by Mr. Graybill, Presbyterian minister of St. Marv's, and the body was brought to Reynoldsville on the 1.28 p. m. train Thursday and taken to Beulah cemetery for interment. Rev. Graybill conducted service at cemetery.

Mr. Springer was born in Clarion county, Pa., May 7, 1854, and was 55 years, 5 months and 11 days old at time of his death. Quarter of a century ago he was united in marriage to Carrie Slagle, of Red Bank, who survives him. He is also survived by his aged mother, Mrs. Susan Springer, of Hawthorne, three brothers and two sisters, Harry Springer, of Hawthorn, John Springer, of Johnstown, Albert Springer, of Oak Ridge, Mrs. Calvin DeHart, of Reynoldsville, Mrs. William Wyant, of Lawsonham.

Deceased was a brother-in-law of Charles E. Jones, of Reynoldsville.

Can They Beat the Radish?

The Reynoldsville STAR of this week tells of a potato raised by a Washington township farmer that weighs two and one-half pounds, claiming that it has the record for weight thus far. THE STAR has evidently not seen the potatoes around Burnside, where tubers that only weigh two and a half pounds are considered only fair specimens. One farmer in that section has one that tips the scales at 4 1/2 pounds.—Punxsutawney Spirit.

They may beat our farmers raising large potatoes, but have they raised any 12 1/2 pound radishes over in that section, such as Groceriesman W. E. Stormer raised in his garden in Reynoldsville?

"The Haunted House."

Dr. Edward A. Ott, whose lecture before the Jefferson county teachers' institute last year was pronounced by many hearers to be the greatest lecture ever heard in the county, will lecture on the Y. M. C. A. course on Tuesday evening of next week, November 2nd. He will give on this occasion his lecture, "The Haunted House," the second of a trilogy of humorous and philosophical lectures of which "Sour Grapes," delivered last year, is the first. Seat sales open Monday morning, November 1st. Phone orders will receive attention. Reserved seats 50c. Call Brookville Y. M. C. A.

Red Cross Stamps.

It is stated that the Red Cross will endeavor this fall to sell 50,000 Red Cross Christmas and New Year's stamps. Already orders for the printing of 30,000,000 have been placed and shipments will be made November 1st. It is probable that more will be sold here this year than last, as this novel campaign for raising funds for the fighting of tuberculosis is better understood now by the people.

"I'd Rather Die, Doctor,

Than have my feet cut off," said M. L. Bingham, of Princeville, Ill., "but you'll die from gangrene (which had eaten away eight toes) if you don't," said all doctors. Instead he used Bucklen's Arnica Salve till wholly cured. Its cures of eczema, fever sores, boils, burns and piles astound the world. 25c at H. L. McEntire's.

Victor's Band.

Victor's Venetian Band at Assembly hall to-night. First number on the Public School lecture course. This band comes highly spoken of. A good entertainment can be expected to-night.

Notice to Taxpayers.

All county taxes and road and road improvement taxes not paid on or before November 1st, 1909, will have five per cent added. AMOS STROUSE, Collector of Winslow Township.

Horses Wanted.

We will be at Tapper's livery barn, Reynoldsville, on Friday, October 29, for the purpose of buying horses ranging in age from four to thirty years.

We buy good big horses, fair chunks and horses of any kind that grow, so they are in fair order. Fall is here and if you wish to sell your horses, bring them in; we will pay good prices for them. We buy more horses than any firm in Western Pennsylvania, and buy good as well as cheap ones, and pay spot cash for them. Remember when we advertise, we buy horses. Don't be afraid to bring in your horses as we will not make you a mean bid for them.

YOCKEY & WIANI.

Halloween Entertainment.
The annual Halloween entertainment and social of the Beechwoods high school will be held in the high school gymnasium Friday evening, October 29. This is an annual affair and always attracts a large crowd. The entertainment this year will consist of a play entitled "The Clug Family," in which fifty people will take part. The costumes are comical, the play humorous from start to finish, and a good entertainment is guaranteed. All are invited. Admission free. The entertainment will be followed by refreshments and an informal social.

Methodist Church.

Services for Sunday, October 31: Morning theme, All Things New; evening theme, A Good Grasp.
