Last Friday the Kittanning Times, one of the best weekly papers in Armstrong county, completed its 35th year. Hamlin Postlethwait, a fireman on the P. R. R., had his left hand badly burned one day last week while on duty. It is claimed that the heavy frosts on Thursday and Friday nights of last week did much damage to fruit trees in this section. Carl Murray, graduate of the Reynoldsville high school, went to Clarion Monday to become a student in the Clarion State Normal. Samuel Reesler was at Panic Saturday attending a birthday party given in honor of his brother-in-law, R. J. Johns, who is an invalid. Adam Kime, who moved from Reynoldsville to DuBois a few months ago, moved back to Reynoldsville last week into his own house on Mabel street. Several days ago A. C. Flah had a tumor about size of hen egg removed from top of his head. A couple of local physicians performed the operation. Stanley G. Austin is in Erie this week attending the Supreme Circle of the Protected Home Circle as a delegate from the Circle of Reynoldsville. Prof. W. M. Rife and Prof. R. W. Clawges were in DuBois Friday afternoon at the cornerstone laying of the new high school building in that city. "Graumark," the play that attracted so much attention last season in New York and Chicago, will be played at the Adelphi Theatre to-night, May 11. Only the high schools that have nine-month terms are classed in the first grade by the state department. We only have eight-month term and are not in first grade. Prof. W. M. Rife, superintendent of our public schools three years, went to Brockport Monday to attend a commencement and on Tuesday went to Clarion where he will be an instructor in the Clarion State Normal until the latter part of June. A traveling man was coming over the bridge from P. R. R. station Friday evening after the 6.23 train when a marble from a boy's slingshot hit him near left eye, within half inch of hitting him in eye. Too many boys are using the slingshot in town. The pupils of the parochial school in this place are preparing an entertainment to be given in the Adelphi Theatre at the end of the school term. We understand that this entertainment will be of more than ordinary interest and merit for home talent. Ex-Postmaster E. C. Burns had his right hand badly injured the first of last week and Friday he went to Mercy Hospital, Pittsburgh, to have it examined under the X-rays. The X-rays were not used, but the hand was dressed and it is getting better. Rev. Dr. R. A. McKinley will preach at the Presbyterian church next Sunday; in the morning, on "The Love of God for the Whole World of Mankind," and in the evening, on "Light at Evening Time." It will be circulated for signers by W. H. Bell and J. M. Dalley in the next few days. Leonard Wilson, of near Ridgway, who was married to a daughter of Mrs. Ella Fredericks, who died at her home in Reynoldsville in March, and who was here to attend Mrs. Fredericks' funeral, died at his home Saturday, May 7, 1910. About the time Mr. Wilson died his wife gave birth to a son. At the meeting of the Helping Hand Society of the M. Gillespie; treasurer, Mrs. V. R. Pratt. James McCrear, president of the Pennsylvania Railroad system, and other officials of the P. R. R. made a trip over the Low Grade on a special train last Friday. The supposition is that the Low Grade will soon be double-tracked and be part of the P. R. R. trunk line between Chicago and New York. Mr. M. Montgomery, of West Reynoldsville, a passenger engineer on the Low Grade Division of the P. R. R., left here Monday for Detroit, Mich., to attend the convention of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers as a delegate. It is possible that the convention will not adjourn until the last of May. Some of our exchanges are offering a prize of one year's subscription to the first person in their respective towns who guesses the nearest to the population of their town according to the census now being taken. If the aforesaid exchanges look up the postal laws they will discover that they are making themselves liable for a heavy fine and imprisonment. The Brookwayville Record office was destroyed by fire on the night of March 24th and during April the paper was printed in the office of the DuBois Express, until a new office could be equipped in Brookwayville. Last week's issue of The Record was published in the new office. It is a bright, spicy newspaper and we wish The Record the success it deserves. She gave bail before a justice in Sykesville for her appearance at next term of court. Will Scott, son of L. W. Mr. Hughes and Miss Johnston were two of the six students selected to deliver the commencement orations. Squire Perry B. Love. By an oversight last week we failed to make mention of the fact that Squire Perry B. Squire had been appointed to fill the unexpired term of Squire Harry Martin and is not a new man in this official capacity. Sixty-Five Chicks Cremated. HARTH-DAVIS NUPTIALS. Miss