D. Lawson Reed has resigned his position with the Jefferson Supply Company in this place and will leave here November 11 for Los Angeles, Cal. Mr. Reed spent several years in California and for the benefit of his health he finds it necessary to return to the western country. While in California before Lawson passed an examination for postal clerk on mail trains and he is to work for "Uncle Sam" when he gets back to Los Angeles.

Fourteen new country mines have recently been opened in the hills north and east of Rathmel and these private operations are giving employment to from sixty to seventy men at the present time, and may employ many more when fully developed. This will make a material difference in the prosperity of Rathmel during the next few years. All of the coal mined is disposed of to the J. & C. C. & I. Co. and with this unlimited market it is said that some of the fortunate citizens of Rathmel are clearing up several hundred dollars a month as a result of their enterprises.

PRETTY HOME WEDDING.

Prof. Thomas E. Dillman and Miss Emma Hoare the Happy Couple.

A very pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Hoare in Rathmel at 4 o'clock p. m. Saturday, October 30th, 1909, when their daughter, Miss Emma Hoare, was united in marriage to Prof. Thomas E. Dillman in the presence of fifty invited guests. Rev. John F. Black, pastor of the First M. E. church of Reynoldsville, performed the ceremony. John Reddecliff played the wedding march. Miss Catherine Dillman, sister of groom, was bridesmaid, and Richard Hoare, brother of bride, was best man. The bride was dressed in white. An excellent and bounteous wedding dinner was served. The bride received a number of pretty and useful presents.

Prof. Dillman, who is now principal of one of the ward schools in Altoona, was one of the instructors in the Reynoldsville high school last term, and it was during his stay here that he became acquainted with the young lady who is now Mrs. Dillman. The bride was one of the finest young ladies of Rathmel, and was highly esteemed by all who knew her.

VICTOR'S VENETIAN BAND.

First Number of the Public School Lecture Course—Fine Entertainment.

Assembly hall was filled last Wednesday evening to hear Victor's Venetian Band, the first number on the public school lecture course for this season. It is an organization of fine musicians and the large audience was highly pleased with the entertainment. Miss Caroline Lewis, soloist, is a sweet singer and she captivated the audience.

Football Game Last Saturday.

A football team from New Bethlehem was badly defeated by the Reynoldsville High School team on the grounds at this place last Saturday. The score was 36-0. It was a case where the visitors went down to defeat, because they were outclassed in playing the game. The High School team has been playing fast ball this season.

Lad Killed While Hunting.

Francis Kroft, aged 13 years, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Croft, of DuBois, went hunting Monday morning with his father and another man and during the forenoon the gun of the friend of Kroft was accidentally discharged and the shot entered the boy's abdomen. The boy died in the DuBois hospital at midnight Monday.

Largest Potato of All.

In one of the windows of Robinson & Mundorf's feed store will be seen a potato that beats all other potatoes in weight that has been brought into Reynoldsville this fall. The potato weighs three pounds and four ounces. It was raised on the John M. Syphrit farm in Winslow township, which is being worked by Joseph Dickey. The potato is of the "Dewey" variety.

Foreigners Not to Carry Guns.

As a result of the vigilance of Game Warden Charles Scott, of this place, several foreigners who have been violating the law in regard to owning firearms, have been apprehended. One foreigner was fined $25.00 last week and his gun was confiscated and will be sent to Harrisburg, just as other game wardens are doing with firearms found in possession of foreigners at other places. This fellow thought the gun should have been returned to him after he paid the fine, but the law does not permit foreigners to carry or own guns or firearms of any kind, and any who violate the law by carrying firearms may be expected to be arrested and fined at any time.

Reception and Miscellaneous Shower.

George White, one of our highly esteemed young men, who hied away to Watsonville, Cal., last month, where he was united in marriage to Miss Bertha Dempsey, oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Dempsey, on Thursday, October 21, arrived in Reynoldsville on 27th ult. with his bride. Mrs. White formerly resided in Reynoldsville, her parents moving to California six years ago, and is well known and highly esteemed by a large circle of friends in Reynoldsville.

