

Work and Cash Road Tax.

I would like to have a word to say in regard to the proposition of paying the road tax in cash or in work. It seems to me that some people err in their idea that it must be either all cash or all work.

Under the old law, where we had but two supervisors, we were not allowed to levy a cash tax unless a debt had been created before hand, and still held good under the act of 1905. The act of 1909 does not say anything in regard to the two former acts on this subject, and as the act of 1909 does not apply to the building of state roads, we do not need to have any fear from that source. That tax can be levied the same as before.

And again, if we should vote for an all work tax, then, according to what they would have us to believe, we would not be allowed to pay our road tax in cash if we wanted to.

Now if that be the case, how would they collect the tax if a taxable would not work on the road and they could not accept in cash?

All vote for work.

A WORKING MAN.

Everybody was charmed beyond expression at the grand concert given Thursday evening by The Italian Boys, under the auspices of the Shakespeare Club. The hearty applause, which was bestowed upon the musicians, was alike bestowed upon the reader, Elbert Poland, who gained instant popularity with our people before he had finished his first number. The five musicians, typical sons of "Sunny Italy" where music is inborn, gave a number of selections rendered with the soul and spirit of true artists. The National Medley, the airs from Martha, in brief all the numbers, will haunt the ear of the Celina public with their entrancing strains. The Shakespeare Course as a whole has been a splendid series of entertainments, but the concert Thursday night was beyond all odds the crowning number.—Celina, Ohio. At Assembly hall, Wednesday evening, Feb. 16.

Increase Apple Product

There is no reason why the orchards of this county should not be made to bear finely developed fruit and in quantities that will pay the farmer abundantly. A large amount of apples is shipped into this section every season and fancy prices are paid, whereas the fruit could be raised right at home, benefitting the consumer and giving good return to the raiser. This fact has been demonstrated by Robert Fugate, who lives near London Mines. Mr. Fugate has given close attention to his orchard and has a large yield every year. He recently stated that there were no climatic reasons why this section should not be a shipper of apples and other fruit instead of an importer.

Poverty should be avoided for the reason that it deprives us of many opportunities to do good, multiplies temptations to evil, and intimates the spirit of enterprise. It is every man's duty to get something ahead, that he may meet adversity with something in his pocket. But if he gets it otherwise than honestly it will lead him into more humiliating complications than those he sought to avoid.—Punxsutawney Spirit.

IX.—The Foxy Shoe Dealer

THIS is the shoe man who found in his hand the bill that went round 'Mong all the people who advertised. He hired a man whose work he prized and paid him with the jeweler's bill. From the hardware merchant's till, Where it went when the clothing dealer bought From the furniture man, which the clothier got When to him the dry goods merchant went With the bill the butcher wisely spent When his friend the grocer had settlement made With cash the honest workman paid.

MORAL.

The little story we've told is meant To show you clearly that money spent At home will help us all and then Return to the owner to spend again— That is, if dealers are also wise And do not fail to advertise.

Swallowed and Climbed.

A woman newly rich was invited to an aristocratic dinner party. During the course of fowl and salad this woman noticed with dismay a fat, furry caterpillar on her topmost leaf of lettuce. Glancing up, she met her aristocratic hostess' eye. The hostess, too, had seen the caterpillar. Her gaze implored the guest to save the dinner from catastrophe. The guest gave her hostess a reassuring smile. Then she doubled a lettuce leaf around the caterpillar and swallowed it calmly. The look of awe and gratitude that her hostess gave her was an assurance that her footing in society was at last firmly established.

"Did you think," said Mrs. Newly-rich to her daughter afterward, "that I'd lose a chance of establishing the family socially for a little thing like a caterpillar?"

Spanish Surnames.

In addition to three or four Christian names the Spanish child bears the combined family names of his father and mother. When the surnames are doubled or connected by the y, meaning "and," the first is the more important one and the only one that may be taken alone, for it is in the father's name, while the last is in the name of the mother. In Spain they know no "senior" and "junior." Father and son may bear the same Christian name, but each takes his own mother's name as a distinction, the father being, for instance, Pedro Diaz y Castillo and the son Pedro Diaz y Blanco.

Every Accommodation Consistent with Careful Banking

For Most People It Is Easier to Earn Money than to Save It.

But your earning ability will not continue indefinitely, and it is therefore important to save while you can. Make it a rule to deposit in this strong bank regular installments of your wages. This will provide you with an income when earning money is not so easy and for emergencies like sickness and bereavement.

THE CITIZENS NATIONAL BANK

Do your banking with a bank that will pay you a liberal rate of interest compounded twice a year and allow you to withdraw same on demand—no notice required. You may deposit any amount and at any time. We will do this. And no worry.
