At the mention of Ruberoid Roofing, one often hears such remarks as "Oh yes, Smith has his barn covered with that." But — are you sure it is Ruberoid? Are you sure you know all about the genuine Ruberoid?

The name "RUBEROID" is so well known that when ready-to-lay roofing is spoken of, most people naturally think that it is Ruberoid.

How the "Advocate" Compares in Cost With Other Papers.

The following list of subscription prices of denominational papers of about the same size and grade shows what a marvel of cheapness the Pittsburgh Christian Advocate is:

Pittsburgh Advocate in advance	$1 00
Western Advocate	2 00
Northwestern Advocate	2 00
Presbyterian Banner	2 00
Congregationalist	3 00
New York Observer	3 00
New York Observer otherwise	4 00
The Interior in advance	2 50
The Interior otherwise	3 00
Herald & Presbyter in advance	2 50
The Presbyterian in advance	2 50

Most of the above have increased their rates recently because of increased prices in material and labor. The only change made in the Pittsburgh Christian Advocate is "cash" in advance, rather than an increase in price.

Forced to Leave Home.

Every year a large number of poor sufferers whose lungs are sore and racked with coughs are urged to go to another climate. But this is costly and not always sure. There's a better way. Let Dr. King's New Discovery cure you at home. "It cured me of lung trouble," writes W. R. Nelson, of Calomine, Ark., "when all else failed and I gained 47 pounds in weight. Its surely the king of all cough and lung cures." Thousands owe their lives and health to it. Its positively guaranteed for coughs, colds, lagrippe, asthma, croup—all throat and lung troubles. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free at H. L. McEntire's.

Noah's Anchors.

A story of a pair of anchors is told in the book entitled "To Kairwan the Holy." Kairwan is the Mecca of the west. It is a city so sacred that women are allowed to move about in it but very little. One of the interesting sights is the Mosque of Emir Ben Said Bon Muphtah. This mosque, with its six melon shaped domes, is the tomb of a most amusing old Moslem who died about the middle of the last century. He had great power over the bey and managed affairs according to his own pleasure. This Moslem got possession in Tunis of four large anchors which probably belonged to some old men-of-war abandoned on account of stress of weather. The gentleman with the long name was not content with any such prosaic explanation of their origin. By means of the labor of 500 Arabs he had the anchors dragged from Tunis and deposited in front of his house. The transportation took five months. He then declared them to be the anchors by which Noah fastened the ark to Mount Ararat. The relics are now in the mosque of their former owner and are regarded as holy.

His Rules of Golf.

A lawyer of considerable prominence took up the game of golf. Some of his friends volunteered chapters of advice, while another presented to the beginner a book of rules. After completing his first round the counselor was asked if he had mastered the rules. The perspiring lawyer realized the sarcasm of the remark, but proved equal to the occasion. "The rules? Oh, they are quite simple," he replied. "There are two I know of, and to my mind they are the most important. You must hit the ball with your club, and after you have hit it you must find it, of course, before you hit it again. It will take an honest man several weeks to master these two rules. After driving the ball you must hit it wherever it lies. Good lies are as important in golf as in fishing. Losing a ball costs you two strokes and the price of the ball. Hitting a caddie with the ball is justifiable homicide." —New York Tribune.

An Effort to Console.

"Yes," said Mrs. Flummerton, "my ancestors were among the country's first settlers."

"Well," answered Mrs. Cumrox consolingly, "the social and educational facilities in those days must have been rather crude, but I don't believe in heredity." —Washington Star.

Foolish Question.

"Some one stole every blessed stocking off our line."

"What are blessed stockings?"

"Those which are not darned, of course." —Exchange.