Elizabeth Davis and Mr. J. N. Harth United in Marriage. At the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Davis, on Grant street, at 10:30 a. m., May 5, 1910, their handsome and accomplished daughter, Miss Elizabeth Davis, was united in marriage to Mr. J. N. Harth, of Syracuse, N. Y. Dr. A. J. Meek, pastor of the First Baptist church, performed the wedding ceremony. Only a few immediate relatives were present. A wedding dinner was served and Mr. and Mrs. Harth left here on the 11:42 a. m. eastbound train on the P. R. R. on a wedding trip to Philadelphia, New York and Boston. They will reside in Syracuse, where Mr. Harth is engaged in the drug business. The wedding was quite a surprise to a large number of the bride's friends in this place. Isaac Newton Carl, a coal miner who resided with his mother, Mrs. Diana Dickey, in Reynoldsville, was killed in the Maplewood mines near Rathmel about nine o'clock Saturday forenoon by a fall of coal. He had fired a shot, the coal did not fall and Mr. Carl was loading some slack when the coal fell and he was crushed between the car and large piece of coal. He lived about twenty minutes. Deceased was about 52 years old. He was a single man. He had worked in the mines for a number of years. Funeral was held at the family residence at 1:30 p. m. Monday, conducted by Dr. A. J. Meek, and interment was made in the Baptist cemetery. It is remarkably strange how five members of this family of Carls have met death. Not one member of the family has died in bed, but all met sudden deaths. The father was killed in the army, one son was helping to load a car of slate and a large piece fell off car and hit him on head and killed him instantly, another one was killed by a falling tree, a daughter was burned to death and Newton was killed by a fall of coal Saturday. "Graumark" To-Night. "Graumark," or "A Love Behind a Throne," by Geo. Barr McCutcheon, the popular author of "Brewster's Millions," has been made into a thrilling, romantic five-act play, and will be presented here for the first time at the Adelphi Theatre to-night with a notable cast of well known artists, and massive scenic production. In fact, the management guarantees us the same identical company that will be seen in New York and Chicago. As the book has been read by nearly everyone in town, a large audience will probably be in attendance. Seats on sale at Stoke & Feicht Drug Co. store. Married Last Night. Wilson L. Barry and Mrs. Orpha A. Gourley were united in marriage at home of bride on Main street at 8:30 last night by Rev. John F. Black, pastor of the M. E. church. A few relatives were present. RESPECTED CITIZEN DIED. Samuel Milton Johns Dropped Dead at His Home Friday Morning. The many friends of Milton Johns were shocked to learn that he had died suddenly at his home early Friday morning, May 6, 1910. Mr. Johns suffered six months or more with heart trouble and on Friday morning he got up about five o'clock, dressed himself and went down stairs, dropped to floor and expired in a few seconds. Samuel Milton Johns was born in Shippenville, Clarion Co., Pa., April 7, 1853, and was 57 years and 29 days old at time of death. In 1875 he was united in marriage to Miss Sarah Jane Davis, of West Monterey, Pa. Unto them two children were born, one daughter and one son, Mrs. William Tyson, of Reynoldsville, and Earl Johns at home. Deceased is survived by his wife, daughter and son, aged mother, three brothers and four sisters. Mr. Johns was a kind husband, loving father and good neighbor. He had lived in Reynoldsville over twenty-one years, was well liked by a large circle of friends and acquaintances, and will be greatly missed. Funeral service was held at the family residence on Worth street at 2:00 p. m. Sunday, conducted by Dr. A. J. Meek, of the Baptist church, assisted by Rev. John F. Black, of the M. E. church. Interment was made in the Reynoldsville cemetery. Hughes & Fleming had charge of the funeral. The flowers were beautiful. The following out of town relatives and friends attended the funeral: Mrs. Fannie Kribel, of West Monterey; George Johns, Reynolds Johns and son, Harry, Mr. and Mrs. Hardy Sipes, of Kittanning; Mrs. R. Rife was toastmaster and the toasts and toasters were: "Ideals," Prof. E. A. Earle; "Wealth," Rev. John F. Black; "Retrospection," Clyde C. Murray; "Class of 1910 in the World," Charles J. Wisor; "Cheerfulness," Charles Robertson; Impromptu, M. Fred Reed. The toasts were all excellent. Several who were booked for toasts were absent, among the number was W. H. Bell, who was in Ridgway that day. His toast was "To-day and Tomorrow," and the quotation under his toast was "Here to-day and there to-morrow," but it should have been "There to-day and here to-morrow." The committee that had charge of the banquet labored hard to make it a success and they can feel that they succeeded nobly. Death of Mrs. Darling. Mrs. Helen M. Darling, mother of Mrs. V. R.