Monday evening of this week Misses Lizzie and Flora Northey and Mrs. Harvey S. Deter gave a reception and miscellaneous shower for Mr. and Mrs. White at the home of the Misses Northey on Jackson street. It was a pleasant occasion and Mr. and Mrs. White received a number of pretty and useful articles.

REV. A. D. MCKAY RESIGNS.

Has Accepted a Call to Mt. Pleasant, Iowa—Pastor Here Over Six Years.

Rev. A. D. McKay, who has been pastor of the Presbyterian church in this place six years and a half, tendered his resignation at the evening service last Sunday as pastor of the church. The resignation takes effect November 21st.

Rev. McKay has accepted a call to the pastorate of a Presbyterian church at Mt. Pleasant, Iowa. It is a county seat town of about 5,000 population; a very pretty and wealthy place with exceptional educational advantages, being a college town. There is not a saloon in the town. The last two pastors of the Mt. Pleasant Presbyterian church each served that church nineteen years.

Rev. McKay, who is a Scotchman by birth, is a scholarly man, an able preacher and a hard worker.

Mrs. McKay is a very bright woman, a good talker, and can deliver an able address. Some years ago she was engaged in mission work in large cities.

Rev. and Mrs. McKay have a large circle of friends in Reynoldsville who will be very sorry to see them move away from this place.

"GIBSON FAMILY REUNION."

Preparations Under Way For Big Event in Reynolds Opera House Nov. 12.

Some time ago the Presbyterian ladies decided to have such an occasion and the event will take place the night of Friday, Nov. 12, in the Reynolds Opera House. The training and drilling for the comedy will be started in earnest Wednesday evening. There will be a large number of participants, and many of the local stage favorites will be seen in the cast.

This two-act musical comedy was written by Annie Sara Book, of the Book Entertainment Co., a West Virginian, who has made the drilling and producing of home talent plays a specialty—this play has been her biggest and most successful.

One of the big features in "The Family Reunion" is the children's chorus by 100 little girls and boys between the ages of three and nine years. It is said to be one of the prettiest and cutest ever. There will be another children's chorus and six young men and young ladies' choruses. All of these are the latest, catchiest song productions and are presented in a beautiful and attractive manner.

Three Hundred Rabbits.

Rabbit hunting season opened Monday and we don't believe the number is too high when we say that at least three hundred rabbits were killed and brought into town that day. Four hunters brought in forty rabbits, three others brought in thirty-seven, three other hunters brought in twenty-one, and a number of other hunters brought in five to ten rabbits apiece.

Hallowe'en.

As hallowe'en fell on Sunday night this year and there was no special night set for celebrating it and no arrangements made for a big demonstration, yet the boys and girls had considerable sport parading the street in grotesque uniforms. They began it Friday night and some of them were keeping it up last night.

An Overdose of Medicine.

A little Polish girl died near Sykesville last Wednesday from an overdose of medicine. The directions were written plainly, "one half teaspoonful every two or three hours." The mother, who could not read, gave her daughter two teaspoonful every hour. The third dose killed the child.

Chickens Roasted Alive.

About one o'clock Sunday morning a chicken coop, owned by Frank Murray, who resides in Paradise, was burned and some of the finest chickens in the county were roasted. The origin of the fire is a mystery, but Mr. Murray is inclined to think that some person stole over half the chickens—there were over ninety in the coop—and then set the coop on fire and burned the balance of the chickens to cover up the thievery. The skeletons of forty chickens were found in the ashes.

Two Rabbits at One Shot.

Dr. A. J. Meek, pastor of the First Baptist church, was one of the many hunters who hied to the woods on Monday and he accomplished a stunt that perhaps no other hunter in this section did, he killed two rabbits at one shot. He just saw one rabbit when he pulled the trigger, but when he went to get bunny he found two of them kicking in the death struggle.
