Jefferson County Institute Will Be Held In Reynoldsville This Year

Through the Efforts of the Business Men's Association the Coveted Prize is Secured for Reynoldsville; Magnificent Program of Evening Entertainments.

OFFICIAL ANNOUNCEMENT OF SUPT. JONES MADE YESTERDAY

Governor R. B. Glenn, of North Carolina, and Ex-Governor F. W. Hoch, of Kansas, Will Lecture—Hinshaw Grand Opera Company and The International Girls Will Furnish Musical Entertainment—Will be Held December 19-23.

THE TEACHERS' INSTITUTE of Jefferson county will be held in Reynoldsville December 19-23, 1910.

This is the outcome of negotiations carried on for several months past by the Business Men's Association of Reynoldsville with County Superintendent L. M. Jones, of Brookville. To secure the Institute for Reynoldsville the Association entered into a contract with the County Superintendent voluntarily guaranteeing the sale of four hundred course tickets to defray the expenses of the Institute and eliminate the risk incident to breaking over the established precedent of holding this annual event at the county seat. Knowing that the local people have desired to secure the Institute for a dozen years back, the Association had no hesitation in pledging liberal support and believes that when the tickets are placed on sale the people will more than make good the Association's guarantee.

The press of the county has already voiced its wish to have the educational benefits of the Institute more widely distributed over the county and the present action of Superintendent Jones in bringing it to the most accessible town in the county, and holding it in one of the largest and finest theatres in the county, will meet with wide approval.

The announcement of Superintendent Jones, issued from Brookville yesterday, follows:

The county institute for 1910 will be held in the new Adelphi Theatre, Reynoldsville, December 19 to 23. Preliminary arrangements have been completed and there is no reason why the institute should not be one of the very best ever held in the county, both in point of attendance and excellence of instruction and entertainment.

The attraction for Monday night will be the Hinshaw Grand Opera Company. The members of this attraction devote only part of the time to icy work; the remainder of their time being spent in New York City in grand opera. I feel safe in saying that no stronger attraction has ever appeared on an entertainment course.

Tuesday evening Governor R. B. Glenn, of North Carolina, will make his second appearance before a Jefferson county institute. Last year Governor Glenn not only entertained, but all who were so fortunate as to hear him went away with nobler resolves for good. He will have an entirely new lecture this year.

The International Girls, a very high class company of ten girls, representing in appropriate costumes the girls of the various nations, will render a delightful program Wednesday evening.

Thursday evening Ex-Governor E. W. Hoch, of Kansas, will bring to a fitting close so strong a course. Mr. Hoch is not an experiment as a lecturer; he has appeared on most of the great courses in the country one or more times, and all agree that he is a great orator, a born orator with all that can be added by education and experience.

The day instructors already engaged are equally good. Professor J. W. Yoder is one of the best music men in the business. Professor C. P. Zaner, the instructor in penmanship, is the author of the Zaner system of penmanship now used in the county, and a great penmanship teacher. Dr. Charles Calvert Ellis is a man of the Ferris type and will make good the same way as did the great Ferris last year. Others have been partially arranged for and will be announced later.

The conditions were such that I deemed it wise to break a well established precedent and hold this Institute in Reynoldsville; this was done only after mature deliberation, and as the result of a firm conviction that it was the best thing for the institute. Your co-operation and assistance is requested in making this a helpful institute. I am, Respectfully yours,

HAS WIDESPREAD SUPPORT.

Gen. Harry White, Veteran Soldier and Jurist, Popular Candidate.

In a letter published in the Pittsburgh Dispatch on 20th instant Gen. Harry White, of Indiana county, announced his candidacy for the nomination for Congress in the Twenty-seventh district, embracing Armstrong, Jefferson, Clarion and Indiana counties. Following is part of Gen. White's letter:

"I carried the flag for honest money against enormous odds, with great labor and effort throughout the district. This was in greenback fusion days of Western Pennsylvania, and many of those who were then in opposition want me now to go to Washington.

