The * Star.

Bubscription $1.00 per year in advance CA. STEPHENSON, Editor and Pub. WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 23, 1909.

Entered at the postoffice at Reynoldsville SUMMERVILLE PELEPHONE NO. 61.

WALL PAPER

The latest features in wall paper; decoration are shown in the pretty effects in our new patterns opening up daily.

They are exquisite in pattern and the colorings are elegantly blended. Nothing like them anywhere else.

Stoke & Feicht Drug Co.,

REYNOLDSVILLE, PENNA.

A Little of Everuthing.

Three more weeks of woodchuck

Philadelphia is not a "City of Brotherly Love" now.

Eighteen degrees below zero last Saturday morning.

Yesterday was a legal holiday-Washington's birthday.

Bee Keepers' convention will be held at Summerville to-morrow, February

A. H. King, of Erie, is the auctioneer at Millirens this week. Mr. King is a good auctioneer.

Prof. Dickey, a music teacher, will play the pipe organ in the M. E. church next Sunday evening.

The carrier on rural route 4 says that about twenty-five robins have spent the winter in a patch of woods on his route.

The fifth and last number on the high school lecture course will be a lecture by Senator Robert L. Taylor March 15.

Dr. Russel! A. McKinley, new pastor of the Presbyterian church, will preach in that church next Sunday morning and evening.

George R. Timblin, of Gastown, Armstrong Co., spent Sunday with his nephew, Lawyer G. M. McDonald, in this place.

It is reported by one who has been keeping a record that including to-day we have had seventy days of continuous sleighing. Rev. John F. Black, pastor of the M. E. church, gave an illustrated lecture in Assembly hall last night on the battle of Gettysburg. Three legal holidays-Lincoln's birthday, election day, Washington's birthday-and four Sundays only gave the banks twenty-one business days this month. Members of the Woman's Relief Corps of this place will go to DuBois on the two o'clock trolley this afternoon, where they will be guests of Mrs.

Nolf and her daughter. D. H. Howell, of Chautauqua, N. Y., who is out in the interest of Chantan qua, spent several hours with Rev. John F. Black at the M. E. parsonage in this place yesterday. Harvey S. Deter, of this place, was at North Point, Indiana Co., yesterday where he delivered an address in the afternoon at a flag presentation to the North Point public schools. Miss Frances Sayers, who has been clerking in C. R. Hall's furniture store several years, has resigned her position, to take effect March 1st. Dame Rumor says Miss Sayers will be married in the pear future. "The Religion of the Colonies," was the subject given to the junior classes in the public schools of Jefferson county by the Daughters of the American volution for the annual prize essay. The decision of the judges will be given this week.

Dr. J. George Becht, principal of the Clarion State Normal, was to have d an address in the Assembly hall last Friday afternoon, but on acsount of the railroad from Clarion to merville being tied up with snow, he falled to get here.

Mr. and Mrs. G., T., Woodford and two daughters, 'Misses Anna and Inez, were in DuBois, last evening attending a birthday party given for Mrs. Wood-ford's mother, Mrs. A. V. [Proctor, who was 78 years old yesterday.

OMrs. J. W.: Gillespie and Mrs. H. Alex Stoke received a telegram Monday announcing the death of an aunt, Mrs. George N. Allen, at Warren, Ohio, who died suddenly Sunday night. Both ladies left here this morning for Warren to attend the funeral.

The young people of the town are invited to the home of A. T. McCiure on Main street Thursday evening from 8 to 10 to form a temperance organization for the young people. A short program will be rendered and light refreshments served.

Friday was parents' and patrons' day in the public schools of Jefferson county. A large number of parents and friends visited the schools in this place that day. At 3.00 p. m. the primary grades-first to fourth-rendered a program of song in Assembly hall.

John H. Wagner and wife, A. M. Smith and wife, Mrs. Flora Jones and daughter, Maybell, were at Worthville Monday attending the funeral of a little reice, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Dinger, of Horatio, who died Friday. The child was about one year and six months old.

