

School Notes.

Our school visitors for the past week include Mr. Evans, Mrs. Katzen, Mr. Lively and Mr. Wilson, of the Brookville public schools, and County Superintendent L. M. Jones.

The records show no case of tardiness in the high school for last week, though it is known that several pupils were late and went home without reporting for classes.

The following grade schools were perfect in punctuality last week: 1, 2, 4, 6, 8, 11, 12, 124.

Italian Boys on Wednesday evening.

Prof. Rife attended the local institute at Big Run Saturday afternoon.

Patrons' Day on Friday. Every patron and especially every parent, should come out to visit the schools, to meet the teachers, and to observe the children's progress in their studies.

Surprise Party Last Night.

Yesterday was Mrs. William Copping's 70th birthday anniversary and the occasion was celebrated with a large birthday surprise party last night. The guests assembled at residence of Mr. and Mrs. James A. Tyson and marched into the Copping home all at one time, giving Mrs. Copping a complete, but very agreeable, surprise.

Entertained in Reynoldsville.

Mr. and Mrs. L. J. McEntire, of Reynoldsville, entertained about forty of their DuBois friends Saturday afternoon and evening. The DuBois people left here at 3 o'clock in two big sleighs and arrived at Reynoldsville shortly before 5 o'clock.

Miss Jane Smith entertained twenty young friends at a "Heart Drop In" at her home on Hill street last Friday night. Progressive games were played. Refreshments served.

An Interesting Meeting.

The weekly meeting of the Utopia Society was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. Alex Stoke on Grant street Monday afternoon, which was a very pleasant and interesting meeting. Each Utopia lady invited a lady friend and there were thirty-five ladies present.

Blood Poisoning Caused Death.

Mention was made in THE STAR last week that J. D. Vandervort had been called to Leechburg on 8th instant on account of the critical illness of his brother, J. L. C. Vandervort, who was suffering from blood poisoning. The brother died before J. D. arrived in Leechburg.

Little Cherub Gone.

Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Cashman and daughter Bernice, of Haileybury, Ontario, came to Reynoldsville to spend the holidays at home of Mrs. Cashman's father, Daniel Nolan. Soon after coming here the little daughter became ill with stomach or intestine trouble.

The Monarchs of Melody.

The Alhambra Minstrel Company, to appear at the Family Theatre on Feb. 22, 23 and 24, are without doubt one of the best minstrel companies on the road to-day. The splendid galaxy of artists now with this company are without a peer in their respective line, and anyone not seeing this great production will miss something out of the ordinary in minstrelsy.

ELECTROCUTED AT ELEANORA.

John Bell Motherwell, a Tracklayer in the Mines, the Unfortunate Victim.

John Bell Motherwell, oldest son of Mrs. Alice Motherwell, of Reynoldsville, and grandson of John H. Bell, of Punxsutawney, formerly of this place, was electrocuted in the Eleanora mines at 9.45 Saturday night.

Deceased was a married man and resided at Eleanora, but the body was brought to home of the mother on Thirtieth street, Reynoldsville, where funeral service was held at 2.00 p. m. yesterday, conducted by Dr. A. J. Meek, pastor of the Baptist church, and interment was made in the Reynoldsville cemetery beside the father, David Motherwell, who died in March, 1908, two years ago next month.

John B. Motherwell was born in West Virginia January 8, 1883, and was 27 years old last month. His parents moved to Reynoldsville when he was ten years old. December 19, 1905, John Motherwell and Miss Sadie Ellenberger, daughter of William Ellenberger, of Worth street, were united in marriage.

John Motherwell was an industrious young man, with many friends, and his sudden death was not only a shock to his wife and mother, but also to his friends.

AN AGED LADY DEAD.

Mrs. Elizabeth Miles Died at Home of Her Stepdaughter, Mrs. David Reynolds.

Mrs. Elizabeth Miles, widow of Rev. Samuel Miles, died at the home of her stepdaughter, Mrs. David Reynolds, on Mabel street, at 5.30 a. m. on Sunday, February 13, 1910. Funeral service was held at the Reynolds residence at 7.30 Monday evening and the body was taken to Ansonville, Clearfield Co., on the early train yesterday morning where interment was made beside husband of deceased, who died fifteen years ago.

