He was given a call to the pastorate of that church, but having committed himself to accept the call to Mt. Pleasant church he could not consider the Wellsville call.

The opera house was packed soon after the doors were opened and a large number of people were turned away, as there was not even standing room. By request the drama was repeated Saturday evening and there was a large attendance the second night. It was a good home talent entertainment. The drama was interspersed with pretty choruses and catchy music. All who took part did nicely and the audiences were well pleased with the entertainment.

Catholic Church Gutted.

The St. Catherine's Roman Catholic church, an imposing and costly edifice of DuBois, was gutted by fire last Wednesday evening and the damage is estimated at about $50,000. The fire broke out shortly after seven o'clock. The origin of the fire is unknown. The church was built in 1892 and since that time many expensive alterations and repairs were made so that the cost of the structure was placed at about $150,000. The basement of the church is being fitted up for a temporary place of worship for the congregation. Father B. McGivney, who has been pastor of St. Catherine's congregation over twenty years, was in Erie the night the fire flared destroyed the church, he had labored so hard and faithfully to build. It is stated that the church will be repaired and will be re-furnished on a more beautiful scale than before the fire.

MRS. ARCHIBALD McDONALD

Died at Her Home in Wishaw Thursday—Tuberculosis Was Cause of Death.

Mrs. Margaret B. McDonald, wife of Archibald McDonald, postmaster and merchant of Wishaw, died at 1.40 p. m. Thursday, November 11, 1909. Tuberculosis was cause of her death. Her parents moved to Eleanora when she was a child. She was united in marriage to Archibald McDonald February 2, 1900. Six children were born unto them, four sons and two daughters. The daughters are both dead.

Mrs. McDonald was a member of the Cumberland Presbyterian church. She was a good wife and mother and an excellent woman.

BOROUGH ORDINANCE.

Prohibiting Throwing Paper on the Sts.—Burgess Will Enforce It.

There is a borough ordinance prohibiting the throwing of paper of any kind on any of the streets of Reynoldsville, and yet people thoughtlessly throw paper on the streets. Last week three DuBois merchants sent men to Reynoldsville to distribute large bills and they were scattered promiscuously on various streets. Mayor Williams has decided to put a stop to littering the streets with bills and has instructed the police to pick up persons distributing bills and bring them before him. Monday another DuBois man was in town with a bunch of big bills and he felt indignant because he was taken before the mayor. The man was granted the privilege, without paying for same, to distribute the bills providing he would be sure to get them into the houses, but was warned that if the bills were scattered on the streets he would be arrested and fined. We understand that in DuBois and several other towns in this section outsiders must get all bills distributed by the bill posters of these towns and he is held responsible for bills being scattered on the streets

Child Had Fingers Amputated.

One finger was cut entirely off and the other was hanging by a little piece of skin. The doctor sewed the finger on and is trying to save it.

Trade at Home.

The following from a DuBois paper is applicable to Reynoldsville: "Trading at home is advice worth following, is the belief of most citizens. No person can be blamed for buying abroad that which he cannot obtain here, but the habit of purchasing groceries, clothing, furs and other common stock articles from jobbing houses or retail concerns away from home sends money where it never comes back, and as a usual thing the purchaser is not greatly benefitted. Our merchants have very complete and satisfactory stock, and they are hoping that people here will contract the "buy at home" habit. There is nothing like protection of home industries, and this is a good way to put the principle into practice."

Why Not An Evening Service.

While we are aware that it is customary to hold the annual thanksgiving services in the morning, yet we believe that many a housewife, and for that matter, many a man, would attend these services, who are not in the habit of doing so, were the service held in the evening. Take the average housewife, she has no hired girl to prepare the Thanksgiving dinner and consequently she is obliged to remain at her home, whereas if the services were held in the evening she would have an opportunity of attending.