C. N. McPherson, of Pedro Meguil Canal Zone, Panama, son-in-law of J. J. Smith, of Pleasant Avenue, is visiting in town. When Mr. McPherson left Panama the first of February the thermometer registered 90 degrees in the shade. Mr. McPherson will sail again for Panama the 7th of March.

George H. Smail, Granger of Cool Spring, who was a candidate two years ago for the Republican nomination for Assembly, was in town last week and made THE STAR office a call. Mr. Smail will be a candidate again this year for Assembly. George is all right and would make a good representative.

Dr. J. A. Haven, of Brookville, was in town yesterday on business. He is one of the salt of the earth and is the telephone magnate of that section of the state, he having projected and promoted most all the lines in Jefferson and Clarion and adjoining counties in that section of the state.-Clearfield Spirit.

Cyrus Cramer, of Sagamore, and Miss Emma Johnston, of Eleanora, were united in the bonds of matrimony Saturday evening, February 19th, by Squire Perry B. Love at his office in Reynoldsviile. This was the first nuptial knot tied by 'Squire Love since recerving his commission as a justice of

M. V. Gray, who was badly injured in a trolley collision near Greensburg, Pa., Christmas, and who was in the hospital a couple of weeks, returned to Greensburg Saturday, having been at home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Gray, over a month. Mr. Gray has not been able to work since he was injured.

Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Hall and Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Edelblute, of this place, attended a parquet at the Commercial Hotel in Brookville last Friday night given by Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Wayne Cook in honor of the Brookville Chapter Daughters of American Revolution. rs. Hall and Mrs. Edelblute also at tended a party in Brookville Friday afternoon.

The world has little time for the boy who thinks himself too smart or important to assist his mother with her work or to be kind and obedient to her wishes. On the other hand the hands is an honest and upright young man, of all men and all women are ready to help the young man who is smart enough to help his mother and who is not ashamed of his mother anywhere or at any time.-Clearfield Spirit.

County superintendents and supervising officers in their examinations and tests are laying special stress on things pertaining to methods and to school administration and organization. To meet these demands the Clarion State Normal School will give a special course to prospective teachers in these subjects as well as in the matter of academic branches. J. George Becht.

Walter Calderwood, aged nine years, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Calderwood, of Kane, and nephew of Mrs. J. B. Neale, of Reynoldsville, had his left leg crushed almost to hip under a freight train at Kane Saturday forenoon. The boy was taken to Kane hospital and the leg was amputated just below the hip joint. It is not known just how the accident occurred. He was either walking along the track and slipped under train or tried to cross the railroad track and was caught. The Pennsylvania Railroad Company has recenty adopted new rules as a guide to their employes in the matter of running trains and general operations in railroad business. Among the rules is one that requires that all persons engaged as passenger conductors or trainmen on passenger trains, station agents at both passenger and freight stations, shall abstain from the use of tobacco while engaged at their work. This rule applies to chewing as well as smoking and is done for the general cleanliness about passenger service.

Fell and Fractured Hip.

Mrs. Joseph Reed, an aged lady of Railroad street, fell on by pavement Monday and fractured her right hip.

More Machinery Installed.

Work at the steel plant is progress ing nicely. A new steam hammer and a large air compressor have been installed in the plant. Six new men were added to the working force yesterday morning.

Summerville 'Phone Installed Again,

A Summerville telephone has been installed in the Pennsylvania railroad station at this place again. This will be a great accommodation to a large number of business men in Reynoldsville and farmers on the Paradise line.

The Grand Pool Room Moved.

Thomas E. Evans bought The Grand Pool Room last week and will move the tables from the I. O. O. F. building to his own building, next to I. O. O. F. building. Mr. Evans expects to fix up the basement of his building in the spring for bowling alley.

*Running Trains by Telephone.