Deceased was born in Huntington Co., Pa., March 11, 1821, and would have been 89 years old had she lived until 14th of next month. Her maiden name was Elizabeth Robinson. Was united in marriage to Rev. Samuel Miles at Curwensville, Pa., July 4, 1867. For six years Rev. Miles was pastor of the Prescottville Baptist church, moving from Prescottville to Ansonville thirty-seven years ago, and during their residence at Prescottville a number of the old inhabitants of this place became acquainted with Mrs. Miles and held her in high esteem.

Mrs. Miles had been an invalid, entirely helpless, for ten years. Three years ago Monday she came to home of her stepdaughter and remained there until the Death Angel called her to the Celestial City.

Master of the Situation.

Mr. Poland is always master of the situation. He has nothing of the stager's elocutionist about him. He most naturally portrays the characters, and charms his hearers with his easy manner and expression. Words are almost unnecessary with him. One could watch his face and guess what he was going to say.—Harrisonville (Mo.) Leader.—At Assembly hall to-night, Feb. 16.

Lost Leg on Railroad.

Word was received here last evening that Robert Hartman, son of George Hartman, brakeman on Pennsylvania railroad, fell under a train at Phillipsport and had one of his legs cut off. Robert, who is a Reynoldsville young man, had only been in the employ of the P. R. R. two weeks. His many friends here were sorry to hear of the accident.

Annual Elections Hereafter.

Yesterday was the last time electors of Pennsylvania will have the privilege of voting at a spring election. Under the provisions of the constitutional amendments, adopted at the last November election, spring elections are abolished and in the future there will be but one annual election, which will be held in November.

Card of Thanks.

We desire to thank our kind friends who so kindly assisted us during the illness and after the death of our dear husband and father.

MRS. G. M. HENRY AND SONS.

Coming—Alhambra Minstrels.

The Alhambra minstrels at the Family Theatre will be the hit of the year.

Judge John W. Reed, of Brookville, held court for Judge Holt in Beaver county last week.

AN INVALID FIFTEEN YEARS.

Mrs. J. B. Ross Passed From Earthly Scenes in a Gentle Sleep.

At 10.5 a. m. Monday, February 14, 1910 Mrs. John B. Ross passed out of this life as peacefully as a baby falls to sleep on its mother's bosom. Although Mrs. Ross had been an invalid fifteen years, yet her death came unexpectedly, as she seemed to be a little better than usual Sunday. Between twelve and one o'clock Sunday night she had slight stroke of paralysis—which was the third stroke—and she fell asleep and never awakened in this life again.

Martha Davis was born in Cambria county, Pa., September 7, 1839 and was 70 years, 5 months and 6 days old at time of death. December 19, 1872, was united in marriage to John B. Ross at Altoona, Pa. Mr. and Mrs. Ross moved to Reynoldsville in November, 1877, and ever after resided here.

Twenty-five years ago, when her husband united with the M. E. church, Mrs. Ross transferred her membership from the Baptist to the Methodist church. Unto Mr. and Mrs. Ross five children were born, two of whom died in infancy. Three daughters, with the husband and father, survive the mother.

Miss Elsie Ross left home last November for the missionary field in India, and while the mother was sorry to see her go, as she felt sure she would never see Elsie again in this life, yet she did not oppose her going, but the daughter went to the great work with a mother's blessings and prayers.

Funeral service will be held at the family residence on Worth street at 2.00 p. m. to-day, conducted by Rev. John F. Black, and interment will be made in the Reynoldsville cemetery.

New Coal Route.

According to the Johnstown Press the Johnstown railroad will be used for hauling coal from Reynoldsville to Olean, thence to Buffalo, this coal heretofore having been taken around by way of Driftwood. From the information at hand, it is learned that the handling of this coal will require eight train crews, four from the Low Grade division and the other four from this end of the line. The coal will be hauled through Johnstown via R. & C. and will be taken on to Olean over the J. R. R. At Olean the coal will be delivered back to the division that is now completing the haul to Buffalo.

District Convention.

Twenty-five delegates attended the Sunday school district convention held in the First Baptist church at this place yesterday. There were three sessions. W. G. Harris, district president, presided. A good program was carried out. The convention was interesting for all who attended, especially Sunday school workers.

Generous Recognition.

In recognition of the good work which the Business Men's Association is doing for Reynoldsville, J. Owen Edolbute, proprietor of the National Hotel, has generously tendered to the organization permission to use the parlor of his hostelry for association or committee meetings at any time. At the last meeting a vote of thanks was given Mr. Edolbute for his courteous offer.