"For years past many people have said to me, 'We want you in Congress.' In 1906, since I left the bench, an influential citizen said to me, have the courage of your youth and be a candidate; so also in 1908. This year these requests were repeated. Being human, I was touched by old friends, saying they wanted to have a chance once more of voting for me for Congress before they died. I refused to allow the final filig of nomination papers until I had some public expression in open meeting from voters that many people desired me to run. This, I thought, was in harmony with the spirit and intent of the uniform primary election laws—a sort of initiative and referendum, that has been adopted by several western states.

"I will not trifle with the people and keep the word of promise to our ear and break to our hope. A very few hitherto so-called Republicans, personal friends, disinterestedly, I hope, say: 'You make a mistake, the organization will be against you.' I said and say if chairman and members of committee will interfere to prevent the Rooseveltian square deal and not allow a fair election and legal voters to decide, then uniform primary election laws and constitutional amendments have been enacted in vain, and I denounce and defy them. But I'll not believe the organization men are anything else than honorable, fair-minded gentlemen.

"Fair minded voters have great power. I have just opened a letter, signed by business men in the upper part of the district, saying: 'We understand you have filed nomination papers for Congress; if so, you will find the best and most influential citizens in this borough and township are at your service without money, without price.'

"My fellow citizens placed my name on the ballot because they wanted it there. It will be more dishonor to take it off without their consent than in a fair election to have it voted down. My name is there, Farragut-like, at the mast. There it will remain until shot away, not by bullets, but unfriendly ballots."

FINDS SON IN GRAVE.

R. S. Porter Identifies His Son by Ax Mark on Ankle.

It was stated in THE STAR last week that the body of a young man was found on a hot cinder dump at Kliskiminetas Junction on Sunday morning, May 15, and that R. S. Porter, of Reynoldsville, thought the dead man was his son, Elmer Porter. Mr. Porter went to Kliskiminetas Junction Tuesday, May 17, and learned there that the body had been taken to Vandergrift and buried on Monday. He went to Vandergrift and had the body exhumed, which was terribly burned, both arms were roasted off and the face and body badly cooked, almost beyond recognition, but by a scar from an ax wound on left leg, below the knee, Mr. Porter made positive identification that it was body of his son. A corduroy cap and coat that was found on body was identified as being cap and coat that Elmer had worn. The cap and coat Mr. Porter brought home with him, but for two reasons the body was not brought to Reynoldsville for burial, lack of sufficient funds and decomposition having already set in, and the body was again lowered into the new made grave and the grave was refilled without delay.

In a note book in a pocket of the coat worn by Elmer Porter was the name of Annie Swartz, of Reynoldsville, and had it not been for this name and address Mr. and Mrs. Porter would never have known what become of their son.

Elmer was a sufferer from epileptic attacks and it is possible that one of them came over him after he had laid down on cinder dump to sleep and that the gas from the cinder dump asphyxiated him. Mr. Porter and family are inclined to think that Elmer was murdered and body thrown on cinder pile. Elmer carried about $200 life insurance.

UNION MEMORIAL SERVICES.

Will be Held in Adelphi Theatre Sunday at Eleven O'clock.

Next Sunday is Memorial Sunday and union memorial services will be held in Adelphi Theatre at 11.00 a. m. It was arranged to hold the services in the Baptist church, but a change has been made and the services will be held in the Adelphi Theatre. Dr. A. J. Meek, pastor of the Baptist church, will preach the sermon. His theme will be "Our Heroes and Our Heritage." Other ministers of town will take part in the services. A chorus choir and orchestra will furnish the music. The G. A. R., Sons of Veterans and W. R. C. will attend in a body. Cordial invitation to a all. A large attendance is expected, but there will seats for all. Don't stay at home. Be patriotic.

Rabies After Nine Months.

The Pittsburgh Gazette-Times yesterday gave an account of the death of Frederick Pelton, who was bitten by a mad dog last September and died in the St. Francis Hospital, Pittsburgh, on Monday. Pelton's wound was cauterized just after dog had bitten him and did not appear to be serious at the time. Tuesday of last week hydrophobia symptoms developed and his condition became so serious that he was taken to the hospital Saturday and died 24 hours later. Some people think hydrophobia should develop in nine days. Here is a case that did not develop until nine months after.