Since the first of this year the P R R. Co. has been running trains west of Reynoldsville by telephone. In the near future the line east of this place will be completed and then all trains on the Low Grade will be run by telephone instead of telegraph.

Fifty-Five New Members.

Last Sunday morning eleven new members were taken into the Methodist Episcopal church, making fifty-five members that Rev. John F. Black, pastor, has added to the membership of this church since annual conference -last September. There are a number of others who expect to unite with the church.

Big Fire at Brockwayville.

A disasterous fire visited Brockwayville Sunday night, destroying a portion of the best business block of the town. The business places destroyed were the Brockwayville Record office, V. E. Tailor clothing store, Chittester's bowling alleys, W. H. Olmstead's grocery store, Odd Fellows hall. Total oss estimated at about $30 000.

It Was a False Report.

We are glad to state this week that the item published in THE STAR last week that Robert Hartman had lost a leg on the P. R. R. at Phillipston, was not correct It was a false report. Mr. Hartman is not in the employ of the P. R. R. Co. now. He is working at the Adrian Furnace, near Falls Creek. We understand that he railroaded seven days when he fell off a train and promptly quit railroading.

Entertainment and Banquet.

On Friday night of next week, March 1. 1910. Washington Camp No. 268, Patriotic Order Sons of America, will give an entertainment in their hall from 3.00 to 10 00 and at 10.30 a banquet will be served at City Hotel. Invitations have been issued to members of the order. Following is committee that has charge of entertainment and banquet: C. H. Patterson, F. R. Best, D. J. Davis, S. D. Whitmore, H. S. Deter.

New Grocery Store.

Thomas D. Hoon, one of our townsmen, has rented the vacant room in Centennial building at corner of Main and Fourth streets, where he will open a grocery, flour and feed store soon after the first of March. Mr. Hoon with pleasant and genial manner, and there is no doubt but that his numerous friends in Reynoldsville and vicinity will give him liberal patronage. Mr. Hoon was with Robinson ffi Mundorff a number of years and is familiar with the grocery business.

Wedding Anniversary.

February 18, 1875, G. M. Rea and Miss Emma Masters were united in marriage in Clarion county and last Friday was the thirty-fifth anniversary of their wedding. The anniversary was celebrated by the children and their children assembling at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Rea. Dr. A. J. Meek, pastor of the Baptist church was also present. Mr. and Mrs. Res received some nice and useful presents. This couple moved to Winslow township, near Reynoldsville, a number of years ago. They are a highly esteemed couple.

Work Road Tax Carried.

Under the new law that goes into effect March 1st, 1910, all road taxes must be paid in cash, unless the voters of a district vote to continue the work road tax system as under the old law. At the election last week this question: "Shall the system of payment of road taxes by work on the public roads be adopted by, in and for Winslow township," was submitted to the voters of Winslow township and the vote was about ten to one in favor of continuing the work road tax system. The vote will be found in the township election returns published in this issue.

Our spring jackets are in. Bing-Stoke Co.

Golden Wedding.

February 19, 1860. S. M. McDonald and Miss Mary Timblin were united in marriage and last Saturday being the fiftieth anniversary of their wedding day their sons and wives, daughters and husbands, brothers and sisters, uncles and aunts, assembled at the home of Mr. and Mrs. McDonald at Dayton, Armstrong Co., to attend the golden wedding, the guests being confined to the relatives as stated above. There were thirty-one present. It was a very pleasant occasion for the couple who had spent fifty years together and for all others present. Mr. and Mrs. Mc-Donald formerly resided in Porter township Jefferson county. With exception of about four years, this couple spent all their lives in Jefferson county. In 1882 Mr. McDonald was elected as one of the commissioners of this county. He is a man well known throughout the county.

Lawyer G. M. McDonald and wife, of this place, attended the golden wedding.

(Teachers' Local Institute.

Teachers' local institute of Winslow, Reynoldsville and Sykesville districts will be held at Wishaw on Saturday, February 26th. There will be two sessions. Program as follows: MORNING SESSION, 10.00 SHARP.

Economy in the Use of School Supplies,
Emma Hetrick, Mile Calhoun Etta Sykes
Thoroughness in Pupils' Work,
Prof U. E. McLaughlin, Anna Cooper
Ruby Gos-Beautifying the School Grounds and Room,
May Egan, Rose Duniap
Florence Hetrick, W. E. Kunselman
A Standard of School Discipline,
Henry Smith, Ruth Williamson
Prof. W. M. Rife

Mrs. J. E. Kirchartz Dead.

Last Thursday evening Mrs. J. E. Kirchartz, eldest daughter of Mrs. D. W. Riston, of Reynoldsville, and mother of Chas. S. Kirchartz, of Warren, died at her home at Beaver Falls, Pa. Heart trouble was cause of her death. Mrs. Kirchartz's maiden name was Rebecca Riston, familiarly known as "Dot." The family resided in Reynoldsville a number of years ago, and have a large number of warm friends in this place. Mrs. Kirchartz was about 63 years old. She was a noble christian women. Alex Riston went to Beaver Falls Saturday to attend the funeral, which took place Sunday.

Presented Petition.

The petition of laborers for a lower trolley rate from Reynoldsville to nearby mines was presented to the Jeffersen Traction Co. officials at Punxsutawney Thursday by John Reddecliff, representing the Reynoldsville Business Men's Association, and the trolley people bave promised to give the matter immediate attention, with a strong probability of the laborers getting the special rate they desire.

Miners Out on Strike.

Four hundred men in the employ of the Cascade Coal Company at Tyler, Clearfield county, are out on a strike. It is claimed that the scale rate for the work at Tyler is $1 96 and that the company was only paying $1 75. There is considerable rock to contend with nd the men demand the $1.96 rate.

Good Entertainment,

The entertalnment given by the Ital ian Boys and Elbert Foland, reader, elocutionist, &c., in Assembly hall last Wednesday evening was a very enjoyable entertainment. The Italian Boys were good singers and skilled musicians and Mr. Foland proved to be a good entertainer. This was the fourth number on the high school lecture course.

Card of Thanks.

We desire to express our heartfelt thanks to all our neighbors and friends for the kindness shown during the illness and after the death of our wife and mother.

J. B. ROSS AND FAMILY.

Methodist Church.

Services for Sunday, February 27th, 11.00 a. m., theme, "The Runner and His Rest." 7.30 p. m., theme, "The Maintenance of Brotherly Love."

Ladies come in and look over the American Ladies' Tailoring Co.'s spring portfolio. Suits, skirts, jackets and

Alhambra Minstrels at the Family

Our spring jackets are in. Bing-

Theatre Feb. 23rd and 24th. Our line of spring dress goods arrived Tuesday. Bing-Stoke Co. If after breathing Hyomei, the great antiseptic, you are not rid of vile catarrh, Stoke & Feicht Drug Co.

will return your money. Complete outfit $1.00. Extra bottles 50 cents. Our line of spring dress goods arrived Tuesday. Bing-Stoke Co.

A sign of good fitting shoes-Queen Quality for women. $3.00 and $3.50. Adam's.

New percales and ginghams at Bing-

ANOTHER MOTHER GONE.

Mrs. Boss Snyder Died Monday Afternoon From Heart Trouble.