Keith Vaudeville.

This week at the Jefferson Theatre, Punxsutawney theatregoers will have a chance to witness the highest class vaudeville that has ever been shown here at popular prices.

Elmo and his trained dog, "Bob," who does everything but talk. The act played at the Grand in Pittsburgh a short time ago, and made a big hit. Moon & Phillippi, in a comedy sketch and closing with a big act. The Seven Russells, in a high class minstrel show. The management of the Jefferson Theatre is trying to see if Punxsutawney wants good vaudeville at popular prices, and this week's bill is a sure test.—Punxsutawney Spirit.

At Adelphi Theatre, Reynoldsville, on Thursday night, May 26.

At the cemetery the column will halt, open ranks and G. A. R., Sons of Veterans and W. R. C. will march through the line to the unknown grave, where the usual G. A. R. memorial services will be held.

Dr. Russell A. McKinley, pastor of the Presbyterian church, will deliver a short address.

After these services the Sabbath school children will deposit flowers on the graves of the departed soldiers.

JOSEPH SHAFFER, Marshal.

Gen. White is Popular.

According to reports from all parts of this congressional district, the candidacy of Hon. Harry A. White, of Indiana, Pa., for the Republican nomination for congress, is meeting with hearty approval, and it is evident that all the old friends and many new admirers will rally to the support of Judge White in the contest for the nomination. It is very gratifying to the people of the district to know that they have an opportunity of supporting a man whom they may feel sure will serve their best interests, and it is also very gratifying to Mr. White to know that his candidacy is meeting with the enthusiasm it deserves. Judge White is well known to the people of the entire district, and his character and ability is such that all who are interested in sending a man to Washington who may be depended upon to stand up for their best interests will take their coats off and assist in nominating him at the primaries in June.—Brockwayville Record.

Not Sorry for Blunder.

"If my friends hadn't blundered in thinking I was a doomed victim of consumption, I might not be alive now," writes D. T. Sanders, of Harrodsburg, Ky., "but for years they saw every attempt to cure a lung-racking cough fail. At last I tried Dr. King's New Discovery. The effect was wonderful. It soon stopped the cough and I am now in better health than I have had for years. This wonderful life-saver is an unrivaled remedy for coughs, colds, lagrippe, asthma, croup, hemorrhages, whooping cough or weak lungs. 50c, $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by Stoke & Feicht Drug Co.

Seth Milliren

Killed In Mines

Former Resident Of Reynoldsville; Body was Buried In Beulah Cemetery.

Seth Milliren, a resident of Edgemont, and a well known miner of this vicinity for some years back, was killed instantly by a fall of coal in the Johnson & Kearns mines, between DuBois and Falls Creek on Saturday morning, the accident being the first fatality to occur in this opening.

Mr. Milliren, with Harrison Salida, was working in a room and about 10 o'clock Mr. Salida stepped outside while Milliren stood in the middle of the room. Without a warning of any kind the roof let go and tons of rock fell upon him, crushing him to earth and killing him instantly. Salida was attracted by the noise and seeing the fall immediately gave the alarm, which resulted in the miners of the workings rushing to the rescue of their pinioned companion.

It took some little time before they were able to get to the crushed body of the victim and life was extinct. The remains were removed to the home at Edgemont Park and prepared for burial by Undertaker Luther.

The deceased was 42 years of age and is survived by his wife, seven children, of whom the oldest is 18 years of age, one brother, Perry Milliren, of Pifer street, and two sisters, Mrs. Van Lew and Mrs. Oscar Oleson, all residing in DuBois.—DuBois Courier.

Some years ago Mr. Milliren resided in Reynoldsville and was known by a number of our citizens.

Funeral services were held at the family residence in DuBois Monday at 1.00 p. m. and interment was made in Beulah cemetery, Reynoldsville.