Mrs. Catherine Snyder, wife of S. Boss Snyder, died at her home in West Reynoldsville at 1.45 p. m. Monday, February 1st, 1910, from heart trouble, Mrs. Snyder had milked the cow Monday morning and helped do up the morning work, feeling in usual health until 10.30 a. m. when she became suddenly ill with heart trouble. A physician was called immediately, but his medicine and skill could not save her life. Six weeks before Mrs. Snyder had an attack, which was not nearly so severe as the last one, and the physician told her at that time that her heart was in bad condition. Mrs. Snyder was a kind hearted, gentle and lovable woman. Those who knew her personally esteemed her most highly, therefore, her sudden and unexpected death was a shock, not only to her loved ones, but also to her host of friends. Catherine Swab was born in Clarion county, Pa., September 12, 1840, and was 69 years, 5 months and 9 days old at time of death. January 1st, 1865, forty-nine years ago last month, she was united in marriage to S. B. Snyder. They resided at Emerickville until thirteen years ago when they moved to Reynoldsville. Unto Mr. and Mrs. Snyder nine children were born, eight of whom, with the husband and father, survive the mother. The children are: Mrs. S. C. Bussard, of Smith's Ferry, Ohio, Mrs. Henry J. Mitchell, of Brooklyn, N. Y., Mrs. A. W. Cable, of Emerickville, M. P., J. H. and J. I. Snyder, of Lisbon, Ohio, Henry, Smith's Ferry, Ohio, Catherine at home. Deceased is also survived by one brother and three sisters, Jacob Swab, Mrs. Israel Snyder, Mrs. Jonathan Smith, and Mrs. Franie Beck. For a number of years Mrs. Snyder was a member of the Lutheran church, but eighteen years ago she transferred her church letter to the Methodist Episcopai church at Emerickville.

Arrangements for funeral have not been made positively yet, on account of waiting to hear from the sons and daughters, but the intention is to have a service at the family residence this evening and another service in the Emerickville M. E. church to-morrow afternoon. Rev. John F. Black will conduct the services. Interment will be made at Emerickville.

Be Careful Where You Spit.

Until a number of arrests are made and people fined for spitting on sidewalks and in public places the law passed by the last legislature will not be generally observed. For the benefit of the public we again publish the first section of the law:

Section 1. Be it enacted, etc., That from and after the passage of this act, it shall be unlawful for any person to spit on any public walk, or landing, or on the floor, platform, stairway or ele-Mrs. J. W. Kirkwood, in this place. vator, or covering used thereon, of any railroad or railway station or other building to which the public has access: or on the floor, platform or steps, or any covering used thereon, of any railroad or railway car, or other vehicle, or conveyance, or common carrier used for the transportation of the public.

The Monarchs of Melody

The Albambra Minstrel Compa appear at the Family Theatre on Feb. 22, 23 and 24, are without doubt one of the best minstrel companies on the road to-day. The splendid galaxy of artists now with this company are without a peer in their respective line. and anyone not seeing this great production will miss something out of the ordinary in minstrelsy. Many well known comedians and vocalists have signed exclusive contracts to appear only with the Alhambra Minstrel Co. and a rare treat is in store for those attending this production. The spectacular electrical effects are well worth the price of admission. No expense has been spared to make the Albambra Minstrels the best show on the road this season. At the Family Theatre to-night and to-morrow night.

Writing in Packages.

The fine for concealing writing in packages sent through the mails has been raised from $10.00 to $100.00. Don't put writing in packages mailed as second class matter. It would be expensive if caught at it.

President Murphy of the Central Labor Unfon of Philadelphia has called a general strike of all organized labor in that city in sympathy with the striking street railway employes. If obeyed it would put 100,000 on strike and paralize the business of Philadelphia.

New spring waists for ladies at Bing-

If your stomach is continually kicking up a disturbance; you feel bloated and distressed; if you belch gas and sour food into the mouth, then you need Mi-o-na stomach tablets. Guaranteed by Stoke & Feicht Drug Co., 50c.

The long wearing shoe for the longheaded man-Walk-Overs, $3.50 and $4.00. Adam's Boot Shop.

See the spectacular electrical effects with the Albambra Minstrels, Family Theatre, Feb. 28rd.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS.

Olimpses of the People who are Passing To and Fro.

A. B. Weed was in Oil City this week. Thomas D. Hoon was in Altoona last

Mrs. A. B. Weed visited in Oil City Clyde Cramer, of Detroit, Mich., is visitor in town. Miss Cora Robertson spent Sunday in Brockwayville.

Glenn A. Milliren, of Kane, was la town over Sunday. Miss Mary Norris, of Pittsburgh, visiting in Paradise. Father Lynch was in New Bethlehem the first of this week.

Miss Malissa Sensor visited in DuBols a couple of days this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Adam Kime, of De-Bois, were in town Saturday. Mrs. O. D. O'Dell and daughter virited in New Bethlehem this week. D. E. Armagost and wife are visiting the latter's parents at Kaylor, Pa.

Mrs. Tensh, of Leechburg, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Ross W. Clawges, Miss Nelle Hewitt, of Brockwayville, visited in Reynoldsville the past week.

Harry S. Belnap went to Pittsburgh Saturday to remain four or five weeks. Marion Fergus, of Kennerdell, visited at home of her grandfather, J. M. George Muir, of Pitteburgh, spent Sunday at home of his parents in this

J. R. Milliren and wife visited the former's brother at Curwensville, Pa-

Mrs. Imogene A. Reynolds and Mrs. C. A. Stephenson visited in Brookville

H. O. Gray, of Burner, W. Va., is visiting his brother, O. A. Gray, in this place.

John Broad, of Wandin, Pa., visited his parents in this place the first of this week. Miss Margaret Hunter, of Beech-woods, visited her brothers in this place last week. Miss Jane Hodges, of Rathmel, has gone to the sanitarium at Mont Alto, Pa., for treatment. Miss Nelle Elizabeth Sutter, milliner of New Bethlebem, visited her parents in this place last week.

Miss Clare Procious, of Hawthorne, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Dr. J. C. Sayers, on Main street.

Mrs. Fred Farber and son, Paul, of Falls Creek, spent Saturday with their aunt, Mrs. R. L. Taafe. Mrs. Forrest W. Ressler, of Buffalo, N. Y., is visiting her mother, Mrs. Northey, on Jackson street. Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Lewis, of East Brady, are visiting their daughter, Joseph Feicht, of Carnegie, Pavisited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Feicht, in this place last week. Mrs. Joseph C. Reynolds, of Spencerville, Ohio, is visiting her mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Miles, on Main street. Misses Malissa McAninch, of Brookville, and Etta Neff, of Cumberland, N. Y., visited at home of Grant Rhoads

Charles !Kirchartz, of Warren, Pawho had been at Beaver Falls attending the funeral of his mother, was in Revnoldsville Monday.

Isaac Hay, wife and two children, of DuBois, and Lee Nichols and wife, of Springville, N. Y., were visitors at home of O. D. O'Dell over Sunday.

Miss Clara Eddy, who has been trimmer in Mrs. Miller's millinery store, went to Pittsburgh Monday to accept a position in a large millinery department. Miss Laura Endean, of New Kensingplace, returned home the first of this Misses Nellie Rhoads, Edith Tormey and Leona Reed, of Falls Creek, visited at home of Grant Rhoads Saturday ton, who spent six weeks with her sister, Mrs. Harvey S. Deter, in this evening. Mrs. Madison Ross, of Punxsutawney. and Miss Ella LaPort, of Curwensville, were visitors at home of Mrs. Elizabeth Miles over Sunday.

Miss Sadie Brennan, trimmer, went to Pittsburgh Monday to spend a couple of weeks learning the latest millinery styles. She will trim for Mrs. S. V. Hays.

Mrs. Dr. J. B. Neale went to Kane yesterday on account of the critical condition of her little nephew, Walter Calderwood, who had his left leg cut off on railroad Saturday.

Mrs. S. V. Hays, milliner, went to Pittsburgh Monday to see the latest millinery art for spring and summer. She will visit her daughter, Mrs. Robert Fergus, at Kennerdell, before returning home.

P. W. Cashman, of Halleybury Ontario, who was called here on account of the death of his daughter, Bernice, returned to Haileybury last week. Mrs. Cashman will remain at home of her father, Daniel Nolan, in this place, for